PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, SEPT. 20, 1894.

The First District Court.—Notes.

When court opened yesterday morning the following aliens were admitted to citizenship: Nels C. Nelson, Pleasant Grove; Arthur Hanks, Patrick Kinasher, Phil Sullivan, Henry Driscol, Edward Hanks, T. M. Downey, Dan Kelly, Patrick Sullivan, Eugene Sullivan, James Eatherton, John Sullivan, John Dimond, John Neary, Mike Harrington, Patrick Quinn, Daniel J. John, Jacob Bonni, John Morley, Elijah Bowers, Dan Hanley, all of Eureka.

The case of the People vs. Phil Forte, charged with assault with intent to commit murder, was called. The defendant did not respond and his bonds of $5,000 were forfeited. P. J. Bond and Ed Hoffman were his sureties.

The next case called was the People vs. Chas. E. Dorey, charged with larceny. John M. Zane, attorney for defendant, had telegraphed that Dorey was drowned. His bonds were declared forfeited till a conclusive showing of his death is made.

The next case called was the People vs. J. W. Taylor, of Santaquin, a young man of about twenty, charged with an attempt to commit rape, and a jury was empaneled. A. S. Thurman prosecuted, and Warner & Knight defended. The crime is alleged to have taken place in Santaquin on the 23rd of January, 1893. The complaining witness is Miss Bertha Moseley, of Mona, who was on a visit to her brother-in-law, Niels Anderson, of Santaquin. She was the first witness. A number of other witnesses for the prosecution testified, after which Attorney Warner moved for a nonsuit, on the ground that no force had been used, as far as testified to. The motion was opposed by Prosecutor Thurman, who said he was willing to argue the case on the assault charge and have the court charge the jury that their verdict should be for assault if defendant was found guilty. With that understanding the defense introduced evidence and the case was argued and submitted. A verdict of guilty of assault, with recommendation to mercy, was rendered. The defense excepts to the verdict and gave notice that they would move for a new trial.

Upon motion of Attorney Edwards the prosecution of Joseph Hunter, of Sanford, formication, was dismissed and he a tenderness exonerated. Hunter was bound over to await the action of the grand jury by Commissioner Dudley. The grand jury, however, called to indict. Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Thurman did not object to the motion.

Richard Crowther, who had previously plead not guilty to the charge of larceny, changed his plea to guilty. Sentence was set for today.

NEW CASES FILED.

Ebenezer G. DeFries, of Varnal, has filed a complaint in the First district court against Sterling D. Colton, John H. Bender and Charles S. Carter, constables of Uintah county. He sets forth that he is entitled to one-thirtieth of the water in Ashley creek, of which he has been deprived by defendants, who claim to have power, by virtue of their office, to determine the rights of claimants to the water of said creek. Plaintiff asks that defendants be restrained from interfering with the waters of Ashley creek, and for a decree adjudging him the owner of one-thirtieth of said creek. S. A. King is attorney for plaintiff.

H. L. C. Jorgensen, of Levan, has commenced a damage suit for $5,000 against Peter Tygesen, of the same place. The complaint alleges that plaintiff has been greatly damaged in his reputation and credit through being accused by defendant of burning defendant's barn, on or about November 25th, 1891, and asks for the above amount, damages. D. D. Houtz and R. Anderson are attorneys for plaintiff.

Notes.

Alonzo F. Smith, of Pleasant Grove, and Harriet E. Oviatt, of American Fork; and David T. Stratton, of Provo Bench, and Caroline M. Delmore, of Pleasant Grove, have received licenses to marry.

The Ed. Louse Republican club was organized Tuesday evening with 125 members. They drilled last evening under the direction of Captain J. H. Denhalter. Mr. Louse has furnished the members with helmets, leather and capes. The slogan of the club is "Carnon."

Hon. F. S. Richards and Judge Henriemon will talk Democracy to the people of Alpine tomorrow night.

The other day while a number of Icelanders were being examined to citizenship in the First district court, one was admitted whose English was very imperfect. A second applicant was asked if he could speak the English language. He replied very hesitatingly: "I speak it better than some people."

LOOK THE LADY'S PLUME.

A LUXURIOUS INCIDENT THAT SPOILED DEVOTIONS IN CHURCH.

A ludicrous incident occurred at one of the prominent churches in this city on a recent Sunday which is likely to mar the otherwise going order of the young men in the assembly—a feature in the experience of the young lady that she will not soon forget.

The young man, immediately following cool, light colored trousers and spotless linen, was ushered to a seat directly in front of a bewitching and stylishly dressed young lady, on whose fancy hand reposed an elaborate and expensive muff of fox brilliancy and, the principal feature of which was a very large and beautiful plume.

When the good sermon commenced his long prayer the young man's thoughts were evidently on his fair neighbor and consequently he neglected to assume an air of reverence. Not so with the young lady. She immediately bowed her head on the back of the seat in front and the plume of her hat brushed the back of the young man's face.

Thinking it a fly, he tried to scare it away with his hand; but, like the cat, it "came back" with the persistency of a book agent, and after several vain attempts to keep it off his neck visions of centipedes, scorpions, tarantulas and other poisonous monsters filled his agonized mind.

With the desperation born of despair he made one great grab, secured the persistent object, gave a quick, strong jerk and landed the gorgeous plume in his lap.

Of course the young lady was surprised and indignant and the young man was so embarrassed that he forgot to apologize at the close of the service.—Seattle Post Intelligencer.
