

GREAT WELCOME GIVEN ALVA ADAMS

His Home Town Accorded Him a Most Enthusiastic and Popular Demonstration.

ISSUES ADDRESS TO PEOPLE.

He Reviews in Scathing Terms The Conspiracy by Which He Was Unseated.

Pueblo, Colo., March 19.—Former Gov. Alva Adams was welcomed home this afternoon by one of the largest and most enthusiastic popular demonstrations ever accorded to a man in this city's history. The streets around the union depot and extending for blocks in all directions were one mass of humanity.

The train bearing the governor was on schedule time and at his first appearance on the platform of the car a mighty shout went up from the assembled throng. He was escorted to a stand in front of the union station, where he delivered a short address. He spoke as follows:

"It is impossible for me to express what is in my heart on this day as a result of the great ovation you have given me.

"You have made this day for me one of the proudest in my life, and one that I will remember forever.
"I come home to you defeated, but my hands are clean. I want to say that I did my duty as best I could, and I feel at this hour that I would rather be robbed than to rob. While here I want to pay a tribute to those who stood by me during this contest, not as Democrats or Republicans, but as citizens of this state in justice, right-in upholding the laws, constitution and the ballot of the people.

"I wish to say that robbery bears no political brand, but bears the brand of pirates, and no honest citizen will uphold this kind of a robbery.
"I do not feel the wrong that has been done me. It is not such a wrong to me as it is to you, and I hope to see the hour when retribution will come down on those men of Colorado who are controlled by corporations and serve those corporations as their masters.

"This is not a political question, but a question of preservation of the laws of this state and of duty.

"I have no regrets. I would rather stand in the hearts of the people as I am today than to stand under the capitol dome of any state of the United States as chief executive. I thank you from my heart for this reception."

After his address the governor, accompanied by his wife, entered their carriage, which had been almost filled with flowers by their admirers, and the carriage, drawn by about a hundred enthusiastic citizens, headed by a brass band, proceeded to the governor's home. The route through the streets was a continuous ovation, and when he reached home there was a crowd of intimate friends and neighbors to welcome him. To this gathering he made

SUPERIOR MERIT.

Remarkable Curative Properties of a Remedy for Indigestion and Stomach Troubles.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, a preparation for the cure of dyspepsia and the various forms of indigestion and stomach trouble, owes its great success to a cure for those troubles to the fact that it is prepared for disease and weakness of the stomach and digestive organs only, and is not recommended or advised for any other disease.
It is not a cure-all, but for any stomach trouble it is undoubtedly the safe-est, most sensible remedy that can be advised with the prospect of a permanent cure. It is prepared in tablet form, pleasant to taste, composed of vegetable and fruit essences, pure pepsin and Golden Seal, every one of which act effectively in digesting the food eaten, thereby resting and invigorating the weak stomach, rest is nature's cure for any disease, but you cannot rest the stomach unless you put into it something that will do its work or assist in the digestion of food.

That is exactly what Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do, one grain of the digestive principle contained in them will digest 3,000 grains of meat, eggs or similar wholesome foods, they will digest the food whether the stomach is in working order or not, thereby nourishing the body and resting the stomach at the same time, and rest and nourishment is nature's cure for any weakness.
In persons run down in flesh and appetite these tablets build up the strength and increase flesh, because they digest food-forming food, which the weak stomach cannot do, they increase the flow of gastric juice and prevent fermentation, acidity and sour watery risings.
Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets can be found at all drug stores at 50 cents per package.

a short speech of thanks for their welcome.

ADAMS TO THE PEOPLE.

Denver, March 18.—Ex-Gov. Alva Adams, who was ousted from office by the general assembly, issued an address "to the people of Colorado" tonight. It consists of about 2,500 words, and reviews in scathing terms the various steps in the contest by means of which he was unseated. Following are extracts from the address:
"Folled in their attempt to override the constitution and hold Peabody in his seat, a fake contest was inaugurated. This failed of all purpose, as enough Republican members would not forfeit their manhood by voting for a man that the testimony, as well as the election returns, said was not elected. It was clear that Peabody could not be seated. A new scheme must be devised, so that certain of Christiana utility statesmen—Hoar, Shedy, Chapman and Evans—met in majestic building Wednesday evening and gave birth to the last play in the ignoble conspiracy of stealing the governor-ship. Representatives of the anti-Peabody Republicans were invited. A resignation of Peabody was offered, and the voucher of the political purity quartet was given that it was genuine, and that he would abide by it. A man who had held the great office of governor so debased himself as to promise to resign at command if they would seat him but for a day. This resignation is a confession that he was not elected, and one that an honest man honestly elected would rather die than give."

"We expected fair play; instead, the majority of the legislature has bowed to the dictates of corporations who had selfish need of the governorship.

"The greatest anarchists, and the most dangerous, are often the no-party, no-conscience heads of great corporations, who use the money and influence coming from the franchise and privileges that are the gifts of the people, to control legislation, to dictate the personnel of courts and officials, to corrupt the ballot.

"The 600,000 Democrats and Republicans in Colorado are honest. They stand amazed at the crime committed by their representatives and they ardently wait the hour and the day when they can rebuke the crime and those responsible for it.

"A legislature cannot repeal the de-calogue. A majority cannot make stealing respectable.

"Integrity is the polar star in the moral firmament, and the state or individual that does not sail by it will come to wreck.
"Had this contest been tried upon merit and evidence it would have been dismissed at the feet of the contesting phantom testimony. Faith in a two-thirds' partisan majority was all that kept it alive. No honest cause should resort to the means employed. Their overwhelming political majority was a guarantee that had their case been half way fair and decent there would have been no need to employ money, corruption, bribery, no occasion to threaten Republican members with social ostracism, business ruin, political oblivion, or to present tricky resignations.

"It was a dishonorable victory, dishonorably won. Let those responsible look over the cost in cash and in deed and see if they dare give the account to the public eye.

"I want to stand an honest man before the people of Colorado. Better a hundred times a private citizen than to hold the highest office by such a title.
The stolen presidency added no luster to Rutherford B. Hayes. A stolen governorship will bring only reproach and disaster to Colorado and Republicanism. The theft is to the thief and comes back most to him.

"ALVA ADAMS."

DEMOCRATS TO PROTEST.
Denver, Colo., March 18.—The Democratic members of the Colorado general assembly are preparing a protest against the action of the majority of that body in deciding the gubernatorial contest in favor of James H. Peabody, the contestor, after he had agreed to resign and permit Lieut.-Gov. Jesse F.

McDonald to become governor. The protest will allege that the seating of Peabody when it was known that his resignation had been placed in the hands of W. S. Boynton, to be filed within 24 hours after his inauguration, was illegal, and that, therefore, Gov. McDonald is not entitled to his seat. The protest will be filed when the joint convention meets next Tuesday to receive the report of the committee appointed to investigate Senator Morgan's bribery charges.

BALLOONIST KILLED.

Parachute Failed to Work and He Was Smashed to a Pulp.

Wallace, Ida., March 19.—W. A. Mid-delkorf was killed and L. M. Odell seriously injured by falling 200 feet from a balloon while giving a double ascension here this afternoon. Both men were seated in parachutes and when they had ascended 200 feet the lower part of the balloon tore away. The parachutes failed to open and both fell among the spectators with terrific force. A young boy was caught by the falling balloon and badly burned. Mid-delkorf had nearly every bone in his body broken, while Odell had none. The latter is injured internally.

A. J. SMITH ARRESTED.

For Killing of James Roebuck in Alabama.

Villalia, Cal., March 19.—A. J. Smith of DeKalb county, Ala., was arrested near this city today by Sheriff Collins for the killing of James Roebuck on Dec. 27, 1904, in Alabama. Smith admits that he shot Roebuck, but claims the deed was done in self defense. He also admits that he has eluded the officers, but claims he is willing and anxious to go back to Alabama for trial.
The shooting was caused by a dispute over the ownership of a pile of manure.

CROW RESERVATION.

Homesteads on It to Be Limited To Eighty Acres.

Butte, Mont., March 18.—A Billings special to the Post says that the announcement is made here that it has been practically settled by the department of the interior to limit homesteads on the Crow Indian reservation, when thrown open to settlement, to 80 acres, and it is expected that the secretary of the interior will issue an order to that effect within a short time.

NO PLOT TO ASSASSINATE.

Such Verdict in the Neva Blessing Salute Case.

St. Petersburg, March 18.—The verdict of the court martial which tried the officers and men of several batteries of artillery, from one of which a shell was fired during the blessing of the waters of the Neva on Jan. 19, scattering missiles in the vicinity of the imperial pavilion, was announced today. Capt.
Davitoff and Sub-Lieut. Kurzeff, of the Seventeenth battery, First regiment horse artillery of the guard, were found guilty of neglect of duty and sentenced to be dismissed from the army and to imprisonment in a fortress, Davitoff to a year and a half, and Kurzeff to a year and five months. Sub-Lieut. Roth, Jr., was sentenced to imprisonment for a year and four months. Lieut. Roth, Sr., to retention in quarters for three months, and two gunners to detention with disciplinary battalions for two years. Lieut. Col. Polovozoff and Gunner Patrikeff were acquitted.

The court found there was no connection on the part of any one of those on trial with a plot to assassinate the emperor.

TWENTY-FOUR MEN DEAD IN TWO MINES

Ten Were Killed in First Explosion; Others, Rescuers, in A Second One

FIRST SHOOK THE MOUNTAINS.

Second One Caused by Rescuers Going Ahead Too Rapidly, Carrying a Naked Light.

Charleston, W. Va., March 18.—As a result of the horrible explosion in the Rush Run and Red Ash mines near Thurmond last night, 24 men now lie dead in the two mines.

Ten of these were killed in the explosion Saturday night and the other 14 were a rescuing party who entered the mine this morning to take from the mines the bodies of their fellow workmen. These latter were killed by a second explosion, and the aftermath.

The first explosion seemed to shake the foundation of the mountains and the angry twin flash from the two neighboring drift mouths lighted up the heavens for miles around. Soon from the mining villages for several miles up and down the river hundreds of people rushed to the scene of the disaster.
The first explosion was caused by a naked flame coming in contact with the gas. The flames leaped from the drift mouth and set fire to everything in the mines which was not blown out by the force of the explosion.

The great drum by which the cars are run from the drift mouth down the incline to the tipples and the empties drawn up was blown from its mooring and down the incline, side 600 feet, and the drumhouse caught fire and was totally destroyed.

The cars that stood at the mouth of the mine were blown far down toward the tipples, and much of the track of the incline was destroyed, the rails twisted and the cross-ties whipped from their beds in the ballast and sent, scorched and charring, many yards away.
A rescue party was formed and about 20 men entered the mine in search of the bodies of those who had perished at the first explosion. The men explored the mine for two or three hours, putting up brattices so that pure air should follow them wherever they went.

Finally some of them came out and reported that the others were too careless in going forward, carrying at the air was being supplied, carrying at the same time a naked light. At 3:45 another awful explosion occurred, caused by the gas coming in contact with the naked flame of a miner's lamp, and 14 men perished.

Mine Inspector Edward Pinckney arrived on the ground today and took charge of the rescue work. The second explosion again damaged the fan, and Mr. Pinckney will allow no one to enter the mine until it is working properly and a draft of fresh air is running through the mine. When this is done he will lead the rescue squad himself.

TOM FITCH SAYS MORMONISM IS NO MENACE TO THE NATION

Washington, March 18.—Mormonism found an advocate here in the person of Thomas Fitch, former member of Congress from Nevada, and now practicing law at Lewiston, Ida., who said in an interview in the Washington Post today:

"There is not the slightest peril in Mormonism to American institutions.
The Mormons have extensive colonies now in several states, but it is a fact that during the last 35 years they have failed to make a single convert from the ranks of American gentiles, either in Utah, Wyoming, Idaho, California or anywhere else. This does not look as though the American people were being given over to a pernicious religion.
It is true that they have made many converts from European countries, and nearly always from a class of people to whom marriage of any kind was a distinct improvement, and religious practices of any sort a moral growth. These Mormon converts, however, were trained in the ways of sobriety, thrift and industry and their children and grandchildren are among the best and most enlightened citizens. In Idaho there are probably 100 cases of polygamy, but no new plural marriages are being celebrated. An endeavor to make it a political issue last year was a flat failure, for the voters, understanding that it was a partisan scheme, and that no real remedy was contemplated by the anti-Mormon crusaders, went to the polls and deposited their ballots as though no agitation had been conducted."

PAUL JONES' REMAINS.

Search for Them Goes on Without Interruption.

Paris, March 19.—The adjournment of Congress without making an appropriation for the recovery of the remains of Paul Jones has not interrupted the search. Ambassador Porter has in-officially conducted the search for the last six years, personally meeting the expense. After determining that the body was buried in St. Louis cemetery, the ambassador purchased the right to make the necessary excavations, running subterranean galleries under the buildings. This has already resulted in the exploration of a quarter of the cemetery. Although it is possible the coffin may have been surreptitiously removed, it is the ambassador's intention to explore thoroughly every portion of the cemetery, so as to procure either the remains or forever settle the question of their recovery.

INTERBOROUGH STRIKE.

Engineers Not Involved in it to Be Cared for by Other Divisions.

New York, March 20.—A secret conference has been held between D. W. Hurley of Cleveland, assistant grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, and the members of the division of that order who were involved in the interborough strike and whose charter was suspended by Grand Chief Stone. Considerable encouragement was held out to the men many of whom are now out of work. Hurley said those who were not concerned in the strike will be protected.
"Members of the house," he said, "acknowledged they did wrong and have expressed a willingness to make proper amends. I think that finally everything will be settled satisfactorily to all concerned and the division rehabilitated in time."

Members of the division not concerned in the strike will be taken care of in other divisions, but the division itself cannot be restored and the members purged of their offense until the assembly of the grand convention in May, 1906, in Memphis.
Each member stated that he had voted to strike understandingly and unanimously and that the division itself can-
grand convention in May, 1906, in Memphis.
