THE SILVER ADDRESS.

What the Honolulu Union Has to Say to the People of the United States.

Following is the declaration of principles issued by the Honolulu Union last summer after its United States annexation to Hawaii:

We, the people of the United States of the Hawaiian Islands, in mass meeting assembled at Salt Lake [illegible] on the 21st day of May, 1895, [illegible] the states of California, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana, Colorado, Utah, Nevada, Arizona, New Mexico and Wyoming, [illegible] with the Salt Lake Tribune, hereby represent with the full consent of every right thinking citizen of the United States, and declare that the [illegible] of every state in the union is in no sense a party to the [illegible] which has been forced upon the people of the United States by the [illegible] of the Democratic party, and which is known as the "Gorman-Wilson bill," and [illegible] particularly condemn the [illegible] that the [illegible] of the Democratic party are now [illegible] efforts of [illegible] to [illegible] the [illegible] of the [illegible] and [illegible] of the [illegible] of the [illegible] of the
