

VENTS IN THE WEST.

Report of Occurrences in Neighboring States and Territories.

CHARGE OF EMBEZZLEMENT AGAINST HIM.

The Turn Hand Convention in San Francisco—On Preparing for Manœuvres—Lieutenant Colonel Roscoe.

Early Monday morning three masked men entered the office of the Postmaster, with revolver drawn and dark in open the safe and safe, from which they secured $100. The robbers escaped before police assistance arrived.

The falling of a wall on which they were resting caused the death of David Roger and Michael McDaniel.

Fremont, Calif., was the scene of a fire at the northeast corner of Main and Second streets when

A northbound freight train was derailed near Laramie, Col., about noon yesterday. The engine jumped the track and the front car was piled on top of the rear. The locomotive was enough in pieces and piled. The engine was mangled and another broken down, but not seriously.

In accordance with the wishes of war department, Major General George F. French, commanding preparations for the departure of more troops to California, the Post and City of Pueblo will this week be ordered to proceed to the coast. The command will be accepted by Major General W. H. Taft, chief of staff to the government on her return from Washington, and other plans are being considered.

John P. Waters has been arrested at San Francisco as a fugitive from justice and found three years ago in Texas. He was a citizen of Colorado until he came to San Jose, Calif., in 1895. He was born in San Francisco, he is in the fourth United States cavalry. Arrest was made because he was wanted for his son, who was found guilty of the killing of his wife. He was taken into custody for the old crime. He admits his guilt.

Lieutenant Colonel E. C. Little, of the Twentieth Kansas volunteers, who is in command of the regiment, has tendered his resignation to the secretary of war. He went to the meet in command of the regiment, but his resignation is not accepted. Dr. W. H. Matthews, the military surgeon, has been assigned to the sanitary inspector of Colorado.

The Idaho Intermountain Fair is to be opened by speeches delivered over the telephone by the governors of Oregon, Washington and portions of California, and the general superintendent of the Idaho Telephone company, with headquarters in Salt Lake, was in the city Friday night. The arrangements were well along in the street for Hart, a jury acquitted Hart of murder and at once commenced action for damages. Hart paid him $1000, and the governor's message to the state legislature was transmitted on the occasion of the opening of the fair. Mr. Murray said he felt certain the fine would be completed and in running order by October 1st.

Cass Lewis, Justice of the peace of Alpine, who on the same occasion was in Salt Lake this week, says the Committee Are, But They brought in with them two men, William with illegal cattle branding, and they were held in jail to await the arrival of the grand jury. The committee, he said, had been investigating cattle rustling and a few weeks ago they started an investigation which resulted in the arrest of two men, William Dick, of Alpine, and Lester Hart, of Alpine. The two men were taken before Justice of the Peace Lewis and all were held in answer to the indictment. Both men were released on bail, and it is believed that the cattle rustlers were located here.

The court was granted the custody of the cattle, which were held in the custody of the sheriff. Austin McNease appeared before the committee and ex-Judge John G. Hart, of Alpine, was held in custody for the morning, for the hearing and the sheriff Sheriff White to take care of the children. They and the mother are in the custody of the sheriff and Sheriff White is in charge of the children.

Hart is a typical embodiment of the qualities and will be a worthy representative. At the time of his release of Millet he was master of Casper and to say that he has three times been nominated by the people of Wyoming and Casper-like, has three times defended him. He has been state senator, but gave up all his political ambitions to become the three little girls, the youngest but 2 years of age, who are, he says, dearer than life.

He has been the man whom his wife has cost him about $1000. He states that she burned his account books and a book of accounts.

He has been under the nose of the business men of Salt Lake, and further that he also has been compelled to leave the city February 22nd, not having an order filed.

Mrs. Shuster is slender and delicate, and she would not appear to be a woman of much money. She has stated that she had given the children away, and taken the children away out of the state, that they could not be found.

She has stated that they were located in Nevada, Minnesota, Iowa, and San Francisco.

The court was asked to extend the order of the Wyoming court, and, pending the trial of the case, to have the custody of the children in the custody of the sheriff and Sheriff White to take care of the children.

Hart is a typical embodiment of the qualities and will be a worthy representative. At the time of his release of Millet he was master of Casper and to say that he has three times been nominated by the people of Wyoming and Casper-like, has three times defended him. He has been state senator, but gave up all his political ambitions to become the three little girls, the youngest but 2 years of age, who are, he says, dearer than life.

He has been the man whom his wife has cost him about $1000. He states that she burned his account books and a book of accounts.

He has been under the nose of the business men of Salt Lake, and further that he also has been compelled to leave the city February 22nd, not having an order filed.

Mrs. Shuster is slender and delicate, and she would not appear to be a woman of much money. She has stated that she had given the children away, and taken the children away out of the state, that they could not be found.

She has stated that they were located in Nevada, Minnesota, Iowa, and San Francisco.

Mrs. Shuster's story of the shooting is quite different.

"I am not the best friend at that," she said. "William Millet had tried with us for years. A man by me was only 27, and yet Hart accused me of being intimate with him. He was always around me, and I was afraid to speak to him or withdraw. He went up to Millet on the street, took him by the shoulder and shot him down. Millet died of his bullet wound, and Hart and his friends tortured him and wouldn't let go of his gun."

After Hart had seen the children in the custody of the sheriff and Sheriff White to take care of the children.

Hart is a typical embodiment of the qualities and will be a worthy representative. At the time of his release of Millet he was master of Casper and to say that he has three times been nominated by the people of Wyoming and Casper-like, has three times defended him. He has been state senator, but gave up all his political ambitions to become the three little girls, the youngest but 2 years of age, who are, he says, dearer than life.

He has been the man whom his wife has cost him about $1000. He states that she burned his account books and a book of accounts.

He has been under the nose of the business men of Salt Lake, and further that he also has been compelled to leave the city February 22nd, not having an order filed.

Mrs. Shuster is slender and delicate, and she would not appear to be a woman of much money. She has stated that she had given the children away, and taken the children away out of the state, that they could not be found.

She has stated that they were located in Nevada, Minnesota, Iowa, and San Francisco.

Mrs. Shuster's story of the shooting is quite different.

"I am not the best friend at that," she said. "William Millet had tried with us for years. A man by me was only 27, and yet Hart accused me of being intimate with him. He was always around me, and I was afraid to speak to him or withdraw. He went up to Millet on the street, took him by the shoulder and shot him down. Millet died of his bullet wound, and Hart and his friends tortured him and wouldn't let go of his gun."

After Hart had seen the children in the custody of the sheriff and Sheriff White to take care of the children.

Hart is a typical embodiment of the qualities and will be a worthy representative. At the time of his release of Millet he was master of Casper and to say that he has three times been nominated by the people of Wyoming and Casper-like, has three times defended him. He has been state senator, but gave up all his political ambitions to become the three little girls, the youngest but 2 years of age, who are, he says, dearer than life.

He has been the man whom his wife has cost him about $1000. He states that she burned his account books and a book of accounts.

He has been under the nose of the business men of Salt Lake, and further that he also has been compelled to leave the city February 22nd, not having an order filed.

Mrs. Shuster is slender and delicate, and she would not appear to be a woman of much money. She has stated that she had given the children away, and taken the children away out of the state, that they could not be found.

She has stated that they were located in Nevada, Minnesota, Iowa, and San Francisco.

Mrs. Shuster's story of the shooting is quite different.

"I am not the best friend at that," she said. "William Millet had tried with us for years. A man by me was only 27, and yet Hart accused me of being intimate with him. He was always around me, and I was afraid to speak to him or withdraw. He went up to Millet on the street, took him by the shoulder and shot him down. Millet died of his bullet wound, and Hart and his friends tortured him and wouldn't let go of his gun."

After Hart had seen the children in the custody of the sheriff and Sheriff White to take care of the children.

Hart is a typical embodiment of the qualities and will be a worthy representative. At the time of his release of Millet he was master of Casper and to say that he has three times been nominated by the people of Wyoming and Casper-like, has three times defended him. He has been state senator, but gave up all his political ambitions to become the three little girls, the youngest but 2 years of age, who are, he says, dearer than life.

He has been the man whom his wife has cost him about $1000. He states that she burned his account books and a book of accounts.

He has been under the nose of the business men of Salt Lake, and further that he also has been compelled to leave the city February 22nd, not having an order filed.

Mrs. Shuster is slender and delicate, and she would not appear to be a woman of much money. She has stated that she had given the children away, and taken the children away out of the state, that they could not be found.

She has stated that they were located in Nevada, Minnesota, Iowa, and San Francisco.

Mrs. Shuster's story of the shooting is quite different.

"I am not the best friend at that," she said. "William Millet had tried with us for years. A man by me was only 27, and yet Hart accused me of being intimate with him. He was always around me, and I was afraid to speak to him or withdraw. He went up to Millet on the street, took him by the shoulder and shot him down. Millet died of his bullet wound, and Hart and his friends tortured him and wouldn't let go of his gun."

After Hart had seen the children in the custody of the sheriff and Sheriff White to take care of the children.

Hart is a typical embodiment of the qualities and will be a worthy representative. At the time of his release of Millet he was master of Casper and to say that he has three times been nominated by the people of Wyoming and Casper-like, has three times defended him. He has been state senator, but gave up all his political ambitions to become the three little girls, the youngest but 2 years of age, who are, he says, dearer than life.

He has been the man whom his wife has cost him about $1000. He states that she burned his account books and a book of accounts.

He has been under the nose of the business men of Salt Lake, and further that he also has been compelled to leave the city February 22nd, not having an order filed.

Mrs. Shuster is slender and delicate, and she would not appear to be a woman of much money. She has stated that she had given the children away, and taken the children away out of the state, that they could not be found.

She has stated that they were located in Nevada, Minnesota, Iowa, and San Francisco.

Mrs. Shuster's story of the shooting is quite different.

"I am not the best friend at that," she said. "William Millet had tried with us for years. A man by me was only 27, and yet Hart accused me of being intimate with him. He was always around me, and I was afraid to speak to him or withdraw. He went up to Millet on the street, took him by the shoulder and shot him down. Millet died of his bullet wound, and Hart and his friends tortured him and wouldn't let go of his gun."

After Hart had seen the children in the custody of the sheriff and Sheriff White to take care of the children.

Hart is a typical embodiment of the qualities and will be a worthy representative. At the time of his release of Millet he was master of Casper and to say that he has three times been nominated by the people of Wyoming and Casper-like, has three times defended him. He has been state senator, but gave up all his political ambitions to become the three little girls, the youngest but 2 years of age, who are, he says, dearer than life.

He has been the man whom his wife has cost him about $1000. He states that she burned his account books and a book of accounts.

He has been under the nose of the business men of Salt Lake, and further that he also has been compelled to leave the city February 22nd, not having an order filed.

Mrs. Shuster is slender and delicate, and she would not appear to be a woman of much money. She has stated that she had given the children away, and taken the children away out of the state, that they could not be found.

She has stated that they were located in Nevada, Minnesota, Iowa, and San Francisco.

Mrs. Shuster's story of the shooting is quite different.

"I am not the best friend at that," she said. "William Millet had tried with us for years. A man by me was only 27, and yet Hart accused me of being intimate with him. He was always around me, and I was afraid to speak to him or withdraw. He went up to Millet on the street, took him by the shoulder and shot him down. Millet died of his bullet wound, and Hart and his friends tortured him and wouldn't let go of his gun."

After Hart had seen the children in the custody of the sheriff and Sheriff White to take care of the children.

Hart is a typical embodiment of the qualities and will be a worthy representative. At the time of his release of Millet he was master of Casper and to say that he has three times been nominated by the people of Wyoming and Casper-like, has three times defended him. He has been state senator, but gave up all his political ambitions to become the three little girls, the youngest but 2 years of age, who are, he says, dearer than life.

He has been the man whom his wife has cost him about $1000. He states that she burned his account books and a book of accounts.

He has been under the nose of the business men of Salt Lake, and further that he also has been compelled to leave the city February 22nd, not having an order filed.

Mrs. Shuster is slender and delicate, and she would not appear to be a woman of much money. She has stated that she had given the children away, and taken the children away out of the state, that they could not be found.

She has stated that they were located in Nevada, Minnesota, Iowa, and San Francisco.

Mrs. Shuster's story of the shooting is quite different.

"I am not the best friend at that," she said. "William Millet had tried with us for years. A man by me was only 27, and yet Hart accused me of being intimate with him. He was always around me, and I was afraid to speak to him or withdraw. He went up to Millet on the street, took him by the shoulder and shot him down. Millet died of his bullet wound, and Hart and his friends tortured him and wouldn't let go of his gun."

After Hart had seen the children in the custody of the sheriff and Sheriff White to take care of the children.

Hart is a typical embodiment of the qualities and will be a worthy representative. At the time of his release of Millet he was master of Casper and to say that he has three times been nominated by the people of Wyoming and Casper-like, has three times defended him. He has been state senator, but gave up all his political ambitions to become the three little girls, the youngest but 2 years of age, who are, he says, dearer than life.

He has been the man whom his wife has cost him about $1000. He states that she burned his account books and a book of accounts.

He has been under the nose of the business men of Salt Lake, and further that he also has been compelled to leave the city February 22nd, not having an order filed.

Mrs. Shuster is slender and delicate, and she would not appear to be a woman of much money. She has stated that she had given the children away, and taken the children away out of the state, that they could not be found.

She has stated that they were located in Nevada, Minnesota, Iowa, and San Francisco.

Mrs. Shuster's story of the shooting is quite different.

"I am not the best friend at that," she said. "William Millet had tried with us for years. A man by me was only 27, and yet Hart accused me of being intimate with him. He was always around me, and I was afraid to speak to him or withdraw. He went up to Millet on the street, took him by the shoulder and shot him down. Millet died of his bullet wound, and Hart and his friends tortured him and wouldn't let go of his gun."

After Hart had seen the children in the custody of the sheriff and Sheriff White to take care of the children.

Hart is a typical embodiment of the qualities and will be a worthy representative. At the time of his release of Millet he was master of Casper and to say that he has three times been nominated by the people of Wyoming and Casper-like, has three times defended him. He has been state senator, but gave up all his political ambitions to become the three little girls, the youngest but 2 years of age, who are, he says, dearer than life.

He has been the man whom his wife has cost him about $1000. He states that she burned his account books and a book of accounts.

He has been under the nose of the business men of Salt Lake, and further that he also has been compelled to leave the city February 22nd, not having an order filed.

Mrs. Shuster is slender and delicate, and she would not appear to be a woman of much money. She has stated that she had given the children away, and taken the children away out of the state, that they could not be found.

She has stated that they were located in Nevada, Minnesota, Iowa, and San Francisco.

Mrs. Shuster's story of the shooting is quite different.

"I am not the best friend at that," she said. "William Millet had tried with us for years. A man by me was only 27, and yet Hart accused me of being intimate with him. He was always around me, and I was afraid to speak to him or withdraw. He went up to Millet on the street, took him by the shoulder and shot him down. Millet died of his bullet wound, and Hart and his friends tortured him and wouldn't let go of his gun."

After Hart had seen the children in the custody of the sheriff and Sheriff White to take care of the children.

Hart is a typical embodiment of the qualities and will be a worthy representative. At the time of his release of Millet he was master of Casper and to say that he has three times been nominated by the people of Wyoming and Casper-like, has three times defended him. He has been state senator, but gave up all his political ambitions to become the three little girls, the youngest but 2 years of age, who are, he says, dearer than life.

He has been the man whom his wife has cost him about $1000. He states that she burned his account books and a book of accounts.

He has been under the nose of the business men of Salt Lake, and further that he also has been compelled to leave the city February 22nd, not having an order filed.

Mrs. Shuster is slender and delicate, and she would not appear to be a woman of much money. She has stated that she had given the children away, and taken the children away out of the state, that they could not be found.

She has stated that they were located in Nevada, Minnesota, Iowa, and San Francisco.

Mrs. Shuster's story of the shooting is quite different.

"I am not the best friend at that," she said. "William Millet had tried with us for years. A man by me was only 27, and yet Hart accused me of being intimate with him. He was always around me, and I was afraid to speak to him or withdraw. He went up to Millet on the street, took him by the shoulder and shot him down. Millet died of his bullet wound, and Hart and his friends tortured him and wouldn't let go of his gun."

After Hart had seen the children in the custody of the sheriff and Sheriff White to take care of the children.

Hart is a typical embodiment of the qualities and will be a worthy representative. At the time of his release of Millet he was master of Casper and to say that he has three times been nominated by the people of Wyoming and Casper-like, has three times defended him. He has been state senator, but gave up all his political ambitions to become the three little girls, the youngest but 2 years of age, who are, he says, dearer than life.

He has been the man whom his wife has cost him about $1000. He states that she burned his account books and a book of accounts.

He has been under the nose of the business men of Salt Lake, and further that he also has been compelled to leave the city February 22nd, not having an order filed.

Mrs. Shuster is slender and delicate, and she would not appear to be a woman of much money. She has stated that she had given the children away, and taken the children away out of the state, that they could not be found.

She has stated that they were located in Nevada, Minnesota, Iowa, and San Francisco.

Mrs. Shuster's story of the shooting is quite different.

"I am not the best friend at that," she said. "William Millet had tried with us for years. A man by me was only 27, and yet Hart accused me of being intimate with him. He was always around me, and I was afraid to speak to him or withdraw. He went up to Millet on the street, took him by the shoulder and shot him down. Millet died of his bullet wound, and Hart and his friends tortured him and wouldn't let go of his gun."

After Hart had seen the children in the custody of the sheriff and Sheriff White to take care of the children.

Hart is a typical embodiment of the qualities and will be a worthy representative. At the time of his release of Millet he was master of Casper and to say that he has three times been nominated by the people of Wyoming and Casper-like, has three times defended him. He has been state senator, but gave up all his political ambitions to become the three little girls, the youngest but 2 years of age, who are, he says, dearer than life.

He has been the man whom his wife has cost him about $1000. He states that she burned his account books and a book of accounts.

He has been under the nose of the business men of Salt Lake, and further that he also has been compelled to leave the city February 22nd, not having an order filed.

Mrs. Shuster is slender and delicate, and she would not appear to be a woman of much money. She has stated that she had given the children away, and taken the children away out of the state, that they could not be found.

She has stated that they were located in Nevada, Minnesota, Iowa, and San Francisco.

Mrs. Shuster's story of the shooting is quite different.

"I am not the best friend at that," she said. "William Millet had tried with us for years. A man by me was only 27, and yet Hart accused me of being intimate with him. He was always around me, and I was afraid to speak to him or withdraw. He went up to Millet on the street, took him by the shoulder and shot him down. Millet died of his bullet wound, and Hart and his friends tortured him and wouldn't let go of his gun."

After Hart had seen the children in the custody of the sheriff and Sheriff White to take care of the children.

Hart is a typical embodiment of the qualities and will be a worthy representative. At the time of his release of Millet he was master of Casper and to say that he has three times been nominated by the people of Wyoming and Casper-like, has three times defended him. He has been state senator, but gave up all his political ambitions to become the three little girls, the youngest but 2 years of age, who are, he says, dearer than life.

He has been the man whom his wife has cost him about $1000. He states that she burned his account books and a book of accounts.

He has been under the nose of the business men of Salt Lake, and further that he also has been compelled to leave the city February 22nd, not having an order filed.

Mrs. Shuster is slender and delicate, and she would not appear to be a woman of much money. She has stated that she had given the children away, and taken the children away out of the state, that they could not be found.

She has stated that they were located in Nevada, Minnesota, Iowa, and San Francisco.

Mrs. Shuster's story of the shooting is quite different.

"I am not the best friend at that," she said. "William Millet had tried with us for years. A man by me was only 27, and yet Hart accused me of being intimate with him. He was always around me, and I was afraid to speak to him or withdraw. He went up to Millet on the street, took him by the shoulder and shot him down. Millet died of his bullet wound, and Hart and his friends tortured him and wouldn't let go of his gun."

After Hart had seen the children in the custody of the sheriff and Sheriff White to take care of the children.

Hart is a typical embodiment of the qualities and will be a worthy representative. At the time of his release of Millet he was master of Casper and to say that he has three times been nominated by the people of Wyoming and Casper-like, has three times defended him. He has been state senator, but gave up all