

CZAR'S VOICE IS STILL FOR WAR.

Renewed Peace Talks Finds No Echo in Official and Diplomatic Circles in St. Petersburg.

PRESS AND PEOPLE FOR IT.

In Full Sense of the Word the War Never Has Been Popular.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 7, 11:30 p. m.—

The renewed peace talks resulting from the visits of Ambassador Cassini and the Minister Takahira at the department of war in Washington and the conference of Ambassadors Durand and Mr. Spring-Rice, first secretary of the British embassy at St. Petersburg, with President Roosevelt on Sunday, finds the slightest echo in official and diplomatic circles in St. Petersburg, where Emperor Nicholas' declaration that the war must be carried to a satisfactory conclusion remains the keynote of the situation. Considerable satisfaction is felt, consequently, at the Washington telegram stating that assurances have been given by Ambassador Cassini that Sir Mortimer Durand and Mr. Spring-Rice's presence at the White House was in no way connected with the termination of the war. This is all the more readily believed because the diplomatic world is aware that Mr. Spring-Rice is a personal friend of Mr. Roosevelt. On the other hand, the visits of Count Cassini and the Minister Takahira to St. Petersburg are attributed to discussions of Chinese neutrality to terms of peace. The prevailing opinion among diplomats in St. Petersburg is that the Japanese and Russian governments are not yet ready to discuss terms of peace. It is difficult, it is impossible, to tell when this time will come. The present current of press and public opinion in Russia appears to be setting toward peace. The newspapers no longer proclaim the necessity of continuing the war at all costs. The Novoye Vremya under the signatures of well known war correspondents who have just returned from Manchuria, there in unqualified terms, while the papers editorially declare that hopes of victory are remote. The Novoye Vremya bluntly remarks:

"We go out buying evening editions hoping to hear news of a Russian success, but little or nothing is done to assure it."

The war never has been, in the fullest sense of the word, popular. The present distress and discontent of the working class and the general desire for reform by the upper class may develop a strong peace movement with which the government may have to reckon, but on the other hand it is generally admitted that if peace should be concluded under disadvantageous conditions it would materially strengthen the prestige of the present government, which will not fail to keep this fact in mind and hope that some means can be found of reaching an adjustment satisfactory to Russia and Japan. This places special importance on the mission entrusted to M. Adadaza, director of the committee on the far east, who is believed to have gone thither to see to the possibility of reaching a compromise with Japan without material prejudice to Russia's interests.

The Love of Eating.

AS THE AMERICAN BECOMES A GOURMAND?

In our largest centers of population such as New York and Chicago, we daily see more attention given to the finer man. Cafes and lunch-rooms are filled with men and women who seem to give all their time and attention to thoughts of properly or improperly feeding their stomachs. It is of course best to eat slowly, but not too much," says Dr. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y. In this 20th century people devote so much time to head work that their brains are taxed and there is sufficient blood left to properly take care of the other organs of the body. The stomach must be assisted in its hard work—the liver started into action—by the use of a good stomach tonic, which should be entirely of vegetable ingredients and without alcohol. After years of experience in an active practice, Dr. Pierce discovered a remedy that suited these conditions in a blood-maker and tissue-builder. He called it Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery—an alternative extract that assists in the digestion and assimilation of the food in the stomach—so that the blood gets what it needs for food and oxidation, the liver is at the same time started into activity and there is perfect elimination of waste matter. When the blood is pure and rich, all the organs work without effort, and the body is like a perfect machine.

Faxr Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Constant, the French ambassador, has delivered an ultimatum demanding the instant satisfaction of the various outstanding French claims, failing which he will leave today (Wednesday) to consult his government. The German condition of the loan, the correspondent says, was that all the guns should be ordered from Germany. A French syndicate has been competing for the loan.

THANKS VOTED SENATOR MITCHELL

Given by Legislature of Oregon With an Expression of Confidence in Him

SOME LEGISLATORS LUKEWARM

They Were Rather Reluctant to Express Such Strong Approval Of His Course.

Salem, Or., Feb. 7.—In a rather ingenuously contrived resolution, the state senate, with one exception, today adopted a resolution, carrying with it a vote of thanks to United States Senator John H. Mitchell, and an expression of confidence in him, at the same time agreeing to adjourn sine die not later than Friday night, Feb. 17. While some of the senators did not care to express such strong approval of Senator Mitchell's course as that voiced in the resolution, they did not care to go on record as favoring an adjourned session, it being the program of a certain faction, it is alleged, to put through an adjourned session for the purpose of electing a successor to United States Senator Mitchell, should he from any cause relinquish or be deprived of his seat in the United States senate.

Many of the senators were of the opinion that the resolution would have been divided, one section providing for adjournment and the other providing for the endorsement of United States Senator Mitchell, but owing to the complex nature of the resolution and to the fact that the adjourned session, as claimed by some of the senators, would have been unjust to Oregon's senior senator, they were obliged to vote for the resolution as it stood.

"Whereas, A rumor has been circulated to the effect that the legislature of the state of Oregon intended at the end of a 40 days' session to adjourn to a day, and that such action was to be taken on account of a vote of confidence in the senior senator from the state of Oregon, the Hon. John H. Mitchell; and

"Whereas, Said rumor was wholly without foundation; and

"Whereas, The state of Oregon is under a lasting debt of gratitude to our senior senator for long years of faithful, honest and effective service; and

"Whereas, During all of these years of public service no charge has been made detrimental to the personal honor or integrity of our senior senator until the recent indictment by a federal grand jury; and

"Whereas, This legislature, believing in the personal honor and integrity of our senior senator, and desiring to express to the world our belief in his frankness, therefore, be it

Resolved, By the senate and house concurring, that this biennial session adjourn without day on the 17th day of Feb. 1905, no later than 6 p. m., and be it further

"Resolved, That we declare our continued faith in the honesty, honor and integrity of our senior senator, Hon. John H. Mitchell, and that we at this time extend to him a vote of thanks for the 22 years of faithful service by him rendered to our state and nation, and that we hereby record our hope and belief that his good name and the fair name of our state will be cleared from any charge of any nature whatever."

ALLEGED CORRUPTION IN WEST VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE

Charleston, W. Va., Feb. 7.—John Worthington and United States Marshall Elliott today appeared before the West Virginia legislative committee investigating the charges made by Elliott in his letter to Worthington of alleged corruption in connection with a bill before the legislature to regulate the oil and gas business in the state. The principal mystery just now is as to the method by which the letter was extracted from Elliott's possession. Elliott could throw no light on the subject.

The Elliott letter, containing views of Elliott on the position of each legislator's attitude toward pending oil and gas legislation, was delivered to the committee. Gov.-elect Dawson, Sec. State, Swisher, Atty.-Gen., Sec. Clark are mentioned in the letter as opposing the measure and using their efforts to defeat it.

Charles Brooks Smith, who produced the original letter, said he had found it lying on his desk at the hotel, but could not state by what means it had reached there.

C. D. Elliott, author of the letter, followed Smith on the stand. He admitted writing the letter, and said he placed it in his grip. When he left Charleston, the morning after, he opened the grip and found that the letter had been stolen from his grip. It was, therefore, never sent to Washington. Elliott denied that he was employed by the Standard Oil company to fight gas and oil legislation. He said that he had no knowledge of any member of the legislature receiving any money to cast his vote against the bill.

John Worthington, Standard Oil agent and addresser of the Elliott letter, followed Elliott. He said he never offered any monetary inducement to any member to cast a vote against the gas measure; that he knows of no deal between Gov.-elect Dawson and the Standard Oil company by which the latter company was to give its influence in West Virginia to the interests of the Republican party on the promise of opposition to any legislation detrimental to the company's interests.

Fight Over Amanda Reed's Will.

Portland, Or., Feb. 7.—Heirs of Amanda W. Reed have filed a contest against her will, which devises over $1,000,000 to trustees to found an institute of learning in this city to be known as the "Reed Institute," in memory of her husband, Simeon G. Reed. The petition filed in the county court today recites that the county court has no jurisdiction to probate or allow the will to be proven in Multnomah county. Mrs. Reed died in Pasadena, Cal., of which place she was a resident. She owned property in Pasadena valued at $160,000.

The contestants base their petition on a California statute which prevents the devising of more than one-third of an estate to benevolent or charitable purposes when the testator leaves legal heirs. The contestants reside in Quincy, Mass., Pasadena, Cal., and in this city.

DRIVEN FROM GOLDFIELD.

Two Women Horsewhipped G. W. Haight.

The incident was witnessed by a large crowd. The women used buggy whips, and 11-12 after being driven from the premises, surrendered all claims to the property and was forced to leave town.

Telephone War at Fernie, B. C.

Vancouver, B. C., Feb. 7.—The telephone war in Fernie, B. C., has resulted in the defeat of the British Columbia Telephone company, which tried to establish its system in that town against the wishes of the citizens. After numerous arrests of company employees for erecting poles in the streets, and of Fernie officials for interfering with the company's business, the war has been settled by the withdrawal of the telephone company and the purchase of its plant by the Crown's Nest Pass Coal company, with the approval of the citizens.

A HORRIBLE SUICIDE.

Lizzy Owens Jumps Into a Tank of Burning Oil.

Slaterville, W. Va., Feb. 7.—Lizzy Owens, a prosperous farmer living about fourteen miles southeast of this city, suicided in a horrible manner after an unsuccessful attempt to murder his wife. Maddened through jealousy, so it is alleged, Owens shot at his wife with a 38-caliber revolver while both were in the house and then walked to the farm of a neighbor, F. T. McCullough, where an oil tank was located and, after setting fire to the oil, deliberately plunged into the burning fluid. When the fire could be extinguished and the body recovered it had been burned beyond all recognition. The bullet fired at Mrs. Owens struck her just above the right temple, and glanced off, inflicting a dangerous, but not necessarily fatal wound.
