

OLYMPIC PRIZES ARE DISTRIBUTED

Presented by Duchess of Rutland, Duchess of Westminster and Lady Desborough.

HALSWELLE WON 400 METRE.

He Didn't Reduce Record and "Baked" at Same Place As Thursday.

Fast Winner of Marathon Race, Visited the Commons—Dorando Too Late To Protest.

London, July 25.—John J. Hayes with the Marathon honors fresh upon him, visited the house of commons this afternoon. He was introduced to several of the members, who congratulated him upon his brilliant performance.

There was a fair attendance at the stadium this afternoon to witness the concluding contests of the Olympic games and the distribution of prizes. The winners of silver and bronze medals, diplomas of special merit and special commemorative medals formed on the far side of the arena and marched by the cycle track to tables opposite the royal box, where the silver medalists received their tokens from the Duchess of Rutland. The winners of bronze medals were given their prizes by Catherine, Duchess of Westminster, while the diplomas of merit and the commemorative medals were presented by Lady Desborough.

Porro, Italy, won the lightweight Greco-Roman wrestling; Orloff, Russia, second, and Linden, Finland, third. The middleweight of the Greco-Roman wrestling was won by Martensson, Sweden, with Anderson, Sweden, second, and Andersen, Denmark, third. The final in the 1,600 metre relay race was won easily by the American team. The final in the 110 metre hurdle race was won by F. C. Smithson, Multnomah A. C.; J. C. Garrels, Chicago A. A., second, and A. B. Shaw, Dartmouth college, third. Time—15 seconds, which is the world's record. Smithson came in two yards in front of Garrels.

The final in the 1,500-metre swim was won by Taylor, United Kingdom; Batsch, United Kingdom, second; Baupard, Australia, third. Batsch, who was a close second, continued to the mile post in an effort to make a new record. He covered the distance in 21 minutes 35 seconds, which is 9.5 seconds better than the previous record.

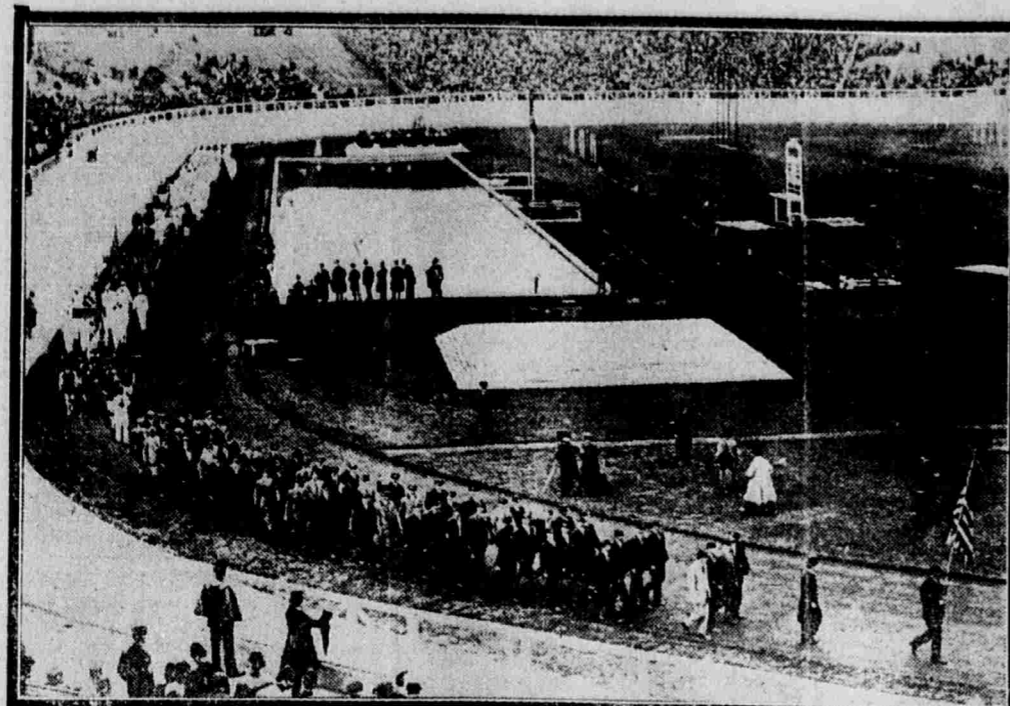

HALSWELLE "BORED" HIMSELF. Amid the cheers of several hundreds of his countrymen, Halswelle, the English runner, this morning "walked over" in the final of the 400-meter flat race in the Olympics which was run originally last Thursday and won by J. C. Carpenter, Cornell University. This is the race that was declared void by the judges on the allegation which has been denied by the Americans that Halswelle had been "bored" by the judges. Halswelle was disqualified from competing again and J. B. Taylor, Irish-American Athletic club, and W. C. Robbins of Cambridge, Mass., withdrew and would not run.

Halswelle did not really walk; he ran, and ran hard, in an effort to establish a new Olympic record. His performance was a great disappointment after all that had been expected. It was firmly believed that the most talked of athlete in the stadium, until the Marathon race results displaced him in this regard, would clip at least a fraction of a second off the record of 49.5. Instead, it took Halswelle a full 50 seconds to cover the distance. He started hard just as in the case of last Thursday, he was all out when he came to the stretch after rounding the turn where all the trouble in the previous race occurred. Halswelle went up when Halswelle finished, but much to the surprise of the spectators it was several minutes before a flag was unfurled and sent to the top of the staff to denote a British victory. The blue jackets having this work in hand had misled their Union Jack team where all the trouble in the previous race occurred. Halswelle had done what he believed to be right but the experts thought that he had hardly justified his pre-race confidence. Halswelle was able to beat Carpenter and Robbins both of whom had better time on Thursday than the English runner made today.

The runner-up, step and jump, was the only event of the morning. Ahearne, United Kingdom, with 48 feet 3 1/2 inches, Lawson, Norway 47 feet 2 1/2 inches and McDonald, Canada, 46 feet 4 inches qualified for the final. Both Ahearne and McDonald improved their jumps in the final doing, respectively, 48 feet 1 1/2 inches, and 47 feet 1 1/2 inches. Lawson got this with 47 feet 3 1/2 inches, Bricker, Canada, with 46 feet 3 inches, and Platt Adams, New York A. C., with 46 feet 2 inches. Both Ahearne and McDonald improved their jumps in the final doing, respectively, 48 feet 1 1/2 inches, and 47 feet 1 1/2 inches. Lawson got this with 47 feet 3 1/2 inches, Bricker, Canada, with 46 feet 3 inches, and Platt Adams, New York A. C., with 46 feet 2 inches. Both Ahearne and McDonald improved their jumps in the final doing, respectively, 48 feet 1 1/2 inches, and 47 feet 1 1/2 inches. Lawson got this with 47 feet 3 1/2 inches, Bricker, Canada, with 46 feet 3 inches, and Platt Adams, New York A. C., with 46 feet 2 inches.

DORANDO WANTED TO PROTEST. Dorando, the Italian runner who was asked yesterday to the tape in the final of the Marathon race, who has quite recovered from the strain of his awful effort, desired today to lodge a protest of the giving this race to John J. Hayes, Irish-American A. C., on the ground that he had been interfered with by officials of the course, and that if he had been left alone he could have finished without assistance. His protest, however, would have come too late for consideration and he therefore did not enter it.

Two Views of the Americans at the Olympic Games

AMERICAN ATHLETES PASSING IN REVIEW. Ralph Rose Heading With The Flag.

BREAKING THE 1,500 METRES RECORD. Sheppard of the Americans at The Finish.

JESSE KNIGHT AS SMELTER BUILDER

President Brimhall Declares That A Miner May Still Be A Christian.

DEDICATION OF NEW PLANT

It Is Made In Service at Silver City And Prayer by President Smith At the Plant.

That Jesse C. Knight of Provo has founded a new era for the mining industry, in which he has proved that a man may be at the same time a Christian and a miner, was the tribute paid to him at Silver City yesterday afternoon.

The words were spoken by President G. H. Brimhall, a fellow townsman, and were applauded by thousands of people on whose breasts fluttered badges declaring them to be from Provo, Eureka, Nephi, Payson, Spanish Fork or Salt Lake. Behind the tented rostrum where President Brimhall spoke rose the majestic heights of Eureka peak, around which are circled the great mines from which Tintic's wealth is poured. In the immediate background were the steep roofs and tall sides of "hoisting works" which proclaimed with their slanting piles of blasted rock that here stood the property of the Swansons.

Before the rostrum on the lower slopes of the hill was the new Knight smelter, and far off in the valley below were the shimmering roofs of the Salt Lake route station on the main line to Los Angeles. The setting was a peculiarly inspiring one in which to pay a tribute to Mr. Knight for the work at Tintic which has made his Colorado and other mines famous, and his new smelter a necessity, while through his refusing to take advantage of the many tricks of the mining "game," has made him meanwhile a great citizen.

A DELAYED TRAIN.

The celebration yesterday was a complete success except for perhaps 1,000 people who took the 8 o'clock train. This time increased to 10 o'clock train, by holding an "at home" in each siding after leaving Provo, and finally at the end of the line, the Tintic branch road, landing its passengers, worn out and tired, at 2:30 p. m. instead of at 11:30 a. m. as scheduled. Returning at 7 p. m. the same train, this time increased to 14 coaches, kept the same program of long stops and arrived at Salt Lake at 12:35 p. m. Not a drop of water had been placed in any of the cars for the return trip, and sometimes the inconvenience of passengers on the long journey amounted to actual suffering. Mrs. James P. Dunn of Provo, fainting when the train stalled on the incoming trip on a high trestle, and her husband after going through every one of the 14 cars was unable to secure a drop of water for her.

CROWD WAS IMMENSE.

The people who turned out to pay a tribute to President "Uncle Jesse" numbered nearly 8,000. They came by way of both the Rio Grande and the Salt Lake routes, and in hundreds of wagons, and represented every part of Utah, the greater number being from Salt Lake, Utah and Juab counties.

At the smelter site every preparation had been made to insure the visitors a successful holiday. Long benches on which an excellent lunch was served, had been arranged, and there was ample lunch for everyone in spite of the fact that the crowd was nearly three times as big as had been expected.

MR. BRYAN WANTS MACK FOR MANAGER

Latter is Not Candidate for Chairmanship but Would Serve If Party Drafted Him.

SEVERAL NAMES SUGGESTED

No Choice Made at Informal Meeting Of Democratic Sub-Committee—Number Willing.

Chicago, July 25.—If he will take the position, Norman E. Mack will manage the Democratic campaign this fall. He is Mr. Bryan's choice.

Mr. Mack, when the informal conference broke up, declared he was not a candidate for the chairmanship, but would serve if the party drafted him. This was generally taken to mean that he would be the new chairman.

UNKNOWN BANDIT

Captures Rocky Ford, Colo., City Marshal and Deputy.

Rocky Ford, Colo., July 25.—City Marshal Croop and Frank Johns, while searching for a set of stolen harness, were captured near here yesterday by an unknown bandit. The pair were forced to accompany the bandit across the plains until darkness set in and then, turning loose, they made their way to the Carpenter house, where eight miles distant, and telephoned to Sheriff Potter at Lagunita. A posse was formed and started in pursuit of the bandit.

Transients, hoboes and Commercial street denizens cannot vote at next Wednesday's bond election. There will be challenges at every polling place to see that property owners only are admitted.

STANDARD OIL CASE.

President's Statement Has Galvanic Effect on Government Attorneys.

Chicago, July 25.—President Roosevelt's statement on the Standard Oil decision had the effect of a galvanic battery on the government's legal forces in Chicago yesterday. Dist. Atty. Sims and his assistants are straining every nerve to regain the $25,000,000 fine, which slipped through their fingers in the decision of the court of appeals.

The government prosecutor bases his hope on the theory of Atty. Gen. Bonaparte, that the issues may be appealed to the United States supreme court through application for a writ of certiorari.

The course of action as now mapped out by the government is understood to include an application by the attorney-general for a writ of certiorari and a petition for a re-hearing before the United States court of appeals.

MR. BRYAN WANTS MACK FOR MANAGER

Latter is Not Candidate for Chairmanship but Would Serve If Party Drafted Him.

SEVERAL NAMES SUGGESTED

No Choice Made at Informal Meeting Of Democratic Sub-Committee—Number Willing.

Chicago, July 25.—If he will take the position, Norman E. Mack will manage the Democratic campaign this fall. He is Mr. Bryan's choice.

Mr. Mack, when the informal conference broke up, declared he was not a candidate for the chairmanship, but would serve if the party drafted him. This was generally taken to mean that he would be the new chairman.

When the sub-committee of the national committee of the Democratic party arrived here this afternoon, it was determined to convene at noon, but an informal session was held, beginning at 11 o'clock, in the green room at the Auditorium Annex, adjoining the suite occupied by Mr. Bryan, who arrived this morning from Lincoln, Neb. after the informal meeting began, Mr. Bryan joined the committeemen.

He said that in selecting the national chairman it is necessary that some man be appointed who has had actual business experience as well as having served a long and honorable term in the ranks of the leaders in the Democratic party. Stresses were laid upon the necessity of naming a man with qualifications as a business man. Several names were mentioned at that convention. Among them were those of Martin J. Wade of Iowa, and Timothy E. Ryan of Wisconsin, both gentlemen being members of the sub-committee. Another man mentioned whose names were mentioned prominently, were Martin J. Wade of Iowa, and Timothy E. Ryan of Wisconsin, both gentlemen being members of the sub-committee.

Mr. Mack, when the informal conference broke up, declared he was not a candidate for the chairmanship, but would serve if the party drafted him. This was generally taken to mean that he would be the new chairman.

When the sub-committee of the national committee of the Democratic party arrived here this afternoon, it was determined to convene at noon, but an informal session was held, beginning at 11 o'clock, in the green room at the Auditorium Annex, adjoining the suite occupied by Mr. Bryan, who arrived this morning from Lincoln, Neb. after the informal meeting began, Mr. Bryan joined the committeemen.

He said that in selecting the national chairman it is necessary that some man be appointed who has had actual business experience as well as having served a long and honorable term in the ranks of the leaders in the Democratic party. Stresses were laid upon the necessity of naming a man with qualifications as a business man. Several names were mentioned at that convention.

Among them were those of Martin J. Wade of Iowa, and Timothy E. Ryan of Wisconsin, both gentlemen being members of the sub-committee. Another man mentioned whose names were mentioned prominently, were Martin J. Wade of Iowa, and Timothy E. Ryan of Wisconsin, both gentlemen being members of the sub-committee.

Mr. Mack, when the informal conference broke up, declared he was not a candidate for the chairmanship, but would serve if the party drafted him. This was generally taken to mean that he would be the new chairman.

When the sub-committee of the national committee of the Democratic party arrived here this afternoon, it was determined to convene at noon, but an informal session was held, beginning at 11 o'clock, in the green room at the Auditorium Annex, adjoining the suite occupied by Mr. Bryan, who arrived this morning from Lincoln, Neb. after the informal meeting began, Mr. Bryan joined the committeemen.

He said that in selecting the national chairman it is necessary that some man be appointed who has had actual business experience as well as having served a long and honorable term in the ranks of the leaders in the Democratic party. Stresses were laid upon the necessity of naming a man with qualifications as a business man. Several names were mentioned at that convention.

KILLS FATHER TO SAVE MOTHER

Shocking Termination of Holiday Outing at Kamas, Summit County.

PARENT IS KILLED BY SON

William J. Pace Shot Through the Heart When He Threatens to Kill His Wife With a Revolver.

(Special to the "News.") Kamas, Summit Co., July 25.—A shocking homicide closed the Pioneer celebration here yesterday, when William B. Pace, a young man of 26, shot and killed his father, William J. Pace, son of the late Col. Wm. B. Pace of Provo.

The dead man was about 54 years old, had been a habitual drinker and frequently abused and threatened his wife and children. Yesterday, all the members of the family who live at Woodland, some three miles from this place, except the father, came to Kamas to celebrate the 24th. After the ball game in the evening the family drove home, and sent one of the boys on ahead to drive in the cows. As the boy came up to the corral his father came out of the house in a very ugly mood, being mad with drink and ordered the boy to drive the cows back again. Just then the rest of the family drove up and the mother told the boy to put the cows up so that they could be milked. The father then turned upon all the family and roundly abused them and ordered them to leave the place. The team was hitched up again and the wife and children began loading in some of their things, among them being a rifle belonging to the oldest son, Will. The father continued his abuse, struck and choked his wife, when one of the boys got an ax to defend his mother. The old man then went to the house and got a revolver, threatening to kill the whole family. He chased after his son Will, with the pistol leveled upon him, and was fully justified, as it was reported, in his shooting his father. The father was shot in the chest and died almost instantly.

DESERTER FROM ARMY OVERTAKEN BY WIRELESS

New York, July 25.—Pursued in his flight from Bermuda by the wireless dispatches which led to his apprehension 500 miles at sea, a deserter from the British army, who had been in Hamilton, Bermuda, in order that he might be with his American bride, was taken back to the military prison at St. George, while the New York Times reported that he was seriously ill as a result of the disastrous ending of his romance.

The story was brought in when the Bermuda was docked at Hamilton, after a long and arduous journey. It was a result of the fact that the "garrison" officials, suspecting that the young soldier was aboard, recalled the ship by wireless, giving at the same time a description of him by which he was easily recognized.

It is reported that Goodwin recently married Miss Kate Goodwin, an American girl living in Bermuda, in violation of the rules in the British army which prohibits privates from marrying and it was therefore necessary that he be smuggled out of the country. The young bride, who had made all the necessary arrangements, bought a ticket to New York, and helped him to get aboard undetected.

Vote for bonds, and vote for graft, if you like.

ILLINOIS JURY APPROVES OF THE UNWRITTEN LAW

Chicago, July 25.—"We, the jury believe that said William E. Brantletsky, was acting in the protection of his wife and home at the time of the shooting, and exonerate him from all blame and recommend his release from further custody."

Thus concluded a coroner's jury yesterday at the inquest over the body of Lucas Sletten, who was shot and killed by a bed-tidden, invalid husband in the latter's home at 4097 Grand Boulevard Thursday night. The jury completely vindicated the man whose young wife was harassed and attacked, his children beaten and his home wrecked by Sletten.

Mrs. Brantletsky, a little woman 26 years old, was the principal witness at the inquest. She related a story of 10 months intimacy with Sletten, how he enticed her away from her husband, continued advances, and her subsequent hate and fear of the man.

Then she told of the final scene—her struggles with Sletten in the dining room and before her husband's eyes in his bed room, in which she was nearly choked to death and the two shots which ended Sletten's life.

KILLS FATHER TO SAVE MOTHER

Shocking Termination of Holiday Outing at Kamas, Summit County.

PARENT IS KILLED BY SON

William J. Pace Shot Through the Heart When He Threatens to Kill His Wife With a Revolver.

(Special to the "News.") Kamas, Summit Co., July 25.—A shocking homicide closed the Pioneer celebration here yesterday, when William B. Pace, a young man of 26, shot and killed his father, William J. Pace, son of the late Col. Wm. B. Pace of Provo.

The dead man was about 54 years old, had been a habitual drinker and frequently abused and threatened his wife and children. Yesterday, all the members of the family who live at Woodland, some three miles from this place, except the father, came to Kamas to celebrate the 24th. After the ball game in the evening the family drove home, and sent one of the boys on ahead to drive in the cows. As the boy came up to the corral his father came out of the house in a very ugly mood, being mad with drink and ordered the boy to drive the cows back again. Just then the rest of the family drove up and the mother told the boy to put the cows up so that they could be milked. The father then turned upon all the family and roundly abused them and ordered them to leave the place. The team was hitched up again and the wife and children began loading in some of their things, among them being a rifle belonging to the oldest son, Will. The father continued his abuse, struck and choked his wife, when one of the boys got an ax to defend his mother. The old man then went to the house and got a revolver, threatening to kill the whole family. He chased after his son Will, with the pistol leveled upon him, and was fully justified, as it was reported, in his shooting his father. The father was shot in the chest and died almost instantly.

DESERTER FROM ARMY OVERTAKEN BY WIRELESS

New York, July 25.—Pursued in his flight from Bermuda by the wireless dispatches which led to his apprehension 500 miles at sea, a deserter from the British army, who had been in Hamilton, Bermuda, in order that he might be with his American bride, was taken back to the military prison at St. George, while the New York Times reported that he was seriously ill as a result of the disastrous ending of his romance.

The story was brought in when the Bermuda was docked at Hamilton, after a long and arduous journey. It was a result of the fact that the "garrison" officials, suspecting that the young soldier was aboard, recalled the ship by wireless, giving at the same time a description of him by which he was easily recognized.

It is reported that Goodwin recently married Miss Kate Goodwin, an American girl living in Bermuda, in violation of the rules in the British army which prohibits privates from marrying and it was therefore necessary that he be smuggled out of the country. The young bride, who had made all the necessary arrangements, bought a ticket to New York, and helped him to get aboard undetected.

Vote for bonds, and vote for graft, if you like.

ILLINOIS JURY APPROVES OF THE UNWRITTEN LAW

Chicago, July 25.—"We, the jury believe that said William E. Brantletsky, was acting in the protection of his wife and home at the time of the shooting, and exonerate him from all blame and recommend his release from further custody."

Thus concluded a coroner's jury yesterday at the inquest over the body of Lucas Sletten, who was shot and killed by a bed-tidden, invalid husband in the latter's home at 4097 Grand Boulevard Thursday night. The jury completely vindicated the man whose young wife was harassed and attacked, his children beaten and his home wrecked by Sletten.

Mrs. Brantletsky, a little woman 26 years old, was the principal witness at the inquest. She related a story of 10 months intimacy with Sletten, how he enticed her away from her husband, continued advances, and her subsequent hate and fear of the man.

Then she told of the final scene—her struggles with Sletten in the dining room and before her husband's eyes in his bed room, in which she was nearly choked to death and the two shots which ended Sletten's life.

HEARST DECLARES HE CANNOT ACCEPT

In No Circumstances Will He Be Presidential Candidate of Independence Party.

HE HAS GIVEN HIS WORD

All is Ready for Opening of National Convention in Chicago Next Monday

Temporary Offices Have Been Selected By the Full Committee—Hearst For Temporary Chairman.

New York, July 25.—William Randolph Hearst, who arrived from Europe today was asked if he would accept the nomination for the presidency on the Independence league ticket if he should be shown that the sentiment of the league was unanimously for his nomination. Mr. Hearst replied: "I cannot. I have given my word that under no circumstances will I be a candidate. I have given my word and I will abide by it."

"Is there any probability, in your opinion, Mr. Hearst, that the Independence league may endorse either the Republican or the Democratic candidate?" was asked.

"The sentiment before I left here," was the answer, "was for a third ticket. If there is any sentiment now for an endorsement of either the Republican or Democratic candidate, I for one, don't know of it. I have heard of no change in the sentiment."

"Do you consider that the Republicans nominated the strongest man possible?"

Mr. Hearst laughed and said: "The people will decide that." "If the sentiment of the Independence league convention of this year should be shown very clearly to be unanimously for your nomination as the party candidate for the presidency, would you accept the nomination?"

"I cannot," came the reply quickly, and with a decisive emphasis. "I have given my word that under no circumstances will I be a candidate. I have given my word and will abide by it."

"Does that pledge hold good for future years, for 1912, for instance, as well as for this year?"

Again Mr. Hearst laughed, and he answered: "You have been going into my past, and here now you proceed into my future. I think anything further from me today must be included in the arrangement I have already made."

This referred to a promise to answer in writing later in the day any question the newspaper men might submit to him in his last interview.

Mr. Hearst will leave this afternoon for Chicago, where on Monday he will preside at the opening of the first national convention of the Independence party.

READY FOR CONVENTION.

Chicago, July 25.—With the ratification today by the Independence National committee of the plan for temporary organization recommended by the sub-committee on arrangements, all is in readiness for the session of the convention of that party tomorrow night. Some strictly temporary officers were made as follows:

Temporary Chairman—William R. Hearst, New York.

Temporary Secretary—W. A. DeFord, New York.

Sergeant-at-arms—Frank Brust, Illinois.

The full national committee meet today to pass upon the arrangements. It was said last night that Mr. Brust had declined to accept the tentative appointment as sergeant-at-arms and probably an eastern man may be named in his stead. About 90 delegates were expected to be in their seats in Thomas Orchestra hall when the gavel falls for the opening session. Every state in the Union, it is said, will be represented by delegates. There will be delegates from the territories and no alternates. Preliminary gossip of possibilities for the presidential nomination deals with seven candidates, or more strictly speaking, six candidates exclusive of Mr. Hearst who has announced that he does not desire the honor, notwithstanding he already has the endorsement of several states and the District of Columbia. After Mr. Hearst, the greatest strength were said to be Thomas L. Hagen of Massachusetts, John Temple Graves of Georgia, and E. M. Howard of Alabama. Mr. Hagen is credited with being the choice of Mr. Hearst for the head of the ticket and it was considered likely that in the event of another than Mr. Graves being named for president, the Georgia candidate would be nominated for the vice presidency. Mr. Hearst, according to advisers received at the party headquarters last night was sure to arrive in New York from Europe today and may be expected in Chicago on the "Twentieth Century" limited tomorrow morning. All the delegations will caucus Monday again and the various committee will be announced at the opening session right after Mr. Hearst has delivered his keynote speech outlining the policies of the party in the coming campaign. Since there will be no contests before the credentials, it is believed now that the convention will proceed without delay to the adoption of a platform which it is believed will be accomplished by Tuesday, and nominations will then be in order and a third session may not be required.

What does a sensible business man do when confronted with a deficit? He retrenches. What does an "American" City Council majority do? It increases its expenses, mortgages and shifts the load on posterity.