The entertainments given by that educational institution are always excellent. The programme includes songs, recitations, charades, &c.

> A Heavy Storm. - During las night a tremendous storm prevailed, commencing about half-past two this a. m. The heavens opened their batteries of artillery, the reports from which rolled and reverberated until the earth seemed to shake. The lightening was very brilliant, brightening the surrounding scenery with rapid flashes. The rain descended for a considerable time in a continuous pour, varied occasionally with the rattling of hail. Rain fell also smartly this morning, at different times.

The Real Object .- The few rabid anti-"Mormon" special-legislation, strife-creating individuals, whose efforts are almost solely directed toward mischief-making in the community, are very anxious that Saints should be kept from view. They are, however, continuously packed grand jury, subsequently showing the cloven foot, manifest- declared illegal by the Supreme object?

"Mormonism," as it is generally called, is the true gaspel of Jesus Christ, revealed in these latter days through the Prophet Joseph Smith, and, as all persons familiar with the Scriptures are aware, that di-vine system includes a promise to the obedient, that they shall "know of the doctrine if it be of God."

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints sends its Elders forth without purse or scrip, as was done anciently, "into all the world." People hear, believe and obey their message, and gather with the main body of the Church. They do this because by their obe-dience they know of the doctrine, this knowledge and the spirit of the Lord causing this concert of To illustrate this so-called "one-man power," we will cite an in-stance suppose President Brigham Young and his Counsellors and the Twelve Apostles say to the Latter-day Baints, "We must build a Temple at St. George."

The Latter-day Saints, under-standing the necessity of building temples, in which to perform the most sacred ordinances for the living and the dead, respond, "Yes, we must have a temple at St.

George." How much will it cost? Only about $600,000.

How shall we get the means? Let the people donate it.

The people, from President Brigham Young down, for he is always foremost in such matters, hand over the $600,000, as the means is required and there is the means is required and there is the Femple, a beautiful edifice, and there is one of the hundreds of thousands of monuments of the freedom, the unity of purpose and integrity and concert of action of the Latter-day Saints. It is the secret, under the blessing of Almighty God, of their power and success. It is the genuine objective point of the machinations and evil lesigns of their enemies. Question-What do you say to the reports about the "Mormons" drilling, about a prospective "up-rising," and about an intention on the part of President Young and the "Mormons" resisting the adadministration of the law, should certain contingencies arise? Answer—The merest moonshine. If anybody is scared about the "Mormons," they have been crea-ting ghosts with which to disturb their own rest. The past course of President Young should be sufficient refutation of the hubbub about anticipated resistance, &c. About six years ago, when the seat of the Chief Justice of Utah and the bench of the Third District Court was filled by that incurable their real object in inciting popular religious fanatic and semi-lunatic, feeling against the Latter-day J. B. McKcan, an indictment was tound against the President by what was generally held to be a Court of the land, and a warrant probable that the indiscriminate use of fire-erackers and other ex-plosives will be prohibited by the city anthorities this year. Last Sunday all the excursion boats leaving the city for a trip up the Hudson, or a glimpse of the ocean, were crowded, and Central Park was swarming with people seeking the fresh spring air. servatively, and seems more like an experiment than a reform. Collector Arthur claims to be the slave of the old system of bestowing poli-tical patronage, and says that the New York custom house, is but a huge hospital for defeated and broken down politicians, that these patients were brought to him by Senators and Members of Congress, and that he dare not refuse to care for them.

Tweed's chances for breathing the free air again are not so promis-ing now as they seemed about the time of the publication of the story of his flight from the city, his hair of his hight from the city, his hair breadth escapes, &c., which appear-ed in print about a month ago. There has been bad management of his case either on his own or his friends' part, and the chances of his prison doors swinging open when he opens his mouth are not so probable as they were. Most of the theatres clese this week for the season and the sum-mer gardens are already open and liberally patronized.
