

FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

From Mr. J. H. Pary we have Harper's Monthly for April.

If some of the drain ditches were cleaned out in the lower wards, would there not be less reason for complaints about muddy roads?

From the establishment of Mr. James Dwyer, the enterprising bookseller and general newsdealer, we have Harper's Monthly for April.

It may be interesting to the party who has lost a pig to learn that a stray porcine specimen has squatted upon the premises of Mr. Hyrum Greenback, opposite the 15th Ward.

The course of long hair last reached at 140.

The county officers are having a road scraper used on some of the roads, making considerable improvement. Would it not be well for the city to serve some of the roads in the suburbs in the same manner?

Mr. Thomas W. Jennings announces the reception at his establishment of 350 suits of boys' and children's clothing. He keeps everything in the line of furnishing goods, boots and shoes, hats, caps, etc. Read the advertisement.

Wonder if there will be as much sobbing over the new governor as there was over Johnnie Nell when he arrived? Better wait until Governor Ives proves himself worthy, and then sobber big and all together. May he be kind to the kind to such homes. Idaho Democrat.

The Tusconora Times-Review has an account of the robbery of the Elko stage last Saturday night, by two men armed with shotguns, who captured the Wells, Fargo & Co.'s treasure box, relieved one passenger of $10, which was all the coin he had with him. It is believed that the robbers did not make a very large haul, as there was no coin in the express box.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Information Wanted.—Information is wanted of the whereabouts of Henry Jennings or William Jennings, who emigrated to Utah from Wayne Township, Warren County, Ohio, in 1858, and are supposed to be somewhere in this Territory. Address J. W. Satterthwaite, P.O. box 1065, Salt Lake City, Utah.

Home-Made Piping.—We notice several coils of Utah made lead piping, of various sizes, lying in front of Mr. David James' store, being the first shipment of pipe manufactured at the Germania Lead Works, South Cottonwood, a few miles below this city. We wish the new home industry success.

Opera House.—Owing to a lack of time for proper rehearsal of the ballet, composed of twenty small boys, "Saddin, the Wonderful Scamp" will not be produced until Saturday afternoon, March 17th. The bill for to night is "Dipl in the Snow," a beautiful melodrama performance, to conclude with a farce, "Dead Shot." To-morrow night the Egan-graun, will be presented.

Emigrants from Kansas.—Last night two families belonging to the Church numbering ten persons, arrived from Dickinson County, Kansas, having been connected with the Meridian Branch in that part. The heads of the families are W. H. Kinell and J. B. Hughtart, the former being in charge of the party. They propose going forward to Beaver, with the intention of locating in that locality.

The Home Dramatic Club.—The announcement that the Home Dramatic Club would appear during Conference at the Opera House has created some surprise and considerable comment, as they have performed so long at the Theatre that they have come to be looked upon as almost settled at that house. Mr. Whitney, the Club manager, was recently asked if there was any cause for dissatisfaction with Haverley's Theatre or its management. He answered that, on the contrary, the Club had every reason to feel satisfied with the business they had done with Haverley's Theatre and their treatment from the leading management. The Club would have been glad to accept the nights usually allotted to them in Conference, but on applying to Mr. McKenize for dates, they were told that Haverley had already booked the nights in question for a company of his own, which of course settled the matter. The offer of Walker Bros. allowing the Club the free use of the Opera House for one night, being renewed at this time, the complaint was accepted, and three other dates arranged.

The Stephens Concert.—To-morrow will be a red letter day in musical matters. Mr. Evan Stephens, who has developed a most remarkable faculty for training the youthful in the divine art, will give two concerts in the Theatre. The first entertainment of the kind given by him was a brilliant artistic success, and hundreds who did not attend on that occasion expressed regret subsequently after learning of the superior quality of the performances. To-morrow he has no doubt there will be a bumper house on each occasion—afternoon and evening.

Old people over 65 years of age have been, so far as practicable, supplied with free tickets for the matinee to the extent that they could be reached by Brother Stephens and his juvenile pupils. Two hundred and fifty of these tickets have been issued, but it is probable that some persons for whom they were intended have been omitted, although untiring exertions have been made to supply all. We are requested by the gentleman to state that it will not be well for those aged people who have not already procured free tickets to appear at the Theatre in expectation of being admitted, as he does not desire to run the risk of disappointing any one.

The afternoon performance will begin at two o'clock, and the night entertainment at eight.

The Arrest.—The story published in yesterday's News about the fearful crime of murder and cannibalism committed by Al. Packer or Packer, created a good deal of interest. From the Idaho Boomerang we learn some particulars of the arrest of the criminal, by deputy sheriff Malcolm Campbell and his brother Daniel. It appears that Packer was living with a man known as "Old Moss" about 30 miles from Fort Fetterman. Our exchange says:

"The officers had driven up on a hill near the house of 'Old Moss' when they saw Packer coming towards them across the bottom land below. Driving down from the hill the two men drew their team up against a thicket and pretended as though they were unhitching to go into camp. They were not seen by Packer until he had approached within 200 yards of them, and he mistaking them for prospectors, did not take the alarm. He continued to walk toward them until within 100 feet, when Campbell covered him with his revolver and told him to throw up his hands. Packer seemed to take it as a joke and came still nearer, smiling all the time, and finally said: 'What do you fellows mean?' He was speedily informed on this point, Dan Campbell covering him with his gun, and then the hands were elevated. Packer, becoming angry, Dan Campbell continued to hold a head on Packer while his brother went through his clothes in search of arms. He found one the totally unarmed, however, much to his surprise. When the search was concluded Packer was shocked and handcuffed and loaded in the wagon. Campbell then drove to the house of 'Old Moss,' where he secured Packer's gun and coat, and, after a few minutes' rest, the party started at once for Fort Fetterman, reaching there that night, making a drive of 60 miles in one day. At the fort Packer was held in the guard house and either the deputy sheriff or his brother lay on the ground outside to prevent the possibility of escape.

In stature Packer is about 5 feet, 11 inches, quite well built, probably about 40 years of age. His hair is long and black, and his face is made anything but handsome by heavy, monstache and goatee, slightly tinged with gray. He has small sinister eyes, a rather prominent nose, and his countenance is, as a whole, rather hideous in expression. He was dressed in brown overalls and wore the heavy boots peculiar to the mountains. He in every way answers the descriptions of him previously given.

An Explanation.—Mr. John Morrill, of Junction, Platte County, Ohio, in 1858, and are supposed to be somewhere in this Territory. Address J. W. Satterthwaite, P.O. box 1065, Salt Lake City, Utah.

Permit me through your columns to correct some erroneous ideas, which (judging from rumors in circulation) seem to prevail in the minds of some, with regard to the action of certain of our County Officials in Platte County. It appears that my father, Laban Morrill, has been charged with having acted conspicuously in the qualification of officers under the Governor's appointment. My father holds the office of County Treasurer, and has nothing to do with the purpose of holding county and has had nothing to do in the matter of filing or accepting bonds. Acting as Assistant Treasurer myself, I acknowledge having allowed the Probate Judge who had qualified under the Governor's appointment to deposit with me his bond and cash of office, but this I consider an error in principle only, and not in the act itself, as he then held the office by election of the people, and would probably have continued to hold it had the Governor seen fit to exercise the appointive power which he claimed to hold. Up to the time of this occurrence, no case had come under my observation to cause me to reflect upon a transaction of this kind, and it was therefore with less thought of the principle involved, than of the appearance of it. Many of your readers are perhaps aware that we have two county courts, viz: The three electors elected by the people, who continue to exercise the functions of the office under the "hold over" clause and the Judge and two Selectmen appointed by the Governor. At a recent session, both parties appeared for the purpose of holding court. The Selectmen and Clerk elected by the people, (the Judge refusing to serve with them) having in their possession the seal and records, transacted business as usual, while the Judge and other appointees of the Governor went through the formality of another court, but found themselves limited in their operations for want of money to settle accounts and pay expenses, and finding themselves unable to do this, I suppose they concluded to let the matter slide, while, as they failed to appear at the regular March session.

The Situation at Panguitch.—We learn from C. Halvorsen, of Panguitch, Garfield County, by letter dated the 13th inst.:

That Mrs. Amira Haycock, died on Sunday, the 11th inst., of small-pox. Among the many interesting cases Dr. King has attended previously he said that it was the worst which had ever come under his observation. The lady was possessed of a very strong constitution, which doubtless prolonged her sufferings.

Mother Harris, who is over 80 years of age, the last person affected with the disease, was as well as could be expected, and improving slowly. The other cases were very light, and were expected soon to recover.

No new cases, nor any symptoms had as yet appeared in any other quarter.

The masses were raging to a great extent in town, especially among children. Occasionally whole families, including mothers, had all at the same time been down with the disease.

Birthday Anniversary.—About two weeks ago the 80th birthday anniversary of Father Lyon was celebrated at the residence of his daughter, Mr. Lillie Staines, in the 20th Ward. There were present over fifty of his family connections and descendants to the fourth generation. Yesterday the 74th anniversary of Brother Lyon's "ankle wife" was celebrated, at the same place, by a few old friends. An interesting feature of the occasion was that twelve of the ladies—matrons in Israel—who were present had reached, in their united ages, 364 years, or an average of over 71 years. All are hale, hearty and jolly, and true to the gospel as the magnet to the north pole. It was an interesting group, full of animation, able to do things to the good things of the occasion, and apparently looking forward to years of abiding in the spirit of youth renewed.

We are informed that the people of California are becoming alarmed at the prospect of a drought. In the body of the State away from the seaboard, it is fastidiously dry, and the people are being obliged to use the water.

Adultery Place.—The block east of the Denver and Rio Grande W. depot is being built up with astonishing rapidity. Stores and boarding houses are being erected like magic. Held, of the London News Depot is prepared to open there. The Pleasant Valley coal people have an ample supply of fuel. Five cars of limestone from Jones' quarry leave the depot daily for the smelters. Railroad ties are accumulating in large piles, and sixty or seventy section tool houses have been built for shipment along the line. In the vicinity of the depot rows of houses are in vogue. David Duncanson is putting up a row of four on his property.

FINE BLEED. Many families pride themselves on their noble ancestry; but here, in this democratic country we do not care so much about our pedigree as our health; or, at least, that ought to be the principal object of our solicitude. We cannot have good health without pure blood. When the blood is out of order, disease manifests itself in the skin and flesh, and in fact, in all parts of the body. To be restored to health, take Scott's Serravallo's Blood and Liver Syrup. Physicians speak in the highest terms of this medicine.

Dr. Everett, Cooper Plains, Stenben Co., N. Y. mentions two cases of Scrofula and Erysipelas in which Scott's Serravallo's Blood and Liver Syrup effected a cure, and says, "I think it one of the best purifiers of the blood. It has met with perfect success in every case where I have used it." doud s & w.
