Immeuse fires are raging in the woods in Northern Michigan, and apprehensions begin to be felt that there will be a repetition of the scenes of last October.

Hungry Boarder—"Some more bread, if you please; I slways eat a good deal of bread with my meat," Sarcastle Landlady—"So I see, sir; likewise a good deal of meat with your bread!"

A zealous prohibitionist, on being the sount in this peritous condition till about eight o'clock in the morning, when we drifted on the beach about half a mile from Watch Hill light house. The surf was very high and our danger increased. By this time a large number of people from Watch Hill Hotel were on the beach, proffering aid, but all was of no use. The roar of the surf prevented communication, and it was evident the deck on which we floated must soon go to pieces. In a few moments the breaking up commenced, and we were all thrown in the surf. By the kindness of those on shore, nearly all were saved from the pilot house and upper works. I am unable to say how many of the crew and passengers were lest.

WATCH HILL 20.—The steamer Moocasin has just brought in the purser of the Metis, J. H. Statham, O. Anthony, the freight clerk, chief engineer King, in the morning, when we drifted on the beach about half a mile from Watch Hill light house. The surf was very high and our danger increased.
