

SOCIAL GAT

Mrs. George M. Downey was hostess at a most delightful luncheon on Thursday in honor of Mrs. Thomas B. Davis. The table was prettily decorated in pink and white, the centerpiece being a vase of pink carnations, surrounded by pink and white sweet peas, ferns and smilax. The place cards were at each end of the table. The place cards had the monogram of the guest of honor. The guests were Mrs. Davis, Miss Nason, Mrs. David R. Gray, Mrs. Robert J. Glendinning, Miss Donnellan, Miss Sherman, Mrs. Union Worthington, Mrs. Harkness, Mrs. Faber, Mrs. Styer, Mrs. Tuttle, Miss Adelaide Mason, Miss Laura Sherman, Miss Salisbury and Miss Edna Donnellan.

Mrs. Rothschild and Mrs. Rice of St. Paul were guests of honor on Thursday at a delightful card party given by Mrs. H. A. Rothschild, about 50 guests being present. The affair was pre-eminently a butterfly party, the entire scheme being in asparagus fern with dainty butterflies poised in the filmy green. Large butterflies were used for the scores, and smaller ones for callies. Mrs. Rothschild was assisted by Mrs. Oppenheimer, Miss Bernetta Oppenheimer and the Misses Stella, Pearl and Selma Rothschilds.

The "Coronation" reunion soiree given at Prof. Loeb's hall last night was among the notable affairs of the week. All the members and people connected with the company responded to the invitation sent out by Prof. Loeb, and with a number of invited guests outside the ranks, made a merry party, dancing, and a general good time being enjoyed. The affair was in every way a successful one, and will be long and pleasantly remembered by those present.

Mrs. Edward S. Perry and Mrs. Mont Perry gave a delightful luncheon at the Country club yesterday in honor of Miss Edith Perry of Michigan, whose engagement to Lieut. Merrill has been recently announced. The decorations were in charming taste, and the appointments throughout delightful. An elaborate and enjoyable event of the week was the lawn party given by Mrs. A. Holman and the Misses Holman of Sandy in honor of Miss Alice Holman, who has just returned from Boston. A large number of people from the city were present and the event was in all respects a delightful one.

Mrs. John J. Daly will entertain at a dancing party in the near future for Miss Donnellan.

Mrs. A. T. Moon entertained at luncheon on Thursday, the affair being one in a delightful series. In the dining room sweet peas were used with ferns, the table being prettily decorated with them, and the place cards having the same flowers in water colors. The other rooms had roses and nasturtians. Present to meet Mrs. Finch were Mrs. A. G. Andrews, Mrs. John Reed, Mrs. C. H. McCoy, Mrs. Seabree, Mrs. Viko, Mrs. Carney of Butte, Mrs. W. S. Henderson, Mrs. Frank Kelsey, Mrs. L. C. Kelsey, Mrs. Mather, Mrs. Shields of Kansas City, Mrs. Walter Linn, Mrs. W. S. Patterson, and Mrs. McCann. Mrs. Moon entertains again at luncheon on Wednesday and Thursday of next week.

Another delightful affair of the week given in honor of Mrs. Charles S. Mann and Miss Ruth Kirkpatrick was the dinner at the Commercial club on Thursday, at which Mrs. E. D. Parsons was hostess. The table was laid in the private dining room, and was beautifully decorated in sweet peas and plumosa fern, and during the dinner an orchestra stationed in a corner of the room rendered delightful music. Those present besides the guests of honor were Mrs. D. T. Smith, Miss Elizabeth McIntyre, Miss McIntyre, Miss Ivey Dix, Miss Dix, Mrs. L. E. Ritter Jr., Mrs. M. S. Allen, Mrs. Elbridge Thomas, Miss McMullan, Miss Jasmine Young, Mrs. W. R. Wallace, Miss Maggie Miller, Mrs. U. S. Nubin, Mrs. S. S. Porter, Miss Helen Gillespie.

An enjoyable event of the week was the evening party given on Wednesday night by Miss Deslie Grant in honor of the Misses Young of New York. The time was pleasantly spent in dancing and in a guessing contest, the prizes in the latter being won by Miss Helen Whitney, Miss Emma Morris, Seymour Wells and Richard Young.

Mrs. Agnes Osburne was hostess at a most delightful musical reception on Thursday night, at her studio, about 100 guests enjoying the event. Mr. Le Compte of Ogden, who has recently opened a vocal studio here, was the guest of honor, and the participants in the program were Miss Belle Monahan, Sweet sleep comes to the baby who is properly fed with a proper food. Mellin's Food babies sleep well.

A postal request will bring a sample of Mellin's Food right to your home. MELLIN'S FOOD CO., BOSTON, MASS.

Miss Alice Seckels, Miss Jennie Sands, Miss Kovena, Korns, Miss Genevieve McCormick, Miss Aileen Hooper. The rooms were effectively decorated in asparagus fern, sunflowers, and colored lights, and the function was altogether successful.

Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Trent entertained at an elaborate dinner on Monday night, maroon-hued sweet peas being used in the decorations with artistic effect, and candelabra with shades in the same color.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Oswald gave a delightful dinner at the Commercial club on Wednesday, about 10 guests participating in the pleasant affair. The table was beautifully decorated, and all details were delightful.

Mrs. John E. Hansen entertained the members of the Sewing club at Saltair yesterday.

Mr. Duncan McVichie was host at a dinner on Tuesday night given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Cozum and Mr. E. L. White of Boston. The table was

MISS CARRIE ERICKSON,

A Utah School Teacher Who Won a Scholarship in Oread Institute, Mass.

It will be interesting news to the many friends of Miss Carrie Erickson of this city to learn that she has won the state scholarship offered by the Oread Institute of Worcester, Mass., the examining board of the college awarding it recently on the examination papers sent in by the young lady. The Oread offers a scholarship to one person in each state, and Utah is to be congratulated on its successful competitor. Miss Erickson is well and popularly known here, having been a successful teacher in the public schools for a number of years. She will leave next September for Worcester, and while there will take a special course in domestic science.

beautifully decorated with sweet peas and hollyhocks, and the others present were Mrs. Corning and Mrs. Pearsall.

A pleasant affair of the week was the shower party given by Mrs. Charles Deane in honor of Miss Vera Tempest, about a dozen friends being present. The rooms were prettily decorated, and the guest of honor was presented with some pretty pieces of China.

A prettily appointed dinner of the week was that given by Mrs. J. T. Clabey in honor of Mr. Clabey's birthday, covers being laid for 11. The table was decorated in yellow with flowers and ribbons, and the following guests were present: Col. and Mrs. John W. Donnellan, Capt. and Mrs. Hobbs, Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis, Mrs. Chayer of Chicago, Miss Green of Grand Forks, N. D., and Maj. Harry C. Hill.

Mrs. John Marshall entertained informally at the Country club this week in honor of Miss Ruth Kirkpatrick.

Another informal but pleasant affair at the country club this week was the luncheon given by Miss Kinney.

Mrs. George Steiner and Mrs. Fred Hale were hostesses at the Country club today.

Mrs. W. S. Henderson entertained at a pretty luncheon on Tuesday, the covers being laid for 12 guests.

Mr. Will Hall entertained at dinner at the Country club on Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Charles Spencer Mann.

The usual delightful hop was given at the post last night, the hostesses being Mrs. Heppburn and Mrs. Potter, while Dr. Hopburn and Lieut. Farrar assisted them.

Mrs. Archie Milner entertained at a delightful dinner on Thursday night, the details being most elaborate, and carried out in exquisite taste.

Hooper Dunbar entertained a party of about 40 young friends at a lake party on Thursday night, the party going from his home to the depot in a chartered electric car, and to Saltair on a special. The time was delightfully spent at the resort, and upon the return the party enjoyed a supper at the young host's home.

The T. O. M. club spent a pleasant time at the lake on Thursday.

WEDDING BELLS

Miss Vera Tempest and Mr. George H. Lucas were married on Thursday evening, the wedding taking place at the home of Mrs. Henry Schofield at 3 o'clock, and in informal but pretty reception taking place later. Rev. Bicket performed the ceremony in the presence of the intimate friends and relatives. The rooms were bright with flowers and vines and delicious refreshments were served; the friends of the bride and groom assisting. Both have many friends who will wish them happiness.

An unique wedding was that of Miss Grace Lightner and Mr. Jesse Smith, which took place on Wednesday night. The prospective bride and groom invited a few of their friends for a drive, and stopping at and enjoying a pretty furnished cottage they found the Rev.

Dr. Padon waiting, who at one performed the ceremony which made them man and wife. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will receive their friends at 586 East Sixth South street.

Miss May Maud Woodcock and Alfred N. Gardner were married on July 10, a reception being held at the home of the bride. The rooms were tastefully decorated, and about 60 guests were present to enjoy the pleasant affair.

The marriage of Miss Esther Miller and Mr. Earl Wilson will take place Wednesday evening, July 22, at the home of the bride, 345 Grand View avenue.

Miss Mathews of Beaver City announces the engagement of her sister Lulu and Mr. Harry Melton Fennimore of Salt Lake City, the wedding to take place this month.

COMING AND GOING

Mrs. Mary E. Gilmer will spend the coming week with Mrs. Charles Gilmer at 25 West Fifth South street, and later she will spend some time with Mrs. Woodward. Miss Lucile Gilmer is to spend the summer at Blue Lakes with her brothers.

Thursday morning a party of campers left town to spend the next fortnight at Mountain ranch near Salina in the southern part of the state. The party

M. H. Herbst, a prominent attorney of Ann Arbor, Mich., is visiting his sister, Mrs. M. P. Levy, at 215 east Fourth South.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Vadner and family have gone to Big Cottonwood canyon for the season.

Mrs. S. G. Pieper, formerly Miss McDonald of this city, is in town, the guest of her mother, Mrs. John McDonald. Mrs. Pieper has spent the past four years in Germany and her many friends here will be glad to welcome her back.

Mrs. W. E. Criter and children are expected home from Portland today.

Miss Lydia Palmiste in Seattle visiting friends for a short time.

Dr. J. O. Edie of Grand Rapids, Mich., is in the city visiting his daughter, Mrs. E. S. Ferry.

Mrs. Shields of Kansas City is visiting Mrs. Meteer of this city.

Mrs. F. J. Hocking and two children, left this week for a visit of 10 days with Mrs. E. G. Cushing in Park City.

Mrs. George A. Snow and children will be at home during the summer at 794 east First street.

Mrs. Walter Filer will leave tomorrow with her baby for Santa Cruz.

Miss Helen Hahn is visiting friends in Denver for the next month.

Misses Nellie and Florence Shermer left Wednesday for Denver, where they will visit relatives and friends. While in Colorado they will visit other points of interest.

Mrs. Schuyler C. Snyder has returned from Portland, where she has been visiting for the last month.

Mrs. Henry Rippe and family are residing at the Half Way house Parley's canyon, with Mrs. Doan.

Mrs. N. B. Dresser and daughter Evelyn have returned from an extended visit in Canada and the east. They go to their home in Park City on Monday.

Among those who departed for Denver last Tuesday were Miss Schiebel and Miss Mona McHugh. Miss Schiebel will visit relatives at Denver, Colorado Springs, Cripple Creek and Salida.

Mrs. F. J. Fabian and daughter, Stella, have returned from a two months' visit in Boston.

Alexander Eberhardt and sister, Miss Irma, have returned from Portland. Miss Eberhardt has been spending the past two months visiting friends in Spokane, Portland, Long Beach and Astoria.

Fabian Seckel of Chicago and Eugene Pittman, Jr., of St. Louis are guests for the summer of their uncle, F. J. Fabian.

Captain and Mrs. Gray and two daughters and Miss Georgia Drew, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Smith at Fort Douglas, left Thursday for San Francisco, whence they will sail Aug. 1 for Manila.

Mrs. Reed Smoot, who has been visiting in the city, has returned to her home in Provo.

Dr. and Mrs. T. G. Odell are home from Brighton.

Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Taft and daughter Lucile have arrived home from St. Louis and will spend some time with Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Snyder and Miss Snyder.

Miss Sylvia Cohn and Miss Ruth Palmer returned yesterday from the coast.

Mrs. W. W. Armstrong of Park City who has been visiting friends in the city, has returned to her home.

Mrs. W. S. Ferris, who has been visiting Mrs. Le Compte in Park City, is home again.

Cadet J. W. Bubb, son of Col. Bubb, will return today from West Point.

Mrs. S. M. Stenhouse and son Arthur left Thursday for California to spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Broughall have taken the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. McCune, Jr., for an indefinite period. Mrs. McCune will live at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. McCune Sr., during Mr. McCune's absence in Peru.

Miss Anette Ferguson leaves Thursday morning for a visit at Pacific Grove, Cal.

Miss Abba Rumel leaves next week for a six weeks' visit in New York.

George A. White returned to Idaho last evening, after a visit with friends in this city.

C. P. Overfield has gone to Colorado on a brief visit.

Mrs. A. B. Glegg and Mrs. George Krause of Salem, Ore., and Mrs. R. R. Snyder of Pittsburgh, who have been guests of Mrs. Ernest A. Greenwood, have returned to their home.

To be in the fashion the bathing costume must be as carefully made as any other dress. Tallofa is excellent for this purpose, as it does not cling too much when wet. This pretty dress has pantalets to match, with white embroidered woolen hose, and black canvas shoes. The jaunty cap is made from black dotted white silk.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Shipp and Miss Ruth Shipp sailed from Boston to Liverpool July 8th on the New England.

The Misses Riley have gone to California for a stay of several weeks.

Mrs. Charles C. Daily of Denver is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Swift of East Second South street.

Miss Bertha Winann of Denver is visiting Miss Eva Dix. She will be here two weeks and will then go to California to spend the remainder of the summer.

Mrs. A. Robbins and daughter have returned from Eureka.

Miss Mina McArthur is at home after a two months' visit with friends in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Mary M. F. Allen and daughter, Miss Kate Allen, of Park City, and Miss Hollister Hancock of Salt Lake, leave this morning for a month's visit at Portland and North Beach, Ore.

Mrs. H. E. Emerson and son of Ogden have been guests of Mrs. George R. Hancock for a few days.

Miss Knight, who was the guest of Mrs. W. Montague Perry for several days, has gone to California.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Hayward and children leave shortly for the Old Arm chair to visit for some weeks.

Mrs. C. W. Shores and son of Grand Junction are in town for a few days, on their way to Portland, Ore.

Mrs. Moss of Paducah, Ky., is a guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Wheat, whom she accompanied home from Kentucky.

Mrs. Catherine Johnson and Mrs. Emma Christensen have gone to Boise City to spend the summer.

Mrs. D. L. Wertheimer has arrived from the coast to spend the summer.

Miss Harriet Hill of Chicago has returned to her home after a pleasant visit with Mrs. William A. Nelden.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert S. Day have gone to Portland, Ore., to spend the summer. Later they go to northern California, where Mr. Day will engage in business.

Miss Catherine Culmer left this week for a month's visit with Mrs. De Wolf at Beaver, Utah.

Mrs. J. C. Lynch and Lynn Thompson and spend the remainder of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mays are settled in their new home at 339 Thirteenth East street.

Mrs. James Swofford, Miss Swofford and Ralph Swofford of Kansas City are spending the summer in Salt Lake.

Mrs. W. C. Wall and daughter, Marion have gone to California to be absent several weeks.

Rev. William H. Fish, Jr., of the Unitarian church, is at Cambridge, Mass., for the summer.

R. C. Tyler of Ontario, Ore., is visiting friends in this city.

Hoyt Sherman, Jr., has gone to Denver, to be gone about 10 days.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Whitney, Mrs. Charles S. Burton and Mrs. Walter Beattie have gone to Pacific Grove, Cal.

Mr. Whitney will return shortly, days, but the ladies expect to remain away all summer.

Mrs. J. T. Gilmer has arrived in the city to spend the summer.

Josiah Barnett has returned from a trip to Europe.

Mrs. E. E. Shepard and daughters, the Misses Shepard, leave next week for Reno, Nev., where they will join Mr. Shepard and visit about two months.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Carney of Butte, Mont., are guests of Dr. and Mrs. Viko. Mr. Carney is Mrs. Viko's brother.

Miss Margaret Kennedy, who has been a guest in this city for several weeks, has gone to Buffalo to visit her mother.

Miss Margaret R. Robertson has returned from Chicago, where she has been studying music under Prof. Sherwood.

Miss Edith Perry leaves for her Michigan home tomorrow.

Dr. A. W. Ripe of Alton, Ill., was the guest of Dr. W. G. B. Terrell.

Mrs. F. S. Richards left this week for a visit in the far east.

Mrs. Rathbone and daughter, Miss Rathbone, are again at home in this city, after having spent the past nine months at Phoenix, Ariz.

Mrs. John R. Comfort is here from Denver, to be the guest of Mrs. John Wilhart.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Patterson have taken a house at 139 Second East

ENCOURAGED by a business greater than we anticipated at the establishment of the institution in March, a department for Carpets is being added. One large shipment is here and others are en-route. Admirably located near the north stairway in the basement section, the department, complete in every essential, will be an important acquisition to the lines of Rugs, draperies and like features of house furnishing carried there.

The reputation of the house for new and dependable goods, very low prices and splendid service, will be maintained.

KEITH O'BRIEN COMPANY.