Unfortunately the weather has been unpleasantly windy and dusty, uncommonly so, and consequently the pleasure of the visit to the city has been nomewhat marred, and the place been somewhat marred, and the place do cannot be seen at its best. But we I shall not troable you with the de-trust the party, when their brief visit is over, will have enjoyed themselves beyond their expectations, and that trust the party, when their brief visit is over, will have enjoyed themselves beyond their expectations, and that their trip will prove a source of many agreeable and profitable recollections in after days.

THE New York Citizen says that the New York Herald suited and suits the American public from its chameleon like qualities of changing color with its food, and all the while conscious its food, and all the while consolous itself of no change; that the innocent public looking on sees no change either, but the transformation takes place neverthelees, Democratic, or Republi-can, or neutral, as seems most in ac-cordance with the popular will; and that such was the basis of its success. Is that very complimentary either to the Heraid or the great American public? EASTERN DISPATCHES. New York, 17.—A select meeting of the eight hour league, attended by 3,000 Persons, was held yesterday. A number of ex-members of the Paris commune held a meeting on Saturday, to consider a proposition to make a hostile demonstration against M. De Noalles, the French minister on his arrival here. Much violent lan-guage was used. The notorious Dutch Helorick, new confined in Sing Sing, has become a raving manise.

Editor Deserved Netset. For days past crowds of people have been pouring into this city—prominent party leaders, delegates to the Conven-tion, political clubs and spectators drawn here by curicality. Last night the Washington train brought num-bers of Senators and members of the House of Representatives, the latter body—according to the promise of Mr. Dawes that he would introduce a resolution to adjourn, to give
