

SECRET EDITION NEWS.

TRUTH AND LIBERTY.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1904. SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH.

FIFTY-FOURTH YEAR.

Did you marry the first girl you proposed to? Probably not. Sometimes it's that way with advertising. You have to try it again. But, it's as sure as courtship in the end.

10 PAGES—LAST EDITION

NOMINEES FOR THE STATE SENATE

Democrats Name Three Men For The Upper Branch of The Legislature.

LEARY, PYPER, AND STEWART.

In Session Again This Afternoon to Select Candidates for the House of Representatives.

THE SALT PALACE AN ICE BOX.

Delegates Will Complete Their Labors Today and Then the Campaign Will Be in Earnest Here.

FOR THE STATE SENATE.

There was but one ballot for candidates for the state senate, the names of those who were successful and the votes they received are as follows:

James C. Leary, ..... 247
George D. Pyper, ..... 200
Harold J. Stewart, ..... 189

It is taking two days, and long ones, too, for the work of the Democratic convention. Up to noon today only the county ticket and the state senate portion of the legislative ticket had been named. The rest of the afternoon will be consumed in naming the house nominees. It will thus be seen that the delegates have proceeded to the task before them with unusual deliberation, particularly as there has been an absence of the factional feuds which so often smother, hinder and delay the work of the bodies.

Two o'clock this afternoon was the hour set for the final session but it was considerably after that time before the delegates met in the Salt Palace. The weather was a veritable pneumonia breeder. From the very start the weather was so cold as to be almost unbearable and for coats, overcoats and gloves would have been heat comforters. "Why doesn't some one heat the place?" was often asked. "Well, there is only one reason," was the invariable reply. "It is because there is no way in which that can be done. The building is for summer use only."

In attending the morning session and not as many spectators were present as on yesterday. However, there were a number of prominent party leaders there to give advice and to watch the progress of affairs. Among them were Chairman Hamberger and David Evans. Held's band furnished the music and tried to warm things up a bit, but neither classic nor rag time music hitting matters much with the mercury hitting lower notes than the man with the big base drum could reach. The one feature of the convention aside from its deliberation was the frigidity of the occasion.

There was a good deal of caucusing and the names of house nominees received considerable attention between times and it is evident that the strongest men of the convention were in favor of securing over the winter for that body. It is stated that selections will doubtless be made during the afternoon from among the following candidates: George H. Dorn, C. H. McCoy, J. W. Stringfellow, D. B. Benson, A. W. Forman, J. W. Harmon, A. E. Hyde, S. E. Harner, J. W. Lewis, T. P. Page, C. L. Olson, Dr. C. L. Douglas, A. F. Thomas, W. R. Ennis, George C. Riser, Jr., J. R. Tompkins, Mahon Spencer, S. F. Kerner, John C. Cameron, J. A. McChrystal, Dr. S. C. Baldwin, A. L. Lovey, Louis Iverson and W. T. Spencer.

MORNING SESSION.
The convention reconvened at 10:35. When Chairman H. W. Sloan rapped for order. Immediately John F. Howells took the floor and in a well worded address he moved that the nomination of Arthur C. Cummings for sheriff be made unanimous. It was so ordered.

NOMINATIONS FOR SENATE.
Nominations for state senator were next in order. Fisher S. Harris presented the name of George D. Pyper, and moved that the rules be suspended and that he be nominated by acclamation. This was objected to by John F. Howells, who called attention to the fact that the cardinal principle of Democracy was "Equal and exact justice to all, and special privileges to none." In this showing Mr. Harris withdrew his motion for a suspension of the rules and the convention proceeded with nominations.

CANDIDATES AND RESULTS.
C. M. Jackson placed in nomination William G. Nebeker; Heber S. Sanders named Richard Howe of Murray; Frank H. Stephens nominated Bernard J. Stewart; John W. Riser named J. N. Baskin; Samuel Russell espoused the cause of David Evans; W. H. Dale presented the name of James Leary. After numerous seconding speeches a ballot was ordered, the same showing the following results:

Leary, ..... 247
Pyper, ..... 200
Stewart, ..... 189
Nebeker, ..... 189
Baskin, ..... 189
Evans, ..... 189

Measures Leary, Pyper and Stewart having received the highest number of votes and a majority of those voting declared the nominees of the convention. On motion of Mr. Evans the nominations were made unanimous. The convention then took a recess till 2 o'clock.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The afternoon session opened with a spirited talk by Judge O. W. Powers who has been touring the southern part of the state in the interest of Democracy. He was stepped to the platform and, after a few words of introduction, he brought good news from the Dixie county of Utah, where the prospects for Democratic success were reassuring.

He scored the Republican party for its mistakes and mistakes. He said that the Republican speakers were telling the old story that all the good men were in the ranks of the Republicans and that all the bad ones were in the camp of the Democrats. The speaker convinced the audience with numerous good natured references to the opposition and closed by urging the Democrats to mind their own business and allow other to do likewise. He said that everywhere there were signs of Democratic success. "Let us get together," said the speaker, "and all will be well with us at the polls."

At the conclusion of the speech the band played "A Hot Time" and nominations were proceeded with for the lower house. The first name called was Mat Thomas at this juncture claimed the floor and stated that the reorganization resolution adopted yesterday was the cause of no little misunderstanding and confusion; that there was a general belief that it would displace numerous recently elected campaign committees. In explanation, Delegate Willey said there would be no displacement, and that all committees would serve out the term for which they were elected.

NOMINATIONS COMMENCE.

The chair announced that the nominations for legislative representatives were in order. In an instant at least 20 delegates were upon their feet. W. B. Ennis was the first to be recognized. He presented the name of J. S. Mousley of Bluffdale.

H. W. Sloan named A. E. Hyde of Salt Lake. Stephen Richards named J. E. Clark. Mat Thomas presented the name of C. L. Olson.

John T. Calne named George H. Dorn. Lucian Ray made a strong plea for George C. Riser, Jr.

W. H. Dale stood sponsor for Thomas F. Thomas.

Ed McGurran named Charles McCoy. The induction are that it will be late this evening before the final result of the convention is known.

JUDGE POWERS HOPEFUL.

Says Outlook for Democracy in Southern Utah is Good.

Judge Powers, who has been touring the southern part of the state in an automobile for the interests of Democracy, returned this morning to Salt Lake and was an interested spectator at the convention this afternoon. To the "News" he said that the outlook for Democracy was all that could be desired, and he predicted a sweeping victory for his party at the polls this fall.

DAVIS COUNTY TICKET.

Republicans Hold Harmonious Convention at Farmington.

Special Correspondence.
Farmington, Sept. 28.—The Republican county convention met here today and nominated the following county ticket: For representative, Ezra J. Richards; county clerk, Henry W. Shaler; sheriff, James Weaver; treasurer, George H. Blood; recorder, Sadie Foss; assessor, John E. Woolley; attorney, I. E. Willey; surveyor, John W. Chase; commissioner, long term, James H. Larkin; commissioner, short term, John Nelson. This convention was held at a theater and the orators spoke from a platform used by the troupe.

The early hour at which the meeting was held did not have the effect of preventing a large attendance and of diminishing the ardor of those who were there. The meeting was thoroughly appreciative and there were cheers greeting as Senators Fairbanks and Dolliver were taken to the meeting place.

This being the residence of Congressman Dixon he presided at the meeting and advantage was taken of the opportunity by both the visiting senators to say a word in appreciation of Mr. Dixon's services in Congress. Special reference was made to his instrumental part in securing the opening of the great Flathead Indian reservation, which lies in this vicinity.

"It is a mighty hard matter to get a good congressman, and a community that gets one should hold on to him as long as he will stick," said Senator Dolliver.

Senator Fairbanks made an argument for the retention of the Republican party in power, saying that it had shown its capacity by the record already made and the orators spoke of the past as the best guarantee for the future. He contended that all its policies had been demonstrated to be wise and in the interest of all classes of our people. The unwisdom of a change, which could be placed in peril along lines that had already proved disastrous.

While he was speaking a nearby locomotive insisted upon blowing off steam. Whereupon Mr. Fairbanks said it was like the Democratic orators, capable of making a great deal of noise, but of doing little else.

When the party left here it was still 150 miles from the state line on the west, but the schedule called for no more speaking and the delegates to Idaho should be reached late in the afternoon.

Time was called on Senator Dolliver before he had concluded and he refused to continue to stop speaking, saying he would continue as long as he pleased. "I will stay here and take the regular train," he said, "and let Fairbanks go on to Idaho and wrestle with the political question."

IN EMERY COUNTY.

Democrats Meet in Convention and Name Ticket.

Special Correspondence.
Huntington, Utah, Sept. 27.—The Democrats held a county convention yesterday at Castle Dale, at which the following ticket was nominated: Commissioner, four-year term—Rasmus Johnson; clerk, two-year term, Geo. W. Perry of Ferron.

Clerk—E. W. Fox, Jr., of Orangeville. Assessor—M. E. Johnson of Huntington. Recorder—Hector Evans of Castle Dale. Treasurer—Ole Sletten of Orangeville. Sheriff—Levy Olson of Ferron. Attorney—A. M. Truman of Huntington.

Superintendent of District Schools—N. L. Williams of Emery. Surveyor—E. H. Cox of Huntington. Representative—A. E. Wall of Castle Dale.

The Republicans claim that a bad omen for the above ticket is that last night was the first real killing frost of the season, and they hope the ticket will not pull through just as it is nominated, as there was considerable vote trading and broken promises. About half of the voters will vote for the men and not for the party. The other half is about equally divided between the two parties.

DUBOIS REBUKED.

Special Correspondence.
Oakley, Cassia Co., Idaho, Sept. 27.—The Republicans of Cassia county will meet at Albion on Friday, Sept. 30, to nominate a county ticket. It is generally believed that the Democrats of this county will refuse to affiliate with the Dubois crowd this fall; believing that all those who vote the ticket endorse the "incipient and methods of that arch schemer. It is clearly evident that the people cannot administer too severe a rebuke to the advocates of disfranchisement and strife.

The following delegates to the Albion convention were elected at the Oakley primary, held yesterday: John L. Smith, Geo. A. Day, O. P. Bates, Mary Ellison, Aaron Collins, H. H. Severe, S. Nelson, H. B. Haight, H. C. Haight and E. F. Howells.

INFANT FALLS THREE STORIES.

Daughter of F. J. Paradise. Aged 18 Months, Dropped to The Sidewalk.

PICKED UP ALMOST UNHURT.

Plunged Out of Eagle Block Window And Escaped With Bruised Knee and Back.

The infant daughter, aged 18 months, of F. J. Paradise, fell from a third story window of the Eagle block this morning, to the flag sidewalk, a distance of 40 feet, and strange to state, escaped with slight injuries. The child had climbed up a rocking chair into a window on the West Temple street side of the apartments occupied by its parents, and losing its balance fell against the window screen, and then out it went. The child was immediately picked up and carried across the street into Hill's drug store unconscious, and attended to by Dr. Jones. Presently she recovered consciousness and began to cry. The doctor found evidence of only bruises on one knee and on the back, but said that later in the day, internal injuries might be manifested. The fact that the child could go through such an experience and live, was considered remarkable. The family recently came from Denver.

SENATOR FAIRBANKS' MONTANA TOUR OVER.

Missoula, Mont., Sept. 28.—With a stop of an hour at this point, Senator Fairbanks concluded his four days' speaking tour of the state of Montana. His special train arrived at 3:30 a. m. and was met at the railroad station by a committee of prominent Republicans and escorted to an immense tent near the depot by the Young Men's Republican club and a brass band. The tent was a theater and the orators spoke from a platform used by the troupe.

The early hour at which the meeting was held did not have the effect of preventing a large attendance and of diminishing the ardor of those who were there. The meeting was thoroughly appreciative and there were cheers greeting as Senators Fairbanks and Dolliver were taken to the meeting place.

This being the residence of Congressman Dixon he presided at the meeting and advantage was taken of the opportunity by both the visiting senators to say a word in appreciation of Mr. Dixon's services in Congress. Special reference was made to his instrumental part in securing the opening of the great Flathead Indian reservation, which lies in this vicinity.

"It is a mighty hard matter to get a good congressman, and a community that gets one should hold on to him as long as he will stick," said Senator Dolliver.

Senator Fairbanks made an argument for the retention of the Republican party in power, saying that it had shown its capacity by the record already made and the orators spoke of the past as the best guarantee for the future. He contended that all its policies had been demonstrated to be wise and in the interest of all classes of our people. The unwisdom of a change, which could be placed in peril along lines that had already proved disastrous.

While he was speaking a nearby locomotive insisted upon blowing off steam. Whereupon Mr. Fairbanks said it was like the Democratic orators, capable of making a great deal of noise, but of doing little else.

When the party left here it was still 150 miles from the state line on the west, but the schedule called for no more speaking and the delegates to Idaho should be reached late in the afternoon.

Time was called on Senator Dolliver before he had concluded and he refused to continue to stop speaking, saying he would continue as long as he pleased. "I will stay here and take the regular train," he said, "and let Fairbanks go on to Idaho and wrestle with the political question."

Drifting Torpedo Harmless.

Vallejo, Cal., Sept. 28.—Rear Admiral McCalla is authority for the statement that the torpedo believed to be drifting in San Francisco bay is harmless as it is not loaded.

Report on Grand Trunk Ry.

London, Sept. 28.—Sir Charles Rivers Wilson, presiding at the semi-annual meeting of the shareholders of the Grand Trunk railway here today, said the abnormal working expenses of the first part of the year were due to the severity of the weather and the depression which existed in Canada throughout the period of great commercial activity in those countries.

The report of the board was adopted and the directors were authorized to enter into an agreement acquiring control of the Canadian Atlantic Railroad company.

Gen. Charles W. Irish Dead.

Iowa City, Iowa, Sept. 28.—A telegram announces the death of Gen. Charles W. Irish, former United States surveyor-general, in Gold Creek, Nev. He surveyed Iowa for the Northwestern and the Burlington railroads, the Santa Fe's Colorado and Arizona routes, built the Royal Gorge and Grand canyon bridges, the bridge over the Missouri at Omaha and laid out the early roads in both Dakotas. He was chief of the department of irrigation and inquiry under President Cleveland.

Japs Blockading Chefoo.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 28.—A special dispatch received from Chefoo says the Japanese warships are blockading Chefoo. This evidently is under an agreement with China, in order to prevent the possibility of any of the ships of the Port Arthur squadron seeking refuge at Chefoo.

Epidemic Among the Japs.

The Pass, Sept. 28.—The Japanese armies around Liao Yang are reported to be decimated by epidemics, due to decaying corpses.

The Japanese are said to have damaged the Liao river above Liao Yang, flooding the country in order to protect their left flank.

THE BATTLESHIP CONNECTICUT.

It is Successfully Launched in The Brooklyn Navy Yard.

MISS WELLES CHRISTENED IT.

It is the First Warship Built in a Government Yard Since the Ill-Fated Maine.

New York, Sept. 28.—As the bands on the several warships at the navyyard played "The Star Spangled Banner," a new United States battleship slid down the ways into the water today and Miss Alice Welles, granddaughter of President Lincoln's secretary of the navy, broke a bottle of champagne over the vessel's prow, naming it Connecticut. Many thousands of people witnessed the launching of this, the first battleship built in a government yard since the ill-fated Maine, large crowds gathering at the navyyard and at various points on the Manhattan and Brooklyn sides of the river.

More than 80,000 invitations were issued and few were not used. Streamers and bunting were displayed in profusion everywhere around the navyyard.

The hull of the new battleship was tastefully draped with a large American flag. Naval Constructor Baxter, in charge of the launching, was connected by telephone with all parts of the ship and on hearing that everything was ready he gave the signal to the workmen, passed the signal to Miss Welles, who broke the bottle of wine against the bow and the great steel hull was on its way to the water.

The ship started slowly at first, gaining momentum as it slipped into the water. A chorus of whistles from the vessels in the harbor drowned the strains of the warship's bands, and the big steel hull rode safely on the water. Owing to the rumors of the last few days of an attempt to wreck the new ship, at the launching, there was an intense feeling of suspense among the spectators and the officials and employees at the navyyard lest something mar the impressiveness of the ceremony, while the Louisiana was being launched.

The Connecticut is a sister ship of the Louisiana, and both vessels were authorized by an act of Congress in 1902. The Connecticut was built in a government yard and under government supervision, while the Louisiana was built by a private shipbuilding firm at Newport News, Va. The construction of both ships has been followed with keen interest, as it was recognized that it was a test of the government's ability to construct a modern battleship.

The last vessel of any size constructed at the New York navy yard was the ill-fated battleship Maine.

The keel of the Connecticut was laid on March 10, 1903, and the ship was launched on July 28, the armor placed aboard April 24 and the first boiler shipped on July 7.

The Connecticut is of steel with a trial displacement of 16,000 tons and a maximum displacement of 17,720 tons. The vessel is 450 feet on the load water line, 454 feet over all, 78 feet beam and 24 feet draught.

The engines will be of the twin screw, vertical, four cylinder triple expansion type, covering the displacement of 16,000, and these will accumulate a speed of 18 knots.

The Connecticut will carry three funnels, two military masts, two main and four secondary turrets, and a main deck central battery. The armor has a total weight of 3,902 tons.

On each side amidships there is a steel belt 153 feet long, 9 feet 3 inches wide and 11 inches thick. Forward and aft of this belt is another, 9 inches thick, covering the magazines. This is ended by six inch bulkheads. On the lower deck for 284 feet the armor is six inches thick and on the main deck for 236 feet, where the central battery is, the armor is seven inches thick. The protected deck is one and a half inches thick on the flat and two and a half inches on the slopes. The main turrets are eight inches thick with 12-inch faces. There are two of these. The barbettes are covered with 10 inches of armor and the secondary turrets with six inches of armor, with six and a half inch faces. The conning tower is protected with steel armor nine inches thick and the signal tower with six inches of steel.

Gifts to Foreign Missions.

Boston, Sept. 28.—An increase in the amounts of gifts from individuals and churches, but a marked falling off in legacies is shown by the financial report of the American board of commissioners for foreign missions, which was made public today in anticipation of its ninety-fourth annual meeting at Grinnell, Iowa, Oct. 11 to 13. The receipts were $705,601, an increase of $5,512 over the previous year. The receipts from legacies fell to $100,000, the lowest in 17 years and nearly $40,000 less than the average during the last 10 years. As a result of this shrinkage in legacies, there is a debt of about $22,000. The result is said by the officers to show the importance of completing the "twentieth century fund" which was placed to adjust the fund in legacies.

Ammon Wants a Habeas Corpus.

New York, Sept. 28.—Robert A. Ammon today applied in the United States circuit court for a writ of habeas corpus through which he will seek to be released from Sing Sing prison, where he is now serving a four year sentence for the conviction with the Miller 320 cent syndicate of Brooklyn. Ammon contends that in being deprived, as he claims, of commutation of his sentence for good behavior, the constitution of the United States is violated. He claims that as a result, he is entitled to his liberty.

Czar Will Go Hunting.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 29, 1:45 p.m.—Upon the emperor's return from southern Russia he will go to his hunting lodge at Plovdiv, on the border of Poland, between Vilna and Kieff, for a fortnight's shooting.

Maher Wins at Newmarket.

London, Sept. 28.—Rocksand, ridden by Maher, the American jockey, won the race for the Jockey club stakes at Newmarket today. Henry the First was second, and William Rufus was third. The last named horse was ridden by Martin, the American jockey. Ten horses started.

LAWYERS AND JURISTS.

Prest. Brewer Will Hold Them Down Strictly to Rules.

St. Louis, Sept. 28.—The proceedings of the annual Congress of Lawyers and Jurists, which will continue throughout the week and be conducted with dispatch and without loss of time, President Brewer announced that he would hold the congress strictly to the rules adopted, which provide that discussion must be limited to 15 minutes by each speaker, and that any member desiring to talk upon any subject must first send his card to the president, stating the fact, or he will not be recognized as entitled to a hearing. The first address of today's session

ROBBED IN LAUNCH ON HUDSON RIVER.

Assailant Left His Victim Unconscious and Turned The Boat Adrift.

WAS A MOST DESPERATE MAN.

Owner Advertised His Launch for Sale and Took Would-be Murderer Aboard to Show It.

New York, Sept. 28.—In the arrest of a young man who calls himself Thos. H. Price, and who made a murderous assault upon a detective sergeant, in which the latter was severely stabbed twice, it developed today that A. Z. Leubbers, an insurance broker, was a few days ago assaulted, robbed and left unconscious in a launch on the Hudson river.

The assault and robbery of Mr. Leubbers was committed, according to a confession which the police claim has been made by Price, for the sole purpose of getting money which the latter had to have to continue to live in extravagance and fashion. Price, who is a man of athletic build, 22, well dressed, with every trace of refinement and education, was desperate and threatened to end his life at the first opportunity.

According to the story told by the police the assault and robbery of Mr. Leubbers was brought about by an advertisement in a New York newspaper offering to sell a naphtha launch. When a well-mannered young man called on the insurance broker at his home and represented that he wanted to buy a naphtha launch, the broker went with him to show him it was in working order. The two boarded the boat and set out for a run about the river. While he talked the young man held a large iron wrench in his hand. Suddenly, according to the story told by the police, the wrench came down hard on the head, felling him unconscious to the bottom of the boat. When the boat was in the middle of the stream it is alleged that Price stripped Mr. Leubbers of his clothes and his jewelry. He even changed clothes with the unconscious man, and then steered the launch to the shore, alighted and pushed the boat out into the stream.

Mr. Leubbers was rescued and taken to police station. In the struggle Price used a lead pencil as a weapon and inflicted two severe stab wounds in the detective's neck.

LORD MAYOR OF LONDON.

Alderman John Pound, Chairman of Omnibus Co. Chosen.

London, Sept. 28.—Alderman John Pound, chairman of the London general omnibus company, limited, was today chosen lord mayor of London for the ensuing year. He was born in Lendenhall street, city, in 1829.

Alderman Pound will succeed Sir James Thompson Ritchie as lord mayor. Mr. Pound is head of the firm of John Pound & Co., and was elected alderman of Aldgate ward in 1892. He is past master of the Leather Sellers company, past master of the Fanmakers' company and past master of the Fruitlers' company.

Broker W. S. Alley Suspended.

New York, Sept. 28.—William S. Alley of Alley, Conger & Co., and S. L. Blood of S. L. Blood & Co., were suspended from the stock exchange today for one year.

The suspended members were found guilty of violating a rule of the exchange which provides that members must not have regular wire connections with individuals or firms not connected with the exchange.

JEWS IN RUSSIA.

Police Receive Instructions Not To Expel Their Workmen.

Vilna, Russia, Sept. 28.—By virtue of the czar's ukase, extending the privileges of residence to certain classes of Jews within the pale, the police have received instructions heretofore not to expel Jewish workmen from villages in which they have taken up their residence since 1882.

No Decision in La Follette Case.

Madison, Wis., Sept. 28.—The decision was not rendered in the La Follette case today and the politicians of both factions are compelled to wait with what patience they can, or summon for another 24 hours at least.

Judge Cassoday is still unable to attend court. It is possible that some action may be taken in the case tomorrow or Saturday.

They Talked About Nothing But The Weather.

Frankfort-on-the-Main, Sept. 28.—Chancellor von Bülow, in an interview printed in the Frankfurter Zeitung today, relative to the recent visit of Signor Giolitti, the Italian premier, to the chancellor at Hamburg, is quoted as saying it was altogether personal and that it was not announced in advance in order to avoid premature speculations. As for their having discussed mediation in the far east, such a thing was excluded from consideration by the knowledge that neither Russia nor Japan desired mediation.

Berlin Orchestra Arrives.

New York, Sept. 28.—The Berlin philharmonic orchestra, in charge of the conductor and composer, Franz von Blon, arrived today on the steamer Dreforia from Hamburg. The orchestra will give its first concert in several cities. About 90 members of the Metropolitan Grand Opera company were among the passengers on the Dreforia.

Kaiser in Perfect Health.

Berlin, Sept. 28.—Contrary to the reports circulated in the United States by a news agency yesterday, Emperor William is in perfect health and is speaking in a clear and natural voice. He enjoyed his yachting trip in the Mediterranean last spring and it is possible he may go there again next year, although no determination to do so has been expressed.

JUDGE PARKER.

New York, Sept. 28.—Judge Parker has decided not to return to Esopus until tomorrow afternoon.

Among his callers today was John Bogart, prominent as a labor leader. Mr. Bogart had visited Judge Parker at his home at Rosemont and called for the purpose of continuing a discussion on the relation of the Democratic party to organized labor.

THE BATTLESHIP CONNECTICUT.

It is Successfully Launched in The Brooklyn Navy Yard.

MISS WELLES CHRISTENED IT.

It is the First Warship Built in a Government Yard Since the Ill-Fated Maine.

New York, Sept. 28.—As the bands on the several warships at the navyyard played "The Star Spangled Banner," a new United States battleship slid down the ways into the water today and Miss Alice Welles, granddaughter of President Lincoln's secretary of the navy, broke a bottle of champagne over the vessel's prow, naming it Connecticut. Many thousands of people witnessed the launching of this, the first battleship built in a government yard since the ill-fated Maine, large crowds gathering at the navyyard and at various points on the Manhattan and Brooklyn sides of the river.

More than 80,000 invitations were issued and few were not used. Streamers and bunting were displayed in profusion everywhere around the navyyard.

The hull of the new battleship was tastefully draped with a large American flag. Naval Constructor Baxter, in charge of the launching, was connected by telephone with all parts of the ship and on hearing that everything was ready he gave the signal to the workmen, passed the signal to Miss Welles, who broke the bottle of wine against the bow and the great steel hull was on its way to the water.

The ship started slowly at first, gaining momentum as it slipped into the water. A chorus of whistles from the vessels in the harbor drowned the strains of the warship's bands, and the big steel hull rode safely on the water. Owing to the rumors of the last few days of an attempt to wreck the new ship, at the launching, there was an intense feeling of suspense among the spectators and the officials and employees at the navyyard lest something mar the impressiveness of the ceremony, while the Louisiana was being launched.

The Connecticut is a sister ship of the Louisiana, and both vessels were authorized by an act of Congress in 1902. The Connecticut was built in a government yard and under government supervision, while the Louisiana was built by a private shipbuilding firm at Newport News, Va. The construction of both ships has been followed with keen interest, as it was recognized that it was a test of the government's ability to construct a modern battleship.

The last vessel of any size constructed at the New York navy yard was the ill-fated battleship Maine.

The keel of the Connecticut was laid on March 10, 1903, and the ship was launched on July 28, the armor placed aboard April 24 and the first boiler shipped on July 7.

The Connecticut is of steel with a trial displacement of 16,000 tons and a maximum displacement of 17,720 tons. The vessel is 450 feet on the load water line, 454 feet over all, 78 feet beam and 24 feet draught.

The engines will be of the twin screw, vertical, four cylinder triple expansion type, covering the displacement of 16,000, and these will accumulate a speed of 18 knots.

The Connecticut will carry three funnels, two military masts, two main and four secondary turrets, and a main deck central battery. The armor has a total weight of 3,902 tons.

On each side amidships