

FROM EARLY MORN UNTIL MIDNIGHT

Bryan Ends Remarkable Campaign in and About Greater New York.

PUT IN TWENTY-ONE HOURS

Made Eighteen Speeches—Called Taft Enemy of Labor and Assailed the President.

New York, Oct. 27.—Winding up his remarkable campaign in and about Greater New York, William J. Bryan was whirled 115 miles by automobile in Manhattan and Brooklyn during the day and night, and made eight speeches between the hours of 6 and 12 o'clock tonight. In New York he was accompanied by Tammany Leader Charles F. Murphy. Arriving at Brooklyn Bridge, he was met by Senator Patrick H. McGarrett, the Democratic leader of Kings county.

Lieut. Gov. Lewis S. Sweetser, chairman of the campaign for governor, coincided with Mr. Bryan's itinerary, both in Manhattan and Brooklyn, and while he in one place was pleading for loyal support of the national ticket, Mr. Bryan at another was urging votes for the state candidates from governor down, and for the Democratic nominees for Congress.

Mr. Bryan made 18 speeches during the long and tiring day and every where he went—plowing at times through mud and rain in a rush to keep his many engagements—he was greeted by some of the largest and most enthusiastic audiences of his country-wide tour.

The Democratic candidate's eventful day began at 3 a. m. when he addressed the night workers from the steps of the city hall at the most unique political gathering ever held in a presidential campaign. Then followed a "Bronx" meeting at 7 o'clock and a forenoon trip to Brooklyn to address an audience of laboring men in and about Market square. From Brooklyn Bryan hurried across to Long Island City, then to Jersey City, where three speeches ended the New Jersey campaign. Back in New York again, Mr. Bryan was the guest of the College of the City of New York, and then, with Mr. Murphy, was hurried up town for two Harlem meetings. Six meetings in Brooklyn—principal one at Crompton avenue rink—brought the day's work to a close. Although he had but two hours' sleep out of 48, Mr. Bryan spoke with all his characteristic vigor and good humor.

CALLS TAFT ENEMY OF LABOR.

In all of his speeches Mr. Bryan warned the working men against traitors among them. He asserted that every laborer who voted the Republican ticket would vote to ratify the things that labor demanded in the Denver platform. He held up Mr. Taft as the enemy of labor and assailed him and President Roosevelt at every opportunity. Mr. Bryan's references to the guarantee of bank deposits brought shouts of approval at all his meetings.

Lieut. Gov. Sweetser shared everywhere in the welcomes that were accorded Mr. Bryan. In his principal Brooklyn speech, directed at the night workers, he discussed publicity of campaign contributions. "The people have been cheated," the voters betrayed," he said, "because the Republican organization has given the promise in advance that the people shall pay back through legislation the money that has been contributed."

The Democrats, he declared, wanted to inaugurate a new era in politics, and he said he was proud to be connected with that movement. With dramatic effect and amid a great cheering he added: "My friends, you may vote me up or you may vote me down. You may elect me or you may defeat me, but the time will come when this country will enjoy the relief that we are now trying to bring, and when that time comes and politics are purified and elections and canvasses made honest, will not deny me credit for the part I took in this crusade for new politics."

Taking up the labor question, Mr. Bryan referred to the widespread attack on Mr. Gompers. "Mr. Gompers," he declared, "thinks with the laboring man, while Mr. Knox, whom the president appointed in Mr. Gompers' stead, would think for the laboring man."

It would be a matter of indifference to Mr. Knox, he said, whether what he thought for them agreed with them or not. "In fact, my friends," he said, "the difference between an aristocrat and a Democrat is that the aristocrat feels in duty bound to keep the people from hurting themselves, even if to do so he has to prevent the people from controlling their own government, while a Democrat says not that the people will make any mistakes, but that the people have a right to make their own mistakes, and that nobody has a right to make their mistakes for them."

He scored Mr. Knox for his attitude while attorney-general regarding the Littellfield anti-trust bill, which, he charged, was defeated after Mr. Knox had gone to Pittsburgh and held a conference with H. C. Frick. Mr. Knox's objection to the bill, he said, may have been because he was not willing that the laboring men should have the benefit of the bill.

Mr. Bryan flayed Mr. Taft for his silence at certain places where he delivered speeches on the subject of guaranty of bank deposits and his attitude on the trusts.

He closed with another denunciation of the president for interfering in the campaign.

THE COMMON PEOPLE.

At the Hall of Acorns in Brooklyn Mr. Bryan said he always was glad to speak to the common people, "because the common people are the people," he said. "I know of no greater service I have rendered my country," he continued, "than that which I have rendered in emphasizing the fact that every man who contributes by brain or muscle to this nation's wealth is a business man and must be considered a part of the business world. The Republican party is not in sympathy with the masses and will not legislate for them, and when a man feels that his party is not standing for him he will not stand for the party."

"Last year I saw hundreds of people sitting in the rain on a Sunday morning, and they were going to sit there until Monday morning in order that they might present their checks at the banks. Did the Republican party attempt to do this to the banks more carefully? Did it attempt to protect people from the men who got in on the inside and exploited with depositors' money?"

The only bill that was passed was one that financiers asked for, giving them a large hold on the banks of the country. Fifteen million depositors appealed for protection, and the Republican party ignored their demand and listened to the demands of a few financiers.

"If we could just submit the two platforms to the American people and let them vote on those two platforms with the understanding that no matter which candidate was elected president, the vote on the platform would go, no platform would be elected by a vote of the people, but that it would be 10 to one, I am not afraid to trust the future of this country in the hands of the people."

"I am getting older now; they no longer call me the 'boy orator.' I am afraid they will soon say I am too old to speak. But I am interested in the kind of government I am going to leave to my children, and if I leave them a good government, that is worth more than a fortune to them. Let's make the government as good as we can make it, and let's make the name of the American citizen as good as we can make it."

"Let's make the government just to the poor and the rich and the every department of society, and whether we be young, middle-aged or old, we will feel that such a government is not only a blessing to the people, but that the people who die will feel that they leave it as a rich inheritance to those who come after them."

"We cannot tell just now the size of the sweeping victory we are winning, but indications point to a very large one. Reports from Ohio, Iowa, Kansas, Wisconsin, Indiana and Illinois will tell you that all those states are voting for the Democratic ticket. If my reports are true, we will have so many votes that by the time we get to the Allegheny mountains we may not need votes. I want it to be in such a way that every citizen of this country shall have a part. I want New York to have a share, too. If we win, it is going to be a people's victory. If we lose, it will be a people's defeat. We want a government and a people's administration, and I want the Democrats of New York to say that they helped to do it."

BALKAN PROBLEMS.

London, Oct. 27.—The recent pour parties in Europe, mainly aimed at having brought the idea of an international congress for the settlement of the Balkan problems appreciably nearer realization. Both Austria-Hungary and Bulgaria are adopting a policy of moderation. Baron von Aehrenthal, the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, announces that his government is ready to enter the congress to discuss the annexation of Bosnia and Herzegovina, provided the discussion respects Austria's "sovereign rights" in these provinces, while the Bulgarian government is now reconciled to the payment of pecuniary compensation to Turkey.

A further rapprochement between the contending parties is expected to result from the visit of Emperor William to the Austrian emperor and Archduke Francis, who is regarded as the prime mover in Austria's forward policy in the Balkans.

At Milan, too, the Serbian foreign minister, arrived in London today. To his policy of moderation at a critical moment is attributed the fact that Serbia is not plunged in a war adventure. He will confer with Sir Edward Grey, British secretary for foreign affairs, during his stay here, and the conferences are expected to confirm Serbia in a policy of peace. M. Milovanovic will proceed to Paris on Saturday, and then to Rome.

CONFESSION OF A NIGHT RIDER

Ted Burton Tells How He Began His Career of Crime and Terror.

LYNCHING OF CAPT. RANKIN.

How Rankin and Taylor Went to Walnut Log—Gave Names of Forty Members of the Band.

Tiptonville, Tenn., Oct. 27.—"Ted" Burton, self-confessed night rider, told a remarkable story today of night rider depredations in the vicinity of Reelfoot lake, confessing to the part which he played in the outrages which reached a culmination in the putting to death of Capt. Quentin Rankin, a prominent attorney of Trenton, Tenn., on the banks of a lake a week ago tonight, and implicating men prominent in this section of the state. Of the number he declared had a part in the killing of Capt. Rankin, more than half are now in custody at Camp Nemo, the military base near Samburg. The confession was made at the jail here to Sheriff Harris of this county. R. Harris, owner of a large tract of land in the Reelfoot district who has suffered much at the hands of the riders, and Mayor Cleveland Donelson of Tiptonville.

The confession was made freely and voluntarily, with no offer of a lessened punishment or threats. Apparently without a qualm of conscience, Burton fully unfolded his story. While Burton denies that he was present when Capt. Rankin was put to death, he admits that it was through information given by him that the band congregated and secured the attorney while he stopped at the hotel at Walnut Log. According to Burton's confession, Tom and Garrett Johnson, under bond in connection with another raid, were the leaders of the lake band.

Burton declares that the first part he played as a member of the night rider band was when he aided in the burning of a fish dock at Samburg and several weeks later was one of a party which crossed the county line from the Reelfoot lake district into the adjoining county of Lake and whipped Justice of the Peace Winn, an aged man.

Coming to the killing of Capt. Rankin, Burton declares that on the night before the lynching he went to Walnut Log and there met James F. Carpenter, the attorney of Union City, at whose solicitation Rankin and Judge R. Z. Taylor, his associate in the West Tennessee company, the owners of the land upon which the lake is situated, came to the lake. It was stated that the visit of the two men was to enter into a timber deal with Carpenter. After this conversation Burton states, he communicated with the night rider leaders and told of his intended visit of the representatives of the land company.

On the following night he saw the two men at supper at the hotel, but declares he left Walnut Log early in the night and went out into the lake to fish. He states that he was fishing when he heard the shots which ended the life of Capt. Rankin, but did not return to the shore for some time.

In the course of his confession Burton gave the names of no less than 40 members of the night riders. Carpenter is under arrest, as are the men whom Burton implicates, but as to their identity, Sheriff Harris would not say further, fearing to do so would cause additional violence and provoke an outbreak on the part of their friends. Posses will start for Camp Nemo at once to gather in those now under guard. All of the suspects under arrest up to the present have emphatically denied connection with night rider organizations. Burton was arrested at Samburg Tuesday, the day the first troops arrived from Nashville.

VIOLATED CONSTITUTION.

Camp Nemo, Samburg, Tenn., Oct. 28.—A lack of knowledge of the country was the cause of a violation of the Constitution of the United States yesterday by Capt. Rogan, U. S. A., when he marched a body of armed men across the border into Kentucky searching for night rider suspects. Capt. Rogan was in command of a detachment of soldiers in the extreme portion of the state and after some hours' marching found himself in the sister state. The matter together with an explanation has been reported to the governor of Kentucky.

A MOST ENJOYABLE MEAL.

Young Englishman Gets It, Can't Pay, Goes to Jail.

Chicago, Oct. 28.—Armand Geron, Jr., enjoyed a sumptuous repast—almost a banquet—at Sills' restaurant, 100 Madison street near Dearborn, last evening and then spent the night in the Harrison street police station, because he had not the money to pay for the meal.

The young man who successfully posed as a gourmand, although without a penny, said that he was the son of a prominent Louisville banker, Armand Geron, Sr., and had been cut off from his allowance because of his extravagance.

He proceeded leisurely and with evident enjoyment to a most deliciously affording him keen delight, until with a little lemon ice as a desert he deemed the meal complete. He sighed luxuriously, leaned back in his chair and ordered a cigar. This was burning fragrantly when he nonchalantly backened the head waiter and casually remarked: "A most enjoyable meal, but do you know I have not a cent with which to pay for it."

Then Geron made a suggestion. "I would advise you to call a 'bobby'," was his remark, "and have me taken to a lockup."

WOULD PURCHASE GROUND FOR MILITARY MANEUVERS

San Francisco, Oct. 28.—It is said that Col. Robert R. Stevens, chief quartermaster of the department of California, will recommend to the department of War the purchase of the immense tract of land at Atascadero hitherto used as a military training grounds.

While opinions differ as to the necessity for the purchase, Col. Stevens is said to entertain the belief that the government a few years hence, will not be able to buy the land at anything like the present price.

The question as to how long you are going to continue a sufferer from indigestion and stomach trouble is merely a matter of how soon you begin taking Diapiesin.

If your stomach is lacking in digestive power, why not help the stomach to do its work, not with drastic drugs, but a re-enforcement of digestive agents, such as are naturally at work in the stomach. People with weak stomachs should eat Diapiesin after meals, and there will be no more indigestion, no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, no heartburn, sour eridings, Gas on Stomach or Belching of undigested food, Headaches, Dizziness or Vomiting, and, besides, what you eat will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors. All these symptoms resulting from sour stomach and dyspepsia are generally relieved five minutes after eating one Triangles of Diapiesin.

Go to your druggist and get a 50-cent case of Diapiesin now, and you will always go to the table with a hearty appetite, and what you eat will taste good, because your stomach and intestines will be clean and fresh, and you will know there are not any more bad nights and miserable days for you. They freshen you and make you feel like life is worth living for.

Of last year there were admitted to the hospitals 1,811 cases, while this year there were in September only 1,410 cases of malaria. Within the past two years, he states, there has been no case of yellow fever or bubonic plague in the canal zone.

ATTEMPT TO BURN TAXICAB IN NEW YORK

New York, Oct. 28.—An attempt was made last night to burn a taxicab, a man who was riding in the cab placing under the seat a long white stick of some white substance which set fire to the cushions and filled the cab with smoke. The passengers escaped but the driver, Albert Morrison, with the help of the fire department extinguished the fire before much damage had been done to the cab. Morrison then took the stick from which the fire came, to the police station explaining the fire, dropped it to the floor. A severe explosion followed, the station was filled with white smoke and fire burst out instantly. The fire was extinguished after some damage had been done and Morrison and several others had been painfully burned. The police connect the affair with the strike of taxicab drivers, which has not yet been settled, Morrison being a strikebreaker.

To The People of Utah.

During the past two weeks the Inter-Mountain Republican, Republican speakers and Republican Campaign Managers have been and are wilfully and deliberately misrepresenting the Democratic party and its candidates and those charged with the conduct of the Democratic campaign.

The Inter-Mountain Republican during this time has repeatedly charged that a deal has been consummated by the Democratic party through its chairman, Samuel A. King, with the American party, by which the Democrats were to vote the American County, Judicial and legislative ticket in Salt Lake County, in exchange for votes for the State and National Democratic ticket. It has charged that the leaders of the Democratic party were bartering the votes of the Democrats within the state of Utah and were in league with the American party for the purpose of perpetuating trouble and contention within the State of Utah and for the purpose of making it possible to prosecute certain leaders of the dominant Church and to drive them from the state.

On behalf of the members of the Democratic State Central Committee; the members of the Democratic Executive Committee and of the Democratic Advisory Committee, we hereby denounce the statements as being wilful, malicious and deliberate falsehoods originated, circulated and proclaimed for the express purpose of alarming the members of the dominant Church and inducing them to support the Republican ticket. We charge that the Inter-Mountain Republican, the managers and leaders of the Republican party, are responsible for these outrageous and malicious falsehoods; that they are being circulated and proclaimed by them, they and each of them well knowing that the charges are absolutely untrue.

We charge that the Inter-Mountain Republican, the Republican managers and leaders are not only responsible for these falsehoods, but are also responsible for their circulation, and by such acts they become the enemies of the people of this state. Defeat awaits them in this election and their methods have become desperate. Though trouble and turmoil must result from their methods in the state of Utah, yet they think more of a few petty offices than they do of the welfare of this state and nation. We declare to the people of Utah that in this campaign, as in all campaigns the Democratic party stands for Democratic principles and the representatives of its party, and has no other object or purpose in view than the triumph of its principles and the election of its candidates.

The Democratic party, its managers or leaders, have never at any time or upon any occasion intimidated, suggested or contemplated any agreement or combination with the American party, or any other party.

The Democratic party of Utah, its managers or leaders are not now and never have been a party to any scheme, combination or deal with any other party whatsoever and in this campaign, it demands justice at the hands of the people of Utah and asks the voters to rebuke at the polls such wilful, disreputable and malicious campaign methods as are being resorted to at this time by the Inter-Mountain Republican and the leaders of the Republican party in this state.

Whitney's History of Utah at Half Price.

The Deseret News takes pleasure in announcing that it has secured the sole rights to the HISTORY OF UTAH, by Orson F. Whitney, originally published by the George Q. Cannon & Sons Co.

This work, which was begun in 1890, and printed in three large volumes (the fourth volume issued being biographical, and not a part of the direct history of Utah), is one of the largest and most exhaustive histories ever compiled of any western state. The three volumes bring the history of the state from the foundation down to the year 1890, at the time of the issuance of the manifesto, and includes the history of the Church from its organization in New York. The first ten chapters are devoted to this subject.

In the three volumes are included 235 full page steel plates, mostly portraits of leading figures in the history of the State, originally obtained at a cost of many thousand dollars. The volumes each contain approximately 800 pages, a total of 2,351 pages in the three. The binding is quarto size, full morocco with gilt edges, no other style of binding being issued.

The three volumes were originally sold at $30.00, and several thousand sets were placed throughout the state at that figure. The "News" having obtained the unsold copies of the edition, will sell to first comers at HALF THE ORIGINAL PRICE, or $15.00 FOR THE THREE VOLUMES. No single volumes will be sold. Without doubt many libraries throughout the country will avail themselves of this rare opportunity, and Utah people who desire to add this work to their libraries are urged to call at the Deseret News book store and inspect the work during Conference.

The low price at which this rare work is offered will undoubtedly exhaust the edition in a short time. The work will then be out of PRINT, so that every book-lover should avail himself of this last chance.

The "News" has no interest in the fourth volume, the work being complete as above stated, in the three volumes now offered at $15.00
