SALT LAKE MAN FOR PRINCIPAL

O. J. Cross, University Graduate,
Chosen to Head the Ogden
High School.

UNIONS TO ATTEND CHURCH

Ogden, Sept. 3.—At the session of the board of education yesterday, O. J. Cross was elected principal of the Ogden High School to succeed David E. Cloyd. Mr. Cross is a University of Utah graduate and has been principal of one of the large schools in Salt Lake for a number of years. He was recommended to the board by the president of the university, the superintendent of schools and a number of others.

The closest competitor Mr. Cross had was E. C. Wilbur of Kearney, Nebraska. In the matter of scholarship and credentials there was no difference between the two gentlemen, but it is stated that the board made the decision from the fact that Mr. Cross is a home man and married, while the latter is not.

After disposing of the question of the principalship of the high school, the board devoted time to the consideration of the numerous sets of plans that had been submitted by architects. It is expected that some action in regard to the selection of plans for the high school will be taken Friday evening.

CULPABLE SITUATION.

The case of the German boys who lost their railroad tickets and were left in a helpless condition by the railroad companies, has called forth considerable comment from the authorities in this city. The Denver & Rio Grande Railroad company was able to find one of the lost tickets and return it to the owner, who was able to continue on his journey to Portland, Oregon, where he will join his grand-mother. However, Ovaltine Kude, the oldest brother, who is about 12 years of age is stranded in the city and no one offers to do anything for him.

The county authorities are taking the matter up with the Rio Grande Railroad company at the Pacific hotel here, where the boy is being cared for without food or lodging while the county and the corporation jangle.

NO DIPHTHERIA.

A report was circulated last evening that two cases of diphtheria had broken out at the state industrial school and that there was danger of an epidemic. When asked concerning the matter of contagion at the school, Supt. H. H. Thomas stated that there were no new cases whatever, but that a boy and a girl are ill with symptoms of typhoid. He stated that there was no diphtheria in the institution and that all the boys who were sick with scarlet fever are up and about ready to be discharged from the hospital.

BEGIN NEW CALENDAR.

The September term of the district court will commence tomorrow morning with the cleaning up of the criminal calendar. The first case on call for which jurors are summoned is that of the state against T. F. Bayless, charged with receiving money under false promises by the issuing of worthless checks. J. B. Graves, who was arrested by Bayless at the time the crime is alleged to have been committed, pleaded guilty to the charge about three months ago and was given one year in the penitentiary.

ESCAPED WITH SCOLDING.

Eleven boys were before Judge Gunter of the juvenile court yesterday afternoon upon the charge of stealing watermelons. Many of the boys, mostly from the city, were present and the case was somewhat complicated. After admonishing the lads to keep away from melon patches in future, the court allowed them to go.

EMERY.

FROST WROUGHT HAVOC.

Damage Estimated at Many Thousand Dollars in Single Night.

Special Correspondence.
Emery, Utah, Aug. 31.—The cold wind of yesterday was followed by a heavy frost last night which raised havoc with gardens and alfalfa seed. No one can tell just how far the damage has reached, but is safe to say that thousands of dollars were lost in a single night.

Principal J. E. Hickman and T. W. Dykes of the Emery stake academy, with Orange Seely and the bishop of Castleford were Emery visitors Sunday in the interest of education.

B. J. Peacock & Sons are today beginning to move into their new store which is one of the best in eastern Utah. They have secured the services of Miss Myrtle Peacock of Orangeville, who was brought over by her mother yesterday.

George Mortensen is erecting a butcher shop, and the fine residence of Bishop Brinkerhoff is nearing completion.

The infant child of Mr. G. T. Olson is very sick.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Anderson gave a lawn party Sunday evening, at which a good time was had.

BEAVER.

CONVENTION OF M. I. A.

Ex-President Charles D. White Honored—Blight by Frost.

Special Correspondence.
Beaver, Utah, Aug. 31.—The annual convention of the Mutual Improvement associations of the Beaver stake Zion was held on Sunday, Aug. 30, in this city. Elder Edward H. Anderson was present on behalf of the Young Men, and Mrs. May T. Nystrom represented the Young Ladies' Improvement associations. Miss Vilate Pearl, of the general board of the Primary associations, was here in the interest of that organization.

As a preliminary function to the convention, a reception was tendered to the officers of the M. I. A. associations of the stake, at which President Charles D. White was the guest of honor. This was held in the spacious gymnasium hall at the block academy, which was filled to its capacity with admiring friends of Pres. White.

Pres. Charles D. White served the people in the capacity of bishop in the Beaver First ward for 14 years, and subsequently as president of the Beaver stake, for 17 years, from which position he was reluctantly released at the last quarterly conference, with the hearty good wishes of all.

A program was rendered, and during the evening, after a neat and eulogistic speech by John F. Tolton, the present president of the stake, Pres. White was presented with a beautiful gold watch and chain, suitably engraved. The chain is locked, containing the pictures of his counselors, Marcus L. Shepherd, (deceased), and John F. Tolton.

Three sessions of the convention were held on Sunday, the first of discussion in the young men's department being the effect of proper sanitary conditions upon health, and the other kindred subjects. The young ladies' classes, the subject of marriage was taken up and was discussed at considerable length. This very important subject was laid before the clergies at the close of the primary was held. Much interest was manifest in the gatherings.

A very severe frost attacked vegetation last night, with more or less disastrous results. The weather, however, is ideal for harvesting the fine crops of hay and grain. Two new threshers will be in evidence this season.

An epidemic of summer complaint is among the children.

MAPLETON.

REAP BOUNTIFUL HARVEST.

Hon. William H. King to Deliver Labor Day Oration.

Special Correspondence.
Mapleton, Sept. 1.—A wonderfully rich harvest of various grains is being gathered. Before the end of the week the threshers will have completed its work, under the management of the bustling Jensen brothers.

The fruit yield, too, is immense. Fruit lands yet available for purchase are being rapidly secured.

During this summer creditable celebrations were being by the people of Mapleton, July 4, and 24, and Labor day will not be slighted. Judge William H. King has accepted an invitation to deliver an address at services to be held in the Latter-day Saints' meetinghouse, Sept. 3, the exercises to commence at 10:30 o'clock.

Preceding that part of the program there will be a parade, the line to form at 9:30 a. m. During the day there will be a display of fruits, and refreshments will be served. Games

CLARKSTON.

DIED IN FOREIGN LAND.

Remains of John W. Loosle Brought Home for Burial.

Special Correspondence.
Clarkston, Aug. 30.—The body of the late John W. Loosle, who died while laboring as a missionary in Cologne, Germany, arrived at Cache Junction, Wednesday, Aug. 26, in charge of Elder Archie Wilby. Over 60 carriages filled with sympathizing friends, accompanied the bereaved family to the railroad to meet the remains and escort them to Clarkston.

The obsequies were held in the Clarkston meetinghouse the following day at 11 a. m. Owing to the fact that many friends had gathered from here and surrounding towns, the building was not half large enough to hold the vast throng.

The meetinghouse had been beautifully decorated by the Relief Society members, assisted by Undertaker Lindquist from Logan, who acted as funeral director. The floral offerings were costly and numerous, the front of the stand being a solid bank of flowers.

The services were presided over by Bishop Rastetter. The speakers were Elder Wilby, Dr. S. B. Young and Presidents Hendricks and Waddops of the Benson stake.

The choir sang the following selections: "All is Well," "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," the solo "My Redeemer, to Thee I Come," and "Say Not That I Journey Alone." were rendered by Rolly Clark and J. M. Larson, respectively. The opening and closing prayer were offered by Bishop Martin Rigby and Patriarch W. H. Griffin.

Vehicles to the number of 92 followed the remains to the cemetery. There a quarter, consisting of J. M. Larson, Rolly Clark, Geo. Myler and Frank Griffith sang a selection, and the dedicatory prayer was offered by Counselor Ole Petersen.

Mrs. Loosle and her three little sons have the sincere sympathy of all in their bereavement, made doubly sad by the circumstances of the death of the husband and father.

CARDSTON, CAN.

EARLY HARVEST.

Building and Business Boom—Home From Mission Field.

Special Correspondence.
Cardston, Alberta, Canada, Aug. 25.—Harvest is already well along here. To open Sept. 14, a crop of 11 bushels of wheat on the first day of August is an unusual thing in Alberta, yet the record was made this year on the farm of J. P. Low just west of town. Today the harvest is in general operation, crowding the mowers and hay outfits, until a scarcity of help was felt and the busy season only fairly begun. Reports of immense crops here have been generally circulated so that farm help is now coming in by every train, thus relieving the situation. Two dollars and board or $2.50 a day without is the regular wage.

The roller mills which were on the St. Mary's river, have been torn down and the material is piled on the lot just south from the station where the proprietors contemplate erecting their plant with additional machinery and buildings to increase the capacity to 150 barrels per day.

The government has a large force at work on the bridge over the Less creek on Main street. The old steel and wood structure erected after the flood six years ago, has been removed, the steel portion to be used in extending the Kimball bridge.

New cement abutments are being put in for a new combination steel bridge of two spans across the creek. This will do away with the necessity for the foot bridges which heretofore have been swept away at each succeeding high water. Added to these extensive enterprises are the numerous buildings under repair or construction.

William Wood & Co. have succeeded C. B. Ockey in the People's Meat market, and the new company is preparing to establish an extensive packing plant. By this end improvements are already begun. On the first of this month Hugh B. Brown succeeded Robert they in the management of the Cardston Mercantile company.

Work on the stake tabernacle is progressing rather slowly on account of the delay in getting timber. It is expected the corner stone will be laid during the latter part of the month.

Elder Thomas S. Gregson returned recently from a mission to Great Britain after an absence of more than two years. Elders B. F. Lamb has also returned from the Western States. Both feel in the best of spirits and glad to have had the experience. D. H. Elton, for a long time editor of the Star, has moved with his family to Lehighville where he is to take up the study of law. All will miss "Dave" and his cheerful countenance.

course of their travels. After wading the stream, the boys laid down their guns while shoes and stockings were put on. This done, the Sanford boy picked up his weapon, and in some way it was discharged. The heavy load of shot stripped the left arm of flesh and muscle from the wrist almost to the shoulder, though no bones were broken. Blood gushed from the arm in spurts, and the badly frightened boys started for home, a quarter of a mile from where the fatal shot was fired. His companion, bound the injured member as best he could, and then ran for help.

A surgeon was summoned from Green River, and in the meantime everything possible was done for the injured boy. The loss of blood, however, had been too great, and death ensued the following day.

Deceased was a son of H. E. and Jeanette Sanford, and was born Nov. 9, 1896. The funeral was largely attended, Bishop Elliott and counselors speaking in the highest terms of Anna, and offering words of consolation to the bereaved family.
