

SHEETS "ROASTED."

A Petition May Be Circulated For His Removal From the Force.

Detective George Sheets received an unusual "roasting" in Saturday's issue of the Cian Plain Dealer, edited by W. W. Taylor. The cause for this "roast" grew out of the arrest by Sheets of Thomas T. Turner, the criminal man recently tried for criminal assault.

The paper referred to alleges that Sheets abused Mr. Turner while at rest, and that the detective says he did nothing of the kind. After extensive detective at some length, the Plain Dealer concludes:

"In view of the above mentioned facts, it is reasonable to believe and fair to assert that George Sheets is an unscrupulous, dishonest, and unmanly member of the police force, and that he would not be a fit member of any honest and law-abiding city, and that prevention such a disgraceful and unprincipled and lawless individual as George Sheets, who is believed to be an expert in the business of robbing men, should be removed from the police department of Salt Lake City."

Details at the police station sayed a good deal when George received his first trial before the people's committee, and all the Amherst Park Opera house on Thursday, the 2d, commanding at 1 o'clock p.m., will be carried out, will wound up one of the best times enjoyed in the town.

The committee having the matter in hand will write the people's very best, and the public will be invited to sit with the committee at 10 o'clock p.m., J. D. Wesley, N. P. Larson, J. W. Hilday, Miss Weston, J. W. Driggs, Emily, Lydia, Agnes, Annie Larsen, and O. V. Driggs.
