AMERICAN.

thur was well received by the peo to give the clothes the appearance of follows: "James Abram Garfield, flowers. It passed Trenton, 61 Windom. The carriage, B ple, and seemed well pleased by the fitting. In addition to the natural born Nov. 19, 1831, died President of miles, at 11.48, and stopped at Bris- Mrs. Garfield and defoce reception accorded him. He was shrinking from his illness, the oper-the United States, September 19, tol for water. It passed West Phil. driven down Pennsylvan, A with President Arthur.

balmer has arrived, and the body of President: the President is being embalmed.

train shall leave here about ten messentric arteries adjoining the with a soldier at the head and foot of The entrance to the halls of the ison, and Law, Lieuts Alls o'clock to-morrow morning, and ar-track of the hall. The blood ruptur it. The coffin was black, with sil Senate and House are also tastefully Belden, Wainwright, Barrier and Silvers and about the spectful tone of the editorials served did not involve the substance of ed. His cheeks were gone, his brow the depot. The military were drawn the funeral procession mohe here, show that while Prest. Arthur the liver, and no communication had lost the massive appearance up against the east side of Sixth long up the avenue. A goes into office under a shadow of was found between it and the which characterized it in life. The Street, with the right resting on the sidewalks all the rel distrust, press and people are willing wound. Along the supperation as involuntary whispers of all as they Pennsylvania Avenue. Upon the Sixth Street to the east for and expect to suspend judgment, channel extended from the external gazed upon the loved form with a opposite side of the street, nearest Capitol, and along this ben

amount of respect.

designated for the President's funer- from the wound, which was sup he lived so long. As the crowd used was furnished by Undertaker scarcely a sound was hear to at as a day of public humiliation and posed during life to have been the slowly entered and left the hall, the spear of this city, and is known as from moving men and he are prayer. The Army and Navy track of the ball. On examination bell of the little chapel in the dis-little chapel in the dis League and Posts of the Grand of the organs of the chest, evidences tance was tolled. Its tones could be been awarded the prize at the Cen-by common impulse of denne Army of the Republic have taken of bronchitis were found, on both only faintly heard above the roar of tennial exhibition. It was drap- feigned grief, as the process action with other public bodies in sides, with bronchial pneumonia of the surf. the observance of the funeral cere-the lower portions of the right lung, ELBERON, 21.—Immediately after material, wholly unrelieved by east front vast crowds monies. Decorators have been busy and though much less extent of the the conclusion of the services, Mrs. any other color, and was drawn and congregated to view or all day, and the principal streets left. The lungs contained no ab Garfield, accompanied by her son by six iron gray horses, whose cortege. At the front of llo now present a succession of em-scess and the heart no clots. The Harry, Col. Swain, Col. and Mrs. trappings were also draped in som were a double file of Sen Va derstood that Prest. Arthur has de-found in any other organ except the left the cottage and boarded the first cleared by the police, and officers of the rotunda. As the hepar termined to go through to Cleve left kidney, which contained near coach; the Cabinet and their wives the army and navy, to the number procession, moving around procession, moving around procession. land with the cabinet.

placed about Francklyn Cottage for In reviewing the history of the veiled, and passing in the train, ex. train rolled slowly into the depot, being reversed and the blee the purpose of preserving order. case in connection with the autopsy, hillited the same fortitude which every head upon the platform was ling a dead march, an at Hundreds of people are arriving mo-leit is quite evident that different has characterized her manner uncovered, and a stillness as of the then given to carry arms on mentarily.

readiness to start. The entire train vertebræ, furnished sufficient ex. following composed the party on the been patiently waiting by the road came in view. As the h is heavily draped in mourning and planation of the septic condition train: Dr. Reyburn, Private Secre-side. Soon, Mrs. Garffeld, assisted line of carriages drew slowy presents a funeral appearance. which existed, Crowds of new arrivals surge into Signed: D. W. Bliss, J. K. Barnes, S. Young, John R. Vanwortley, the car, and taking his arm upon over the multitude and help the surrounding gounds. Every J. J. Woodward, R bt. Reyburn, F. Chief Clerk of the Post Office De ener left, she walked directly to the reverently uncovered as t movement on Ocean Avenue for H. Hamilton, D. H. Agnew, A. H. partment, Ridgley Hunt, son of the carriage in waiting. Her face was was carefully laid from the two blocks, in either direction, is smith, D. S. Lamb. blocked with vehicles. The large The antopsy of the President's son of the Postmaster-General, Jay black veil, which hung nearly to the up on a parallel line on eith pleted and notice given that all de-sembled at Elberon to hear the re-sother attendants with Mrs. Garfield upon her. She entered the State solemn tread the remainry siring may view the remains of the result. Bliss stated that the autopsy during her sojourn here carriage and was followed by here dent Garfield were borne G late Chief Magistrate. The line has had been very tedious and the time Just before the train was ready to daughter, Mollie Garfield, her son rotunda and placed upon ce formed and people are passing in occupied in searching for the ball start, the following left the Jersey Harry, Mrs. and Miss Rockwell. fa que. Senators and Res single file through the cottage. Two alone was nearly three quarters of state offices, accompanied by mem President Arthur leaned upon the tives then proceeded to rai sentinels are stationed at each side an hour. of the entrance door to pre Mrs. Garfield is feeling much guard of honor: Gov. George C. present, as also the Cabinet, physici of the coffin walked Presidentis vent more than one person entering relieved since the autopsy, inasmuch Ludlow, Major G. Mott, Adjutant-mans and attendants, and McVeagh's and Secretary Blaine, whold at a time. The casket is very as it resulted in establishing the General Wm. P. Stricker, Quarter wife and two sons. The first three lowed by Chief Justice Wg: unpretentious, being covered with fact that the patient's death was in master-General L. Perrine, General Carriages received the ladies of the Secretary Windom, General rich black cloth, and with the ex-evitable. The point of the ball was Willoughby Western, General Bird party who did not accompany the and MacVeagh, Kirkwood te ception of heavy silver mountings somewhat blunt, or of a battered and W. S. Spencer. is perfectly plain. The only decora-scondition, caused by the force with A few minutes before 10 o'clock, they had moved on a short distance swain, Corkin and Privator tion is a large V shaped sago palm, which it struck the rib, while in the casket was removed from the entrance, the coffin appear tary Brown. At 5.25 the a which extends from the foot of the other respects its original shape was cottage and placed in the third ed borne upon the shoulders of the coffin was opened, so thather the coffin was opened, so thather the coffin was opened, so thather the coffin was opened, so that the coffin was opened to the coffin was casket upwards. The remains are not altered. Bliss took charge o greath. The attendants and others Second Artillery, detailed from the late President could a lying in one of the rooms on the the bullet and sealed it up for pre swho accompanied the party went in Arsenal barracks. On the right, in Springfield, 21. - Secrets first floor of the cottage, and people servation until the courts should re-lithe fourth car. pass in at the east door, and, with quire its production.

At exactly 10 o'clock the train General Drum, were officers of the the funeral services will be a serviced with a serviced will be a ser out stopping, out at the west. The State of New Jersey has is started from the cottage, moving navy, under the lead of Rear Ad. Tuesday, at 2 p.m., at Chi appearance of the late President is sued a permit for the removal of the every slowly. The train reached El-miral Nichols. As the coffin was The Governor issued a process so changed that persons familiar body. with his natural countenance would Col. Corbin and W. F. Roose, up the road about a quarter of a stationed across the street, played God reigns, and the Gove scarcely recognize him.

The cars which are to be used for mains to night.

Francklyn Cottage.

New York, 20 .- Arthur, accom-same order as it was when the dles and thumb-screws of solid sil-the second car of the funeral train. places in the procession was panied by Col. Bliss, left at noon for President was brought to Elberon, ver. The coffin plate is of silver, Princeton Junction, 21. — The Arthur followed immedian Elberon, by special train.

The body is so greatly shrunk that and the inscription, written by Attrain passed at 11.35. The track was the hearse, and in his cawin Elderon, 20, 1.25.—President Ar-Partificial means had to be resorted to torney General MacVeagh, is as strewn 100 yards with beautiful Blaine, Chief Justice on met at the station by about 50 car-lation connected with the autopsy 1881." riages, which accompanied him to has left the body in an even more. A plaster cast was taken of his same distance was made by the train the residence of MacVey of Elberon.

Elberon.

Elberon.

A plaster cast was taken of his same distance was made by the train the residence of MacVey of Elberon.

Face yesterday, as well as of his taking him to Long Branch in 1.37 guests they are to be are

New York, 20.—Secretary Blaine Elberon, 20.—The following offi-right hand. In taking the cast of minutes. There were large crowds stay. As soon as the large crowds stay. As soon as the large crowds stay. arrived this morning and is now cial bulletin was prepared at 11 the hand, it was somewhat discolor- at the depot, who stood with hats off sidential party had enter the clock to night by the surgeons who led, so this hand will not be seen. many weeping. Elberon, 20, 2.15 p.m.—The em-shave been in attendance on the late. The effect of the off used on the face. Washington, 21. — The external sound, and the milline its surface a small abscess about followed and took seats in the second of 130, formed in single rank upon side, arrived at the easily An additional guard has been one-third of an inch in diameter. scoach. Mrs. Garfield was heavily the left, facing the train. As the the Capitol, arms of theme suppurating surfaces, and especially throughout. In addition to the im-grave pervaded the vast throng troops came to front face 88 The engine and coaches are now in the tractured spongy tissue of the mediate members of the amily, the which, for more than an hour, had the music of the drums by t gathering is composed of all classes, body commenced about five o'clock Stone, Private Secretary to Secretary and is very quiet and appreciative. and was not concluded until nearly tary Lincoln, ex-Sheriff Doggett, A. may have experienced, was sacred played again with much sad Arrangements have just been com leight. A large crowd of persons as Brooklyn, Col. D. C. Corbin and from the sight of those who gazed Nearer My God to Theeme prior to taking the cast, disfigured mourning emblems at the Capitol formed in line, and the stafe By previous arrangements a post the features somewhat, and slightly are not very elaborate or profuse, but procession started on itself Long Branch, 20. - MacVeagh mortem examination of the body of altered the color of the face, so the are arranged in perfect taste, and Capitol in the following ted Who managed the removal of the re- President Carfield was made this appearance is much less natural, the black drapery, contrasted with Platoon of mounted mains from Long Branch to Wash afternoon in the presence and with even, than it was just after death. the white marble of the edifice, ral Ayers and mounted even ington, says the Pennsylvania Rail. the assistance of Drs. Hamfiton, Ag. The President had a massive head, form a spectacle of sombre beauty ington Light Infantry, Is sen road will send four coaches here to new, Bliss, Barnes, Woodward, and the large bones show very pro- rarely equalled. The rotunda is Union Veteran corps of local be used on the occasion. The train Reyburn, Andrew H. Smith, of El-minently. The cheeks are fallen in heavily draped almost to the top, and Rifles, Washington Link bea to be made up as follows: First car, beron, and Acting Assistant Surge. The beard has been so arranged about the guilt frames of historical paint- United States marine has been so arranged about the guilt frames of historical paint- United States marine has been so arranged about the guilt frames of historical paint- United States marine has been so arranged about the guilt frames of historical paint- United States marine has been so arranged about the guilt frames of historical paint- United States marine has been so arranged about the guilt frames of historical paint- United States marine has been so arranged about the guilt frames of historical paint- United States marine has been so arranged about the guilt frames of historical paint- United States marine has been so arranged about the guilt frames of historical paint- United States marine has been so arranged about the guilt frames of historical paint- United States marine has been so arranged about the guilt frames of historical paint- United States marine has been so arranged about the guilt frames of historical paint- United States marine has been so arranged about the guilt frames of historical paint- United States marine has been so arranged about the guilt frames of historical paint- United States marine has been so arranged about the guilt frames of historical paint- United States marine has been so arranged about the guilt frames of historical paint- United States marine has been so arranged about the guilt frames of historical paint- United States marine has been so arranged about the guilt frames of historical paint- United States marine has been so arranged about the guilt frames of historical paint- United States marine has been so arranged about the guilt frames of historical paint- United States marine has been so arranged about the guilt frames of historical paint- United States marine has been so arranged about the guilt frames of historical paint- united States marine has been so arranged about the guilt frames of historical paint- united baggage; second car remains of the on D. S. Lamb, of the paroted gland as to conceal that lings are closely covered with crape. Edr. im corps of fifty men. President and ascort; third car, Mrs. Museum of Washington. The oper scar, and such arrangements have The catafalque, in the centre of the ment of United State perso Garfield and family; fourth car, ation was performed by Dr. Lamb. been made about the pillow as to rotunda, although simple and plain, United States artiller cabinet and surgeons. The train It was found the ball after fractur still further conceal the swelling by the wish of the four companies of heartfell will take the same riute as when ing the right eleventh rib had pass- which snapped away his life. The finest material and very handsome. and one light battery and lake ed through the spinal column in undertaker says in his opinion it will. The case is twelve by six and one sington and Columbia on s No stops will be made except for front of the spinal canal, fracturing not be safe to expose the body after half feet and eight inches high, the Knights Templars when water. No correspondents accom the body of the first lumber verte it leaves here. The effects of the covered with heavy black cloth. On ed. The hear e was flanked pany the train. It is the desire of bra, driving a number of small frag lifluids in embalming are such as to this is the upper portion eight feet side by a single line of a lift. those managing the arrangements ments of bone into the adjacent soft have already hardened the features. long by two and one half feet wide among them Generals Inton for removal, that the train shall be parts and lodging just below the A number of journalists who have at the top and two feet high. It in lett Poe, Dodge run either in advance or after the pancreas, about two inches and a been so closely watching the Presi creases gradually in size to the base. Ruggles, Breck, Col. sen President's special, for observation half to the left of the spine and be dent's case all these weary weeks, This portion is covered with black about fifty others, and led or other purposes. The special trainghind the peritoneum where it had were given an opportunity for a first cloth in vertical folds with large miral Nichols, Commodor will be run slowly, and all through become completely encysted. The view of the body. Staties stood at silk bows at the corners and heavy and S. J. Hay, Director and S. J. Ha trains will be laid over for it to pass. simmediate cause of death was sec- each side of the entrance. The coffin silk fringed edges. Silver mouldings De Kay and Captain C. The present intention is that the ondary hemorrage from one of the lay in the hall-way of the lower floor, at the top complete the catafalque. Commanders Howell, M. Owi rive in Washington between four or ing the peritoneum and nearly a ver handles, black rods ran along draped in mourning. five p.m. After lying in state in pint escaping into the abdominal the sides, and upon the top was a Vast throngs of people assembled of the navy. After the the rotunda of the Capitol on Thurs cavity. This hemorrage is believed silver plate. The coffin was lined about the depot to do honor to the carriage of President day and Friday, the remains will be to have been the cause of the severe with white satin. Only the face illustrious dead, every avenue and with mounted police on taken charge of by the Pennsylva- pain in the lower part of the chest and shoulders were visible, and one approach being densely packed with and following it were a nia railroad, and be conveyed direct complained of just before death. An needed to know that all that remain citizens. A large force of police are other carriages with the main. to Pittsburg, thence to Cleveland abscess cavity, six inches by four in ed of James A. Garfield lay there to con duty. The immediate approach the Cabinet and others with It is proposed that the coroner's in dimensions, was found in the vicin- recall the features so familiar during es to the depot were roped off and companied the remains I Ja quest on the President's remains be ity of the gall bladder, between the life. The face to those who knew closed against all save those particieron. A platoon of mounts abandone by the local authorities. liver and transverse colon, which General Garfield only from his por- pating in the ceremonies, or who brought up the rear. With Chicago, 20.—The fair and re were strongly inter-adherent. It traits, could not have been recognized admission into drums and a solemn furie and meantime accord him a full wound between the loin muscles and shudder was, "I never should have the depot, was a long line of car the route the crowd was a the right kidney, almost to the right recognized him; how he must have riages, preceded by the hearse, which as great as upon the occasion Governor Perkins has issued a groin. This channel is now known suffered." The emaciated form told was drawn up directly at the main President's inaugural processor proclamation appointing the day to be due to the burrowing of pur how much. It was most marvelous gate on Sixth Street. The hearse the procession moved uptifie bers of the Legislature, and acted as arm of Senator Jones. Grant was selves on each side. Closh beron station at 10.12 a. m., and ran borne to the hearse, a marine band, seulogistic f Garfield, rejoich members of the Christian Church, mile from the station where it halt- Nearer my God to Thee, while every at Washington still lives," 9 a.m.-Church bells are tolling, Washington, which the late Presi med. To this point the special train head was bowed and many eyes commending the people to the and the crowd continues to increase. dent attended, will sit with the re which brought President Arthur were dimmed with tears by the at their places of worship were and General Grant from New York strains of the sweetly familiar hymn sfuneral services are being the funeral train has just run up to Long Branch, 21 .- The President was run, and guards were statio ed. The hush that had fallen upon the Cleveland and hold fitting was run, and guards were statio ed. will be dressed in the same suit of in the vicinity to preventannoyance scene, and the grief shown upon The Governor sent condole The President's left hand is laid clothes he wore on delivering his in- frow the crowds, there being from thousands of faces was a picture with Mrs. Garfield, and a dispatch across his breast, after the manner augural address, with the exception 500 to 600 people in the immediate shadings that years chisin he had in life. This was done in of a pair of silk stockings knit for neighborhood. As soon as President from memory. Many on it order to make his resemblance as him by his mother, and lately re Arthur's train was stopped along the bier of the dead Procisnear to life as possible. Nobody ceived. The coffin is six feet three side the train which bore the residence the coffin had been platice will be allowed to enter the death nches long, covered with black mains, the President and General hearse. The remainder President chamber, which has been put in the cloth, with velvet mouldings, han-Grant stepped across and entered entered their carriage d.

adelphia. Time, 1.52 minutes. The to Sixty-first Street, and arr ed in black, of rich and heavy ed on towards the Capitol Sl liver was enlarged and fatty, but Rockwell, Miss Mollie Garfield and bre black. Just before the train en Representatives, waiting h ELBERON, 21, 8.30 a. m.-It is un-lifree from abscesses, nor were any Miss Rockwell, and Dr. Boynton, tered the depot, the platform was ful silence to escort the reful tary Brown, Executive Clerk Brown by Secretary Blaine, descended from front of the escort, a line Secretary of the Navy, C. J. James, completely concealed by a heavy Officers of the army and the procession to the capital. After master-General James, Nu single file, and headed by Adjutant coln telegraphed the Govered riages, a signal was give 16 y

ton and Sibree and about