

DELEGATES CARRY PLATFORM PLANKS

Utah's Representatives at Denver Leave on Special With Fast Schedule.

WILL WORK FOR GOOD ROADS

S. J. Smith of Weber County Carries a Paragraph for Platform on This Subject and One on Finance.

Weber county's delegates to the national Democratic convention in favor of a good roads plank in the Democratic platform. The automobile drivers of Ogden cautioned on the subject, and they then had a meeting with Delegate S. J. Smith of Ogden, and asked him to submit to the committee on resolutions, a plank calling for a National Bureau of Highways, with liberal appropriations for interstate thoroughfares.

Delegate Smith, when he boarded the delegates' special last night at 7:10 o'clock carried a plank drawn up endorsing good roads in the following terms:

Recognizing as we do the growing dependence of interstate traffic upon good roads, we favor the establishment of a bureau of highways, with liberal appropriations for maintenance of the same, and for the construction of national thoroughfares.

FINANCIAL PLANK.

Judge William H. King is Utah's representative on the resolutions committee and the plank will be submitted through him. Delegate Smith, while a member of the Utah legislature in 1897, was conspicuously identified with financial resolutions, and in fact made this subject one of special study. He was heartily in accord with the views of Mr. Bryan at that time, and Judge King has requested him to draw up a financial plank for discussion among the others that will no doubt be brought in.

His plank on this subject calls for postal savings banks and a national currency absolutely owned and issued by the government, instead of by national banks.

The plank reads: We demand a return to the letter of the Constitution, that all money, whether gold, silver or paper, shall be issued by the general government; and shall be a full legal tender for the payment of all debts, both public and private. Recognizing as we do, the quantitative theory of money, and its increase in our currency in accordance with the increase of population and the demand of commerce, said increase to be placed in circulation through appropriations for internal improvements.

We demand that our financial system shall be so controlled that no disturbances in the money market may properly and lawfully be caused, and such needless panics as we have just passed through, averted; this can only be done by Congress exercising its constitutional right to coin and issue the money of the country, and by authorizing the secretary of the treasury to use a reasonable amount of money in times of large financial failures, to arrest and avert panics.

For that purpose to be properly secured, and such safeguards thrown around it as will insure its speedy return to the treasury. We demand that government postal savings banks be established for the deposit of the people's savings, and that Congress shall provide a system of assessments on national banks, to provide for the security of the depositors therein.

A FAST RUN.

The Democratic special to Denver was run from Salt Lake to Ogden, at 7:10 a. m. on the 4:15 special train, and arrived in Ogden at 7:10. As O. W. Powers, W. H. King and Samuel Newhouse had already come to Denver, the delegates on the train were S. J. Smith of Weber, Abel John Evans of Provo, and Mrs. Hayward. In addition to these delegates a number of alternates, and about 45 prominent Democrats made up the party. They are due at Denver tonight, after a straight run through from Ogden on a 20-hour schedule.

BEFORE JUDGE DIEHL.

His Honor Wearing a Souful Tan Dispenses Justice Once More.

Fresh from the desert, Judge Diehl returned to this city yesterday and to his bench in police court this morning. His vacation has tanned his face until he very much resembles an Indian. Before court he was telling policemen and court attaches about cooking eggs in the sun and reading the thermometer at 125 degrees in the shade in the Deep Creek country.

When he got to work in court this morning he found a varied assortment of petty offenders before him. The first on the call was Tony Monti, charged with stealing a watch from a Japanese at 125 south State street. Tony is unable to speak English and he was held under $100 bail until tomorrow morning, when two interpreters will be in court to untangle the details of the case.

A varied assortment of migratory mendicants was on the bench. Harry Jordan, William Postum, S. B. Kennedy, Fletcher Williams, Earl Buell, C. Martin and D. Lucas have all voted "undesirables," and were given an opportunity to shake the dust of Zion from their feet, for five days for the benefit of the city's streets.

B. Folsom and William Gritten were holiday drunks. Five-dollar assessments were levied in each case, and in lieu thereof the pair will contribute the sweat of their brows for five days for the benefit of the city's streets.

Henry Ricardo was discharged for lack of evidence. Ricardo was charged with having "touched" E. A. Pierce for $12.

WILSON IS MAGGNETTI.

Youth Charged With Burglary Will Go Back to Ogden.

When Ed. Wilson, charged with burglary, was taken before Judge Diehl this morning to answer he pleaded guilty, waived preliminary hearing and was held to the district court in $200 bail. Then he was taken into Chief Lett's office to be photographed by Carl Peterson, secretary to the chief. There a striking resemblance was seen between the youth and John Maggnetti, who escaped from the industrial school at Ogden about two years ago. An investigation was started by Sergeant John Hempel and finally the boy admitted his true name. He will probably be sent back to Ogden to complete his term there and the case against him dropped. The boy was caught by patrolman J. K. Hinton for robbing Jake Greenwald's cigar store near the Saltair depot.

BURGLARS ARE ACTIVE

Long List of Robberies in Houses Voted by People on July 4th.

The usual burglaries were committed again this year on the Fourth of July during the absence from home of pleasure loving people. Various household articles, to the value of about $250, were taken as a result of three different robberies that have been reported to police headquarters from various parts of the city. The only clue found thus far has resulted in one arrest.

During the early morning the residence of Mrs. Mary E. Wright, 715 south West Temple, was entered, and a gold watch and chain, a pearl handled revolver, and $7 in cash were stolen. Later in the day, the residence of M. J. Cheesman, 75 west Fourth South street, was looted of $200 worth of clothing, a revolver and a few dollars in cash. After attempting in several places to force an entrance into the house by use of a jimmy, the burglars shattered the glass of a rear door and then unbolted the door.

Some time during the day, the residence of William H. Hossard, 418 east Eighth South street, was also burglarized. Entrance was made through the one window that had been left unlocked, and $300 worth of articles were collected after a complete ransacking of the house, including a gold watch and chain, a ruby, amethyst and opal ring, a gold bracelet studded with small diamonds, a smaller gold bracelet, a gold watch chain, a silver watch, and a blank check book, containing an endorsed check for $37.50 payable to Mr. Hossard.

Late in the evening a suspect was picked up on Commercial street by Officer Tom Gillespie. He is a sailor by the name of Dan Lucas, 22 years of age. He seemed to be trying to make along west First South street, and upon being taken to the police station, he was found to be wearing two pairs of trousers and had a saw concealed in one of them. The man will be held for further investigation.

A private safe may be rented in the fire and burglar-proof vaults of the Salt Lake Security & Trust Co., 22-34 Main street, $2.50 per year.

EVAPORATION EXPERT.

Prof. Bigelow of Department of Climatology Tarries in Town.

Prof. Frank H. Bigelow, chief of the department of climatology in the U. S. weather bureau is a guest at the Knottford, on a western scientific trip for the government. His specialty is the study of evaporation. His trip will take him to the Salt Lake to erect there three 40 ft. high evaporating towers, containing each 35 evaporating pans. These pans will be 10 inches deep and of varying diameter, from which observations will be made every four hours. From the data furnished general laws of evaporation will be deduced of value in the designing of dams and the amount of water they should hold to be of the most practical value. Prof. Bigelow says the Salt Lake sea is 45 miles long, 12 to 15 miles wide and 75 feet deep, and is shrinking through evaporation at the rate of five feet annually. Prof. Bigelow will also carry on his work at 15 government reservoirs scattered through the far west. He attributes the rise of great Salt Lake to the increase in precipitation during the last few years. He also says date palm cultivation on the Indian desert is a success, so he expects that section to produce thousands of pounds of dates in the next two years.

Bishop Spalding and Chas. W. Penrose To Attend Universal Peace Meeting.

Right Rev. Bishop Spalding, of the Episcopal church, this city, is at present sojourning in London, and he will be one of Utah's representatives to the Seventeenth Universal Peace Congress, which convenes in the English capital July 27, to Aug. 1. The appointment was made by Governor John C. Cutler, as president of the Utah state Peace society, and Bishop Spalding, in a letter to the Secretary, Mr. J. M. Sjodahl, signifies his intention to be present at some of the meetings, at which conference in the English capital part of his attention at that time.

Hon. Charles W. Penrose, who has been in Liverpool for the last two years, has been named by the governor as another of Utah's delegates, and it is expected that he will be present at the London meetings.

STRUCK BY STREET CAR.

Automobile Party from Ogden Has a Narrow Escape from Death.

In a collision with an eastbound street car at Tenth East and First South street yesterday morning, an automobile runabout was battered to pieces. Its occupants, three men and a child, were thrown from the car, but all escaped serious injury. Apparently the accident, which was the first serious collision in Salt Lake between a car and a street car, was due to the automobile shooting at a fast rate of speed, with power on, across the street intersection, where good policy should dictate a pulling out of the gear lever and coasting without power.

The car was number 429 on the university line with Motorman Haney in charge, and it is possibly due to the fact that it was going up grade that ascribed accident was averted. Immediately in front of the car the runabout shot and was struck squarely in the center. John A. Stimpson, the driver, was thrown into the air, G. C. Griffith, his brother-in-law, who was seated beside him, was caught in the wreck and dragged under the front fender of the car. Ben H. Stimpson, who was seated on a small seat at the rear with Griffith's baby in his arms, held to the baby and was able to catch hold of the side rail on the street car, thus lifting himself on to the front steps, where he clung until the car was stopped. While all four of the automobile party narrowly escaped death, the most serious result was a scalp wound on the head of John A. Stimpson, the driver. The wound was dressed at the Holy Cross hospital, after which the party went to the home of Mr. Stimpson's mother, at 77 Phipps place. The car was driven down from Ogden Saturday evening by Mr. Stimpson, who is its owner. It was a Ford runabout and was damaged beyond all hope of repair.

TRIP TO BIRD ISLAND.

Governor's Club Spends the Fourth Cruising on Great Salt Lake.

The members of the Governor's club and their friends spent Saturday on Great Salt Lake aboard the launch Irene and had their Fourth of July celebration on the water. The party started on the cruise of the lake at 10:45 o'clock on Saturday morning and returned at 9 o'clock at night. Luncheon was served aboard. The launch, which was visited and a stop of one hour was made at Bird Island, where a number of pictures were taken, also many trophies were found and carried away to remember the occasion. The Irene was gallantly decorated for the occasion and the big green and gold pennant of the Governor's club flew from the masthead. The return to the Pacific in the evening was signalled from the boat by a display of fireworks and the shooting of skyrocket and Roman candles.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wetzel chaperoned the merry party and all united in declaring that they had the time of their lives. Those who made the trip were:

THE FOURTH IN THE STATE.

Never before in the history of the state was the nation's natal day so generally observed as the one just past. Except in a few of the larger cities, nearly every city and town of the state carried out an elaborately prepared program for the patriotic observance of Independence Day. For the most part this included a gathering of citizens in the usual assembly halls in the forenoon, following in many instances a well gotten up parade; sports were the features of the afternoon, with dancing for the children, the day closing with a grand ball in the evening. Reports have already been received by the "News" of the day's doings from the following cities and towns: Lehi, Park City, Grantsville, Hooper, Huntsville, Springdale, Pleasant Grove, American Fork, Payson, Devil's Slide.

WIFE WON

Husband Finally Convinced.

Some men are wise enough to try new foods and beverages, and then generous enough to give others the benefit of their experience.

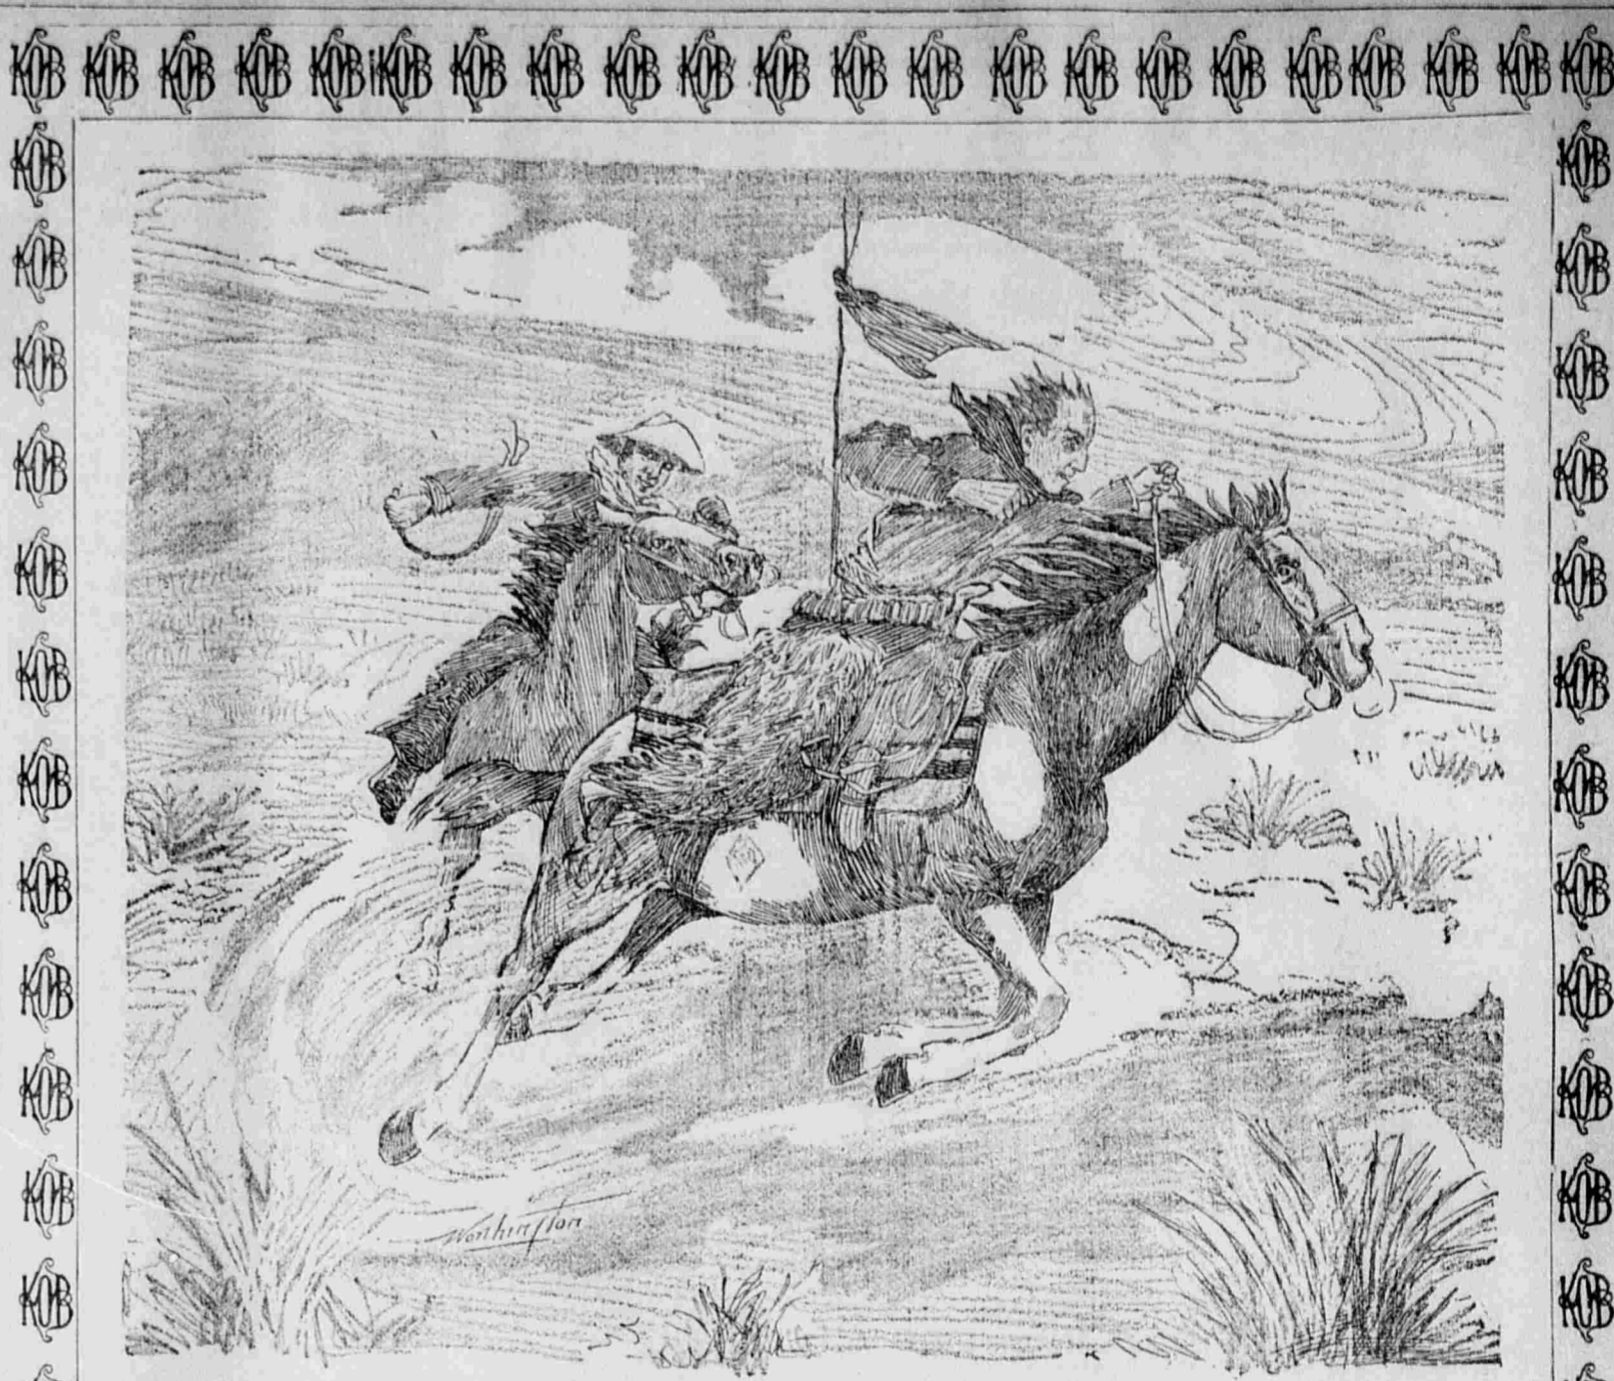

A very "conservative" Illinois man, however, let his good wife find out for herself what a blessing Postum is to those who are distressed in many ways, by drinking coffee. The wife writes: "No slave in chains, it seemed to me, was more helpless than I, a coffee addict. Yet there were innumerable warnings—waking from a troubled sleep with a feeling of suffocation, at times dizzy and out of breath, attacks of palpitation of the heart that frightened me.

"Common sense, reason, and my better judgment told me that coffee drinking was the trouble. At last my nervous system was so disarranged that my physician ordered 'no more coffee.'

"He knew he was right and he knew I knew it, too. I capitulated. Prior to this our family had tried Postum but disliked it because, as we learned later, it was not made right. "Determined this time to give Postum a fair trial, I prepared it according to directions—that is, that I boiled it 15 minutes after boiling commenced, containing a dark brown liquid with a rich snappy flavor similar to coffee. When cream and sugar were added, it was not only good but delicious. "Noting its beneficial effects in me the rest of the family adopted it—all except my husband, who would not admit that coffee hurt him. Several weeks elapsed during which I drank Postum two or three times a day, when, to my surprise, my husband said: 'I have decided to drink Postum. Your improvement is so apparent—you have such fine color—that I propose to give credit where credit is due.' And now we are coffee-slaves no longer."
