HEAVY DOWNPOUR IN WEBER. HEAVY DOWNPOUR IN WEBER.

The local weather observer, Ariel Van DeGraaf, reports that about a half an inch of rain had fallen in this section during the 24 hours ending at 6 o'clock last evening, but that this was much lighter than what had fallen south of the city.

The storm of yesterday was much heavier than it has been for several days. It caused the Ogden and Weber rivers to rise several inches within a few hours. A number of wooden paths and foot bridges recently completed at Sylvan park were almost completely Special Correspondence.
Provo, June 5.—Nathaniel Williams, a widower, 74 years of age, was arrested yesterday on the complaint of A. B. MRS. GEIGER SUES FOR DIVORCE.

An action has been filed in the district court against Philip F. Geiger by Julia Geiger upon the grounds of non-support. This is the second action brought against Geiger for failing to care for his wife and children.

About a month ago Geiger was brought back from California by the state upon a warrant charging him with violating the law requiring a father to furnish food, shelter and clothes for his children. Geiger was given a preliminary hearing and was bound over to the district court under a $500 bond.

The custody of the three children and reasonable alimony and attorney fees are asked for by the plaintiff in this action, who is represented by this action, who is represented by County Attorney Harris, who also pros-ecuted the case against Geiger for the

There was an unusually large at-tendance at the Carnegie library at the recent meeting of the general commit-tee of the Young Womans' Christian Association and a great amount of in-terest manifested in the proceedings of the meeting.

Several of the leading business houses of the city were represented by young women employes. Both the meryoung women employes. Both the merchants and employes have expressed themselves as being heartily in accord with the movement for the establishing of a home for the young women and ready to further it when the plans are definitely decided upon.

All of the committees reported progress in the work and expressed the opinion that planse of subscription for the home would be completed within a short while. Several prospective lo-cations were mentioned and considered

PLEASANT GROVE. BELOVED TEACHER CALLED.

Impressive Obsequies Over Remains of Miss Luella Stewart.

Special Correspondence Pleasant Grove, Utah Co., June 4.— Very impressive funeral services were held in the meetinghouse here yester-day over the remains of Miss Luella day over the remains of Miss Enella Stewart, who died at the Latter-day Saint hospital, Sait Lake City, May 29. The services were presided over by Bishop S. L. Swensen; the choir rendered beautiful hymns and songs befitting the occasion. Elders Alexander Bullock and Joseph E. Thorne spoke eulogistically of the deceased, Elder John C. Swensen, representing the faculty of the B. Y. university, Provo, and Lars E. Eggertsen, county superinten-Lars E. Eggertsen, county superintendent of schools, each dwelt upon the intellectual and moral attainments of Miss Stewart, who had been a student under their charge. The profusion of flowers and the great number of friends coming from Provo, Santaquin, Lehi, Salt Lake and other places bore evidence of the popularity and friendship. Salt Lake and other places bore evidence of the popularity and friendship of the beloved girl. Miss Stewart was a graduate of the B. Y. U. and since completing her normal studies had been engaged as a teacher in the district school in this county; the last two years she had been engaged in the Santaquin schools. She was a lovable young lady, beloved by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. She was the ure of her acquaintance. She was the daughter of the late Charles Stewart and his wife Fanny E. Miss Stewart had been an energetic and faithful worker in the Y. L. association, as also in Sunday schools, and was a consci-entious Latter-day Saint, in every way helping to promote the work. She was a successful teacher and her pupils loved her. She was born at Pleasant Grove, Sept. 14, 1873, where she spent her earliest days when the family (mother and one sister) moved to Provo where she could pursue her studies.
