GERSCHUNIN HAS ESCAPED
One of the Most Famous Terrorists and Head of Fighting Organization.

CONCEALED IN A WATER CASK.

Was Condemned to Perpetual Imprisonment in Siberia for Complicity in Sipigine's Murder.

His Disappearance Regarded as Serious Menace to Those Whose Lives The Terrorists Seek.

S. Petersburg, Nov. 1.—Gerschunin, one of the most famous terrorists and head of his fighting organization during the Sipigine and Plevne regimes, has escaped from Siberia, concealed in a water cask. His disappearance is a serious menace to persons whose lives the terrorists are now seeking, as he is a skilled organizer and one of the most remarkable men in the revolution. Gerschunin, who is a Jew, was condemned to perpetual imprisonment for complicity in the assassination of Minister of the Interior Sipigine and the attempt on the life of the emperor. He was sentenced to the silver mines on the Mongolian frontier in Siberia Feb. 13. One of the men named Melnikoff, who escaped from the mines two months ago and the governor of Akatui says he cannot guarantee the safe keeping of Gerschunin and Melnikoff, the other terrorist, who is also a Jew, and the possibility of the whole population. Gerschunin, who is a Jew, was sentenced to 12 years' imprisonment in the mines for organizing a mutiny at the fortress of Kuchka.

AN INFERNAL MACHINE.

A. & O. Engineer Has Narrow Escape From Death by One.

Akron, O., Nov. 1.—Andrew McIntosh, aged 40, a Baltimore and Ohio engineer, yesterday had a narrow escape from death by an infernal machine. A 3-caliber revolver, packed with powder in a small box, and 10 sticks of dynamite, were concealed in a tool box in his coat house. The infernal machine was fastened to the lid of the box. When McIntosh opened the door to get the tool box, the infernal machine exploded, blowing McIntosh in the cheek and bulleting his head. McIntosh was burned by the powder and the dynamite was thrown into all parts of the coat house but did not explode. McIntosh's injuries are not serious. He says he knows of no other infernal machine. Had the dynamite exploded great damage to the property would have followed, as many houses are in close proximity.

STUDENTS SENT TO WORKHOUSE.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 1.—Five college boys indulged too freely in Halloween pranks last night and were sent to the workhouse today to await their trial. All are cadets of the state college. The boys are charged with setting off a fire in the police station last night when the policemen tried to stop the boys' pranks. The boys beat up the officers pretty badly and several shots were fired.

Hongkong, Nov. 1.—Speaking in the legislative council on the observatory inquiry committee said that warning of the typhoon on the morning of Sept. 9 was given in the circumstances, even as soon as it was practically possible. Gov. Nathan proposed to send the report of the commission and the evidence obtained to the secretary of state, and also the reports received from the Hongkong and Shanghai observatory. The request for the observations from the royal observatory.

COAL EXPORTS DUTY OFF.

London, Nov. 1.—The abolition of the export duty on coal, which became effective at midnight, was the signal for the sailing this morning of hundreds of coal laden vessels bound for foreign ports. So many as 22 steamers left the British channel.

RAILROAD REBATE MOTHER OF TRUSTS

Also of Their Collateral Relatives. Declares Attorney—General Moody.

IS AFTER THE COAL COMBINES

Rather Thinks Mr. Bryan is Right in Saying That Trusts are the Main Issue.

Boston, Nov. 1.—In political speeches at Republican rallies at Beverly and Salem last night, Atty-Gen. Moody said that he was investigating "the great and powerful coal and oil combinations," and that if he found evidence of illegal combination he would proceed without regard to personal or political consequences.

"A few weeks ago Mr. Bryan said that the trusts were the paramount issue. I am not quite sure that he is not right. Expressly congratulated President Roosevelt on the step he has taken of enforcement of the anti-trust laws."

"We are in the midst of great industrial activities and prosperity. Great evils are arising out of this condition, and President Roosevelt is determined to remedy it if a remedy can be found. The great industries are no longer conducted by the individual but by organized capital. Organized capital in modern industries is a necessity. The organization of labor and capital are here to stay, but we have the right to ask both that they shall obey the laws of the land."

"When the combination of wealth obtains great power, as it will, it destroys the individual initiative, disturbs the normal growth of commerce and sometimes even government. I myself have seen written on a sheet of paper the price of killing of a competitor. I have seen the cost of driving out of business the hold independent. It is not wise that the people let a lay combination like this exist."

The attorney-general continued: "Mr. Havenmeyer, the sugar man, says that the tariff is a mother of trusts. It is not the tariff that is the mother of trusts—it is the railroad rebate that is the mother of trusts and of their collateral relatives."

Mr. Moody, who was speaking for the re-election of Rep. Garfield in the district, explained he was there at the expressed and earnest request of President Roosevelt. The president has made it manifest that it is his earnest desire that the Republican nominees should be elected and that the next house of representatives should be with him. "Can any man doubt under such circumstances that the whole power of the house of representatives would be exerted to thwart the president in the measure which he proposed and to render the rest of his term of office entirely insignificant," said Mr. Moody, after pointing out the results that would follow the election of a Democratic house.

FINGER PRINTS.

Their Adoption in Army Leads to Detection of an English Murderer.

Washington, Nov. 1.—A curious result of the recent adoption by the United States army of the system of identification by finger-prints, just reported to the war department, was the discovery in the person of a soldier at Fort Leavenworth of a British murderer for whom the Scotland Yard authorities have been looking for years. The man was a prisoner in the United States penitentiary serving five-year sentence for a military crime. He was well behaved and well liked, and when the war began, following the general order to take the finger-print records of all soldiers, attempted to secure an impression of this man's digits, he met violent resistance, and the assistant who tried to make the record was knocked down and roughly handled. Suspecting that this resistance was based upon the man's previous knowledge of the use to which his finger prints might be put and that his record was bad, the warden sent copies of the prints to the police authorities in a number of cities. Within a short time Scotland Yard reported that the man had committed an atrocious murder in Malta; that he had been sentenced to life imprisonment and had escaped to America.

AUTOMOBILING IN MEXICO.

Boston, Nov. 1.—Charles J. Glidden today ate from this city on an automobile tour with Mexico as his objective point.

DESPERATE FIGHT WITH BURGLARS

Officers Came Upon Them Unawares Where They Were Hiding in Brush.

FIRING IMMEDIATELY BEGAN.

Result Was Town Marshal Was Instantly Killed and Three Other Men.

Spokane, Wash., Nov. 1.—A special to the Spokesman Review from Prosser, Wash., says:

"There was a desperate battle near Kennewick this afternoon between officers and burglars who robbed two stores in that city last night. The officers were led by Sheriff A. C. McNeil of this city, who came on the robbers unawares in the brush. They were five or six in number and at once commenced firing. Marshal Mike Glover of Kennewick was instantly killed and Joe Holzer, deputy sheriff, was shot twice but not dangerously. After being shot the sheriff emptied his gun at the robbers, killing one and finally capturing another."

The gang of burglars is thought to have had a rendezvous at Kennewick for the purpose of holding up a Northern Pacific train. The captured robber says he is Robert Layton, aged sixteen years. He revealed the identity of the dead desperado as Jacob Lake, recently a convict in the penitentiary at Walla Walla. Layton says his home was formerly in Florence, Colo."

Spokane, Nov. 1.—Joseph Holzer, deputy sheriff, shot by a robber at Kennewick Wednesday afternoon, died last night. One of the robbers partners, in the Columbia river, several miles below Kennewick, was captured last night and taken to the Kennewick jail. He gives his name as Ernest Barker and says his home is at Florence, Colorado. He claims to be but sixteen years old, but looks older. Sheriff McNeil, who was shot during the battle with the robbers, is believed to be in no danger, unless complications set in. After the capture of Barker there was strong talk of lynching, but on account of his youth this was given up. Several suspects were arrested but have not been released.

The dead are: Marshal Mike Glover, killed instantly; Jacob Lake, ex-convict, killed instantly; Joe Holzer, deputy sheriff, died this morning as result of a wound in abdomen. Frank Perry, member of a posse, accidentally shot in stomach by a deputy sheriff.

The arrested man has given the names of Ernest Barker, Robert Layton and Walter Larkin. The authorities say that he is Kild Parker, who has a bad reputation. Marshal Glover and Lake, the ex-convict, were killed during the battle. Holzer and Perry died this morning. Each was shot in the abdomen by the young bandit now under arrest. After shooting these two men and also shooting Sheriff McNeil in the abdomen, the boy bandit fired four times at close range at Barker, a citizen, but missed him. The bullet which hit Sheriff McNeil glanced, inflicting a slight wound only. Another bullet tore off his thumb."

Violent Storm in France.
Causes Tidal Wave at Toulon, Which Does Great Damage.
Paris, Nov. 1.—A violent storm has swept over the South of France, accompanied by heavy falls of snow on the coast and a tidal wave at Toulon, which prevents Admiral Touchard's squadron from being under way. Many small craft were torn from their anchorages and wrecked and the quays were flooded. Nice suffered most severely, the famous promenade Des Anglais and the neighboring streets being under water a foot deep. The shops there were so badly flooded that the contents of some of them were totally destroyed. It is estimated that the damage will amount to an enormous sum.

HEARST RETURNS FROM TOUR.

New York, Nov. 1.—Wm. R. Hearst returned today from his final up-state trip of the campaign. He was hoarse, but otherwise said he felt well. Mr. Hearst said he had not seen the letter sent him and Mr. Hughes by the Civil Service Reform association to define their position as to civil service reform. Mr. Hughes' reply to the communication was published today.

THE UTES HAVE SPLIT INTO TWO BANDS.

Sheridan, Wyo., Nov. 1.—The Utes evidently have split into two bands. Telephone reports say that one band is on Bear creek, 20 miles from Sheridan, Mont., and that the other band is camped along Hanging Women creek in the Powder valley. Two officers and 16 troopers arrived from Sheridan today. They report that the main command from Fort Keogh is at Ashland and has seen no Cheyennes. Col. August broke camp at Sheridan's ranch, 40 miles north of Sheridan, today. He was expected to reach Birney early this afternoon. Capt. William and Signal corps left Sheridan today for Birney, taking wire to connect the field forces with the telephone from Birney to Sheridan.

ELECTION NEAR; BETTING BEGINS

Wise and Otherwise Come out From Cover to Make Wagers.

MANY PROPOSITIONS MADE.

Curbstone Politicians Crowd Sidewalks in Front of Billboards Proclaiming Different Offers.

It was easy to tell on Second South street today that election day is near. The wise and the near wise came out from cover with their betting money, and the era of silence on the matter of bets was closed. One could get any kind of proposition one desired today. There were bets in favor of every party, and many that were ingeniously devised.

The bulletin boards in front of the cafes proclaiming the different kinds of propositions on tap inside were thronged with curbstone politicians and men with money getting ready to place it. The feeling to date has been that there is a general apathy of betting. Yet this apathy has prevailed in every election up to a certain point where the feelings of partisans overcome their judgment and they cease to hang back waiting for better odds."

UNWISE WAGERS.

According to the laws that seem to have governed betting in the past, this year should see a record breaking exchange of opinion backed up by coin. The people are more stirred up this year than for years past, and opinions ventured by one citizen are more vigorously caught up and denied to the point of denunciation than has been the case in many elections.

The result may be a flood of betting should the faith of each Second South citizen tend to express itself that way, to the overturning of the ordinary restraints of judgment matched against partisan feeling.

SOME PROPOSITIONS.

Here are some of the bets posted this afternoon:
$50 that Eldridge beats Seare over 1,000 in the county.
$50 that the "Americans" poll over 40 per cent of the vote in the Third precinct.
$100 even that Weber (A.) is elected county attorney.

$25 that H. J. Robinson comes to the legislature from Bingham.
$20 to $30 that the Democrats do not elect a single man in the county.
$100 that the Democrats will not poll 6,000 votes in the county.
$200 that the "American" party high man gets 9,000 county votes.
$100 that the Democratic high man does not get 5,000 county votes.
$100 that Tom Pitt is elected sheriff.
$100 that Wells beats Powers in Salt Lake county."

MURPHY DOBTS GENUINNESS OF CROKER CABLE.

New York, Nov. 1.—The principal topic of conversation in political circles today was the cablegram of congratulations from Richard Croker, former leader of Tammany Hall, given out by Senator McCarran, Democratic leader of Brooklyn, yesterday.

Charles F. Murphy, the leader of Tammany Hall, said today that he doubts the genuineness of the cablegram in which Mr. Croker commended Senator McCarran's course as mainly:
"It is a great question in my mind as to the genuineness of this cablegram."

Mr. Murphy said that he is entirely contrary to the teachings and attitude of Mr. Croker all his life. Mr. Croker as leader of Tammany Hall taught me regularly, and I was trained in Tammany Hall. I have always followed that instruction. "Tammany Hall went to that convention as follows: The people up-state want Mr. Hearst and we fell in line. Now that Mr. Hearst is nominated we are supporting him loyally. He is the regular nominee of the party and as such should be supported by the party."

Mr. Hearst from now until election day will do all his campaigning in or near New York. This evening he will address 16 meetings in Manhattan and the Bronx.

Mr. Hughes will close his canvass of the up-state counties tomorrow.

EVIDENCE OF LARCENY BUT CULPRIT UNKNOWN.

New York, Nov. 1.—As a result of the letter sent yesterday by Wm. H. Hearst to Judge Rosalsky, charging gross criminal negligence of the board of elections, which resulted, he alleged, in the mutilation of petitions filed by candidates for the Independence League, McDonald Dewitt, a lawyer, appeared at the district attorney's office today, accompanied by witnesses, to testify in support of Mr. Hearst's contention.

Mr. Dewitt said after the hearing: "Evidence of larceny has been presented, but the name of the culprit has not been established."

Mr. Jerome said that witnesses will swear to the depositions, whereupon summons will be issued for the members of the board, who, it is expected, will be examined before a magistrate tomorrow.

THE LUTHER LEAGUE.

Canton, O., Nov. 1.—The Luther league of America, now in session here, will meet in Chicago in biennial convention in 1907. The league elected William C. Stover of Philadelphia president.

ARRESTED FOR BUNCOING.

Spokane, Wash., Nov. 1.—George Steecher and E. H. Quick were arrested today, charged with buncoing local firms by soliciting advertisements in the name of the Switchmen's union. The scheme, which was denounced by the union authorities, is said to have been worked by Joliet, Ill., Denver, Colo., and many other cities, but none of the gang is known to have been captured until today.

AN IDAHO TRAGEDY.

Marshal Wells of Oakley Kills Fred Taylor While Resisting Arrest.

(Special to the "News.")

Oakley, Ida., Nov. 1.—Fred Taylor, aged 30, was shot and instantly killed by Marshal Wells for resisting arrest at 6 o'clock last night. Drink and disturbance of the peace were the cause for the arrest.

CROKER'S CABLEGRAM TO MCCARREN IS GENUINE.

London, Nov. 1.—The following messages have passed between the London office of the Associated Press and Richard Croker at Dundrum, Ireland:

"Richard Croker, Dundrum, Ireland: "The Associated Press has received the United States wishes to know whether you sent the following cablegram: "McCarran—Congratulations you on many stand you have taken, win or lose. (Signed) "RICHARD CROKER." "ASSOCIATED PRESS."

As Mr. Croker had not replied last night a second telegram was sent, day requesting an answer. It came in the following form:
