St. Louis, 22.—The sixth day of the session of the National Cattlemen's Convention began about 10.30 this morning.

The chairman of the committee on resolutions reported favorably the resolution with reference to the arid land lying between the 98th meridian and the Sierra Nevada mountains, urging a memorial to Congress for legislation permitting cattlemen to lease land in tracts suitable in size for grazing. The preamble to the resolutions sets forth that under the existing laws the tenure of ranchmen in that section cannot be made secure. Hence, ranchmen are not safe in proceeding with improvements which would result in doubling or trebling the wealth of the cattle interests, as it is not safe to sink wells, build reservoirs, or take other steps to reclaim the land from uselessness. It is not proposed to disturb existing homestead, pre-emption laws, but reserve all rights to settlers under these laws. It is proposed, however, to except California, Nevada and Oregon from the provisions of the proposed act.

Judge Wallace, of Colorado, of the same committee, presented a minority report opposing the resolution, as a measure in the interest of large owners to the prejudice of small ones, and one that would work the substantial repeal of the homestead laws. The majority report was then adopted by a large majority.

An amendment was then passed by which the Territories of Idaho and Utah were exempted from the provisions of the resolution.

A resolution was introduced by Rain, of Missouri, urging a bureau of animal industry to be put under the charge of expert veterinarians was adopted.

On motion of Lane, of Texas, the thanks of the convention were extended to the citizens of St. Louis for their kind entertainment of the convention.

The convention then adjourned sine die.

NEW YORK, 22.—Vice-President-elect Hendricks left this morning for Albany, accompanied by U. S. Senators German, Jonas and Camden, and Messrs. Barnum and Thompson—all of the democratic national committee. After a call upon Governor Cleveland the party will return to the city. A large representation of Cleveland and Hendricks clubs of the different mercantile exchanges went on the same train to pay their respects to Governor Cleveland.

On his return from Albany this evening, Vice-President-elect Hendricks said to an Associated Press reporter: "Well, I've been to see the President, and he looks very well. Very well, indeed, for a man who has gone through so much fatigue as he has. Oh, we had a very nice time—quite informal, and I am very much impressed with Mr. Cleveland; more so than I was in my former interview with him, which was last summer, after I came from Saratoga. What do I think of the campaign? In my humble judgment it has been the most remarkable ever fought for the Presidency."

"After Ohio, what did you think?" "I know a good many felt shaky, but I was perfectly confident all through. Mr. Tilden's campaign was, no doubt, a splendidly organized one, but a spirit pervaded this one that from the outset meant success. I have only this more to say: If I stay here much longer, I shall be killed with kindness."

The following card is issued by Postmaster General Hatton:

Editor Register, Des Moines, Iowa: The evening papers contain a dispatch dated Des Moines, purporting to give the substance of a letter written by P. Clarkson of Iowa, member of the National Republican Committee, in which he says that while I did not issue the order in regard to keeping open the New York Post-office on election day, the order was issued by my assistant, but by my order. This is wholly incorrect. No Officer of the Postoffice department had any instructions from me in regard to the order affecting the New York Postoffice on election day. Equally incorrect is his statement that "the Democratic chairman called my attention to the law prohibiting the closing of office on election day." I never, to my knowledge, met Mr. Barnum until this evening, since reading the Des Moines dispatch, when I was introduced to him by Senator Blair. New Hampshire. I never had a consultation with any democratic chairman or any one else on the subject. Equally incorrect is the statement that I said to a leading democrat in Mount Pleasant, or to any one else during my recent visit to Iowa, that I "intended to keep the New York post office open on election day." The records of the department show that the Acting Postmaster-General, the night before the election, telegraphed the postmaster at New York to give his "employees full opportunity to exercise the right of suffrage;" and Postmaster Pearson, in a published interview, says: "Every man engaged in the post office had ample opportunity, during the time between the opening and closing of the polling places to deposit his ballot in his own election district." This matter does not seem to warrant any further discussion, and shall receive no more attention at my hands. I do not want to believe that

Mr. Clarkson desires to purposely misrepresent me.

Respectfully, etc.,

FRANK HATTON.

WASHINGTON, 22.—When the Swaim court-martial convened this morning, Judge Advocate Gardner submitted to the court an additional charge and specifications against General Swaim, embodying allegations which allege that Swaim sought an interview with Bateman, after the latter had filed charges against him with the Secretary of War, at which he (Swaim) wrongfully and improperly tried to evade and prevent official investigation of those charges by obtaining from Bateman a second letter to the Secretary of War withdrawing the charges and to show that the second letter was written at the instigation and request of General Swaim, and upon false representations by him (Swaim) to Bateman.

Counsel for Swaim objected to the admission of a new charge.

On the conclusion of the arguments the court went into secret session to consider the question raised by the motion. After a long consultation the doors were reopened and the Judge Advocate announced the decision of the court to be that an additional charge and specifications having been referred to by the proper authority, the court directs that they be filed for future action.

The court adjourned until Monday.

MADISON, Fla., 22.—Armstead Williams, colored, broke into the house of a widow and her daughter on Wednesday night and attempted to outrage them. This afternoon several hundred people broke into the jail and shot Williams to death.

READING, Pa., 22.—A representative of the State Board of Charities to-day discovered that Nicholas Seidel, insane, aged 78, was confined in a small log hut on a farm near the city, where he has been kept chained for a period of thirty-six years by his nephew, who lives on the farm. The latter refused to permit visitors to see the unfortunate man. The case will be reported to the State officers, and the man will probably be removed to the asylum.

PHILADELPHIA, 22.—The International Navigation company, which recently purchased four American-built steamships of the American Steamship company, and which assumed the company's agreements with the owners of five British vessels, all of which have been, and still are, run between this port and Liverpool under the title of the American Line, is seriously considering the plan of running the American-built steamers under the British flag, instead of the American flag, as at present. "Under the British flag," said an officer of the company to-day, "we could run these steamers at very considerable less cost, for the reason that now we are obliged to ship our men at American ports, and American labor is much higher than abroad."

LISBON, D. T., 22.—In a conflagration here to-night Samuel McGregor and 20 horses were burned to death. Loss, $10,000.

NEW CASTLE, Pa., 22.—During a democratic jollification to-night an explosion of sky rockets occurred. The rockets shot in every direction. The wildest excitement ensued. Douglas McIlvenny was struck on the chin by a rocket and killed. When picked up the stick was found projecting from the back of his neck. James Mooney, aged 12 years, was hit in the chest and fatally injured; Dan Gunsley, aged 13 years, was struck on the right thigh, the rocket entering his right hip. He is also injured internally and will die. Louis Black, Chas. Shaffer and Wm. Warren were badly hurt. Several others were bruised and trampled on in the panic.

WASHINGTON, 22.—When the Swaim court-martial convened this morning, Judge Advocate Gardner submitted to the court an additional charge against Swaim, embodying allegations, which allege that Swaim sought an interview with Bateman after the latter had filed charges against him with the Secretary of War, at which he (Swaim) wrongfully and improperly tried to evade and prevent the official investigation of those charges by obtaining from Bateman a second letter to the Secretary of War withdrawing the charges, and to show that the second letter was written at the instigation and request of General Swaim and upon false representations by him (Swaim) to Bateman.

CONCORK, N. H., 23.—A slight shock of earthquake was felt at 12.30 this morning, followed 16 minutes later by a very heavy one, lasting several seconds, during which large buildings were shaken. The second shock was accompanied by a heavy rumbling noise sufficiently loud to awaken people. Shocks were felt in various parts of the State.

BOSTON, 23.—A wind storm began this afternoon and at midnight raged with increased violence. The rain continues heavy. Much damage was done to windows, awnings, etc. Telegraph lines were badly demoralized.

NEW YORK, 23.—During the storm to-day several signs were blown down, one felling a policeman on Canal Street. Several costly plate glass windows on Broadway were shattered. Land wires connecting with the cables were prostrated much of the evening, preventing the transmission of dispatches.

St. Louis, 23.—The Grand Opera House, on Market Street, between Fifth and Sixth Streets, was burned this afternoon, entailing a loss of from $125,000 to $150,000. The fire broke out in the front part of the basement, ascended by the stairway to the roof and thence spread all over the building. In the course of three hours the beautiful theatre, with its handsome decorations, valuable machinery, scenery and effects, was a mass of ruins; nothing being left but the bare walls. The Nat Goodwin Company was to open to-night and all their baggage was in the house, but the fire starting in the front part of the building gave the company ample time and they saved all their property. John W. Norton, manager, was not so fortunate, however, his entire personal wardrobe and valuable actor's library being in the front part of the building, was totally destroyed. Loss about $7,000; insurance on the theatre about $50,000.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., 24.—A terrific storm, accompanied by high winds, set in here yesterday afternoon and continued to a late hour. The rain was tremendous. Dwelling houses on low lands were flooded and the occupants compelled to leave their homes.

CHICAGO, 24.—Edward B. Case, a well-known insurance man, was found in the basement of his house to-night, with his skull crushed in two places. From his incoherent words the supposition is that the wounds were inflicted by a man named Roach, watchman, discharged by Case yesterday. It is believed he cannot recover.

NEW YORK, 24.—The gale continues here, but the damage is not serious. Long Island was swept by the storm last night. The heavy rain was welcomed there, as it extinguished some fires in the woods that were threatening villages and greatly alarming the people.

EDINBURGH, Pa., 24.—Last evening C. B. Williams fatally shot his wife and then committed suicide by blowing his own brains out. Domestic trouble was the cause.

NEW YORK, 24.—A stoutly built man staggered up to a couple of policemen on Hester Street, near the Bowery, at midnight and said he had been robbed in a saloon near by, of a pocket book with $80 in it. He could not find the saloon and was taken to the tenth precinct station house, where a belt containing $3,300 in greenbacks was found strapped around his body. He said he was Samuel Gardner, prospector from California, and told of several fierce fights he had been in as a cowboy. "If I'd had my shooter with me, he said to the sergeant, "them fellers never would a got my filth."

NEW YORK, 24.—The Chicago and Northwestern Railway Co. directors have declared a dividend of 2 per cent. on preferred stock, and 3 1/2 on common, payable Dec. 26th.

WASHINGTON, 24.—The Swaim court has taken a recess until Monday next.

PITTSBURG, 24.—The members of the congressional committee with Senator Hawley at its head arrived in this city to-day to investigate the steel works here and report upon facilities for the production of steel for heavy guns and naval vessels. The entire morning was spent at the Edgar Thompson Steel Works. Other works will be visited this afternoon. The committee are delighted with what they have seen thus far.

NEW YORK, 24.—Vice-President Hendricks leaves for home to-night. He will stop on the way at Newark, N. J., to review the democratic parade. Among his callers to-day was ex-Senator Wallace, of Pennsylvania.

BOSTON, 24.—An earthquake shock is reported from various points of New Hampshire as having occurred early yesterday morning. It was felt in this vicinity also. A gentleman living in Cliftondale states that he felt it and noted the time, 12:40 a.m.

NEW YORK, 24.—Stocks quiet and without special change.

SAN FRANCISCO, 24.—A national bank to be known as the Government Bank of China, has been established at Pekin. The capital is half Chinese and half foreign. The board of management are half Chinese and half foreigners.
