WASHINGTON.—A ball was given by Minister Thornton in honor of Prince Arthur, to-night. It was attended by five or six hundred persons, including all the foreign Ministers in full dress with their ladies and families, members of the Cabinet, Senators and Representatives. General Sherman, Admiral Porter and many other celebrated men were present. Prince Arthur led the quadrille with Mrs. Grant. The supper was very fine.

NEW ORLEANS.—The Legislature has passed a resolution requesting Congress not to reduce the duty on sugar and molasses. A bill has also passed amending the gambling laws, which has inaugurated the old system of private gambling and black mailing.

ATLANTA.—A communication was received in the house from the Governor, endorsed by General Terry, recommending that where vacancies exist on account of ineligibility, the seats be given to the persons receiving the next highest number of votes. The house refused to seat them by a vote of 63 to 67.

CHICAGO.—Robbers burglaries, and assaults of nightly occurrence continue, several new ones being reported this morning. Two policemen encountered three roughs at two o'clock yesterday morning and exchanged shots. One of the policemen received a ball through the arm, and shot one of the burglars in the shoulder and fractured his skull with a blow from a pistol. The burglar will probably not recover. The other two escaped. The citizens begin to talk in good earnest of the formation of a vigilance committee.

FOREIGN.

PARIS.—It is said that no reduction will be made in the French army this year, because of the recent troubles in Paris and elsewhere.

The majority in the Chambers have resolved to leave each member free to discuss commercial questions according to his own convictions and not to make the final vote a test of the strength of the government. It is probable this act will prevent a change in the ministry.

It is rumored that Father Gratiery will be superseded, as superior of the order of orators, on account of his letter on the Ecumenical Council. The papal authorities have forbidden the publication by the bishops of the contents of the letter written by him to the Archbishop of Molines. It is supposed that in his letter the bishop commits himself decidedly against the dogma of infallibility.

Midnight.—A rumor of the death of the Pope is in circulation but cannot be traced to any authentic source.

PARIS 27.—The Senate, yesterday, discussed the proposition for an international coinage system. Messrs. Chevalier, Leverrier and others, participated in the debate and urged the adoption of a coin equivalent to 25 francs as a universal unit.

The Duke of Broogie, the leading member of the Orleanists, died here yesterday. He was 85 years old.

Nothing further has been heard from Rome as to the rumored death of the Pope.

Salnave was captured in the woods near Saltero, in the South and taken to Port Au Prince, where he was heavily ironed and cast into prison. The people here went into ecstasies over his capture. The event was celebrated for days by processions, dancing in the streets and festivities of all kinds. A hundred and fifty of Salnave's followers were captured with him, many of whom were executed. Salnave himself was sentenced to death and shot on the 10th inst. The new President will be elected on the 1st of February.

A tenants' rights meeting at Dunganon was broken up, last night, by Fenians.

By obtaining the CURTIS "Premium MODELS," and learning to use them, which can be done in a very short time, any lady will be enabled to cut out all kinds of garments worn by males or females, adults or children. There may be other models in the Territory by which ladies' dresses can be cut, but the Curtis "Premium Models" are positively the only ones that will do as above stated, and abundance of unquestionable testimony can be given that they will do all that is promised. Female Relief Societies will find these Models of great service, enabling all, however ignorant of the art of cutting out, previously, to insure a perfect fit in every style of garment required. Mrs. Jos. Bull, of the 17th Ward, S. L. City is sole agent for the Territory.
