

Miss Dorothy Mariel Injured in an

and the streets have been crowded with people coming to enter their names for a chance in the drawing for lands. The strangers began coming two weeks ago, and each day added to the number of new faces to be seen. Yesterday the rush was on in earnest, and the trains were packed to the doors. The sity council and chamber of com-are electric lighted and supplied with all conveniences. In order to check any tendency to-ward extortion, the city council has required all persons establishing tem-porary restaurants to file a list of pric-es, and they will not be allowed to ex-ceed them. The reservation is a splen-did body of fruit, agricultural, grazing and insper lands containing in all did body of fruit, agricultural, grazing and timber lands, containing in all, about a million and a quarter acres. It is similar in the soil, and general ap-pearance of the Flathead reservation, being separated by the Flathead lake, being the largest fresh water body in the west or northwest.

SUBMRAINE TORPEDOBOAT

and went to the bottom with it.

And the

SAYLER'S PRIVATE PACKET.

Has Been Opened and Reveals Some Startling Things.

Crescent City, Ill., July 15 .- Contents of he private packet left by the late Bank-

r J: B. Sayler, opened today, are said row was saved.

ficers had held them up and robbed them of $100, were arraigned before Judge Bowman this morning on a charge of that'll fix it about right."

benses from June 19, to July 4, had been $448. A letter apparently written by his mother, said that no more money would be sent hid until he re-turned to his school at Poughkeepsie.

St. Louis, July 15.—Only the poor alm of his assailant prevented the assistin-ation early today of Tom Benzolst, a wealthy manufacturer and clubman, who was attacked in his auromobile on who was attacked in his auromobile on who was attacked in his autom blue on a dark country, road between Wash-ington university and Clayton, St. Louis county. No attempt was made to rob Mr. Benoist, and the motive for

Mr. Benzolst told the police that he was stopped by a man who told him that a companion bad been hurt and was stopped by a bad been hurt and asked that the automobile be used to take the injurad person back to Clay-ton. The machine was started toward the place indicated, but when a partic-ularly shaded place was reached anoth-er man ran from the roadside, leaped upon the footboard of the automobile and fired three shits at its occupant. One of the bullets passed through the crown of Mr. Benoist's hat and an-other clipped the hair from his tem-ple. The pistol was held so close to his beed that his face was flecked with head that his face was flexed with powder marks. Without waiting to see the result of the shooting, the assailant and his con-federate fiel to the woods. Mr. Ben-olst reported the occurrence to the St. Louis police, who in turn notified the county authorities. known methods of hypnotism."

GREAT BEDS OF ASPHALTUM ON SHOSHONE RESERVATION

Cheyenne, Wyo., July 15.—Immense quantities of asphaltum have been found on the Shoshone Indian reserva-tion, and a stampede from Lander to stake out claims and secure land from the Indians is taking place.

J. J. HILL MAKES CONDITIONAL PREDICTION

Washington, July 15.—"As soon as the tariff is out of the way," said James J. Hill, the railroad magnate, who yesterday was one of President Tait's callers, "this country will enjoy a prosperity which will at least equal if it does not surpass that which it knew under the McKinley administra-tion

Last month I traveled extensively through the west and I never saw such activity among the farmers. Everythrough the west and I never saw such activity among the farmers. Every-where I made inquiry and learned and saw that crops were abundant and the farmers were satisfied. Signs of finan-cial depression of 1907 are fast fading. "Freight cars will be at a premium within a few weeks. We of the rail-road world judge the prosperity of the pation as much by the number of tille road world judge the prosperity of the nation as much by the number of idle cars as anything else. Throughout the last year there have been thousands of cars idle but they will soon be roll-ing about the country filled with freight."

eral miles distant from the station, in fairly good condition. They had trav-eled quite a distance in search of the missing burro, and finally as darkness approached, they found themselves lost, not knowing which way to turn back to the stution. A joyful reunion fol-lowed between the father and his loved ones, and the party returned in safety to Crestline station.

RELIGIOUS REVIVALS SCORED AS UNNATURAL

Chicago, July 15 .- Religious "revivals" were classed with hypnotic seances and scored for their "unnatural and weird" results, yesterday, by Prof. Edward Scribner Ames, of the University of Chicago, in a lecture on "The De-velopment of the Personal Religious Experience," at the university. Prof. Ames declared that revival converts were likely to be undesirable additions to the church.

"In no respect is thore greater agreement among the psychologists of rell-gion than that the methods of the re-vivals are essentially methods of hypnotism," said the speaker. "The fix-ing of attention, the manipulation of subjects through a series of suggestions, the final mandatory exhortation to surrender and to indicate it by a simple response-all these are the well

NOVEL BUT EFFECTIVE WAY OF SERVING SUBPOENA

New York, July 15 .- Complainants in a suit against Samuel J. King, an insurance broker, were unable to serve a and bloker, were unable to serve a subpoend on him in his office and they employed a professional process server to do the work. He was no more suc-cessful by ordinary means, but by watching King's apartments he discov-ered that the diningroom window was usually open during meal time. He there is a service of the subpoend of the subpoend to a brick and hurled the brick through the win-dow at Mr. King. He reported in court that the brick hit Mr. King and he picked it up, thus constituting what the complainant's lawyer contended was legal service King denied that the brick struck him

Ang defined that the brick struck that and said that his son had picked up the missile and thrown it back into the street and he himself did not know there was a subpoena attached to it. The court has ordered a better service on King.

BOSTON SUFFRAGETTES

Boston, July 15 .-- Woman's suffrage was proclaimed above the pounding of road world judge the prosperity of the nation as much by the number of lide cars as anything else. Throughout the last year there have been thousands of cars lide but they will soon be rolling about the country filled with freight."

TRAINS RUNNING ALMOST ON SCHEDULE
Kannas City, July 15.—Almost normal condition, after two weeks of flood weather, were resumed in western Missuuri and in Kansas today. Trains men.

robbery. Through their counsel they asked the statutory time in which to plead, and were released from custody were packed to the doors. The city council and chamber of com-merce joined in the erection of a num-ber of large temporary buildings, which are electric lighted and supplied with under $500 bonds each. The defendants will enter their pleas The defendants will enter their pleas tomorrow, and the case promises to be one of interest. The Greeks allege that they were stopped by the officers while they were on their way to their bunk car, and that the officers ordered them to hold up their hands, displaying a gun. When Nick Dallas refused to comply with the order, he says, he was struck over the head with a revolver in the hand of Nutter, inflict-ing a severe wound. Then the pockets of the two Greeks were rifled, and $100 taken from Nick Dallas.

taken from Nick Dallas.

ANNA ABBOTT'S JEWELS

She May Have to Pay Uncle Sam Tidy Sum to Get Them.

Pittsburg, July 15 .- James Feldman

AND 16 MEN SUNK and the jewelry gifts from European Londn, July 15 .- A wireless message royalty which he confessed stealing eccived at Portsmouth states that from Mrs. Anna Abbott of Philadelubmarine torpedobot "C 11" was in phia, were taken back to Philadelphia phia, were taken oack to "Intadephia vesterday by a detective. But the "lit-tle Georgia Magnet," as Mrs. Abbott was known years ago on the stage, may have to pay a large sum before she regains the jewelry, valued at $35,000. Agents of the United States treasury department in Philadelphia, were so collision late last night with an un-known steamship near Lowestoft and Another submarine boat, "C 17," was also damaged in the collision, but the It is understood that the crew of the "C 11" had no chance to escape; that they were locked inside the submarine regains the jeweiry, valued at $35,000. Agents of the United States treasury department in Philadelphia were so surprised by her statement that she brought jewelry valued at $57,000 to this country without paying duty, that Special Treasury Agent G. W. Stratton is invertigating the case. Mrs. Abbott also was surprised at the inquiry, and said that she had taken her jewelry across the ocean three times without paying duty, as she said the jewelry consisted of presents to her from crowned heads and other European nobility. In 1893, and in 1897, she said, she arrived in New York and that the customs agents had passed her, gems free of duty when they saw the letters she carried from the don-ors declaring they were gifts. Feldman said he met Mrs. Abbott through a matroimonial advertisement inserted by him in a Philadelphia news-paper eight months ago.

TERRIBLE AUTO ACCIDENT.

Savannah, Ga., July 14.-One dead and nine badly burned is the result of an automobile accident which occurred last evening about five miles from Syl vania, Ga.

While crossing a bridge the gasofine tank was pierced and the fluid, which fell on the occupants of the car, took

* MEET IN THE WATER | O. H. P. BELMONT'S WIDOW WEATHER FORECAST. FOR WOMAN SUFFRAGE Fair Tonight and Friday. New York, July 15 .- That Mrs. Alvah E. Belmont, widow of O. H. P. Bel-TODAY'S TEMPERATURES. mont, is greatly in earnest in her sup-port of the cause of woman's suffrage, is indicated by her lease for a long term of years of the entire seventh flaor of a large office building in Tifth 0 a.m. avenue. These will be the offices of the Woman's Suffrage league, and from there an extensive and costly 11 a.m ...

YESTERDAY'S RECORD.

campaign throughout the country will be conducted. Mrs. Belmont is guar-anteeing all expenses. The floor will t is guaralso contain the club rooms of the wo-

WESTERN FEDERATION OF MINERS' CONVENTION

Denver, July 15 .- The morning session of the convention of the Western Federation of Miners was taken up with a contest over the permanent seating of Edward Hammond, elected seating of Edward Hammond, elected from Laurium, Mich., but whose seat was afterward protested by his own union on the ground that he had not raid his initiation fee. A rule of the order prevents accepting an Industrial Workers of the World card for initia-tion fee. The union not knowing this, accepted his I. W. W. card and elected him a delegate. The charge is now him a delegate. The charge is now made that Hammond joined with lead-ers of the I. W. W. to take advantage of the union's ignorance on this point and thus gain one more vote. The discussion was very bitter and brought out the full strength of the I. W. W. and its opponents. The lie was passed several times. The leaders for Hammond claim they are not fight ing for the I. W. W. but against the "czarism" of the present officials. The fight was still in progress when adjournment was taken until afternoon.

So She Said on Witness Stand in Answer to Question by Attorney For New York State.

White Plains, N. Y., July 15.-Evelyn Nesbit Thaw took the stand at the afternoon session today in the hearing of Harry K. Thaw's mental condition. Mrs. Thaw appeared at a witness for the state which is opposing the release of her husband from the Mattewan asylum.

Justice Mills ruled that Mrs. Thaw could answer the question the state de-sired to ask her regarding an alleged threat to kill her made by Harry Thaw during a conversation at Matteawan. Mrs. Thaw asked if she could not claim a privilege in refusing to answer on the ground that to reply would tend to incriminate her. The court ruled she could not, and Mrs. Thaw, when asked if Thaw had made such a threat, sald: "Yes, he did." The question Evelyn Nesbit Thaw

The question Evelyn Nesbit Thaw was required to answer was "Did Har-ry K. Thaw say to you this, or this in substance, 'I shall have to kill you when I get out of here?" Turning to the court with tears in her eyes Mrs. Thaw said: "I don't want to answer that ques-tion; it places me in a terrible posi-tion. My husband will refuse to sup-nort me the minute I answer it and I port me the minute I answer it and I will incur his everlasting enmity. I know. I am very much afraid to answer it." "I don't care how he has treated me," she continued, "I am still married to him and I do not want to answer it." Justice Mills quietly instructed the witness to answer, and she said with a long drawn sigh: "Yes, he did."" Mr. Clark asked her to give Mr. Thaw's exact worda was a famous actress under her maiden-name, Laura Biggar, is spending a few days in Sait Lake, in company with her son; they were guests of Manager El-dredge at the Grand Theater last night. Mrs. Bennett won her greatest promi-nence on the stage in the play of "She," and lately she came into note once more as the winner of a suit for property-amounting to several million dollars, owned by the late H. M. Bennett, a Pittsburg magnate. Mrs. Bennett sold the Biou Theater in that city to Shu-bert Bros., receiving in payment the sum of $500,000, which, womanlike, she de-manded in currency and coin, declining to accept a certified check. F. N. POULSON HONORED.

(Special to the "News.") Seattle, July 15.—Fred N. Poulson, director of the Utah educational ex-hibit at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific ex-position has been elected president of the Educational Exhibitors association. Poulson was appointed director of the Utah exhibit by the Utah com mission.

INDUSTRIAL FAIR OPENING.

Tomorrow Night to See Beginning of Interesting Exhibits.

Final arrangements are being made oday by the Manufacturer's association for the Industrial fair, which is to open tomorrow night. Twenty-four booths have been built for the exhibitors, all of whom were heard from this morning and assurances given that the exhibits will be in their places on time. exhibits will be in their places on time. The list of prizes has also grown so that it looks as if the expected list of 200 will be made up before tomorrow night. The contributors up to noon to-day were: Z. C. M. I., Salt Lake Brew-ing company, Hewlett Bros. Inter-mountain * Milling company, Union Manufacturing company, Salt Lake Mattress company, Murphy Brothers, Salt Lake Knitting company, Utah-

Mattress company, Murphy Brothers, Salt Lake Knitting company, Utah-Idaho Sugar company, Utah Soap com-pany, Superior Baking company, Wag-ener Brewing company, Salt Lake Oll company, Woodbury-Doelle Palnt com-pany, Cache Valley Condensed Milk company, Sweet Candy company, Cen-tral Coal & Colke company, Crane com-pany, Deseret Soda Water works, Elgin Dairy, Maxfield Vinegar Works, Model Knitting Works, Oliver R. Meredith Knitting Works, Oliver R. Meredith Darry, Maxmein Vinegar Works, Moder Knitting Works, Oliver R. Meredith, Granite Lamber company, Nelson Glove company, Co-op Furniture company, Jensen Creamery company, P. W. Mad-sen Furniture company, H. Dinwoodey Durniture company, H. Dinwoodey Furniture company and Greenewald

Furniture company and Greenewald Furniture company. Prizes will be given away on Friday and Saturday nights. These tickets are being distributed broadcast today all over the city. They are free, the idea being to get the holders of them to visit the fair and see what is being done by the factories of Utah.

The majority of the prizes are use-ful articles, such as shoes, sugar, soap, paints, condensed milk, coal, handbags, enamelled ware, butter, pictures, furniture, etc. The Utah Art institute will occupy The Utah Art institute will occupy an entire room in the north end of the building, that space having been al-lowed it until the end of the year. This room will be decorated and hung with pictures which of themselves should be quite an attraction. Music will be furnished at the open-ion converse, which and Saturday night

Music will be furnished at the open-ing tomorrow night and Saturday night by the Beesley orchestra, the Giles-McAllister Advertising agency stand-ing the expense on Friday night and the Crescent Manufacturing company on Saturday night. The exhibits which are now being placed in the various booths will be permanent, and as such will, it is ex-pected, prove quite an attraction dur-ing G. A. R. week.

ing G. A. R. week. ,

(Special to the "News,") Spokane, Wash., July 15 .- Miss Dorothy Mariel, a Salt Lake girl, is lying in St. Luke's hospital in a serious condition, suffering from numerous bruises in addition to having the right thigh broken below the hip and a pelvic frac-ture, the result of an automobile driven by F. E. Tate, plunging down a steep bank in this city yesterday. She was the only one of the four occupants who was badly hurt.

DAM CONTRACT AWARDED.

Western Construction Company's Bid Of $22,679.50 Accepted for Plute.

The Western Construction company vas awarded the contract by the state oard of land commissioners this mornng to build the Puddle Wall dam in onnection with the Plute reservoir project in Piute county. The bid was $22,-679.50

Frank Moore was given the contract Frank Moore was given the contract for driving a well at Levan, Utah, for $3,000. The well is to be 600 fect in depth and three inches in diameter. Work on these contracts will begin immediately.

The land commissioners will advertise for sale the land under the Hatchtown reservoir site next month. It consists of 6,000 acres and will be auctioned off to the highest bidder on Oct. 1.

E. E. RICH AS CHAMPION.

Has Been Selected to Represent North Temple St. Property Owners.

E. E. Rich of 770 west North Temple street has been chosen to represent the property owners on North Temple street to oppose the proposed changes in the plans of the North Temple street acqueplans of the North Temple street acque-duct. Darks & Heuser, the contractors, have asked the engineering committee to allow them to contract the acqueduct to Ninth West street instead of carry-ing on to the Jordan river. The property owners from Seventh to Ninth West street declare that if this is done they will receive no benefit from the improvement at all. They declare that the water will back up from the end of the acqueduct at Ninth West sand flood their property much worse than before the acqueduct. This matter will come up tonight be-fore the engineering committee at its regular meeting.

regular meeting.

SUNDAY BEER AT BINGHAM.

County Commissioners Propose to Put A Stop to Sales from Cars.

The county commissioners secured 15 samples of brick this morning from the various brick companies in Salt Lake and will decide this afternoon on the class of brick with which to build the new of brick with which to build the new county jail. It will take about 500,000 brick to complete the building. The commissioners authorized Sheriff Joseph C. Sharp to obtain the names of the brewers' agents in Bingham Can-yon, Bingham, and Midvale, in order to put a stop to the practise of shipping out a carload of heer into the mining camps and selling it on Sunday to the miners and smeltermen in the mining camps. The commissioners propose to limit the sale of beer to one agent in each camp so that they can compel the agents to comply with the Sunday sell-ing ordinance.

1 p.m...... ......

fire

