LEVAN .- "H. H." writing from Levan. Jush county, on the 24th ult., says: "I believe we have had more snow here, than any place south of your city, having had good sleighing for the last three months. signs of spring are now visible and there are prospects for plenty of water, which will be a blessing to this place. Our F. R. Par-ley. Barship, Gurney, Lucation, States, State and Sunday school, the latter numbering about eighty, and a dramatic association. MUNICIPAL ELECTION AT CORINNE .-By letter from a Corinne correspondent we are informed that the citizens of that centre of the elite have been holding an election for Mayor and City Council. As is usual among those professing to be most advanced in social polity, there was an "opposition ticket," the nominees of one party being styled the "People's Ticket," those of Apple Seed. the other the "Citizens' Ticket." The nominces on the former were: For Mayor, J Malsh; for Councilors, S. L. Tibbals, H House, A. Kuhn, F. Hurlbut, H. Lewis, J. W. McNutt, T. Ollier, J. Kupfer, J. W. Graham, J. Taggart; for Justices of the Lucerne,.

Peace, Coas. Barnard and John Wallace. The nominees of the "Citizens' Ticket" were: For Mayor, W. H. Munro; for Councilors, H. House, D. R. Short, A. J. Fitzgerald, J. L. Vaughan, S. Davis, Victor Cordella, N. S. Ransohoff, J. H. Gerrish, S. Howe, J. W. Guthrie; for Justices of the Pence, N. N. Fitch and T. J. Black.

The successful candidates were: Malsh, S. L. Tibbals, J. W. McNutt, F Hurlbut, J. W. Graham, H. House, A. J Fluzgerald, J. H. Gerrish, S. Howe, J. Guthrie, T. J. Black, John Kup-Tinr.

Our correspondent says "the election passed off quietly, considering the crowd." There was considerable excitement at night and a good many were topheavy. There is a probability, we are informed, that some of the elections will be contested. The roads in and around Corinne are very muddy, with about two inches of TBOW.
