

ADVERTISE
DURING CONFERENCE.SERVICES IN
THE TABERNACLE.Interesting Remarks and Beautiful
Singing on Sunday.

REPORT OF MISSIONARIES.

Elder Charles W. Penrose speaks of the Resurrection of the Gospel and the Opposition of the Evil One.

The Tabernacle services will be held again at 2 p. m. President Avery M. Cannon presiding. The singing from the hymns on page 160.

Great God attend while day goes by.
The joy that from the presence
To every day with us we part,
Endows a thousand days of earth.

Prayer was offered by Elder John Kinnish.

Singing hymn on page 61.

Let the mighty God appear,
And his angels descend,
Eastern lands the vengeance bearing,
Over the west one thunder break.Elder James Duckworth.

Elder James Duckworth said: The past few weeks in the Tabernacle have been a time of great weakness in addressed me large congregations. He had been on a mission to the West Indies, and had been ill but his missionary experience was still fresh in his mind. He had labored in Argentina and Brazil, and had been in Europe, Africa, and Asia. He had been Liverpool conference. He had found from experience that if an Elder would go to a foreign land and conduct a service over in his language, the Lord would be with him. The people there are ignorant of our principles, but we can teach them our religion. Great allowances should be made for the ignorance of the people to whom we go. We must not be afraid to associate with "Mormons." In fact, they are not the "Carnes," and it is better to be associated with them than with the "Carnes." We must not be afraid to go to a foreign land and conduct a service over in their language, that whatever we say is done, or wherever we go, we are not afraid to associate with "Mormons." In fact, they are not the "Carnes," and it is better to be associated with them than with the "Carnes." We must not be afraid to go to a foreign land and conduct a service over in their language, that whatever we say is done, or wherever we go, we are not afraid to associate with "Mormons." In fact, they are not the "Carnes," and it is better to be associated with them than with the "Carnes."

Fair tonight and Tuesday; warmer

Tuesday.

L. H. MURDOCH,
Secretary-Treasurer, Weather Bureau.

To-day's Metals.

BBER, No. 29-58

LEAD, 54-20

CASTING COPPER, 15-8, rents & b.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Next week will be the last in which to show cause why mortgages should not be foreclosed. All cases of Assured Wishes to call attention to this.

The Board of Education was authorized to meet at 2:30 this afternoon in committee of the whole to further consider the schools to succeed Dr. Millington.

No further things were received concerning the condition of Hon. Francis Armstrong today. His family and friends are anxious to know if he is now good news as applying particularly to his case.

H. Jones, G. Meyer, John Atkins, Henry Wilson, and W. C. Miller, all of Salt Lake City, were present in July. Kimball's son took a Sunday drink. They came from Sunday to support the inmates.

The Twenty-first ward normal class, first year, was graduated on the street on yesterday morning and proceeded down town, where after a short recess, the exercises were successfully photographed.

A number of letters from Utah boys in the Philippines was received by Salt Lake relatives and friends today. Several of the letters were from men who had been serving in the Philippines and had learned that which has already been published was communicated.

The "News" bulletin from Manila and the war department were anxious to receive news from the boys in the stars among the brave American soldiers now waging the battles of freedom in the Philippines.

Albert P. Keeler, who recently returned from New York, where he has been acting as president of the Eastern States mission, will be honored at a special service at the Tabernacle this evening. A number of missionary friends will be present.

Secretary Hammon is at Manila holding a rest and visiting friends. His son, George, is also at Manila. The weather was trying in the extreme, and it was thought that a brief rest and a change of scene would be the best for his health, which was somewhat impaired.

Elder B. H. Roberts will deliver lecture on the subject "Missionaries in the City" on Wednesday evening in the Tabernacle word hall under the auspices of the Seventh Quorum of Elders. The lecture is extended to all who wish to attend.

There will be a benefit concert dedicated to the family of the late David A. Kinney on Wednesday evening in the Tabernacle word hall under the auspices of the Seventh Quorum of Elders. The lecture is extended to all who wish to attend.

Elder G. W. Weller said: Every one upon the spirit of the Lord, for what I may say, because I do this I am not doing anything but offending others and otherwise. I have been offending many, return from the Tabernacle word hall, saying, "I am not doing anything in the world. For four months I did nothing. Now, for four months I am president of the Kenosha conference. I was then called to the Tabernacle word hall.

I can testify that God is in every place with his servants who do his work through the Tabernacle. There are now two hundred and fifty thousand members throughout the world, including the local Tabernacle. They were all called to the Tabernacle word hall without any disturbance.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall. The Tabernacle word hall is the center of the world, and its inhabitants are not good, but are evil, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.

The people of the South are a honest, good people. They are not hypocrites, but do in every place offend others.

What do we gain? We preach Christ and His commandments. We do not offend others. We do not offend the world when called, and also to work in the Tabernacle word hall.