

pied by the widow of M. Thiers, and serenaded her with patriotic airs. About midnight there were, in different parts of the city, "flambeaux retreats." Cavalry soldiers, ten or twelve abreast, bore lighted torches as they rode along, and mounted bands followed them, playing martial music.

It is estimated that twenty-five thousand pairs of hands were kept busy in the workshops for 12 days preceding the fete, making flags and other decorations for private houses and public buildings. What was spent for the item of paper lanterns alone must have been immense. Bonnets decorated with tri-colored ribbons and flowers in artistic devices were worn for one day and cast aside the next. The patriotic bouquet, made of artificial roses, was everywhere; it was worn by young and old, rich and poor, boys, girls and babies. There were a few houses, occupied by Orleanists or Imperialists, that did not hang out flags or illuminate, but no menace was proffered them; there seemed to be an entire absence of partizan feeling; this might not have been the case had the opposition been in a less hopeless minority. Each was perfectly free to do as seemed good in his own eyes, provided he did not infringe on the rights of anybody else. At the church of the Madeleine there were, under the colonnade, imposing processions in celebration of the octave of the Corpus Christi. No attempt was made by the many sceptical passers-by to throw contempt upon it. A military band was present to enhance the pomp of the religious ceremony and take turns with the grand organ in musical entertainment. The Parisian is tolerant, well bred, and thoroughly good-natured when he is bent on having a holiday.

These popular festivals no doubt have a beneficial influence on social life and manners. One reason why so many Americans are loud-mannered and deficient in good breeding is because they lack the attrition which these people have in cafes, boulevards and parks.

A Change Came O'er the Scene.

Impecunious man addressing a communistic meeting: "As I said before, gentlemen, I am with you, heart and soul. The property of the country should be equally divided. The rich must be compelled to share their hoarded wealth with those whom a somewhat careless and inattentive providence has blessed with nothing. Why should one be penniless while another has his thousands? Why—" At this point a telegraph boy pushes his way through the crowd and hands the speaker a dispatch which reads as follows:

Col. Whackup:

"COL. WHACKUP—Dear Sir: Your aunt in Penn Yan has just died, leaving you a legacy of $12,000. ATTORNEY."

The speaker devours the glad tidings silently, and then says: "Hm—ha—yes—well—gentlemen, I shall be compelled to conclude my speech at some future day, as I have been summoned away on important business;" and Col. Whackup isn't with them as much as he was.

Exchange.

Society must reform. You have no right to ride in a carriage when you owe for it. But if you are in debt, hopelessly in debt, get down, walk like the rest of us. As soon as you see a man deliberately consent that his outgo shall exceed his income, you may know he is on the broad road to bankruptcy and moral ruin.

The owner of a house in Hartford, a widower, lived in the upper story and rented the lower part to a clergyman. A servant girl, employed in the clergyman's family, was young and pretty. Her mistress observed that she and the widower were devoting a great deal of attention to each other, and, deeming the matter scandalous, said to her: "Pack up your things and quit." The girl obeyed; but on the following day she returned in a carriage, announced that she had been married to the landlord, and said to her former mistress: "Pack up your things and quit."

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH is a safe, certain, and permanent cure for Catarrh of every form, and is the most perfect remedy ever devised. It is purely a vegetable distillation, and is applied locally by insufflation, and constitutionally by internal administration. Locally applied, relief is instantaneous. It soothes, heals, and cleanses the nasal passages of every feeling of heaviness, obstruction, dulness, or dizziness. Constitutionally administered it renovates the blood, purifies it of the acid poison with which it is always charged in Catarrh, stimulates the stomach, liver, and kidneys, perfects digestion, makes new blood, and permits the formation of sound, healthy tissue, and finally obtains complete control over the disease. The remarkable curative powers, when all other remedies utterly fail, of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE, are attested by thousands who gratefully recommend it to fellow-sufferers. No statement is made regarding it that cannot be substantiated by the most respectable and reliable references. It is a great and good medicine, and worthy all confidence. Each package contains a Treatise on Catarrh and Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhalant Tube, and full directions for its use in all cases. Price $1.

An Enthusiastic Friend of Sanford's Radical Cure.

MCHATTEN, GRANT & BOWEN'S FIRE AND MARINE INSURANCE AGENCY,
723 Pine Street, St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 7, 1877.

A. A. McILLER, Washington Av., City.—Dear Sir: I have for some years been troubled with Catarrh, and for the past two years have suffered seriously with it. Noticing your advertisement of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE, I decided to try it. I have used only two bottles, and as a result I feel so much relieved that I presume on your part you take some measures to get this notice prominently before the public, that others may have such relief as I have. I have recommended it to quite a number of my friends, all of whom have expressed to me their high estimate of its value and good effects with them.

I really think it particularly adapted to wants of St. Louis people, and they all ought to know of it, and those who need it should try it. I will risk the assertion that 1000 1 oz. vials (as a sample) to be given away will sell as many bottles.

Try some plan. Let the people have it; they need it. I believe I could sell 1000 bottles of it; of course you could largely increase this number. Why not try it? Yours truly, WM. BOWEN.

LAME BACK AND RHEUMATISM

CURED BY COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTERS

Messrs. Weeks & Potter, Gentlemen.—One year ago I was seized with a severe attack of rheumatism in my right hip, to which I was subject. I tried the various liniments and rheumatic cures, but without the least benefit, when my son, a druggist, suggested one of your COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTERS. The effect was almost magical, for, to my great surprise, I was almost immediately well again, and was able to work upon my farm as usual, whereas, before the application of the Plaster, I could do nothing, and every step gave me pain. A few weeks since, one year from the first attack, the disease returned, but I am happy to say the second Plaster proved as efficacious as the first, and I am now well. My wife wishes me to add that one Plaster has cured her of a very lame back. We think there is nothing in the world of remedies that can compare with the COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTERS for Rheumatism and Lame Back, and cheerfully recommend them to the suffering. Yours very respectfully, ORLAND, ME., June 6, 1876. ROBERT COTTON.

NOT A QUACK NOSTRUM. Gentlemen.—I hereby certify that for several years past I have used the VOLTAIC PLASTERS in my practice, and have never known them to fail in affording speedy relief in those cases for which they are recommended. They are not a quack nostrum, but a remedial agent of great value. Very truly yours, BUCKSPORT, ME., May 27, 1874. W. C. COLLINS, M. D.

PRICE 25 CENTS. Be careful to obtain COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER, a combination of Electric and Voltaic Plates, with a highly Medicated Plaster, as seen in the above cut. ## GANG & SULKY PLOWS.

IMPROVEMENTS are constantly being made in all kinds of labor saving machines, and more especially in farm implements, and farmers are learning that the saving of time and labor can best be accomplished by using the best implements manufactured. In this connection we wish to speak more particularly of the

made by Avery & Sons of Louisville, Ky., which we have recently examined at the sales-rooms of

J. W. LOWELL &amp; CO.,

of this city. About 60 of these plows have been sold by them in the last few weeks, probably a larger number than has ever before been sold in this Territory since its first settlement. Farmers are getting tired of being jerked and twitched around all day by following the old style of plows, and find that by using the

AVERY GANG OR SULKY PLOW,

which is a beauty to look at, as neatly built as a carriage and about as comfortable to ride on, they can do their plowing with comfort, and even a child can handle it and do a man's work. We do not wonder that scarcely any other style of GANG OR SULKY PLOWS are sold in this market, for the Avery is unquestionably the BEST manufactured, as hundreds of the leading farmers of Utah will testify.

We give below a letter from Mr. John Rouse, of Goshen, known as one of the Oldest settlers and leading farmers of this Territory, who has tested the AVERY PLOW and knows its merits.

GOSHEN, Utah,
Feb. 19, 1878.

J. W. Lowell &amp; Co.,

Gentlemen.—A twelve year old son of mine plowed 60 acres last fall with the Avery Gang and Sulky Plow, eight acres of which were plowed 12 inches deep and laid leveler and better than any other plowing I have seen since I left England; and I consider myself a judge of such work. My boy can handle the plow with ease. As for the draft, three horses can handle it readily in breaking with the sulky plow, and the same team is sufficient for the 12 inch gang plow in old land. I am well pleased with the plow, and do not know where it can be improved.

Yours respectfully,
JOHN ROUSE.
