FRAGMENTS.

ANOTHER beautiful spring day.

THE real baby in Taken from Life to-night.

THE greatest explosion science ever witnessed in Taken from Life.

The escape on the race horse Comet to-night in Taken from Life, Salt Lake Theatre.

WE are pleased to be able to state that Mr. B. Y. Hampton is improving. He was quite bright and cheerful this morning.

SEVENTY-FIVE feet of rubber hose was stolen from the residence of Mr. James Dinwoodey, in the Seventh Ward yesterday.

WHILE the severe winter has depleted the stock herds on some of the Utah ranges, Wyoming appears to have suffered but little in that regard.

OUR northern Territorial sister, Idaho, is casting about for a candidate for Delegate to Congress. George L. Shoup, H. O. Harkness and Hon. John T. Morgan are the gentlemen who are being boomed.

THE body of Mrs. Gudgell, who was murdered by the Jap. at Ogden on Saturday night, was brought to this city to-day and taken to the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. Smith, of the 13th Ward, where the funeral was to be conducted at 4:30 o'clock this p. m.

LOOKOUT for counterfeit bills. They are being passed around. A prominent merchant of the town took in a ten this morning, and was likewise taken in himself. The person who passed it did so innocently, having obtained it from another individual. So we learn.

Bear Lake people are complaining, through the Democrat, of the alleged unbearable insolence of a U. P. conductor named Wm. Ryder. He should be reported to the company for investigation as a candidate for dismissal. The public have no use for a couductor of that kind even if a corporation has.

DAN WEGUELAND has done some very nice ornamental work on the front of the Excelsior bakery. It consists of flowers and a handsome panel, representing a sheet of water surrounded by reeds and rushes, and a tall aquatic bird in the foreground. The ornamental lettering was done by Joshua Midgley, Jr.

Richard Smyth, of the 20th Ward, is carrying on, with a considerable struggle, the business of making homemade hats. They are of good quality and as stylish as the imported. Besides it being a good thing to sustain home manufacture, whether your head is square, round, oval, large or small, he can fit it to a T, which is not always the case when you pick and choose from an imported pile. Let him take your measure.

LOCAL NEWS.

Temperance Lecture.—Elder Scott Anderson has been invited and will deliver a Lecture on Temperance in Taylorsville to-morrow (Wednesday) evening.

Wyoming Chief Justiceship.—Owing to the death of the incumbent of the office, there is a vacancy in the chief justiceship of Wyoming. The Evanston Chieftain favors the appointment of Hon. W. W. Corlett, of whom it says:

"He is pre-eminent among the lawyers of the Territory, is a man of unsullied character, an affable gentleman and would be an ornament to the supreme bench of the territory. Having come here in the early days of the territory, he is familiar with territorial affairs, and in our judgment he would administer the duties of the office with better satisfaction to the people than it would be possible for almost any other man in the United States."

A Scoundrel Wanted. — Sheriff Reinhardt, of Montana, is anxious to set his eyes on and offers a reward for a fellow who answers the following description:

Thomas Blakely, age about 38 years, dark complexion, long black hair, dark whiskers about two and a half inches long all over his face, weak eyes, height 5 feet 7 inches, weight 160 to 165 pounds and is broad across the shoulders, wore dirty clothes, brown overalls, and brown canvas coat, white slouched hat and looks like a regular tramp, and hangs around saloons.

The anxiety of the sheriff is caused by the fact that Blakely, on the 20th of March, at Glendale, a town on the Utah & Northern R. R., crept up behind Joseph Shepherd, and after the style of the cowardly sneak that he is struck him on the back of the head with a billet of wood, inflicting an injury from the effects of which the unfortunate man, who is naturally of feeble constitution, is likely to die. After the dastardly deed Blakely left that part of the country and up to date has eluded capture.

The Country Republicans. — Republican conventions were held in several counties on Saturday. In the Summit County one, held at Park City, the assemblage seemed to sit right down on E. P. Ferry, who has heretofore cut a prominent figure in such affairs.

At Beaver, Grant, Blaine and Arthur were discussed as candidates for the White House. Blaine was the favorite, so it looks as if his nomination is as good as secured. Surely the national convention would never think of going back on the Beaver republicans.

Box Elder had a convention of the milder type, while Sanpete was of the more pronounced species, with a good deal of "twin relic" talk thrown in for spice and to give an air of originality to the affair.

The Utah County Republicans preferred Arthur for President. But they will surely never have the audacity to hold out against the choice of the Beaverites.

Change of Sentiment.—The following excerpt is from a letter written by a gentleman in Cincinnati to Brother H. H. Perkins, of Wood's Cross. The former, a short time ago, was very much prejudiced against the "Mormons," but it is evident he now sees matters respecting our people in their proper light:

I had the pleasure of spending the most of yesterday with Mr. B. H. Roberts, whom I like very much indeed. Your people I think are exceedingly fortunate to have such young men to assist in spreading the cause of truth. I never met a young man who seems so earnest and can so quietly, frankly and honestly give the very best of reasons for the faith that is in him, and yet one, who I think, would be among the first to discard error, if reasons that would convince his mind that he is wrong could be adduced. I learned from him that you are probably at home, hence this letter. I shall be obliged for the present to defer my visit to Utah. Although financially stranded, I am determined to make Utah my home as soon as possible; as I have to commence life as it were anew, I am anxious to start right at this time, and I know of no other way to do so than to become one of your people, if you will accept me, knowing that by so doing I shall be associated with a people who have the proper regard for the rights of man; therefore they must be God's chosen people. Thus, no matter how poor I may be in this world's goods, if I am faithful to your teachings I shall be far happier in the world to be.

KILLED ON THE RAILWAY.

A DEAF AND DUMB MAN IS RUN DOWN BY AN ENGINE.

The following dispatch from Bingham, Utah, was received shortly after 11 o'clock this morning, by Mr. Bancroft, of the D. & R. G. Railway:

Engine No. 85 killed a man one mile and a half west of here. Engineer Ryan says he rang the bell and whistled. The man steped off the track and stepped on to it again. He picked the dead man up and brought him here."

"J. CONLISK."

Later—the following was received by the same Gentleman:

"Parties say the man who was killed was deaf and dumb. He was in the telegraph office this morning. There is no coroner here. The body is in the freight house." "J. HAMILL."

No further details have come to hand.

What Next?—The Methodists of this city have prepared a method of raising funds rather novel to this part of the country. It will be in the nature of a social, to be held at the Church parlors on Thursday night, and is intended to combine pleasure with profit, the latter depending upon the quantity of adipose and provender carried by the ladies who attend.

Each lady will take to the meeting a basket containing supper for two. These baskets will be numbered, and corresponding slips will be drawn by gentlemen. Each will get his basket, and it devolves upon him then to take it and its owner to the scales and have them weighed, he paying one cent per pound for basket and lady combined.

It should be stated that only one part of this contribution will be eaten —the contents of the basket, the lady to remain intact. A cent a pound for such precious and delightful creatures as ladies is ridiculously cheap. We don't think their value can be estimated in coin, and thon to rate them on a par for price with edibles is surely a great mistake. In this instance, bulk, not beauty, is the prime consideration. The slender fair ones who are ambitious to bring as high a price as their more comprehensive sisters can make up with the contents of the hamper what they lack in corporeal adipose.

The Methodists appear to be gifted with considerable ingenuity, and it seems to run in the channel of formulating ways and means of increasing the financial prosperity of the church.

Highly Sensational.—"Taken from Life" by the Jay Rial Combination drew a very large audience at the Theatre last night. The upper parts of the spacious building were crowded while the lower was nearly all occupied. The play is highly sensational and full of fine effects. It is placed upon the stage in excellent style, and the explosion scene as well as that of the escape on the race horse are very effective. Interest is sustained from the beginning to the end of the play, and the dialogue is quite smart and entertaining. Fun is judiciously mixed with pathos, and the startling situations, while on the edge of the improbable, are near enough to the possible to preserve a semblance to reality.

Miss Rial sustained the part of the true, womanly, faithful wife and mother in a charming manner, and her presence on the stage was always welcome. The other characters were well sustained, but are too numerous to mention in detail. A little more force on the part of the performers taking the characters of Denby and Radley, and more deliberate enunciation by the Nihilist would have been an improvement. There is no rant, however, and we prefer naturalness to noise and bluster. The comedy parts and that of the boy were well taken, and frequent and boisterous applause was bestowed on their efforts, particularly by the noisy denizens of the upper regims. It is a play that is bound to draw all over the country and is well worth seeing. It will be repeated this evening and to-morrow night.

Temperance Conference.—A temperance conference was held in the hall of the Templars of Honor last night. Mr. C. W. Symons was appointed chairman of the meeting, and Dr. Gardiner, secretary. After a few preliminary remarks the chairman called upon Mr. Scott Anderson to address the meeting. He concluded his remarks by proposing that a provisional committee be appointed to draft a constitution, rules and bye-laws for the new association, and also proposed that the same committee be empowered to organize and hold meetings for the advocacy of temperance in the city. Several speakers addressed the meeting and the utmost harmony and enthusiasm prevailed throughout. A vote of thanks was passed unanimously to the Templars for the use of their hall and the meeting adjourned to await the call of the committee. The following were the committee appointed: Messrs. Scott Anderson, C. W. Symons, E. P. Austin, T. C. Armstrong, Mr. Hall, Mrs. C. I. Godbe, Dr. Gardiner and Prof. T. W. Lincoln, Third District Court.—April 22nd. Chief Justice Hunter presiding.

A. B. Elfelt vs. E. A. Ireland; thirty days' additional time given to answer.

George B. Walker, Roderick D. McDonald, Mary P. Rice and Sarah Houghton vs. London Bank of Utah; default and judgment.

B. S. Fiersheim vs. E. S. Friedlander; E. Martin et al vs. E. J. Friedlander; George Gould vs. E. J. Friedlander; Livingston vs. E. J. Friedlander; demurrer overruled and twenty days allowed to answer.

Lucian Bamberger et al. vs. Jacob Behrman; motion to dissolve attachment overruled.

M. H. Lipman vs. Jacob Behrman: motion to dissolve attachment overruled; motion for judgment allowed.

Lucian Bamberger vs. London Bank of Utah; demurrer to complaint argued by counsel; overruled.

E. P. Ferry vs. John L. Street; motion for new trial overruled. Exception.

Court adjourned until 10 a.m to-morrow.

Fatal Accident. — On April 10th Nelson S. Hollingshead left his home in Minersville, Beaver County at about 8 p.m., and went to the cave mine, leaving his team some distance below. After transacting his business and returning to his team, the horses ran at a furious rate down the steep road towards the town of Bradshaw. The wheels struck a large rock, throwing Brother Hollingshead and his son some 15 or 20 feet. Both were rendered unconscious. The son rallied in a short time, but Brother Hollingshead never recovered consciousness except at short intervals. Death brought relief to his sufferings April 16th at 1.30 p.m. W. Wood is our informant.

The Minstrels.—The Lowell, Mass. Times says:

M. B. Leavitt's Gigantean Minstrels gave a splendid entertainment in Huntington Hall last evening, which was highly appreciated by a vast and enthusiastic audience. The music by the orchestra and the singing were exceptionally good, the specialties could not possibly be excelled, and the burlesque which closed the entertainment was a masterpeice of grotesque fun. No company of minstrels has ever appeared in this city that can, even remotely, be compared to Leavitt's Giganteans.

"Women of the Beehive."—The Century for May, with the article on the "Mormon" question—"The Women of the Beehive," can be had at Joseph Hyrum Parry & Co's, with other current literature.

Arrived at New York.—President Joseph F. Smith has received a dispatch signed by Elders Jones and Pratt, informing him that the party of missionaries that left this city on the 15th inst., arrived safely at New York yesterday morning.

Hospital Changes.—We learn that since the resignation of our esteemed friend Sister Eliza R. Snow as President of the Deseret Hospital, Bishop H. B. Clawson has been selected for the position. Dr. S. B. Young has been appointed medical superintendent and Dr. M. P. Hughes remains as house surgeon. Improvements continue to be made in the direction of increasing the facilities of the hospital.

Caught in Time.—Yesterday Joseph Ashton was arrested for being intoxicated. While he was in jail Mrs. Marvina Rawlings called at the City Hall, and complained against him for an attempt to defraud her of $52, which he owed her for board, she having learned of an intention on his part to leave this part of the country without paying her. Ashton had been working for the D. & R. G. Company and this morning, accompanied by an officer, he went to their office, drew his pay, discharged the debt he owed his landlady, paid his fine and costs of court, and left for other parts on the train,

Provo Pellets.—Our racy correspondent "Homespun" furnishes the following:

I dare say it is unnecessary to say that it has rained, rained, rained for so many weeks that I have lost "the count." But just now the sun is out in all his pomp and pride, and so are the farmers.

There are some fears entertained in relation to the river breaking through and flooding the lower part of town. Some even predict that the town will be cut into. The City Council are taking steps to avert such a calamity by strengthening the dams and piling up brush where it is necessary. High waters are expected here as elsewhere as the result of the heavy rain and snow storms.

"Ma" Smoot was 75 years old last Wednesday. A large party consisting of the family and intimate friends gathered at her house to celebrate the day. Brothers McDonald and Rogers, from Salt River, were present. Miss Lucy Kimball recently returned from California, Mrs. Zina Whitney, who came down from Salt Lake to attend the party, beside a number of "Ma's" friends who live in Provo. All heartily echoed her wish to be present at and help celebrate her 80th birthday.

The academy is much less in numbers, but cozier and pleasanter than ever, say the students who are there.

The Provo Dramatic Company are playing in the various settlements of this county for the benefit of the B. Y. Academy. It is very noble on the part of the manager and company to do this work. All who have the opportunity should go and see their excellent performances, and aid so good an object.

The health of the people is generally good. A number of families are being called to go to Arizona.

BRITANNIA STANDS UNRIVALLED.

Those troubled with rheumatism, who have tried other remedies and still are uncured will certainly obtain relief within three days' and generally within six hours by taking Britannia. This great remedy was discovered by an eminent English physician of great experience, and who has never lost a patient to whom this medicine was administered. Britannia is not a lotion; no external application can permanently cure rheumatism, which is a desease of the blood. Britannia is prepared with the greatest skill, and a teaspoonfull being taken in a wineglass of cold water immediately finds its way to the blood, where it corrects the pain-causing element, removes it immediately by purifying the life-giving fluid, and gradually builds up the entire system. Persons who have used this valuable preparation in Utah, tell us that nothing ever helped them as Britannia has done. Many references in Salt Lake City and elsewhere can be given.
