NEWS OF THE WEST.

Escape of Another Notorious Burglar from a Cole Penitentiary.

CALIF STEALERS IN CUSTODY.

Protest by Chinese in California. New Mexico's New Governor. Search for Smugglers, Etc.

The Ada County (Idaho) grand jury adjourned on Saturday afternoon sine die without reporting any indictments in connection with the legislative bribery charges.

The insurance adjusters have settled the amount of damages at approximately $10,000 against the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company, which was recently destroyed by fire. The amount agreed upon is $18,500.

On Friday an engine which was side-tracked at Cottonwood ran into a bank of snow and ice and was thrown off the track against the platform of the freight house. Fortunately very little damage was done.

The horse thieves who have been operating on a large scale in western Montana and Wyoming, are now reported in close quarters, says the Omaha (Neb.) Bee, with a determined hunting party on their trail.

John Dillinger, the prisoner who escaped from the county jail at Fort Collins, Colo., while awaiting his sentence for robbery, has been captured by Deputy Sheriff James Swanson about sixteen miles from Fort Collins.

Dr. Letcompt of Park City received a fall a day or two ago which gave him an ugly cut on the head. He was out on the front porch watching the snow when he slipped and fell. He got up in front of his residence, when one of his strokes slipped and threw him head foremost down the front steps.

A sporting house on Pine Street burned down early on Friday morning with its contents. One woman was in the house at the time, and she had a narrow escape, as she was thought to be the little son of Willard Stevenson. The horse was caught by men shooting near and the boy passed away. The horse was shot and died, but was able to stand up, upset the cutter and spilt the contents out into the mud was-ash.

This is the season of the year when there is the most danger for avalanches, say the Idaho (Idaho) Times. These disasters are the result of the heavy snow and comparative dryness, thus giving one time to get out of the way when snow is in time. They come with the rapidity of lightning and a mass of earth and trees often sweep them down. Careless people, and partly dammed up the river. These are but a beginning to what will occur as the weather moderates and snow comes on the crest of hills and mountains, too, as the snow becomes charged with water from the melting snow.

The physician, Inset pest, which has caused such a great loss in the vineyards of Napa and Sonoma counties, Cal., and which has destroyed hundreds of thousands of acres of vines in France, has appeared in southern California. Coming after the immense damage that has been done by the Anthonomus disease this is most encouraging news to the vineyardists of this section of the state.

to Select a Fine One From them there are in all the other stores in Salt Lake City put together. A PIANO or ORGAN is an instrument you purchase but once in a life, therefore you cannot afford to buy without looking through our immense stock. Buying, as we do, in our local firm, we can sell you first-class instruments at even lower prices than other smaller firms are obliged to ask for third-grade.

Do not be talked into buying until you have examined the largest stock ever kept in Utah. Take no one's word. Come and see for yourself. For the next twenty-five days we will, as an inducement, pay your railroad fare to Salt Lake City from any part of Utah, Idaho or Wyoming if you purchase a PIANO or ORGAN from us while in the City. We will sell PIANOS AND ORGANS during this term of Conference at Eastern Prices.

WE CAN NOT AND WILL NOT BE UNDERSOLD.

center, has spent the winter in the valley of the Colorado, between Lake and Indian Wells. He has discovered three very fine sets of rocks, which he has sold to the U. S. Geol. Surv. He is continuing with the same country, which he says is in place of before a desert is fixed he ever saw. He has secured a place of rest and will make that his future home—James Sennett.

Victor, Fort Benton, Montana, on Saturday night voted on the question of incorporating the city. After the master has been passed upon an effort will be made to purchase the voter work, and if they can be obtained a resolution will be passed to submit the question to the voters.
