TAKEN TO THE TOWN HOUSE.
Elder John Van Pelt addressed the congregation in the morning and Elder Geo. Cannon in the afternoon.

THE DENVER TRIBUNE HAS PASSED INTO THE HANDS OF THE "DENVER TRIBUNE ASSOCIATION," Mr. E. P. Hollister of New York, editor and manager.

ARRIVED. Mr. Van Pelt, who represents the old and well-established house of Babcock & Co., Importers and Jobbers of Tea, Coffee, Spices, Sugars, Fine Syrups, etc., of New York, arrived in the city last evening, having been on the road between Omaha and Ogden since Monday morning last. This is Mr. Van Pelt's third visit to this city, and it is believed that he will be here for some time.

DEATH OF BRO. THOMAS NAYLOR.—The notice of the death of Bro. Thomas Naylor, which appeared in another column, will be read with sorrow by his numerous friends. He was a worthy, industrious and valuable citizen, and his departure will be sorely felt by his family, brothers and other kindred. The funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock to-morrow (Tuesday) morning at the home of the deceased, 1015 E. 10th St. Friends of the family are invited to attend.

MASSONIC SOCIAL.—We acknowledge the receipt of a complimentary to the Masonic Social at the Masonic Hall, Jan. 10. Committee—E. H. Shaw, Louis Cohn, and J. M. Orr. We wish the company a pleasant evening of social enjoyment.

140,000

SINGER SEWING MACHINES

WERE SOLD WITHIN THE PAST YEAR.—Scientific American, June 10, 1917.

The Singer Manufacturing Company,

AT THE WORLD'S FAIR

—Continued by the homes of the people—

Received the Great Award of the Highest Sales and have left all rivals far behind them, for they

Sold in 1910 127,833 Machines!

SEWING MACHINE SALES FOR 1910.

"The magnitude to which the manufacture of Sewing Machines has attained is shown by the 'SINGER' returns (to which any one can have access) of the manufacturers for the year 1910 to the owners of the leading patents, on which they rely. According to these returns the number of machines sold by each manufacturer in 1910 is as follows:

The Singer 127,833

Broder & Wilson 25,000

Howe 15,000

Grover & Baker 10,000

Wilcox & Gibbs 8,000

American Sewing Machine Co. 7,000

Other makers 10,000

All others 10,000

It will be seen by this table that the popularity of the Singer Machine far exceeds that of all others, and that the Singer Company have been making a steady and increasing record for many years. Their sales for 1910 were 127,833 machines, showing an increase of one-half in the last year."
