There is little likelihood of W. L. Hubbard being tried during the September term of court on the lesser charge of assault with intent to commit rape. Before leaving he held a consultation with District Attorney Richmond as to the probable time of his second trial, and the prosecutor gave his consent to Hubbard's leaving, which would indicate that the trial will not be had during the present term of court. Hubbard is still under the bond furnished a few weeks since.

DEATH OF AN AGED LADY.

Mrs. Dorothea C. Gad Tweede, an Old Resident, Passed Away.

Mrs. Dorothea C. Gad Tweede, a resident of the Twenty-first ward for thirty-five years died at her home, 129 H street, yesterday afternoon, at the ripe age of 84 years and seven months. She was born in Denmark and in her youth she joined the Mormon church. Subsequently she emigrated to Utah with two sisters, crossing the plains with an ox-team. She arrived in Salt Lake in 1859 in company with one sister, the other having died while crossing the plains.

Mrs. Tweede was a woman of more than ordinary intelligence and was quite an accomplished linguist. She taught school for many years in the Twenty-first ward and was highly respected by all who knew her.

She had no children of her own but raised three orphans, all of whom are married. Her charitable works were remarkable for their practical nature and she was dearly loved for the goodness and kindness of her heart. She was in good health until a few days ago, and had possession of her faculties to the last.

She leaves a husband and one adopted daughter, Mrs. F. A. Mulholland. The funeral will be held Sunday from the Twenty-first ward meeting house.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Today witnessed the opening of a week of social gaiety.

Mrs. Beebe and Miss Laura Beebe will visit with friends for a few days.

A charming group was that assembled on the steps of the Beehive house this morning, when Queen Mabel and her friends of honor dined under the focus of Charlie Johnson's camera and were transferred in all their royal loveliness to cold glass, to be perpetuated to the gaze of admiring eyes for years to come. No more charming scene could have been chosen and the picture will doubtless be one eagerly sought as a memento of the carnival.

The W. C. T. U. met this afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. parlors and important matters were discussed.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Evans returned yesterday from a delightful eastern trip.

Miss Gratia Flanders has returned from Europe and will re-open her studio at 1045 East South temple St. Pupils desiring hours should register promptly on Saturday, Sept. 21st, from four to six p. m.

CONSOLIDATION UP TO VANDERBILT

Plans for Practical Unification of Entire Railroad System.

NEW YORK CENTRAL CO.

Will Probably be the Name of Financial Company Which Will Hold Stock of Subsidiary Roads.

New York, Sept. 20.—The Journal of Commerce says: It has been learned from an authoritative source that plans for the practical consolidation of direction of the entire Vanderbilt system of railroads are in course of preparation. These plans include the formation of a new parent company. It will be entirely a financial company and will be the holder of stock of the subsidiary companies. No name has yet been secured for the proposed parent company, but the "New York Central Company" seems to be that most generally favored.

The exact status of the plans is: William Vanderbilt has given considerable study to the practical consolidation of the lines proposed and at his suggestion, Edward W. Rossiter, treasurer of the New York Central and H. McTearney, a director, whose opinion is particularly valuable to Mr. Vanderbilt, have been for some time at work on a consolidation plan which will be then worked out in greater detail and placed formally before the board of directors.

It is evident therefore that the plan of control can in no measure be accounted an established fact, but the information given is important as indicating the general drift in the community of interest in railroad operation. The formation of a new security holding company is not of course a new situation in the railroad world. It will be on the same general plan as that of the Pennsylvania company, which was chartered by the legislature of Pennsylvania, April 8, 1870, for the purpose of managing the interests of the Pennsylvania company and the railroads leased and controlled by that company west of Pittsburgh. The stock of this Pennsylvania company is owned by the Pennsylvania railroad.

It has been suggested by a financial authority, whose position gives his views particular weight, that the ultimate end of the consolidation of the plan would undoubtedly be the establishment of separate financial companies controlled by ownership of securities of each of the great groups of railroads.

SPRIKE AND RAIL.

J. A. Edson and E. E. Calvin are in Logan on a brief visit.

A freight car came through the fence on First South street yesterday much to the consternation of pedestrians in the immediate vicinity.

Assistant General Passenger Agent George W. Heints of the Rio Grande Western has returned from his visit to the various coast agencies.

A headend freight collision occurred on the Rio Grande Western at Thistle yesterday. No one was hurt and no serious damage done beyond a slight delay in traffic.

The sleeping car porters at last have entered a voice of protest. There is now a concerted movement under way for higher wages and the possible abolition of the tip system. The traveling public which pays a stiff price for the privilege of riding in a Pullman car and then is in addition expected to assist the porter in his laudable desire to keep body and soul together, will undoubtedly second the motion with a rising vote.

WILL TEACH ELOCUTION.

L. D. S. University Adds Vocal and Physical Culture to Curriculum.

After a great deal of investigation the trustees of the Latter-day Saints' university have decided that the study of vocal and physical culture cannot be left out of the curriculum this year.

The demand for either elocution or physical culture has been quite general among the students. It had been decided that the lack of room, these subjects might be dispensed with until the two new buildings were ready. This decision has now been reconsidered, and two physical trainers and one elocutionist have been engaged to teach these classes this year, beginning early in October. These classes will be held in the Social hall, which is being repaired, repainted, etc., for this purpose.

The teachers are Mr. Miers Tronett Blumhouse and his wife, lately of Honolulu. He is a graduate of the Ralston university, an institution whose system of physical culture is said to embrace the exercises of many systems, including the Del Sarte, Monroe, Emerson, and Swedish, besides many original movements. The physical culture work is set to music, and that is vocal expression embraces voice training in speaking, harmonic training of the body, pantomime expression, and the unity, harmony and philosophy of expression. This work will be free to all students of the high school, normal college and business college, and will count in hours of credit toward graduation.

BUSINESS MEN LOOKING OUT

For Spurious Coins—Attempts to Pass Bogus $5.00 Pieces.

According to a number of business men of the city there have been several attempts during the past week to put bogus $5.00 pieces in circulation. In one well known saloon within an hour on Wednesday the bartender detected two bad pieces, both presented by hand, and the owner of the saloon, who is a very honest man, has since been on the look out for them.

A Certain Cure for Dysentery and Diarrhea.

"Some years ago I was one of a party that intended making a long bicycle trip," says F. L. Taylor, of New Albany, Bradford County, Pa. "I was taken suddenly with dysentery, and was about to give up the trip, when Officer Ward, of the Laceyville Messenger, suggested that I take a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I purchased a bottle and took two doses, one before starting and one on the route. I made the trip successfully, and never felt any ill effect. Again last summer I was almost completely run down with an attack of dysentery. I bought a bottle of this same remedy, and this time one dose cured me."

FUNERAL OF BEN BUTLER.

Friends of Mining Man Assemble to Pay Last Respects.

The remains of Benjamin Franklin Butler, the pioneer and prospector, were laid to rest at Mount Olivet cemetery last evening. At 5 o'clock in the afternoon many men who had known Ben Butler in life assembled in the undertaking parlors of A. S. Watson's establishment, and paid the last and farewell to the man who is said to have been an affectionate brother and a loyal friend. There were no services over the body, and after each friend had passed by the bier was a prayer in the house and taken to the cemetery. The casket was a handsome one and was covered with magnificent cut flowers.

CECIL RHODES PRESENTS.

His Ineffectual Attempt to Get Back $15,000 He Had Given Away.

But Mr. Rhodes "gave $10,000 to the Irish rebel party under Mr. Parnell when the defenders of the Union were engaged in a death struggle with that party." Not precisely. Mr. Rhodes knew little enough of home politics and the nationalist party, but he did know that he was in favor of "home rule all round," or, as we say, of imperial federation. Now he had Mr. Parnell's assurance that his home rule was a first step to a general system of local self-government throughout the empire, with one federal parliament. Later, when the real nature of the scheme became apparent, and Mr. Parnell was talking separation and the non-recognition of the Irish members, Mr. Rhodes, in letters which I myself have handled, Mr. Parnell said to him: "It would be a horrible thing," he says, "if my money went to helping a scheme which aims at the dismemberment of the empire, and he requires Mr. Parnell to pay over the money to charitable causes to be agreed on between them. The words quoted are, as nearly as I can remember, Mr. Rhodes' own.

The same words and thought occurred in a letter to Mr. Schindler regarding $5,000 which Mr. Rhodes had given to the fund of the liberal party on condition that its leaders should not urge or support our retrogression out of Egypt. Mr. Parnell's answer and Mr. Schindler's reply to the same effect, that the Irish members should ever be uttered certain phrases about separation which had frightened Mr. Rhodes, "it was in a moment of temporary insanity," and he himself, when the retention of the Irish members at Westminster, Schindler replies that the leaders of the liberal party are not represented in this matter by the expression of Mr. Parnell, and that he is directed from a lofty quarter to assure Mr. Rhodes that the liberals will stick to Egypt and that $5,000. No charges are made from that aggregate $15,000—London, Sept.
