

FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

The beautiful weather continues. Brother William Cowley died last night.

The High Council meets at 7 o'clock this evening, at the Council House.

We are informed that a series of parties are to be given in the fourteenth Ward Assembly Rooms, the first of which will take place on December 15th.

A fine new broad stone flag crossing is about to be laid across East Temple Street by Z. C. M. L. opposite the premises. The workmen are engaged on the work.

Remember the excellent character given in the 18th Ward. Character is a genuine musical treat. Go and get your money's worth and more too.

A meeting of the 14th Quorum of Seventies will be held at the Council House, on Monday evening, Nov. 27, at 7:30 o'clock.

JOHN H. KILSON, Clerk.

We congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Schettler on the birth of a son, to illuminate their family circle and impart that domestic rapture that only the presence of a bouncing baby can bring.

Mr. Alfred Chadwick says women don't know how to lace their corsets properly. Perhaps not; but they know how to hold on to the corsets while their husbands pull the cords until they are sufficiently laced to get into their new dress at the theatre.—Ez.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Prostrated.—We regret to learn that our respected townsman, Mr. Francis Armstrong, is prostrated with severe illness. We understand the complaint affecting him is an attack of rheumatism. His friends, who comprise a host, will strive to hear of his speedy recovery.

The Lecture.—The price of admission to Mrs. Saxon's lecture, to be delivered on Monday evening, at the Thirteenth Ward Assembly Hall, is 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children. Tickets for sale at Calder's music store, Dwyer's book store, Savages Art Gallery, the Female and Contributor offices. Secure your seats.

Information.—With the last company of immigrants a young woman from Glasgow named Mary Brown, arrived. We understand she has been making inquiries as to the whereabouts of her uncle, W. R. R. He resides at Montana, near the town of Helena, being at that point for the U. S. & N. R. Company. He desires to communicate with Sister Brown.

Elected to the Legislature.—We have received a call from Mr. W. C. Cardinale, a former resident of Grantville, Tooele County, but now of Goose Creek, Cassia County, Idaho, at which latter place he has resided a year. When he first resided in that section the settlers numbered fourteen, but they have since increased to four hundred.

At the late election Mr. Martinale was elected to the Legislative House on the Independent Democratic ticket.

For The South.—Apostles Erasmus, now, and Moses Thatcher and Christopher Layton and son are about to make a tour of the settlement in Southern Arizona and New Mexico. They will also extend their trip into some of the Northern States of Old Mexico. All the brethren named are already on the way, being in San Francisco, except Brother Snow, who is in the city and will start shortly to join the other members of the party. We wish them a pleasant and successful trip.

Sudden Death.—Brother William Cowley, tailor, of the Fourteenth Ward, died suddenly last night. He was only taken ill the day previous and his unexpected demise will be a surprise to his friends and acquaintances, but few of whom were aware of his sickness. Brother Cowley was connected with the church over thirty years, bore an excellent character and was a quiet, unassuming citizen. The funeral services will be conducted at the Fourteenth Ward Assembly Rooms at 9 a. m. on Sunday.

Wedding Party.—Last evening nearly a hundred of the personal friends of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Barrett assembled at their residence in the Ninth Ward on the occasion of the marriage of Miss Jennie Garrett to Mr. Imri Brown. The young couple were duly congratulated and presented with substantial tokens of esteem, their next little cottage adjacent being comfortably furnished and handsomely adorned with the gifts bestowed. A splendid supper elegantly arranged musical exercises, songs and glees by Ninth Ward vocalists, conversation, merriment and a general good time were enjoyed until midnight, when the company separated with benedictions on the young folks just starting together on the eventful voyage of life.

Flying "Floats".—Some boys were arrested last night for misconduct in the Theatre, that has become an intolerable nuisance, especially to people sitting in the lower part of the auditorium. With hoodlums and certain youngsters who particular delight in sending "floats" over the breastwork of the second and third circles, to fall upon the heads of persons in the parquette. Some of these airy missiles are in the shape of pieces of paper with pins stuck through. One of these lately alighted on the bald pate of an old gentleman in the audience, and stuck there. Of course this was a good joke for the boys, but the owner of the afflicted head looked at it in a different light, and who can blame him?

The police have determined to make the circles hot for these hoodlums. They will keep a vigilant eye open, and march every practical joker among them over to the City Hall. Better not do it any more.

A HORRIBLE TRAGEDY.

JOHN RUST, A DISCHARGED SOLDIER, COMMITTED SUICIDE BY SHOOTING.

At a quarter past one o'clock this afternoon a man entered Carter's gun and ammunition store, a short distance below the old Salt Lake House, on East Temple Street. He stated that he wished to purchase a pistol. After selecting a 41-calibre Colt's revolver he stated that he wished to load it. The proprietor informed him that it was contrary to the rule of the establishment to allow any one to load a firearm on the premises. Mr. Carter then loaded it himself and handed the weapon to the stranger.

No sooner did he receive it than he placed the muzzle against his head, with the evident intention of killing himself. Mr. Carter, observing the movement, shouted, "hold on, hold on," with great rapidity, at the same time reaching over the counter in an attempt to seize the misguided man's arm. The stranger took one step back, and the fatal shot was fired, the weapon fell from the grasp of the suicide, and in a moment he lay prostrated upon his back on the floor in the throes of death and weltering in his blood, presenting a most horrible spectacle. The deceased survived about twenty-five minutes, in a state of unconsciousness, after he shot himself. The bullet entered immediately above the right ear and passing through the head in a slightly upward and forward direction, came out at the upper part of the left side of the forehead.

The deceased was of medium height and build, and rather dark complexion. His age was probably forty-five. His name is John Rust. He was at one time sergeant major in the Fourth United States Infantry. Before coming to Utah he was a clerk at headquarters at Omaha. On coming to Fort Douglas he occupied the position of private in company K, of the sixth Infantry. Being in feeble health he did duty as clerk, until a few days ago, when he was discharged for disability. It appears he had spent all his money and yesterday pawned his overcoat for $10, after an ineffectual attempt to obtain some money on his discharge papers. It is more than likely that the fearful act of taking his life was superinduced by dependency, caused by the absence of any prospect of making a living, his long connection with the army combined with feeble health incapacitating him for ordinary labor.

We are informed that deceased had a wife, and probably some children living at Fort Sidney. An inquest has been arranged for, to be held at the office of the City Sexton.

A Beaver Mandamus Case.—Yesterday afternoon the arguments were begun in this city, before Judge Twiss in chambers, in one of the Beaver mandamus cases. The case is that of N. Compson, appointed by the Governor to the office of sheriff of Beaver County, who seeks to oust the incumbent, J. M. Compson. The points involved are precisely similar to those in the Salt Lake County case of Pratt against McKen. The first argument for the respondent was begun yesterday by Mr. J. L. Rawlinson, who concluded an able speech at 11:30 to-day. Mr. P. L. Williams and Mr. W. H. Dickson appeared in behalf of the relator and, besides Mr. Rawlinson, Mr. Arthur Brown for the respondent.

Back From England.

To-day we had the pleasure of meeting with Elder Charles B. Felt, who returned home from a mission to England on Tuesday evening. He crossed the ocean with the last company of Saints, but remained back in the East a short time to visit relatives and friends, in Salem, Boston, Hartford and New York.

Elder Felt left home for England on Oct. 17, 1880, and received an appointment to labor in the business department of the office at Liverpool, which position he operated in during the entire time of his absence, with the exception of a few weeks he spent in the ministry, principally in the Manchester Conference. While engaged in the office he also participated in preaching the Gospel and otherwise endeavoring to spread a knowledge of the truth in and around Liverpool. He has enjoyed his labors and, in view of the experience he has gained, considers the two years of his mission the best of his life.

Another of the Returned Elders.

Yesterday afternoon we received a call from Elder James W. Earley, of this city, one of the missionaries lately returned from the Southern States. He has been absent two years and labored in West and Middle Tennessee. In the western part of the State he encountered a good deal of opposition, being unable to find places to preach or stop at, and was unable to open up the work to any extent. He then went to Middle Tennessee, where he met with better success, having the privilege of baptizing twenty-two new members, and assisting to baptize quite a number of others. Two branches were organized, one at Spring Creek and the other in Hickman County, called the Murray County Branch. Two Sunday Schools were also established, one in connection with the Murray County Branch another at Kane Creek, Lewis County. Quite a number emigrated from that part of the county this season, and a number of others will move out next spring.
