SUDDEN DEATH

FROM APOPLEXY.

James Marburger Summoned Without Warning While Sitting In His Home.

VERDICT OF CORONER'S JURY

Decide That Miss Josephine Moyes Committed Suicide by Poisoning.

Ogden, Nov. 8.—James Marburger, a well known railroad bridge carpenter, dropped dead last evening at his home on Capital avenue from apoplexy, aged 45 years. Mr. Marburger had returned home from his day's work and was apparently in his good health and sat by a warm fire reading the evening paper, when he was seized with a pain in his left side and fell from his chair dead. Dr. Coulter was summoned and quickly responded to the call. He pronounced the cause of death as apoplexy. His demise will be a great shock not alone to his family but to his many friends throughout the city. He is survived by a wife, several sons and daughters. The time and place of funeral will be announced later.

WAS CASE OF SUICIDE.

Coroner's Jury So Decides on the Death Of Miss Josephine Moyes.

Ogden, Nov. 8.—A coroner's inquest over the remains of Josephine Moyes of Plain City who was found dead in her bed Tuesday morning at the home of her sister, Mrs. William Hadley, 723 Grant avenue, was held at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the city hall before Judge Murphy and a jury.

The first witness examined was R. M. Connor of the Troy Steam Laundry who testified that Miss Moyes was employed at the laundry at night work, that the last time she was at her employment was Sunday night. She appeared to be a bright, energetic girl, attentive in her work, and always cheerful.

Ada Brostrom, also a laundry employee, testified that Monday morning she left the laundry with Miss Moyes and walked with her to the corner of Grant avenue and Twenty-fifth street, a little over a block from the dead girl's home. Miss Moyes told witness she was going to kill herself, that she would take poison, as she wanted to see her dead mother, that she felt like she was always in the way, and knocked around without a home. Witness thought she was only joking, in jesting said: "Well, good bye if you never see me again, for I am going away," and they parted.

Rose Butterworth, also employed with deceased at the laundry, had heard her say she would like to die and go to her mother. Witness remonstrated with her about such talk, but Miss Moyes replied, "I'll go to her anyway. I am not treated right."

Dr. E. L. Rich testified that he was called to the Hadley home Tuesday morning about 8:30, where he found the girl lying on the floor on a bed, dead. He examined her body and from every indication she had died from laudanum poisoning, and asked the sister if there was any of the drug in the house, to which she replied in the affirmative, and went to look for the bottle, but it was gone. Mrs. Hadley told the doctor that the girl had slept all day Monday up to 4 p. m., when she awakened, but Miss Moyes said she did not feel well and was not going to work, so she went to sleep again until 9 o'clock, when she was again awakened, and got up for a short time, when it was observed her eyes looked strange. Nothing unusual, however, was thought of it, and she soon went to bed again. Her sister heard her breathing heavily in the night, but thought she was only sleeping soundly, and did not disturb her, but the next morning found her dead, and the empty laudanum bottle was discovered in the front yard.

Mrs. Hadley, sister of the dead girl, testified to about the same facts as did Dr. Rich. Chief of Police Browning testified to being called to the home and the condition in which he found her body.

Distinguished gentlemen composed of United States Senators Reed Smoot and George Sutherland, Congressman Howell, James Anderson, E. H. Callister, State Fish and Game Warden Sharp and Weber County Commissioners Stanford, Wilson and Madison, and C. R. Hollingsworth. The visiting gentlemen were met at the depot, with automobiles and carriages at 11:30 o'clock yesterday morning, and driven to the Hermitage, where a trout and chicken dinner was served, they then continued their journey to the proposed site with its tributaries, which was thoroughly gone over, the commissioners explaining its advantages for a hatchery. The site is looked upon favorably by the gentlemen who concede that it is one of the best places in the entire state for the raising of fish, having plenty of clear, pure water, an excellent location and many other advantages. The members of the party took lunch at the Hermitage, returning to Ogden about 6:30 last evening. The visitors took the 7 o'clock train for Salt Lake City. It is firmly believed the fish hatchery will be established in this county.

DAMAGE SUIT FOR $20,000.

U. P. Railway Company Sued for the Death of C. P. Marshall.

Ogden, Nov. 8.—A $20,000 damage suit has been filed in the second district court by Attorney Magnus for Mrs. Lottie C. Marshall, administratrix of the estate of C. P. Marshall, deceased, against the United Pacific Railway company. The suit is to recover damages for the death of C. P. Marshall, who was an employee of the railway company and was on June 27, 1904, run into and killed by a freight train near Rock River, Wyo.

OGDEN CITY SUED

For $3,000 for Personal Damages, by Mary Lynch.

Ogden, Nov. 8.—The case of Mary Lynch against Ogden City was commenced in the district court yesterday afternoon before Judge Howell and a jury, and eight witnesses were examined during the afternoon for the plaintiff. Their testimony went to show that on Jan. 28, 1905, the plaintiff was walking down Twenty-sixth street between Wall and Lincoln avenues, when she stepped into a ditch, breaking her ankle and causing other injury, from which she continues to suffer pain. It is the claim of the prosecution that it was carelessness on the part of the city to leave the ditch open. Mrs. Lynch asks for $3,000 damages.

PUBLIC LIBRARY.

Committee Working strenuously to Open It in Near Future.

Special Correspondence. Provo, Utah Co., Nov. 8.—At a meeting of the public library committee, held last evening, Mrs. May Partridge was engaged as librarian.

Several subscriptions to magazines for the library were reported, and the committee is now sending out letters to Provo citizens, inviting contributions of books.

The room in the basement of the court house is being fitted up for the library, much of the shelving being already up.

The women's clubs of the city have arranged for a lecture to be given on an early date by Rev. Elmer T. Goshen for the purpose of raising funds for furniture. Rev. Goshen does not make any charge for his service in this cause, and the opportunity to hear this eloquent speaker and at the same time do something for the library will, without doubt, be generally appreciated by Provo citizens.

LIVELY RUNAWAY.

N. A. McKay of the Telluride Power company jumped from a wagon attached to a runaway team, yesterday, and suffered a sprained wrist. Assistant Superintendent C. S. Ruffner, who was driving, was thrown from the wagon, but not seriously hurt. The runaway was caused by the tongue breaking. The team ran about a block west on Center street towards the four corners, where one of the horses jumped on a dray standing near the building. The

WRIGHT A FUGITIVE.

Ex-California State Senator Does Not Answer to Trial.

Sacramento, Cal., Nov. 8.—Former Senator Eli Wright is a fugitive from justice. Wright, whose home is at San Jose, became involved in the bribery scandal at the last session of the legislature. The investigation and the prosecution which has thus far resulted in sending former Senators Harry Bunkers and E. J. Emmons to the penitentiary for accepting money to shield building and loan associations from threatened investigation into their affairs.

Wright's case was called in Superior Judge E. C. Hart's department of the superior court this morning, but the defendant failed to respond to the calling of his name. Wright's cash bail of $2,500 was declared forfeited and a bench warrant was issued for his arrest.

The case of former Senator Frank French of San Francisco, also accused of accepting a bribe, will come up for trial on Dec. 18.

Burial Y. M. C. A. Founder.

London, Nov. 8.—The body of Sir George Williams, founder of the Young Men's Christian association and president of the London headquarters for 20 years, who died Nov. 6, will be buried in St. Paul's cathedral Nov. 14. The memorial requesting burial in St. Paul's included the names of persons prominent in all walks of life and was reinforced by resolutions from the Coun-

Alex Brewer as guardian of defendant to represent him in the action.

VICTIM OF DIPHTHERIA.

The dreaded disease diphtheria has claimed another of Ogden's young boys. Last evening Benjamin R. Jansen, the 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Jansen, died at the family residence, rear 224 Washington avenue, of diphtheria, after a brief illness. He was born in Ogden Jan. 11, 1891, and was a bright, promising youth, of noble character. His demise is a great sorrow to the bereaved family and many friends, who will learn of his demise with regret, and the sympathy of the entire community goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Jansen in their hour of sorrow. The funeral cortege formed at 2 o'clock this afternoon and accompanied the body to the Ogden city cemetery, where he was laid to rest. A short service was held after the body was lowered into the grave.

BOY BREAKS HIS ARM.

Le Roy Corey, the ten-year-old son of Mrs. Annie Corey, had his right arm broken last evening. He was playing on Madison avenue in the yard of two Dutch ladies who came out, as he supposed, after him. He ran away, and in jumping the fence, fell to the ground several feet, striking on his right side, breaking the bone of the upper arm. Dr. Rich was summoned and set the bone, and the boy is now getting along nicely.

AFTER WITNESSES AND JURORS. Deputy United States Marshal Smyth of Salt Lake City was in Ogden yesterday and today, subpoenaing a number of witnesses to appear before the grand jury, several of the witnesses being policemen and private citizens. Mr. Smyth stated that he could not state for what examination the witnesses are wanted. He is also notifying a number of the grand and petit jurors to appear in the United States court.

THE TRACTION FIGHT.

Chicago Wins Two Victories in Contest With Companies.

Chicago, Nov. 8.—Two victories were won today by the city of Chicago in its legal fight with the traction companies. Judge George A. DuPuy of the superior court upheld the contention that the city had complied with the law in beginning quo warranto proceedings against the traction companies. Following Judge DuPuy's decision an effort was made to delay the litigation until after action on Chicago traction matters now pending in the United States supreme court. In this case Judge DuPuy also ruled against the traction company. He held that protracted litigation in the state courts should be finished regardless of the pendency of matters before the federal tribunal.

HENEY CHARGES CORRUPTION

Goes Before Grand Jury Against Abraham Ruef.

San Francisco, Nov. 8.—At a political meeting on last Saturday night Francis J. Heney, the government attorney who recently prosecuted the land fraud cases in Oregon, stated that he personally knew Abraham Ruef, legal adviser of Mayor Schmitz, to be corrupt. He was immediately challenged to prove his assertion, and as a result he appeared today before the local grand jury.

He was before that body for a short time only, after which he took a train for Washouet, Wash. Neither he nor the members of the jury have made public the result of the interviews.

Saloon Keeper Murdered.

San Francisco, Nov. 8.—Patrick McLaughlin, a saloon keeper, was murdered by an unknown man at that place of business which is 500 Real street, tonight. McLaughlin was ending bar at the time. George Cramer, the cook of the saloon, was in a room in the rear when he heard a shot from a revolver. He was going forward to investigate when he encountered Mr. McLaughlin, who said he had been shot in the neck. McLaughlin urged Cramer to send for aid, and when neighbors arrived, the saloon man was unconscious and soon died. The police are unable to determine whether the murder was due to an attempted holdup or to a disturbance. A man was seen running away from the saloon after the shot was fired.

Trial of Pat Crowe Set.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 8.—The trial of Pat Crowe has been set for Monday, Dec. 4. He will be first tried on the charge of assault with intent to kill Officer Jackson, who attempted to arrest a man on South Sixteenth street, alleged to have been Crowe.

Holiday Books Now Arriving Daily.

A YEAR ago, believing that the taste for reading and the love of good books was greatly on the increase in our community, we ventured the purchase of a large and varied stock of books, which represented the best and most popular of the products of the leading publishers of America.

Our experiment proved an astonishing success and our confidence in the reading public was not misplaced.

Basing our judgment on the experience of last year, we began early to place orders with all the foremost publishers of the United States for a large stock of the latest and best books of the year. Our selections embrace a range much larger than ever before, including Art Books, Gift Books in exquisite bindings, Latest Popular Fiction, all the Standard Authors, in single volumes and in sets, Juvenile books, Boys' books, Girls' books and toy picture books on linen and paper in endless variety. We are determined to make our book department lead anything of the kind in the country.

It is not too early to buy now as we are opening new stock daily. A good book is always an appropriate gift.
