SAVE YOUR HAIR

TO LEARN HOW TO DO IT READ AND HEED WHAT FOLLOWS.

SAVE YOUR HAIR.—The laws of Health and Longevity demand it, the customs of social life require it. The matter is of great importance in every way.

BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR.—It is the surpassing crown of glory, and for the loss of it there is no compensation.

CULTIVATE YOUR HAIR.—For by no other means can it be saved and beautified.

LYON'S

KATHAIRON,

Discovered thirty-five years ago by Prof. Lyon, of Yale, is the most perfect preparation in the world for preserving and beautifying the hair.

Besides being the best hair dressing ever produced, Lyon's Kathairon will positively prevent grayness, and will restore new hair to bald heads, if the roots and follicles are not destroyed.

It actually performs these seeming miracles, of which the following is

A FAIR SPECIMEN

I had been entirely bald for several years, constitutional, I suppose. I used a few bottles of Kathairon, and, to my great surprise, I have a thick growth of young hair.

COL. JOHN L. DORRANCE, U. S. A.

In every important respect the Kathairon is absolutely incomparable. It is unequaled.

1. To Cure Baldness.
2. To Restore Gray Hair.
3. To Remove Dandruff.
4. To Dress and Beautify the Hair.

BEAR IN MIND.—The Kathairon is no sticky paste of sulphur and sugar-of-lead, to paint and daub the hair and paralyze the brain. It is a pure and limpid vegetable lotion, intended to restore the hair by natural growth and reinvigoration. It is splendidly perfumed, and the most delightful toilet dressing known. No lady's or gentleman's toilet outfit is complete without Lyon's Kathairon.

Last Night's Dispatches.

FORTY-SIXTH CONGRESS.

EXTRA SESSION.

SENATE.

MONDAY'S SESSION.

WASHINGTON, 21.—Consideration was resumed of the army appropriation bill.

Bayard defended the incorporation of general legislation in appropriation bills, there being nothing unusual in it; hence the cry of revolution was unsubstantial and foolish, and the people would condemn it.

Bayard, having noticed the remark of Blaine about the distribution of the army, Blaine asked the senator to quote his words.

Bayard said he would do so but would first have to send for the Congressional Record.

Blaine remarked what he said was this, "That not a senator of the other side of the chamber had ever seen a United States soldier at the polls."

Bayard replied that if the senator preferred to limit his remarks to the actual vision of the senators, he had nothing to say.

Blaine said his confidence in that statement had not been disturbed by any remarks which had been made on the other side.

Bayard then proceeded to read a circumstantial account of the large presence of troops in New York in the fall of 1870 to be present at the polls to prevent disorder.

Blaine wished to ask why the Senator did not select a precedent found in 1857, when President Buchanan called out the marines to attend a Washington municipal election, and when seven men were shot down by them, the crime being within the Senate chamber.

Bayard said he would discuss that question at some other time. The party, or a set of men, in this country who seek to remove infringements on the liberties of the American people should have his support at all times. He held that the employment of the army at the polls was simply atrocious, and during the war it was claimed as a belligerent right.

Bayard, at some length, condemned all conduct which would tend to prevent the restoration of full confidence and friendship to all parts of the country. He was well assured that the hostilities of one section against the other would soon lead to depression and degradation and ultimately ruin both, and in conclusion expressed his confidence that the American people would support the majority in their present legislation. It was in the direction of justice and had for its object the protection of the liberties of the people.

Maxey said it was plain that the Constitution did not confer upon the United States government authority to regulate elections, therefore it could not be unconstitutional to repeal or modify the act allowing such actions. In conclusion, Maxey alluded to a former remark of Blaine, that 30 of the southern democratic senators had taken part in the civil war, but he (Maxey) wanted to ask, Did not they attend to their duties, and were they not as mindful of the public interest and as decorous in their intercourse as the senators from any other part of the Union. Their crime consisted in their inability to see with the eyes of the others. They would, however, follow their own convictions of right, not thinking whom they would please or displease by doing so. By right, under the Constitution they were entitled to seats on this floor. The senator from Maine might rest content that they would assert the equal rights of their states with others of the Union. They did not attempt to stir up the embers of the past because they believed in a reconciliation and restoration of genuine brotherhood among the people and of a common destiny and country.

After executive session the Senate adjourned.

TUESDAY'S SESSION.

Owing to the absence of Edmunds, his resolution went over until to-morrow.

Pendleton gave notice that on Thursday, after the disposition of the army bill, he would call up his bill providing for giving the heads of departments seats on the floor of the senate.

At the expiration of the morning hour Wallace's resolution to vest the appointment and removal of senate employes in the secretary and sergeant at arms, was taken up, the question being on Edmunds' substitute, which was opposed by Pendleton and advocated by Conkling.

Consideration was then resumed of the army bill.

HOUSE.

MONDAY'S SESSION.

WASHINGTON, 21.—A bill for the distribution of the unexpended balance of the Geneva award was introduced by Frye, and three financial bills by March.

At 2.30 o'clock the call of States had only reached Georgia, and upwards of 500 bills had been introduced. Twenty-one States, exclusive of the Territories, are yet to be called. A vast number of petitions were filed, including one by Warner praying for an amendment in the coinage laws so as to admit silver to unlimited coinage on the same conditions with gold, and to provide for the issue of certificates for bullion.

Bills to the number of 1,385 having been introduced, the House took recess.

The evening session was devoted to the debate on the legislative bills.

TUESDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

The reading of the journal was dispensed with and consideration resumed of the subsidiary silver bill. After a brief statement by Chittenden, favoring the bill, voting on the amendments began.

An amendment was offered by Gillette for the readoption of subsidiary silver coins in paper fractional currency of 10c., 25c. and 50c., which currency shall be legal tender to the amount of $10.

Stephens, who has charge of the bill, said he was in favor of the amendment and the subject was before the committee on coinage, but he did not want this bill encumbered with it. Upon this representation, Gillette withdrew the amendment.

The amendment of Newberry, requiring small coins of 1 cents, 3 cents, etc., to be received at post offices for postage stamps in sums not exceeding $3, was, after discussion, agreed to.

Fernando Wood introduced a joint resolution providing for the appointment of a joint select committee to consist of three members of the ways and means committee of the House, and two members of the finance committee of the Senate, to sit during recess and consider what changes, if any, should be made in the tariff and in the revenue laws and report by bill or otherwise, next winter.

EASTERN.

The "Rush" for Alaska.

WASHINGTON, 22. — Secretary Sherman has ordered the revenue steamer Rush to take on board sufficient supplies for a five months' cruise, to leave San Francisco not later than May 15th, and proceed to the waters of Alaska for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of the law and for the protection of the interests of government on the seal islands, and on the sea otter hunting grounds and of Alaska generally.

Destructive Fire—Burned to Death.

LANCASTER, Ohio, 22.—The residence of Joseph Merger and its contents were destroyed by fire this morning. All of the family escaped by jumping from the second story windows, except a girl eight years old, who perished in the flames. Merger is a freight conductor on the Hocking Valley Railroad, and was just leaving Lancaster with his train when he was told that his house was on fire. Finding that his duty was to his employers first, he remained with his train and brought it through to this point while his house was burning.

WESTERN.

Rescued from a Perilous Position.

SAN FRANCISCO, 22.—The British bark Staghound, from Burrard Inlet, with lumber for the British government at Cape Town on the 16th, was rescued from a perilous position off Flattery Rocks, the entrance to the straits of Fuca, by the United States cutter Corwin, and towed to sea.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Collision.

LONDON, 22.—The steamer Gilbert, Capt. Kuhlween, from Hamburg for New York, was in collision on Sunday with the ship Rosella Smith, from New York, and arrived at Scilly, where she was detained until this mornig, when she gave $35,000 bonds, and proceeded.

The Afghan War.

In the House of Commons, the Chancellor of the Exchequer said it was possible that there had been an advance of troops in Afghanistan, but goverement had sanctioned no advance upon Cabul.

A Lahore dispatch says: General Roberts is ready to start on his march through Shutargardan Pass at a moment's notice with two splendid brigades, with which he will be able to occupy Cabul, even unassisted by the other columns.

The Zulu War—Relief of Ekowe—Desperate Hand to Hand Encounter—Both Sides Suffer Severely.

Advices from Capstown, April 6, via St. Vincent, says: Lord Chelmsford's camp, at Gingle Lova, on the road to Ekowe was attacked at daybreak, April 3d, by 11,000 Zulus, who made frequent and desperate attacks on all sides, but were repulsed and pursued with great loss. Four hundred and seventy-one Zulus were found dead around the trenches. The final attack was led by Dobedmanzi, who commanded at Isandula. Lieut. Johnson of the 99th regiment, and four privates were killed. Col. Northey, the 60th regiment surgeon, and 15 men were severely wounded. Colonel Crealock, Major Barron, and ten men were wounded.

On the 4th inst. Lord Clemsford, with the 91st, 60th, and 57th regiments, and a body of marines, left camp and relieved Ekowe during the night.

Colonel Pearson and his garrison have reached Umsindusi, and will arrive at Tugela on April 7th. During the investment 28 men died and 128 were put on the sick list.

Ekowe has been totally evacuated.

A Capetown dispatch of April 8th says: In the fight between Col. Wood's command and the Zulus on the 28th of March, the retreat of the Zulus was cut off, and a hand to hand fight ensued. Col. Weatherby, his son, Captain Barton, Baron Von Steittroar, and 70 men were killed, and on the 29th, Lieuts. Nicholson and Bright were killed. Major Hackett was severely wounded, and Lieut. Smith and Capts. Gardiner, Cox and Pearse were wounded. The total of the British losses in both engagements is estimated at 220 killed and wounded.

The Zulus lost 2,500 men.

It is rumored at Pretoria and Natal that the Boers intend investing Pretoria, and threaten to detain Sir Bartle Frere as hostage, unless their demands are complied with. It is rumored also Sir Bartle Frere is returning to Natal.

Intelligence from Capetown, this afternoon, states that Col. Wood's column had been attacked by the Zulus and lost 400 men. The Zulus lost heavily.

2.30 p. m.—Donald Currie & Co., proprietors of the Cape of Good Hope and Natal line of steamers, received a telegram, dated Cape St. Vincent, April 22nd, which says: Col. Wood's column had been attacked by a large number of Zulus. The enemy was repulsed with great loss. The British loss is seven officers and 400 men. The troops fought gallantly but appear to have been taken by surprise.

A dispatch from Gingielova, South Africa, April 7th, says: The relief column on reaching here on the 1st inst., was informed of the advance of great masses of the enemy. The troops at once formed and strengthened their entrenchments. At 4 in the morning the Zulus appeared and skirmishing on the right, in front of the rifles and naval brigade, on the northeast, commenced. We first engaged a larger force, which appeared on surrounding heights. The Zulus fought bravely, advancing within 30 yards of our entrenchments. The attack lasted nearly an hour when the Zulus retreated precipitatedly followed by the mounted infantry and native contingent.

On April 3d, the relief column under Lord Chelmsford started for Ekowe. It was composed of the Fifty-seventh and Sixtieth regiments, six companies of the Ninety-first marines, two rocket companies, one Gatling gun, two nine-pounders, mounted infantry and Dunn's scouts. The rest of the column remained to guard the baggage. The mounted natives and volunteers led the way. No Zulus were to be seen. After a successful march of 15 miles, Colonel Pearson with a few companies of the Ninety-ninth, and seamen of the Active were met at 6 o'clock. The force reached Ekowe at 9.30. The garrison had plenty of food. There were 100 sick and 30 dead. Lieutenant Evelyn, of the Buffs, and Lieutenant Davidson, of the Ninety-ninth, were dead from fever. The camp was very strong.

On April 4th Colonel Pearson marched for Tugila, and on April 5th Lord Chelmsford started for Gingelova. In consequence of a false alarm, pickets fired into Bush Dunn's scouts, returning, and the Sixtieth fell back at their approach in disorder. One recruit was killed and nine wounded; five men of the Sixtieth were also wounded. Of the 34 whites wounded and remaining at Gingelova, one died, 16 are dangerously and 12 severly wounded. A new entrenchment camp will be formed. Part of the force is returning to Tugila.

The Zulus lost 1,200 in the last engagement.

Wreck of the "Clyde."

The transport Clyde has been wrecked on Dyero Island. All the crew was saved, but the stores were lost and the ship sunk.

The Miners' Strike.

The Durham miners have finally resolved, by a vote of 22,633 to 224, to continue the strike.

Italy Pledged to Greece.

A dispatch from Rome says: That Italy has pledged herself to support the claims of Greece to the utmost limits of the frontiers assigned by the treaty of Berlin.

PURIFY THE LIFE CURRENT.

SCOVILL'S

Blood and Liver Syrup

A PEERLESS REMEDY FOR

Scrofula, White Swellings, Cancer Erysipelas, Chronic Sore Eyes, Gout, Syphilis, Tumors, Carbuncles, Salt Rheum,

And all Diseases indicating an

IMPURE CONDITION of the BLOOD

Cutaneous eruptions upon the face or body, do not necessarily indicate the taint of Scrofula, but whether the insidious poison of that dire malady is present in the system or not, certain it is that completely cures such disorders. If this virus of Scrofula does exist in the system this matchless purifier will root out the last vestige of it. No eruptive malady, scrofulous or otherwise, can resist the potent purifying action of this safe and potent remedy, which renders the skin

Scovill's Blood & Liver Syrup

CLEAR, SOFT AND BEAUTIFUL,

when ordinary medicines utterly fail to arrest the progress of scrofulous and other eruptive disorders, the persistent use of this incomparable deponent secures the desired result. From

of its reliability in our possession, we make the two following communications:

Mr. Samuel H. Matthews, Moretown, Accomac Co., Va., states that his child, when 4 months old, was attacked with an eruption which covered its head, face, arms, feet and legs, converting them into "nearly one solid sore," but that two and a-half bottles of Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup effected a complete cure, without a scar.

Martin Robbins, Jr., writes that he suffered from Scrofulous White Swelling with twelve running ulcers on his legs, from which more than 100 pieces of bone sloughed away, but by the time he had finished the twenty-fourth bottle of the Syrup he was completely cured.

THIS GRAND REMEDY

is a compound of vegetable extracts, the chief of which are

Sarsaparilla and Stillingia

The cures effected by

Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup

are absolute, and their record is undisputed by failure. For sale by all Druggists.

Price, $1.00 per bottle.
