the adjoining lot, to further continue the program. The speakers in the afternoon were E. W. McIntire and Bishop J. M. Murray of Pine Ward, who spoke upon the organization of the Church and the corner of the Priesthood, and ladies serving a mission building the Priesthood. During the time of the choir, recitations and songs were sung.

Friends and strangers were invited to meet with us, and quite a number of them came. An answer to the announcement, it was a most greatly enjoyed and long to be remembered.

A supper was given to the visiting friends from that ward at 8:30 p.m., concluding the evening with a talk which was one of the largest ever held in the hall.
