NEWS OF THE DAY.

A robbery and murder were committed at Corning, last night, the victim was an old and respected citizen named Borsteln, whose family are all away at present, visiting in the west. The old gentleman returned home late last night, as he was going towards his bedroom a concealed assassin buried an axe in his brain and then robbed the body of a watch and the contents of a pocket-book. The citizens, by subscription, have contributed a liberal sum for the discovery of the murderer, or murderers, and talk of lynching if discovered. Two Chinamen were arrested on suspicion.

On Saturday there was a balloon ascension from Woodward's Gardens, San Francisco, the termination of which was almost a catastrophe. The car of the balloon contained two ladies and four gentlemen, and when the balloon was about 600 feet high it collapsed, the car falling to the ground with great force. All the parties therein were more or less injured, but, wonderful to tell, not one fatally.

Active operations were resumed before Bilbao, on the 20th of March, on which day the bombardment of Abanto was commenced.

Charles Ernest Russell, a member of the French Assembly, and a famous classical scholar, is dead.

A murder and suicide took place at San Francisco yesterday afternoon. One Condon, it is supposed under the influence of jealousy, shot and killed a man named Charles Kingsley, and then blew his own brains out.

The latest news from the Red Cloud and Spotted Tail agencies, says that good relations exist between the Indians and soldiers.

The Association of Mexican Veterans estimates the number of survivors of the Mexican war, or their widows who are entitled to pensions, at over thirty-nine thousand.

Three men were killed by the falling in of part of a bluff at Fort Pickering, Tenn., on Saturday; four others had a narrow escape.

Senator Schurz will deliver his eulogy on the late Senator Sumner on the 29th instant.

An Indiana farmer, while attempting to act the part of a mediator between two roughs quarrelling over a game of billiards, was knocked down and killed to death by them.

At Mount Vernon, O., a day or two since, an attempt was made to enforce the act to prevent the obstruction of the sidewalks, the offenders being the lady temperance crusaders; the bystanders interfered and prevented the officers of justice carrying out their instructions, and trouble is anticipated in consequence.

A duel was fought near Montgomery Station, Louisiana, on Saturday noon between Messrs. Blivenne and Phillips, the weapons, shot guns loaded with ball, the distance forty paces; at the first fire Blivenne fell dead; Phillips was not hurt.

A twenty mile trotting match took place in Oakland Park, on Saturday afternoon, between Mattie Howard and John Stewart. Stewart won, time 59 minutes and 3 seconds.

Judge Edmunds, the well-known spiritualist and lawyer, is dead.

News from Panama indicates probability of trouble, over the Panama Bay affair, between the United States and the Dominican government. The terms of the treaty have not been complied with, and owing, it is said, to Haytian and British influence, the Dominican government has declared the treaty void. Those interested in the treaty being preserved—U. S. citizens—demand arbitration, and in the meantime the protection of the U. S. from what they term the arbitrary proceedings of the Dominican.

The Bishop of Pernambuco has just been tried for a high crime against the laws of the Brazilian empire; he was found guilty, and sentenced to four years' imprisonment with hard labor.

At the meeting of the First Judicial District Court, at Provo, this morning, J. T. D. McAllister, Territorial Marshal, was sustained by the court as the proper officer for Territorial business, and that officer was sworn in.

Night Fowling.—A party of four or five men, on Sunday morning, from one to three o'clock, amused themselves by attaching telegraph wires to the knobs of the locks of the doors of a house in the 18th Ward, and fastening the other end, of the wires to the adjacent trees. When reconnected with, these men indulged in damping, cursing, and other abusive language. Some of the inmates of the house had to get through the windows to get outside the house.

This is a dangerous kind of amusement, and it may be indulged in once too often, if there is any virtue in buckshot.

Fire Clay.—Messrs. Morris & Evans have discovered a deposit of fire clay, said to be about the best ever discovered in this country. It is situated in Lewiston, (Camp Floyd District, and the price was only $1.00.

THE GENERAL CONFERENCE.

THE Forty-fourth Annual Conference of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints convened in the New Tabernacle in this city this morning.

On the stand were President D. H. Wells of the First Presidency; Elders Orson Pratt, John Taylor, W. Woodruff and A. Carrington, of the Quorum of the Twelve Apostles. John Smith, Patriarch of the Church; Joseph Young, Sen. President, and John Van Cott and A. P. Rockwood of the seven presidents of the Seventies. George B. Wallace and John T. Calne, Counsellors to the President of this stake of the church; Elias Smith, President of the High Priests' Quorum, and E. Morris and H. Snelgrove his counselors; Bishop Edward Hunter, Presiding Bishop of the church, and his counselors, L. W. Hardy and Jesse G. Little; also Bishops E. D. Woolley, W. Hickenlooper and N. Davis, of this city, and Bishop La W. Harrington, of American Fork. There was a congregation of nearly three thousand persons present.

The Conference was called to order by President Daniel H. Wells. The choir sang the hymn on page 302 of the Hymn Book, commencing—

"When earth in bondage long had lain,"
Prayer by L. W. Harrington.
Choir sang hymn on page 31—
"My God, the spring of all my joys."

ELDER ORSON PRATT

then addressed the congregation, opening his discourse by referring to the organization of the Kingdom of God forty-four years ago to-day, and the nature of that organization.

It being the Kingdom of God, organized on the basis of the law of God, and which was to be thrown down again, but which was to continue from that time henceforth and forever. That Kingdom was not organized by man, nor by man's revelation, but by revelation from Jesus Christ, he having guided and directed everything in connection with it, and bestowed authority upon his chosen agents to perform the work. For centuries prior to that event, Christian denominations have been organized, and with the object of making an effort to effect a reform in the existing style of women's fashionable dress. To-day a mass meeting was to be held in that city, to discuss the subject and to present a new style of apparel for the gentler sex. The design is put forth to organize a society, to discuss, and deliberate and decide upon, a new fashion of dress for women, which fashion the members shall be pledged to wear on and after July 1st next.

That there is room for improvement in the dresses of women, especially in what are termed "fashionable" dresses, few if any will deny. In indoor dresses the bare arms and bare bosom "full dress" fashion ought to be at once and forever discarded. The place for such "full dress," or more properly undress, is the lavatory, not the parlor, the drawing-room, the ball-room, nor the theatre. Certainly the human form divine is beautiful to see, but it is a kind of beauty designed for neither public nor social exhibition. In modern "society," the servant girl or "help" is frequently the only individual of all the females present whose dress is either becoming or modest. There is no refinement, no delicacy, no modesty, in a woman exposing her arms, shoulders, and bosom to acquaintances or strangers, and certainly her relatives do not desire such exposure.

As to women's dress generally, they will never have it too beautiful, too elegant, too neat, too tidy, in cost or make up, nor too clean and sweet, nor too harmonious and attractive in color. But with very great advantage and propriety the superabundance of tucks and frills and ruffles and other multiplied elaborations might be dispensed with, and the beauty and elegance of simplicity substituted therefor. Superabundance of ornamentation is a load, a detriment, an objection, betraying studios design and painful effort for a show.

In the matter of long, dragging dresses, a reform is greatly needed. It spoils any dress to drag it upon the ground. That women, fine ladies, the most delicate half of the human race, should so tamely consent to and obediently perambulate in becoming street scavengers, and in sweeping up with their fashionable and costly dresses, all manner of filth, all manner of human and animal excretion, from the streets and sidewalks, is one of those extraordinary paradoxes, those insupportable mysteries which constitute "woman an enigma."

Our Country Contemporaries.

From the Provo Times, April 4—

"A 'University Social' was held in Timpanogus Hall, April 3. A good time was had."

From all parts of the Territory we hear cheering news of the good times coming, and in a few months we hope to see greenbacks as plenty as ever. We have no desire to see the change come too suddenly, as it might have a contrary effect, but a gradual change, with more money in circulation and plenty of employment for all, will tend to revive and make all branches of trade brisk.

The Times, until further notice, will be published hereafter on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, at the rate of six dollars per annum. We hope that this change will be only temporary, and that we will be able in a short time to resume the publication of the paper as a daily paper for the benefit of our country subscribers. As soon as we can get the necessary material we intend to enlarge the present size of the paper and give more ready material.

From the Beaver, Enterprise, April 1—

We learn from Mr. C. A. Bark, of Minersville, that the farmers in that place have put in the greater part of their wheat crop for this season, and everything else was well on."

Just before going to press we learned that Mr. David A. Adams & Co. have commenced putting the present issue of the News on the graph press, between this place and North Star, and it is the intention to push the job with vigor until completed.

ONE OF BENTON'S DAUGHTERS.

MADAME Susan (Benton) Boileau, "la Baronne Gaudreux Boileau," a daughter of Senator Thomas H. Benton, died in France, on Sunday morning, March 8, of inflammation, leaving three or four children. The lady is said to have died of a broken heart.

It will be remembered that her husband, Baron Boileau, a year ago, was sentenced to three years' imprisonment, for having knowingly issued fraudulent American railroad bonds, which his brother-in-law, General J. C. Fremont, had induced him to take. Boileau was degraded and punished as an ordinary criminal, and Fremont probably would have been if he had ventured upon the soil of France.

As it became evident that the mortal career of Mrs. Boileau drew near, friends hastened to have her husband present, but French red tape prevented his presence at her side until seven hours after her decease.

The day Boileau was sentenced and went to prison, his wife is said to have received her death blow. She exerted herself to effect his release and had actually succeeded in securing a reprieve for him. In a few weeks he will be free. The trial and sentence caused much bitterness between Susan and her sister, Jessie Fremont, the former thinking the latter had been instrumental in bringing the trouble and disgrace on the Boileaus. Seven years ago Mrs. Boileau was considered "one of the most brilliant ornaments of New York drawing rooms."

At the funeral the coffin was a mass of flowers, and the Cathedral of St. Philippe was most gorgeously draped in mourning.

THE HOUSE COMMITTEE ON ELECTIONS had before them this morning the contested-election case of Cannon and H. E. Paine appeared as counsel for the sitting member, (Cannon), and Judge Hawley for the contestant. Judge Hawley made an argument, but had not concluded when the committee adjourned to meet to-morrow morning to consider the same subject. Mr. Cannon at the last election received 20,999 votes, and Maxwell but 1,912.

The House committee on Elections are H. Boardman Smith of New York, Charles R. Thomas of North Carolina, Gerry W. Hazelton of Wisconsin, Lemuel Todd of Pennsylvania, Austin F. Pike of New Hampshire, James W. Robinson of Ohio, Horace H. Harrison of Tennessee, Hyde O. R. Milton Spear of Pennsylvania, Lucius Q. C. Lamoar of Mississippi, and Edward Crossland of Kentucky.

Something about "Ex-Boss" Tweed—The "Merriam" Safe.

New York, 6-M. Stern, one of the commissioners of charities, and connected with and responsible for the construction of the new Blackwell's Island, says Tweed is in the safest and most strictly guarded portion of the prison, from which he could not escape without the aid of two keepers, constantly on guard, were bribed; he furthermore says, he does not think it devolved upon the commissioners to make a matter of two or to exercise any unnecessary severity toward him during his term of imprisonment. Foster S. Dewey, formerly Tweed's private secretary and now his business agent, says the room occupied by Tweed is certainly more comfortable than a cell, but its furniture is not worth more than fifty dollars. It became a question with the authorities as to whether or not some relaxation of prison discipline in his case was not necessary, as an absolute necessity for the health of Tweed.

Judge Edmunds Dead.

Ex-Judge Edmunds, the well-known lawyer and spiritualist, is dead.

News from Panama says that St. John, the British Consul General at Port-au-Prince, after a long observation to Panama Bay, visited San Domingo with propositions for a treaty between the two republics, the condition being the annulment of the Panama Bay convention made with citizens of the United States, and if this was agreed to by Hayti, England would furnish a considerable sum to San Domingo without interest, payable at convenience. The Panama Bay Commissioners, against this primary act, instigated by British-Haytian influence, and demanded arbitration, in the mean time asking protection from the U. S. against violence on the part of the Dominican government. Rio Janeiro papers give the details of the trial of the Bishop of Engora, who was charged with crime against the laws of the Empire of Brazil; the Bishop was found guilty, and sentenced to four years' imprisonment with hard labor, and was to deliver a considerable making collections for the churches.
