EVENING NEWS.

Saturday, - November 4, 1876.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Maine Hospitality—Cold and Infidel Massachusetts — Free-Love Doctrines.

LAWRENCE, MASS.,
October 23, 1876.

Editor Deseret News:

I completed my six weeks tour through Maine and arrived in Boston per steamer on the morning of the 18th inst.

I have in memory many pleasant reminiscences of those weeks spent in the "Pine State," and shall hereafter deem them the most pleasant, on the whole, that I have yet experienced on my mission. On many occasions, during my tour through the State, were the providences of God manifested in my behalf. The people of almost every town and village that I entered seemed moved upon by the Holy Ghost to pay me the respect they deemed due to one who came to them in the name of the Most High. They would, on learning my calling and from whence I came, solicit me, often urgently, to address them, and when I would make an appointment the news would seem to spread on the wings of the wind, and my meetings would generally be crowded with people from all parts within miles of the meeting. At such times the Spirit of God would seem to meet with us, and I would be so blessed with it as to be enabled to lay before the people the principles of eternal life in a manner calculated to make a good impression upon those who listened. In prosecuting my labors in the backwoods regions, I was frequently obliged to take long journeys on foot, and when overtaken by nightfall, to test the hospitality of some settler. I was invariably well received, and never met with an unkind repulse during my stay in the State.

My experience in Maine is in strong contrast with my experience in Massachusetts. In the latter State a dull, apathetic feeling in regard to religious matters pervades the minds of the people. It is not exactly bigotry, or even prejudice altogether, though both abound; but I fear it may be worse than either, or at least as bad. False systems of philosophy are being promulgated in this "modern Greece," as the State is called. The people are "giving heed to doctrines of devils," or are, perhaps more frequently, utterly repudiating all shades of religious belief and philosophy, dedicating themselves, with might, mind and strength, to the accumulation of worldly goods and the gratification of carnality.

For years Victoria Woodhull has sought admission into the halls of Boston, where she might present, in lectures, her peculiar doctrines, but she did not succeed till the evening of the 2d inst., when she lectured in Paine Memorial Hall, a building erected in honor of Tom Paine. The hall was densely thronged, fully one thousand persons being present, at one dollar each for admission, and three thousand who tried to get in were turned away, so Boston papers say. The occasion was a perfect ovation to Victoria. She is no doubt eloquent, and the great audience listened eagerly or applauded rapturously as she proceeded with her discourse, which was in advocacy and defense of freeloveism. The occasion is deemed by all one of great triumph for Victoria. In reference to the class of people who composed her audience, it is said that there were present physicians, literary people, merchants, editors, lawyers and professional people, that, in fact, the audience was mostly composed of such, about as many females as males being present. This incident is an important one in the moral history of New England, or, perhaps more properly speaking, in the history of its morals. Since her debut in Boston, Victoria Woodhull has lectured in other leading New England cities, and her career is almost a continuous ovation.

It is an awful sight to see thousands of the most intelligent, most learned, most highly civilized generation that ever lived upon the earth, entertaining the thought that marriage is an unholy institution, which, with all marriage laws and restrictions, should be abolished, and that the sexes should be free and untrammelled in their sexual relations. But such is the sight that this nation presents before God to-day. And where will it end, and what will the consequences be?

Your Brother in the Gospel,
B. F. CUMMINGS, Jun.

Ratification Meeting

ST. GEORGE, Oct. 27, 1876.

Editor Deseret News:

If convenient please insert the following—

A meeting of the citizens of St. George was held in the Court House in St. George, October 24th, 1876, at 7 p. m., to ratify the nomination of the Hon. George Q. Cannon as Delegate to Congress, M. P. Romney, chairman of the Washington County Central Committee, presiding.

Prayer by Elder D. H. Cannon.

The chairman stated the object of the meeting to be to take action in relation to ratifying the nomination of the Hon. George Q. Cannon as Delegate to Congress.

Moved and seconded that the action of the Territorial Convention in nominating Hon. George Q. Cannon as Delegate to Congress, be and is hereby ratified and approved of by the citizens of St. George, and that they agree to vote for said candidate at the coming November election.

Stirring and patriotic addresses were delivered by Judge William Snow and Jno. D. T. McAllister, Ute Perkins, James Harvey and A. F. Macdonald, Esqs., after which the motion was unanimously sustained.

The laws on voting were then read by the Secretary.

Moved, seconded, and carried that the resolutions of the Territorial Convention, instructing the Delegate to Congress, be sustained by the meeting.

A vote of thanks was voted to the martial band.

Moved, seconded, and carried that copies of the proceedings of this meeting be forwarded to the DESERET NEWS and Salt Lake Herald.

Benediction by Judge William Snow.

HENRY EYRING,
Secretary Washington County, Central Committee.

WHO ARE LEGAL VOTERS IN UTAH?

MALE citizens of the United States, above the age of 21 years, who have been constant residents in the Territory during the six months next preceding the election, and who are tax-payers in the Territory.

Female citizens who are above the age of 21 years, and have resided in the Territory six months next preceding any general or special election. They are not required by law to be tax-payers.

Citizens in the United States navy, whose permanent domiciles for six months have been in the Territory, who have been constant residents in the Territory during the six months next preceding the election, and who are tax-payers in the Territory.

Citizens in or subject to the United States army, whose homes and places of residence were in the Territory at the time they engaged in the service, who have been constant residents in the Territory during the six months next preceding the election, and who are tax-payers in the Territory.

Thus all voters, male and female, must be citizens of the United States, over 21 years of age, and constant residents in the Territory during the six months next preceding the election.

All male voters must be tax-payers in the Territory.

The following persons are citizens, unless they have forfeited their citizenship for cause—

All persons born in the United States and not subject to any foreign power, Indians not taxed excluded.

Children, born out of the United States, whose fathers were citizens at the time of the birth of the children, unless the fathers never resided in the United States.

Alien women married to citizens, which women themselves might lawfully be naturalized.

Alien men and women who have been naturalized.

ADDRESS TO VOTERS.

HEADQUARTERS PEOPLE'S PERRITORIAL CENTRAL COMMITTEE,
SALT LAKE CITY,
October 28th, 1876.

To the People of Utah:

Tuesday, November 7th, 1876, is the day fixed by law for the qualified voters of this Territory to express their will in the election of a delegate to the Forty-fifth Congress of the United States. It is important that upon that day all voters should repair to the polling places in the precincts where they reside and deposit their ballots for the man whom they desire to fill that position. George Q. Cannon has been nominated as Delegate to Congress by the unanimous vote of the People's Territorial Convention, composed of representatives from every county in the Territory. He is the choice of the people. You know him, and we are therefore relieved from the necessity of enumerating his qualifications for the position. You know that in him we have a representative man who has been thoroughly identified with this country since the first year of its settlement and who has served honorably and faithfully, and with credit to his constituents and himself, as delegate in the Forty-third and Forty-fourth Congresses.

Many voters have felt so secure of the result of our elections in times past that they have been careless about voting. If it did not happen to be perfectly convenient for them to go to the polls at the proper time, they would neglect to vote, feeling quite satisfied that the men of their choice would certainly be elected. The time has now come when indifference should be replaced by active interest, not that there is any danger of the result, but we owe it to ourselves to faithfully exercise the elective franchise and show the nation our political strength. Besides, we have unscrupulous foes to contend with who are constantly plotting to get the control of the affairs of the Territory into their hands. They call themselves "liberals." Their liberality consists of continual assaults upon the rights of the bulk of the people of the Territory, of persistent efforts to strip them of every privilege of citizenship and of the most desperate attempts to get themselves into places of emolument and power. To accomplish these ends they have recourse to every kind of dishonorable means. They fabricate the most atrocious lies; they circulate the most abominable slanders; they aim to destroy the reputation of an entire people; they adopt falsehood as their platform and use misrepresentation as their weapon; they denounce the "Mormons" as either imbeciles or monsters; and the "Gentiles," who do not join them, they stigmatize as traitors and "Jack Mormons;" through their libelous organ they whip every federal official remorselessly into line, or, if he fears their lash and yet has too much self-respect to abase himself, they drive him from the Territory. Professing to be "liberal," they use the most odious tyranny. While protesting hatred of the "rule of priesthood," and constantly crying out against its influence, as restrictive of the free agency of the citizen, they ostracise and place under ban every one who does not bow to their mandates.

For several years this party has sought to gain the ascendency in Utah. No better illustration of its contempt for the rights of the people need be given than the fact that one of its candidates for Delegate to Congress, who only received 108 vostes, contested the election of the delegate elect, who had received over 12,000 votes. The ground of contest was that he was a "liberal" and the votes he had received were "liberal" votes, while the sitting delegate was a "Mormon" and had received "Mormon" votes, and therefore he claimed the seat! Still proceeding upon the same frivolous assumption, its candidates for the same position have since that time entered upon three different contests before Congress for the seats of the delegates elect. And yet this party, with such a record, prates about its respect for law, its regard for the constitution, the sacredness of the rights of American citizens, and the high esteem it entertains for the expression of the people's will through the ballot-box.

We have no fears that any man or woman of sense and experience will be deceived by its pretensions. But its members and candidate would have you believe they are your true friends, that they have your welfare at heart, that if they could control the Territory you and it would prosper; that the civilizing agencies they have introduced into your midst are those which you most need. Their regard for the people of Utah is like that of Joab for Amasa, when he asked him, "Art thou in health, my brother?" and took hold of him as if to kiss him, while he ran his sword into his ribs.

If any single one of the many bills which these "liberals" have framed here and sent to Congress to be introduced there had become law in the form in which it was sent, the citizens of this Territory who are Latter-day Saints would have been placed in a condition more terrible than slavery. To get these bills made into law they have spared neither time nor means. For years they have not allowed a session of Congress to pass without having a delegation at Washington to urge their passage. Their most unscrupulous, adroit and rancorous members have been selected as their representatives. In no single instance, we judge, have these men failed to exhibit the qualities which suggested their selection. Their imaginations were most fruitful and, as we are informed, ghastly tales of robbery, brigandage, outrage and murder, alleged to have been committed by the people of Utah, were "liberally" related. Their principal characteristic (as indeed is that of the party) has been their economy of truth. Who can believe or have confidence in such a party? Its record is one continuous list of outrages upon the rights of the people. There have been pollution in its touch and contagion in its presence. To attain its ends it has trampled upon and defied the law, encouraged and given aid to lawbreakers, fostered and protected vice and stopped at no foulness. If it could secure control of our Territory, what a fate would be ours! This, however, will never be while the people of the Territory are true to themselves and to the principles of true liberty.

In contradistinction to these "liberals," there is a class of people in this Territory, honorable citizens, who, though not "Mormons," have never been in sympathy with this so-called "liberal party" in their attacks upon the majority of the people of Utah. The hatred of that party to them has been as intense, overbearing and arrogant as if they were "Mormons." They have used every means to coerce them to join their ranks, but many of this class, having large interests here, have always ignored their violence and been opposed to the transfer of the government of the Territory into their hands. These people came here to transact business, to make money, not to wage war upon the pioneers; and they have been willing to live and let live. Their independence is most commendable.

Our Territory has grown to be the most populous, prosperous and important one in the republic. It has, in fact, outgrown all the conditions of territorial existence, and possesses in a larger degree than two, if not three, of the States, all the elements necessary for sovereignty. Every citizen of Utah can speak with pleasure of her light taxes, her freedom from every kind of public debt, her low percentage of illiteracy, her cultivated farms and fruitful orchards, her growing manufactures, her railroads and telegraph lines. Under the management of the officers heretofore chosen by the people she has attained a prosperity that is not excelled by any part of our country. The people should not fail to preserve by their votes what they have earned by their industry.

On Tuesday, November 7th, every qualified voter should exercise the right to vote. Do not suffer threats, abuse or trickery to deter you from being at the proper polling place on that day. An All-wise Providence led us to this country, has preserved us here, and has helped us to secure our rights; let us take the proper steps to still further maintain them, and always remember that "ETERNAL VIGILANCE IS THE PRICE OF LIBERTY!"

By the People's Territorial Central Committee.

JOHN SHARP, Chairman.
THEODORE MCKEAN,
Secretary.

F. AUERBACH & BRO.

TO CALIFORNIA.

We don't give this for an ad. vertisement, but it is very strongly rumored that Cedar Rapids is to be the half-way station between Chicago and Council Bluffs.

If this is to be, and some experiments have been made to that end, we suppose it is on account of the superior condition of the road. A trip on the "steel rails" and well ballasted road, is not any more now, if as much, wear and tear on the employes and machinery to a train, from Chicago to Cedar Rapids, 218 miles, as it was on the iron rails from Chicago to Clinton, 140 miles, in the olden time.

It is not necessary for us to say that the C. & N. W. R'y is a first class road in every particular, that it rides as easy as sitting in a "rocking chair," that its coaches are parlors, that its employes are the most polite and affable gentlemen the traveling public can meet or will meet in a lifetime of travel—the esprit de corps of the employes, if we may so say, is at a high standard: we say we need not say this in a newspaper, it is self evident to every traveler on the road. But in the future these are to be increased; we suppose the speed will be increased, if possible, the superb trains will be more superb; there is to be no train more complete, either for comfort or safety, leave the world's commercial metropolis for the GOLDEN GATE, THAN THE GREAT TRAINS ON THE CHICAGO & NORTH-WESTERN RAILWAY—THE ONLY COMPANY RUNNING OUT OF CHICAGO THAT HAS A ROAD SO RELIABLE THAT THEY ARE NOT AFRAID TO RUN AT ANY SPEED CAPABLE OF BEING ATTAINED BY ENGINES OF THE MOST IMPROVED CONSTRUCTION, RUN WITH THE HAND OF IRON NERVE, AND A HEAD OF BRAINS, WITHOUT ANY FEAR OF ACCIDENT OR INCONVENIENCE.

Every employe on the road feels a personal interest in the North-Western Railway; it's the "eclipse" road in the West, and so far as anything he can do it will continue so to be.

THIS IS THE TRANS-CONTINENTAL LINK FROM THE GREAT LAKES TO THE GREAT MISSOURI RIVER.

The old time traveler speaks in high glee of the "ease and comfort" of these days of steel in contrast with the pioneer days of this pioneer road in the days of iron. The comforts of travel on the North-West ern Railway are in every traveler's mouth from the Atlantic to the Pacific. It must be a great compliment to the efficient management, and that is the reason every officer or employe is so happy and obliging.

It is with pride we mention these things, and join the general shout along the line, Hurrah for the "OLD RELIABLE"—Cedar Rapids Republican, Aug. 14, 1876.

$50 to $5000 Invested in Stock privileges, often leads to fortune.
