Break up Between the Two Was The Result of a Contemptible Trick.

PLAYED BY COAST GRAFTERS.

Trisco Schemers Did Not Let up Until They Separated the Fighter and The Popular Boy Manager.

Since Battling Nelson's departure from Philadelphia, the rumor committee has been working overtime, and one result of its efforts is a strong feeling that despite the fact that Nelson and Nolan were together a great deal during the week past, there is a chilly feeling between the conqueror of Jimmy Britt and his wise

It is reported that a friend of Teddy Murphy, the "boy manager," who dis-covered and developed Nelson, had several interviews with the lighter during the week, but it cannot be learned what was doing.

The week, but it cannot be learned what was doing.
A fich story is given cut by Billy Mc-Carney, the manager of rotag girne and the Russell, which shows the unsportsmankke methods adopted by some of the cheap managers of boxers who infect the west. It tells the whole story of how Murphy and Neison felt out.
The pair were partners in Chicago and neither had enough to eat regularly. Murphy, however, was possessed of some business ability, and kept hat on the trail of the club managers to give his man a chance. They packed up chough money in Chicago to pay for special delivery stamps and a few telegrams and finally Murphy painted beautiful pletures of the fortune that awaited them and by cloquence made Nelson think he could whip all comers. Finally he got the Dane to consent, and they trip were considerably richer than when they reached Salt Lake.

Lake

ake, That was the undoing of the "Boy That was the undoing of the "Boy Manager," however, for as soon as Nel-son had whipped a couple of Native Sons everybody wanted to become his man-ager. Murphy was confident that Neison was his friend, and no matter what hap-pened the Dane would stick by him. After he had whipped Eddie Hanlon and scored his first defeat over Young Corbett the so-called sports on the coast began to tell the Dane that he was "in wrong." that the Native Sons would put him on the "blink" if he did not shake Murphy. These threats, however, had no effect.

Murphy.
These threats, however, had no effect, and the Murphy-Nelson concern went right along. Then they fell back on the old gag that Nelson's money was being sent over the bars for wine suppers.
One night Murphy was summoned to a glided cafe under the pretense of securing a new match. When Murphy arrived he found a let of alleged good fellows and a few iadies attired in costumes of filmsy spien. If all the dizzy soubrett to sleep. Murphy was introduced all around and fresh bottles were ordered. Meanwhile, a party to the scheme who had been dist, patched to Nelson's stopping place told the Dane all about it. Nelson thought it worth " a look" and saw Murphy innocently in the midst of wine, skitts and blarts planted that Murphy show were of the plot and did not see his protege. It had been previously planned that Murphy discovered that here was not aware of the plot and blarts scale.

This is the title which Hoppe wrested from Maurice Vigneaux last week in Parls. This must not be con-founded with the 18.2 balk-line game at which the international tournament will be played. Hoppe, it is said, will prob-ably accept the challenge of Slosson, and the plan now is to have the match played in some public hall in this city in March. The match will be 50 points up, and will be played in one night. The conditions will be the same as those which governed the Hoppe-Vigneaux match. Hoppe sailed for this country yesterday.

Going Rather Difficult. Ormond-Daytonia, Fla., Jan. 25.—In cheerless weather with a tide that left little room on the beach for the cars. and a heavy northwind blowing, two races only were ran in the automobile tommanisht today. Tew persons were out for the contests and the efficials had a hard time to find suitable shelter for the timing stand. In the morning a cable dispatch was received by the representatives of the company whose cars Hernery refused to drive, even under the alternative of sus-pension, giving him permission to appoint another driver. It was given out that that the would be at the wheel of the 200-horsepower car which made such fard unficial time yesterday, but the wather conditions made the races in which it was entered impossible. Five Favorites Went Down to Defeat At Ascot Yesterday.

At Ascot Yesterday. Los Angeles, Jan. 25.—Following the de-feat of six favorites at Ascot yesterday, five more were bowied over today, and the talent suffered disastrously in the betting. Money Musk, at 9 to 10, was the only successful favorite. Gentle Har-ry, at 12 to L. was the longest priced winner. S. M. Williams' stable will not race at Ascot again this season, but will move to Oakland. Weather, fine; track, fast. Summary: First race, five and one-balf furlongs— Mill Song. 105 (McDaniel) 4 to L. won: Ila, 105 (Miller) 13 to 10, second; Seed Cake, 105 (Powil) 15 to 1, third. Time— Polly. Moncie Mabel, Rezia, Anna Streak, Myrtle D., Babe B., Astraea, Sandora and Heartful also ran. Second race, mile and a sixteenth—A Muskoday, 1e4 (McDaniel) 16 to 5, won:

for a Nelson match and all of Terry's ire against Corbett was smothered. It is doubtful if Terry over gets his chance now. Still Corbett needs the money and Terry would be just as ready to fight, e-stranger things have happened than such a match even now. What an attraction the bout would furnish, when one comes to think about it! With McGovern as an opponent Cor-bett would still be a drawing card, too, although it is doubtful if his carring capacity would be worth anything to speak of when arrayed against any other scrapper. M'GOVERN'S CHANCE GONE.

Walted a Long Time for Another Fight

With Corbett. Pity poor little Terry McGovern' How he has labored all these years to et even with that usurper of his charm-ionship. Young Corbett, now in private fe, William Rothwell, and then to have he final opportunity for vengeance just then it was vipe slip through his fingers! Is too bad.

when it was tipe slip through his fingers! It's too had. How Young Corbett came out of oh-scurity and copped Terry right in all his glory is a matter of ancient pugillstic history. How Terry, value struggling to get back again, stacked up against Cor-bett to a similar issue is history not quite so ancient. During the last two years, however. Terry has been appar-ently holding his own, while Corbett has retrograded to such an extent that it now seems more than probable that, had Mc-Govern been Corbett's opponent recently, instead of Herrera, the result would have been the same-the puglistic interment of Terry's old foe. And how McGovern realized the situ-ation and strove to be in at the death! Of the many clusses which combined to take his vengeance from him. disinch-nation for battle on his part was cer-tainly not one. But Joe Humphreys, Terry's manager, got to fiddling about
