100 VOLUMES

OF THE
STANDARD DICTIONARY!

This rare work of nearly 2,400 pages, each volume weighing 17½ pounds, beautifully bound in embossed leather, issued by Funk and Wagnalls of London and New York, is now on sale at the Deseret News office. One hundred volumes have just been received. This is the work in the compilation of which Dr. James E. Talmage was engaged as one of the 20 editors. Its thoroughness is well illustrated by its treatment of the single word "Quorum," as follows:

"Quorum." 1. Such a number of persons of any deliberative or corporate body as is necessary for the legal transaction of business; unless otherwise ordered, a majority. 2. (Eng.) Certain designated justices of the peace commissioned as JUSTICES OF THE QUORUM, with out the presence of some one of whom the others could not act. 3. Mor. Ch.
A council or organized body of the priesthood; as, an Elders' quorum; the quorum of the First Presidency. 4.
Necessary constituents. (L. of whom, gen. pl. of "quill" (quill), from the Latin "quorum" (quorum). A. B. esse volumus of whom we desire A. B. to be one) forming part of ancient commissions, as of justices.

This rare dictionary is offered at $12 per copy. A limited number can be had for Church pay, and our schools and colleges are asked to correspond with us at once should they desire a copy.

THE DESERET NEWS.

MUSIC FOR SWEET CHARITY

Brilliant Concert for the Scofield Sufferers Last Night.

One of the most delightful musical events that have ever taken place in the Congregational church was the concert given under the auspices of the Orphan's Home and Day Nursery last night. The feature of the evening was the singing of the "Chorus" by the leadership of Mrs. Blanch V. S.
Lewis. The music is charming and the ladies composing the chorus and orchestra did some remarkable artistic work. The soloists were Miss Kate Anderson, Miss Mabel Clark, Miss Edna Dwyer, Miss Cohn, Miss Jessup, Miss Swift and Miss Berkhof; and the orchestra consisted of Miss Sibyl Anderson, Miss Lamson, first violin, Miss Mary Hall and Miss Jessie Weimer, second violin, Miss Marion Knickerbaker, pianist of the Chaminade club, and C. S. Carrington, John Smith and C. Jespersen assisted. The orchestral work was excellent the more so considering that the young ladies and French girls were novices in this particular capacity. The music throughout was excellently rendered, and Mrs. Lewis is to be congratulated upon the artistic results of her training.

The second part of the program was introduced by young Master Pederson, whose wonderful skill and expression in the difficult violin rendition called forth a storm of applause. "The Swiss River" was played by an accompanist in the violin, and French girls were novices in this particular
results of her training.

APPROVES "NEWS" COURSE.

Thinks That It Is High Time for Such Business to Stop—Public Should Demand It.

To the Editor:

I had hoped, after hearing so many expressions of indignation uttered in regard to the high-handed official outrage, of which the "News" published an account in its Monday evening issue, that some more able pen than mine would have come to your aid in seconding your very commendable and much approved effort to bring before the public notice such outrageous doings. As none, however, thus far seems to have done so, I feel that it is my duty to raise my voice and express the indignation which the publication of the same in the "News," which ever stands ready to champion the cause of "truth and liberty" and to uphold the rights of the people. Let me here say, Mr. Editor, that in your last evening's editorial headed "An Official Outrage," you have expressed my personal feelings in regard to this matter as though I had said it. It is possible to put feelings into words, and I am sure that you have also expressed the sentiments of the public generally.

Why! such proceedings are enough to make fathers and brothers feel vengeance on those who are guilty!

I wouldn't put a straw in the way of an officer of the law at any time in his effort to do his duty but would cheerfully give him both my moral and my physical support to aid him in upholding the peace and order of any community with which I might be connected and I do not wish it understood that I have one word to say against those officers who do their duty and are conscientiously understand it, but I do wish it understood that the respectable, law-abiding citizens of Salt Lake City will not tolerate such outrages as have been perpetrated upon these defenseless young girls under the guise of official investigation.

If this is allowed to pass unnoticed and without the stamp of emphatic disapproval upon it, where is it liable to lead to? Those who are guilty of such outrages are guilty of a crime. What is to hinder these protectors of the people from ruthlessly carrying off yours or any daughter or sister and committing similar outrages upon them?

These men should be given to understand that they are the servants of the public and not the masters, that they are paid from the public funds by the public to protect and not to overrule it.

A person is considered innocent before the law until he is proven guilty, after which he receives the punishment meted out by the law, but here are three girls scarcely yet in their teens, one not yet, with no complaint lodged against them by anybody, as innocent, as far as proof is concerned, as new born babes, who are seized by the millions of the law and subjected to such treatment in order to prove their guilt before the law. What is to be indicted even upon those who have been proven guilty and that, too, withstanding the fact that the law protects a person against being compelled to give evidence that will incriminate himself.

I, myself, have witnessed such cruelties committed upon men who were under arrest by Salt Lake police that has caused my blood to boil in my veins with anger, but the officers, led in the hearing of the officers, led I should be hustled off to jail for "interfering with an officer in the discharge of his duty."

There is too much imperialism manifested, Mr. Editor, by a certain class of officers, and it should be stopped; I heartily second the demand of the "News" that a rigid investigation, an investigation that will investigate, be made, and such high handed proceedings stopped. One word more, Chief Hilton is a personal friend of mine, and knowing the man as I do I will say unhesitatingly that I do not think for one moment that such proceedings have his sanction.

I for one desire to express to the "News" my hearty approval of its course in taking this matter up, and think that it should be encouraged by all law-loving and law-abiding citizens in the effort to bring about a change in its opposition to all that is wrong.

Yours Respectfully,

A CITIZEN WHO HAS SISTERS AND A DAUGHTER.

"RAZOR" JACK IN TROUBLE

Arrested on the Charge of Burglarizing Squires' Barber Shop.

Yesterday afternoon Sergeant Durridge and Detective Geo. Sheets arrested Jack Richardson, a barber, known as "Razor Jack." The charge of burglary has been lodged against him and the officers are confident of "making the charge stick." It is believed that Richardson is the man who broke into Squires' barber shop not long since and purloined nearly all the razors.
The officers have been quietly at work on the case and have managed to locate most of the stolen property at Richardson's home. Richardson is known to have pawned some of the razors and gives different accounts of his implication in the affair.

For a stiff neck there is nothing better than an application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It quickly relieves the stiffness and soreness, effecting a complete cure.

Indigestion, nausea are cured by Hood's Pills.

A REASON FOR IT.

There is Only One File Cure That Has Reached a National Popularity and Reputation.

There are many popular medicines that are known in every household in America.

There are blood purifiers, nerve tonics, headache remedies, dyspepsia cures, and cough cures, which are sold in every drug store in the nation and beyond.

But all of these must divide their popularity with many rivals, no one remedy has the field to itself, with the single exception of file cures, for it is a singular fact that there is but one file cure that can be considered as having a national reputation, without a rival and the referred to is the Pyramid File Cure which for seven years has steadily worked into the public favor by reason of its extraordinary and reliable results.

It is true there are many file remedies having a small local reputation for a year or two but the Pyramid File Cure has rapidly supplanted them all and really has the field to itself when anything like national popularity is concerned.

The explanation is simple. It is because of its action in no sense of the word a cure, but a relief, and a simple active or ointment will cure, but an ostinate, painful and often dangerous trouble and a remedy to give satisfaction must possess a positive and very powerful action. A person suffering from piles will not experiment for months with a remedy; it must give relief and a cure in short order or it is condemned.

The worst cases of piles are relieved on the first application of the Pyramid and a cure will result in a reasonable time from its regular use.

Medicine men use it in preference to operations because it is safer, is perfectly painless and the cost to patients is a mere trifle as all druggists sell the Pyramid File Cure at 50c, and as it is used at night, it cures without interfering with regular occupation.

If suffering from any form of piles, do not delay, but at once apply a trial of the Pyramid will cure you and add another to its thousands of friends.

Beecham's Pills will dispel the "blues."
