

member, Kelly mustered them back into the service.

Tonight Kelly consented to outline to the Associated Press representative his plans for the end of the journey. Should his army be refused approach to the Capitol, he will, upon his arrival in Washington, take four of his men and make a personal appeal to Congressman Pence, of Colorado; McGuire, of California, and Senator Allen, of Nebraska. Through their efforts he hopes to be allowed to draw up his men in line where the law makers of the nation may see them.

Prame was brought here Saturday night and kept concealed until last evening when he was arraigned in court and pleaded guilty and gave all the particulars of the crime, telling how he and Charles Macard bound and gagged the old lady, took $600 from her bosom and left her to die of suffocation. The affair has caused intense excitement and the city authorities will probably make a thorough investigation of the convents and the methods and practices in vogue there.

WALNUT, Iowa, April 24.—Kelly's industrial army reached here at noon today, and after a hearty luncheon started to Atlantic, where they are due tonight.

At Avoca the populace turned out en masse to bid the commonwealers good-bye. The wagons that brought the men from Neola were returned last night, and today sixty-three fresh teams, furnished by the farmers in the adjacent county, were driven into camp at Avoca and loaded with commonwealers. The vehicles could hold only about half the men, and every five miles shifts were made. As the army came down the steep hill into Walnut, it was received with the same cordial welcome which has characterized the receptions since it left Council Bluffs. The town officials bid Kelly welcome, and the townspeople furnished plenty of provisions. The stop here was brief, and the army was soon on its way for Atlantic, twenty miles from Avoca. The farmers greeted the men with words of encouragement, and now and then a well filled provision wagon wheeled into line amid grateful cheers. A carload of provisions from Omaha was promised.

WALNUT, Iowa, April 24.—Soon after Kelly's army left Walnut today at least a hundred men left the ranks and started across the country. Seven men arrested in Avoca last night for disorderly conduct were released today. Sheriff Hazen, of Council Bluffs, is following the army with three deputies. Pinkerton men are also on the trail and it is expected wholesale arrests will be made at Des Moines. On the march today Kelly was hailed by a corps of men who asked him to allow them to take a train. "We can do it, and we will do it, general, if you will let us," said the spokesman. Kelly told the men it would ruin the cause of the unemployed if they took such action. There was much adverse comment and Kelly is evidently alarmed.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 24.—The city trustees have appointed a committee to see what can be done towards getting the 300 commonwealers stranded here out of the city. ST. PAUL, Minn., April 24.—The Coxeyites at Butte broke into the Northern Pacific round house tonight, seized an engine and train and started east at forty miles an hour.

There are between 400 and 500 men in this army.

They have been camped at Butte, Montana, several days while the leaders were trying to arrange for transportation. The men concluded that if they wanted a train they must take it. At midnight they reached Bozeman, where they stopped for the break of the day, intending to resume their journey at once. The Northern Pacific officials say there is nothing to stop them until near Livingston, where a single wash-out will cause some delay.

It is sold at 8½ cents per pound and the consul general says any trustworthy American firm can, by addressing his consulate, obtain free of charge, except for transportation, 100 pounds as a sample.

W. B. Percival, general agent in London of New Zealand, visited the colonial office today and urged a modification of the treaty of 1889 in accordance with the desire of New Zealand. Mr. Percival represented that such arrangement would naturally give a great stimulus to trade. New Zealand considers the present unsatisfactory proposition an opportune occasion for convening another conference. Much stress is laid upon the fact that the German residents of Samoa would welcome a modification of the existing arrangement.
