The Prohibitionists.

SYRACUSE, N. Y.—The Prohibition State Convention, held in this city, has adopted a long series of resolutions affirming that the license system, either low or high, as applied to the sale of intoxicating liquors, is utterly wrong and vicious in principle.

It is further declared that the liquor traffic is a curse to the community, and that the prohibitionists are the only ones who are not in sympathy with it.

The convention also adopted resolutions affirming that the prohibitionists are the only ones who are not in sympathy with the liquor traffic.

they receive ten cents, and consider the donor an utter fool if he gives them fifty cents. The first sensation at being conveyed in a rickshaw are those of mingled amusement and shame. The rickshaws are a drunken masquerade or to an unostentatious bluff. Then habit begets indifference. Dignitaries of the church, dignitaries of the government, dignitaries of the law, soldiers, sailors, and even well-to-do Chinese, all have recourse to them; and the sergeant in his rickshaw salutes the colonel in his rickshaw with precisely the same gravity as if both were on parade. Perhaps the absurdity can be best realized by considering what would be the effect produced were the Dean of Westminster to be trundled in a wheelbarrow down Piccadilly by a dirty ragged little London Arab.—Cornhill Magazine.

A WOOD FOR OLD PAINTED WOODWORK.—Two ounces of soda dissolved in a quart of hot water will make a ready and useful solution for cleaning old painted woodwork preparatory to repainting. This mixture, in the above proportion, will be applied when warm, and the woodwork afterwards washed with water to remove all traces of soda.

What a Big Pile of Estates! In the course of a year a healthy man who has a good appetite swallows about three times as much weight of food! To dispose of this requires a system of wonderful and complicated internal machinery, every part of which must be in perfect order. When it is in order our food gives us pleasure. When it is not in order we endure the horrors of dyspepsia. Brown's Iron Bitters is the sworn foe of dyspepsia, and he who suffers from it should enjoy his dinner. Among hosts of others, Mr. Henry Heinrich, Carondelet, Mo., writes: "Brown's Iron Bitters cured me of indigestion."
