

A WEDDING IN HIGH LIFE.

May Goelert, One of the Richest Heiresses in America, Marries The Duke of Roxburghe.

MOST MAGNIFICENT AFFAIR.

Prominent Women Forced Themselves Into the Church and Were Forcibly Dislodged by the Police.

New York, Nov. 10.—The marriage of Miss May Goelert, only daughter of Mrs. Ogden Goelert, and one of the richest of American heiresses, to Henry John Innes-Kerr, eighth duke of Roxburghe, was solemnized today at St. Thomas' church in this city. Bishop William Croswell Doane of Albany, assisted by the Rev. Ernest M. Stires of St. Thomas' church performed the ceremony. A company of 250 guests, a small number for an international marriage of such importance, witnessed the ceremony, but masses of palms, shrubs and flowers banked the church so effectively that the great hall seemed far from empty. In the chancel itself, where the ceremony took place, palms, Japanese chrysanthemums and English primroses were combined in an artistic color scheme, with which the orchids on the pulpit and the lilies about the altar, added beautifully. Forming in the outer vestibule of the church the bride party proceeded down the aisle to the chancel steps, the bride in the arm of her brother, Robert Goelert. She was dressed in white satin veiled with point Valenciennes lace and trimmed with wreaths of orange blossoms. Her veil was of tulle and she carried an old-fashioned bouquet of lilies of the valley.

The maid of honor, Miss Beatrice Mills, and the other bridesmaids, Lady Isabel Innes-Kerr, Miss Martha Johnston, Miss Alice Babcock, Miss Marian Haven, Miss Theresa Teilo, Miss Nina Thayer of Boston and Miss Pauline Whittier, wore gowns of pink mousseline de soie of the latest and effective Louis XIV period, combined with semi-tulle of pink velvet, trimmed with lace and sable and carried in place of bouquets, muffs of pink velvet and sable. The ushers, Hugo Baring, Howard Brassey, Robert Wharton Goelert, Rogers Whitworth, Henry Bull and William Woodward, did not precede the bride party as customary, but were seated before the bride entered.

At the chancel steps the bride was met by the duke and his best man, the Honorable Reginald Innes-Kerr, late Earl of Dudley, and the betrothal service of the Protestant Episcopal church was read by Mr. Stires. The party then advanced to the altar rail, where the Episcopal marriage ceremony was said by Bishop Doane.

Afterwards the duke and duchess went to the home of Mrs. Ogden Goelert on Fifth avenue, where an informal reception to which only a part of the wedding guests were bidden, was held. It had been intended to make the wedding a more brilliant function, but the death of Sir Michael Herbert, uncle of the bride, caused the change in plans.

The duke and duchess left the Goelert residence in a carriage, to which at the last moment a long white steamer was attached by the ushers, and drove to the Grand Central station, where they entered a private car attached to the 5 o'clock express for Newport.

Fifth avenue in the vicinity of the church was the scene before and during the ceremony of excitement and disorder unparalleled at any of the previous great weddings in New York. From the church to the Goelert residence, a distance of five blocks, the sidewalks were crowded with a mass of women, many of whom, mostly women, whom a force of 200 policemen was powerless to hold back.

Before the service began several prominent women gained entrance to the church and seated themselves in the galleries, from which they were forcibly dislodged by a squad of police a few minutes before the arrival of the bride.

When the carriage containing the bride-to-be and her brother, Robert Goelert, neared the church it was surrounded by women who stopped the horses, and in their efforts to see the bride clung to the carriage, some of them getting on the steps and thrusting their heads into the open windows. Mr. Goelert called to the police, but it was some moments before the half-dozen policemen who rushed to the rescue were able to drive the curious women back and enable the carriage to proceed.

When the carriage of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, which was just ahead of the bride, reached the canopy leading from the curb to the church the crowd of women backed up 25 feet on either side rushed frantically forward, carrying the solid lines of policemen with them, and for a moment blocked the entrance. They were forced back, only to rush forward again when the bride's carriage drove up.

By this time policemen from other points had been collected there, but in spite of them a group of half a dozen women stooped down and lifted the canopy of the canopy who stopped part way under. They crawled to their positions notwithstanding all the efforts of the police to pull them away, and several of them managed to keep their hands under the canopy until the bride had passed up. A patrolman caught one very well dressed woman by one of her ankles and dragged her from the walk, she still clinging to the canopy until she was forced to loose her hold. She was lifted up smiling and satisfied. She had seen the bride.

On the Fifth-third street side of the church 15 well-dressed women crawled down into a coal hole leading under the newest canopy. They could not see anything, but they could hear what was going on above. Policemen had to enter and drive them out.

Four hours after the ceremony Fifth avenue was still crowded with curious women, many of whom were laden with spoils from the church decorations, for after the invited guests had left the mob crowded into the church and proceeded to tear the flowers from the pew entrances. In a few minutes they began to break the leaves from the palms and before they could be stopped the church was despoiled of many of the floral decorations.

HARVARD GERMAN MUSEUM.
It Was Formally Dedicated Yesterday with Great Ceremony.

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 10.—The German museum at Harvard university, proposed years ago by eminent German Americans and fostered by Emperor William of Germany and by Prince Henry of Prussia, was dedicated today. Within the museum are valuable gifts from Emperor William, Prince Henry and other distinguished Germans. The gifts were presented formally today to the university and the German Museum association by Baron Von Busche-Hausen, first secretary of the first

It looks as if a man's back is the center of strength when he is standing on his feet. But the center of strength is not the back, but the stomach. There is no strength in the back of a giant if he is starving. All strength is made from food, and food can only be converted into strength when it is perfectly digested and assimilated. When the stomach is diseased, the nutrition of food is lost and physical weakness follows.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It makes men strong and muscular, by enabling the perfect digestion and assimilation of the food eaten.

"I suffered from a very obstinate case of dyspepsia," writes E. J. Second, Esq., of 15 Eastern Ave., Toronto, Ontario. "I tried a number of remedies without success. I was so far gone that I could not eat, and my stomach felt miserably and depressed. Could not sleep nor work. A friend recommended your 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I have taken three bottles and it has accomplished a permanent cure."

The Medical Adviser, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

German embassy at Washington, and accepted by President Elliot on the part of the university; by Prof. Kuno-Kuno-Franke for the museum; and by Hon. Carl Schurz for the association.

GIRLS GO WILD.

Scratched a Classmate and Pulled Her Hair Out.

Baltimore, Nov. 10.—In a wild frenzy of revenge, 25 members of the graduating class of the Western Maryland Normal school, upon Miss Lily Bengert, their classmate, whom they accused of being a "tale bearer." They scratched her face until the blood ran, pulled her hair out, tore her hair to pieces, kicked her heels into the face, and then tried to tear off her clothing.

Miss Bengert finally broke away and ran, pursued by nearly 20 girls. She finally dashed into a grocery, and clerks barred the doors until the police arrived. The rioters were 16 to 18 years old, and the scene of the trouble was the most fashionable quarter of the city.

TO SAVE UNKNOWN WOMAN.

Joe Johnson, a Motorman, Has Probably Sacrificed His Own Life.

New York, Nov. 10.—Joseph Johnson, motorman of a Brooklyn trolley car, has probably sacrificed his life to save an unknown woman and two children from death under the feet of a runaway horse. He is now in a hospital, with a fractured skull and one leg broken. The doctors say he cannot possibly recover.

WARNING TO SOUTH AMERICA.

Buenos Ayres Paper Says Revolution at Panama Should be Heeded.

New York, Nov. 10.—Under the heading "The United States in South America," the La Prensa, a leading newspaper here, published a sensational article today, dispatch from Buenos Ayres, Argentina, declaring that the United States is doing everything possible for the revolutionists on the isthmus of Panama and concluding:

"This should serve as a warning to South America that there are fatal consequences in celebrating treaties by little and feeble nations with big powers."

Republicans for Roosevelt.

Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 10.—The Alabama Republican convention today elected Roosevelt, white and colored, have pledged their support to the president's well-known policy.

At a conference of more than 60 Republicans, resolutions declaring that negroes should have place on the delegation to the Republican national convention as well as representation of all opinions that were adopted without dissent.

Capt. Charles H. Scott of Montgomery was endorsed by Alabama's member of the national Republican convention, to succeed Capt. W. D. Dimmick.

A dozen or more prominent negro politicians were present and heartily endorsed the proceedings of the conference.

No Reduction in Machine Tools.

New York, Nov. 10.—At the annual convention of the National Machine Tool Builders' association, which is in session in this city, resolutions were passed declaring that nothing in the existing condition of the steel trade warrants a reduction in price of machine tools.

Of the 45 or 50 members about 30 were present. President Joseph Fletcher of Nautilus, N. H., was in the chair. Other officers present were William Lodge of Cincinnati and W. P. Davis of Rochester, N. Y., and P. E. Montanus of Springfield, O., secretary.

Was Roopan Dycian Murdered?

Chicago Nov. 10.—The friends of Roopan Dycian, a young Armenian who has been found dead in his room, are convinced that he was murdered, and class his death with the assassinations of Armenians which have been taking place of late in different parts of the world.

Dycian was suffocated by the gas which escaped from an open jet in his room, and the coroner's inquest which investigated the affair declared that he had either committed suicide or had met death accidentally, there being no direct evidence to support either theory. It is said by people living in the flat building in which Dycian had taken rooms with an Armenian family that on two nights recently a strange man was seen in the halls. It is thought by the friends of Dycian that the man made his way into the room where the young man was asleep and turned on the gas.

Dycian had but lately arrived in this country and was compelled to leave his native land on account of his identification with the revolutionary party.

Defends Colombian Government.

Paris, Nov. 10.—Carlos Calderon writes a long letter to the Paris edition of the New York Herald defending the conduct of the Colombian government, which he denies was opposed to the construction of the Panama canal. He says, however, that the desire of Colombia was to see the canal built by the French company. He declares that the French company was prejudicial to Colombia's fiscal interests and a wound to the national dignity. Senator Calderon expresses surprise at the favorable attitude of the French press. He says further that not one person of distinction took part in the revolution of the isthmus of Panama, which he charges was due chiefly to the intervention of the cosmopolitan element, composed principally of Americans inhabiting the cities of Colon and Panama. Senator Calderon declares finally that recent assaults on the isthmus mean the total suppression of French influence.

Another Football Victim.

New York, Nov. 10.—Raymond McVeigh, 18 years of age, a member of the Cadillac football team, lies at the point of death at his home in Brooklyn from injuries received in a game Nov. 3. When he returned from Long Branch, N. J., where the game took place, there was a bruise over his right eye but he did not complain. Several days later he was found unconscious on the floor of his bedroom and grew rapidly worse. The doctors say his brain was injured and he probably will die.

Pallium for Archbishop Quigley.

New York, Nov. 10.—A special messenger from Rome has arrived here with the pallium of Archbishop Quigley of Chicago. It will be given informally into the care of the archbishop, but the public investiture will not occur until the first week in December.

A TEST EXPERIMENT.

Peculiar Power Possessed by a New Medicine.

Of new discoveries there is no end, but one of the most recent, most remarkable and one which will prove invaluable to thousands of people is a discovery which it is believed will take the place of all other remedies for the cure of those common and obstinate diseases, dyspepsia and stomach troubles. This discovery is not loudly advertised, secret patent medicine, but is a scientific combination of wholesome perfectly harmless vegetable essences, fruit salts, pure pepsin and bismuth.

These remedies are combined in lozenge form, pleasant to take, and will preserve their good qualities indefinitely, whereas all liquid medicines rapidly lose whatever good qualities they may have as soon as uncorked and exposed to air.

This preparation is called Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and it is claimed that one of these Tablets or lozenges will digest from 300 to 3,000 times its own weight of meat, eggs and other wholesome food. And this claim has been proven by actual experiments in the following manner: A hard boiled egg, cut into small pieces was placed in a bottle containing warm water heated to ninety-eight degrees (or blood heat); one of these Tablets was then placed in the bottle and the proper temperature maintained for three hours and a half, at the end of which time the egg was as completely digested as it would have been in a healthy stomach. This experiment was undertaken to demonstrate that what it would do in the bottle it would also do in the stomach, hence its unquestionable efficacy in the cure of dyspepsia and weak digestion. Very few people are free from some form of indigestion but scarcely two will have the same symptoms. Some will suffer most from distress after eating, bloating from gas in the stomach and bowels, others have acid dyspepsia or heartburn, others pain in the chest and under shortness of breath, extreme nervousness as in nervous dyspepsia, but they all have the same cause, failure to properly digest what is eaten. The stomach must have rest and assistance, and Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets give it both, by digesting the food for it and in a short time it is restored to its normal healthy vigor. At the same time the Tablets are so harmless, this new preparation with benefit. This new preparation has already cured many cases of indigestion, as for instance, the following:

After using only one package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets I have received such great and unexpected benefit that I wish to express my sincere gratitude. In fact, it has been six months since I have had any of the distress or difficulty since. And all this to the face of the fact that the best doctors consulted told me my case was Chronic Dyspepsia and incurable as I had suffered twenty-five years. I distributed half a dozen packages among my friends here who are very anxious to try this remedy.

Mrs. Sarah A. Skel, Lynville, Jasper Co., Mo.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by druggists everywhere at 50 cents for full sized packages. A little book on Stomach Diseases mailed free by addressing F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

E. T. Ledyard, Capitalist, Dead.

Alameda, Cal., Nov. 10.—The death is announced of Edward Thomas Ledyard, a retired capitalist, at the age of 52 years. Death was due to general paresis, a chronic ailment. The deceased was born in Road, Wiltshire, England, and when a young man came to California. Twenty-four years ago he came to Alameda and took up his residence there. He leaves five children, a son, Edward, Dr. W. E. Ledyard of Quail, Canada; Dr. W. E. Ledyard and Mrs. George Prior of this city, and John S. Ledyard of Berkeley.

Steering Emigration to Europe.

New York, Nov. 10.—Figures obtained of the number of laborers who are returning to Europe show that while from all parts of the United States about 13,000 steerage passengers were carried from Oct. 1 to Nov. 10, a year ago, more than 27,000 have left the shores of America this year during the corresponding period. Of this number about 90 per cent sailed from New York. Inability to obtain employment is given as the reason for the emigration.

Considering Bristow's Report.

Washington, Nov. 10.—After the cabinet meeting today Postmaster General Payne said the report of Mr. Bristow in the hands of the attorney general and Special Atty. Bonaparte and Conrad for consideration. They were going over the report and were determining just what portions could be made public in the near future without affecting detrimentally the government's prosecution of those persons who had been indicted for frauds against the postoffice department.

Embezzler Pleads Guilty.

Cincinnati, O., Nov. 10.—J. K. Brown, for many years cashier of the Holland bank, today pleaded guilty to an indictment charging embezzlement and was sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary.

Convicted of Peonage.

Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 10.—L. A. Grogan, William L. L. Grogan, J. McDaniel and F. M. Brutt of Dadeville pleaded guilty in the United States court here today to charges of peonage and each was fined $1,000. Sentence was suspended in each case.

Crump Bros., Tobaccoists, Fail.

Chicago, Nov. 10.—Another large leaf tobacco concern, that of Crump Brothers, was forced into the bankruptcy court today. The firm has had a large trade in leaf tobacco for 10 years, and its failure, like that of Sutter Brothers, caused surprise among business men.

The concerns of Sutter Brothers and Crump Brothers were intimately connected in business dealings, and the failure of the former injured the credit of the latter to such an extent that it was deemed advisable to turn the property over to the care of the United States district court, so that all creditors might be treated alike.

The liabilities of the firm are estimated at $225,000 and the assets at $150,000, though the latter are said to be worth nominally more than the debts.

Yellow Fever Report.

Laredo, Tex., Nov. 10.—The official yellow fever bulletin issued tonight shows: New cases, 20; deaths, 5; total cases to date, 768; total deaths, 77. Two deaths from yellow fever occurred at Minerva Monday, making a total of 10 deaths to date.
