LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THURSDAY'S DAILY, APRIL 12

An Omission.—We have received Norton's report for 1882 of some of our unknown, the gentleman whose signature is attached, Andrew Peterson, having inadvertently omitted to include the name of the place from which he wrote.

St. George Refresher.—We learn from President John D. McAllister, that St. George is visited by a copious rain-fall on Tuesday. The trees are out in bloom, lucern is about eight inches high and everything looks well.

Nest of Tramps.—According to statement of the Ogden Herald twenty-five tramps were found in a nest in a grove on the farm of Samuel Glasgow, northwest of that town. On Sunday they had a general fight, when blood flowed freely. Two of them were arrested yesterday.

To Preach at San Bernardino.—Rev. W. D. Kartchner, postmaster of Snow Flats, Apache Co., Arizona, is about to visit Philadelphia Pa. On the way to that point he purposes making a brief stay at San Bernardino, Cal., where he will preach on the doctrines inculcated in the Faith of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

Arrival of Immigrants.—At 11 o'clock to-day a company of about thirty immigrants from the Southern States Mission arrived by the Denver and Rio Grande R. R. The party were in charge of Elder William Asper. They were a portion of the company which left Chattanooga, in care of President John Morgan, the main body going to Yuma, Colorado, for the purpose of locating.

Reported Cinnabar Find.—The Utahian says that much excitement has been created in that town during the past ten days over a reported discovery by James Miller and another prospector of an immense ledge of cinnabar, about sixteen miles east of town. Whether the rock is genuine cinnabar or not is not prepared to say, but it certainly looks very much like it, and the discoverers assert in all apparent earnestness that they have succeeded in extracting some quicksilver therefrom by the old gun-barrel method.

A Filter.—A gentleman named L. Anderson is endeavoring to introduce in this city the Silex Company's filter, a small article in the shape of a ball, filled with crushed silica. It is attached to the mouth of the ordinary faucet and it is claimed that water passing through is freed from a variety of organic and other matter. Anything that will purify the water we drink is a decided benefit, especially if any means could be devised to free it from the lime held in solution, which is doubtful. But as to this little filter freeing water from noxious foreign substances that are held in mechanical rather than chemical solution, there is no doubt.

A Large Pick and Shovel Brigade.—The Denver and Rio Grande railroad being completed between here and Denver, the line has been cleared of construction workmen, a hundred of whom arrived in this city last night. They are to be once set to work on the grade between here and Ogden, as it is determined to push that part of the road to completion with all possible expedition. It is confidently anticipated that it will be finished and ready for operation by the 1st of May, when the independent through connection between the East and California will be established. The workmen had all left the depot at an early hour to-day, and could be seen in groups about the central part of town, giving the city an unusually lively appearance.

A Small-pox Scare.

ST. DAVID,
Cochise Co., Arizona,
March 25, 1883.

Editor Deseret News:

There were parties who came here a few days since, who had been exposed to small-pox, and a rash coming on two of the children, a rumor rapidly spread abroad that the disease had gained a foothold. The public school was dismissed, and matters investigated, and to-day we find that there is no small-pox, for which we feel thankful, and in case anyone has written otherwise, we send these lines that the truth may be known.

Your brethren,

FROM WEDNESDAY'S DAILY, APRIL 4

Unprofitable.—We hear of Elders engaging in public discussion with representatives of what is known as the Josephite Church. We venture a well considered opinion that, as a rule, there are many spheres in which the brethren could be more profitably employed. Discussions of this kind give the opposite side an appearance of importance that does not really belong to it. Figuratively speaking, shooting at a dead duck is a clear waste of ammunition.

Hitting Joseph Cook.—Rev. Joseph Cook, the "Mormon-eater," is constantly getting journalistic kicks from every quarter. The Philadelphia News says:

"Rev. Joseph Cook prefers English newspapers to the American because the English journals are printed on such good paper that you 'can carry them around the world,' while the American papers 'won't last three days.' Here would seem to be a chance for some enterprising American to publish a paper on block tin or boiler iron for the benefit of Joe Cook and other people who prefer old news to fresh."

For Passenger Traffic.—To-day we present the advertisement of the Denver & Rio Grande Railroad, which is to be opened for passenger traffic along the entire system, in Utah, Colorado and New Mexico, on the 8th of April. On that day a through express train, composed of palace sleepers and elegant first-class coaches will leave this city for Pueblo and Denver. The hour of departure will be announced in due time. The scenery along a large portion of the route is conspicuously grand, and the line is bound to be one of special favor with tourists.

A Useful Hint.—The Fireman's Journal is authority for the following remedy for cold feet, from which numbers of persons are constantly sufferers, besides those ordinarily exposed to cold: "All that is necessary is to stand erect and very gradually to lift one's self up upon the tips of the toes, so as to put all the tendons of the foot at full strain. The slower this is done the better, and remain standing on the point of the toes as long as possible, then gradually coming to the natural position. Repeat this several times and by the effort a sufficient and lively circulation is set up."

Solving the Water Problem.—This morning we received a pleasant call from Brother David Oandland, who resides at Chester, Sanpete County. It is a settlement of limited population, but the people have an enterprising genius. There has been in the past some difficulty with other towns in reference to water and water rights. Instead of engaging in and expending money for legal controversies they wisely commenced the construction of reservoirs, two of which are already built and a third in contemplation. One summer watering in ordinary seasons is sufficient for most of the land, and the means of reservation already completed has a capacity to supply between 750 and 1,000 acres. The reservoirs are a complete success, and other places would do well to follow Chester's example in solving the water problem where it is a perplexing question.

In the enterprise of construction of reservoirs and other improvements Bishop R. N. Alfred, I. N. Alfred and Hans Beck have been in the foremost rank.

FROM THURSDAY'S DAILY, APRIL 5

Severely Ill.—We regret to have to state that Bishop William Thorn, of the Seventh Ward, is prostrated with severe illness. He was attacked on Saturday last with inflammatory rheumatism, and has been confined to his bed ever since, and suffers very severely.

Bad Road.—Parties who have traveled by team up the State Road, inform us that it is almost practically impassable on each side of Gordon's Mill, at Cottonwood. It appears that the water seeps out of a race flume that crosses the road, making it horribly miry and muddy in all conditions of the weather. It ought to be fixed.

Fine Stock.—Some of our Southern Utah neighbors are going into the business of raising blooded stock. There are a couple of fine stallions in town, nearly pure Norman, lately purchased from M. W. Dunham, of Wayne, Illinois. They are both destined for Parowan, for which point they will leave to-morrow morning. One is the property of D. P. Clark and Sons, and the other of Adams Brothers, all of Parowan.

A Stolen Check.—Yesterday a colored individual named James Baker cashed, at Walker Brothers a discharge check from the Denver and Rio Grande railroad Co., calling for $31. This dark complexioned person purchased a quantity of clothing with the amount, and put on considerable style, but it transpired that all this was done at someone else's expense. The check had been stolen from a railroad workman and Baker was arrested on a charge of having committed the theft. He stated that he got the paper from Wm. Brandon, a white man, and Wm. was also taken under the tender care of the police.

Z. C. M. I.—At a general meeting of the stockholders of Z. C. M. I. held in the Council House at two p. m., at which about two-thirds of the stock was represented, the President's report was read, received, approved and adopted. A dividend of five per cent was declared, and after setting aside a sum out of the half year's earnings, sufficient to meet this, the balance was carried to the reserve and contingent fund account, which now amounts to something like $110,900.00.

President John Taylor was elected President of Z. C. M. I., to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of W. H. Hooper.

A vote of thanks was tendered to the officers and directors of the Institution for the able and efficient manner in which its affairs had been administered and managed. Adjourned sine die.

A COOL ROBBERY.

A ROOM RANSACKED AND A TRUNK CARRIED BODILY AWAY.

At an early hour this morning a robbery was committed at the house of Mrs. Winters, in the Thirteenth Ward. A man named Peter Poloski, formerly employed at the White House, but who lately returned from a visit to Chicago, occupied an upstairs room of the house in question. It appears that burglars gained an entrance to the building by a side hall door. Proceeding up stairs they entered Poloski's apartment, by climbing through the transom and unlocking the door, the key being in the lock on the inside. A number of spent matches and drops of sperm, which had fallen from a candle upon the carpet and articles in the room showed that the thieves had taken plenty of time. They searched Mr. Poloski's clothing, from which they took all the loose cash, amounting, however, to an insignificant sum. They also carried off half a dozen rings, a gold Geneva watch, and several other articles of jewelry. Finally they carried away bodily a large leather trunk, filled with clothing and a variety of other property. This morning the trunk was found by officers A. Smith and W. Salmon, on the northwest corner of Washington Square, just inside the fence.

The remarkable feature of the whole affair is that while Mr. Poloski's room was being ransacked and his goods being removed from the room he was completely unconscious of what was transpiring, which can only be accounted for by the fact that he was under the soporific effect of a quantity of beer.

With the exception of a number of shirts, of the contents of the trunk which had been broken open, remained, so far as its owner could ascertain on a cursory examination, intact. Mr. Poloski estimates his loss at about one hundred and fifty dollars. No clue has yet been found to the perpetrators of the robbery.

Since the above was written we learn that a large napkin left behind by the robbers, was found in the room, and there is a strong probability that Mr. Poloski was drugged by the thieves.

Ladies and all sufferers from neuralgia, hysteria and kindred complaints, will find without a rival Brown's Iron Bitters.

If every individual and every family would bestow a tithe of the care requisite in any ordinary attack of acute disease, in striving to prevent and ward off its attacks, there would rarely be any use for calling in the aid of the physician. In all ordinary derangements of the stomach, bowels, liver or kidneys, you need only a few doses of Emil Freese's Hamburg Tea.
