Wilson's Third Bill with the Revenue Amendment Adopted.

VOYNS AND TURTLEVOUS CHERRIS

The Revenue Adopted by the House of Representatives by a Majority of Sixty-four.

WASHINGTON, D.C., Feb. 1.—In the House the vote upon the final rejection of the internal revenue amendment...

The Senate voted in the affirmative, as did the following Republicans: Brewster, Fletcher, Harrison, Marshall, Butler, White and Street of Idaho.

The bill was engrossed and read a second time. The last stage in its passage had been reached when Governor...

United States. It is impossible at present to participate in the celebration of national independence, as proposed by the provisional government of Hawaii. I therefore decline to take part in such celebration on the part of the United States.

Upon the receipt of this message the United States declined to participate in the celebration of national independence, as proposed by the provisional government of Hawaii.

Every preparation is now complete for the celebration to be made at Honolulu on the 17th of January. The Hawaiian people will deliver addresses. Chief among these will be a speech delivered by Wm. C. Bishop, candidate and member of the American League party in Hawaii.

At a banquet given from that day, there was a great gathering, where President had declared that our job was to stand upon the same ground again.
