

SCHOOL BOYS
TURN 'TERRORISTS'

One Arrested at Berdicheff With Loaded Bombs in His Possession.

A KID WOUNDS HIS TEACHER.

He Was Reactionary and His Pupil
Did Not Approve of His Sentiments.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 15.—The Official Messenger today prints the usual weekly summary of violent political crimes and seizures of bombs, explosives and weapons, filling over two columns.

The record consists mainly of a long enumeration of cities where the terrorism has been active. They occupy St. Petersburg, Moscow, Odessa, Kiev, Nizhni Novgorod, Vilna, Warsaw, Samara, Kursk, Sebastopol, Kazan, Tiflis, Riga and other principal cities where officials have been killed, patriots fired on, bombs, weapons and dynamite seized or postoffices, banks or other state institutions attacked. A number of the crimes were committed by mere boys.

Today's dispatches tell of a grammar school lad wounding a reactionary teacher at Kharkoff, and the arrest at Berdicheff of a fifteen-year-old lad having three loaded bombs in his possession. The steady lengthening of the summary each week is a reliable index of the increased activity both of the police and of the terrorists. As of the police and the radicals organs print a regular chronicle of the government's repressive acts, claiming that never before, even under the late imperial regime, has there been so much of such a mass of arrests and punishments by administrative order.

There is evidence that bomb explosion which occurred at Vilna, Feb. 12, was part of a general plot with ramifications throughout the empire aimed at preventing the participation of the moderate parties in the election, and the chief of the secret police here has sent orders to do everything possible to guard against similar attempts.

The Czarwitsch, the first battleship of the Russian far eastern fleet to return to European Russia, has arrived at Libau.

Practically all the Russian prisoners have left Japan. The last transport will leave Japan Feb. 20.

A STRANGE SUICIDE.

F. R. Avery Breaks Ice and Holds His Head Under Water.

East St. Louis, Ill., Feb. 15.—With the greatest deliberation, F. R. Avery, of the Avery Manufacturing company of Peoria, Ill., today committed suicide by breaking the ice on a small pond near Centerville, six miles south of here, and holding his head under water while he lay on the shore. Avery had last night tried to commit suicide in a hotel at Cairo, but had been prevented and a guard had been placed over him. During the night he escaped from the guard. Search for him was in vain.

Today a passenger on a northbound Illinois Central train that stopped at Centerville, noticed a man walk toward a pond and lean down near the edge after having broke the ice with his foot. It was presumed he intended washing his hands, as he was stooping down when the train passed. The matter was talked about on the train, and when it reached here an inquiry was telegraphed back to Centerville, which is merely a station.

The agent replied that a man's dead body had been found lying by the pond. Yardmaster Bennett immediately secured a switch engine and went to Centerville and examined the body. Two notes were found in the pockets. One was written on the back of a receipt and read:

"To my dear wife: If I am found dead it is not by my own hand. A tough gang has me in bad.—F. R. Avery."

The other note was scribbled on the inside of a sealed envelope, addressed to J. E. Bartholomew, Peoria. There was no paper enclosed, the words being written on the inside of the envelope and read: "I am going in the river at St. Louis. Feb. 15, 1906.—F. R. Avery."

CUBA'S PRESENT ARRIVES.

New York, Feb. 15.—The pearl necklace, valued at $25,000, which is to be the gift of the republic of Cuba to Miss Alice Roosevelt on the occasion of her marriage to Representative Longworth at Washington on Saturday, arrived here today on board the steamer Mauretania, having been shipped from Paris by the Cuban minister at that capital and billed through to the Cuban legation in Washington.

CONGRESSMAN LONGWORTH
SECURES MARRIAGE LICENSE

Washington, Feb. 15.—Shortly after 4 o'clock, Mr. Longworth, accompanied by Nelson Perkins, his best man, three of the ushers, Messrs. Bangs, Shaw and Norman, and three other friends, who refused to give their names, appeared at the city hall and announced his desire for a license to marry.

The assistant clerk of the court, William F. Lemmon, filled in the blanks as Mr. Longworth responded to the usual questions in such cases. He gave his age as 35 and that of Miss Roosevelt as 25.

OREGON MURDERER CONVICTED.

Portland, Or., Feb. 15.—D. C. Kelly was today convicted of murder in the second degree for killing Thomas Fleming during a saloon hold-up in this city on Dec. 15. Kelly was convicted through the testimony of an accomplice named Rasmussen.

NO WEDDING REHEARSAL.

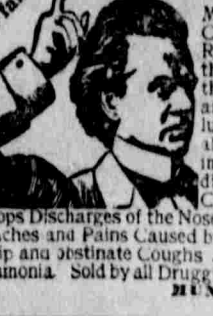

Washington, Feb. 15.—It was expected that this evening there would be a rehearsal of the Longworth-Roosevelt wedding.

RANCHMEN FIGHT
A DUEL TO THE DEATH.

Springer, N. M., Feb. 15.—Robert Sammon and Lee McHenry, well known ranchmen of the Black Lakes section, fought a duel with guns on the range at that district yesterday, and McHenry was killed.

Sammon surrendered to Deputy Sheriff Brown of Springer, who removed him to Raton, where he was locked up. Sammon declared that he killed McHenry in self-defense. The two men had quarreled over the ownership of some horses.

WANT SAN PEDRO FORTIFIED.

Los Angeles, Feb. 15.—Realizing the defenseless condition of the Southern California section of the Pacific coast in case of war, John H. Morton, chairman of the military and military fortification committee of the Los Angeles chamber of commerce, has recommended to that body immediate action toward procuring through the state's representatives in Congress an appropriation for fortifications at San Pedro.

He suggests that similar action be taken by the Merchants and Manufacturers' association and the Municipal league.

OPPOSE JOINT STATEHOOD.

Phoenix, Ariz., Feb. 15.—The Phoenix city council tonight authorized the sending of the following telegram to Senator Foraker at Washington: "The feeling against joint statehood is more intense among the universities of this state than ever before. We earnestly oppose any compromise for Arizona and your amendment may prevail."

MYSTERIOUS POISONING.

J. Barnett and Two Daughters Are Already Dead.

Stockton, Cal., Feb. 15.—J. Barnett and his two daughters are dead from some mysterious poison and Mrs. Hartley, who had been nursing Barnett's children, is dangerously ill. Mrs. Barnett, mother of the children, is also ill. Her symptoms are similar to those of the others.

Barnett died today at the Emergency hospital. One of the children died last Saturday and the other died yesterday.

It was not until Barnett was taken dangerously ill that poisoning was suspected.

The symptoms indicate ptomaine poisoning. The only article of food suspected is ham, of which the family had been partaking.

LONGWORTH BACHELOR DINNER.

Washington, Feb. 15.—Representative Longworth tonight entertained at a bachelor dinner at his home, 821 Eighteenth street, Northwest, at which President Roosevelt and Secy. Taft were among the guests. The other guests were Mr. Perkins, who is to be best man at the wedding, of Miss Roosevelt and Mr. Longworth; Vicomte de Chambrun, brother-in-law of Mr. Longworth; Mr. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr.; Maj. Henry and Messrs. Fleischmann, Norman, Sherrill, Wallingford, Winthrop, Anderson, Painter, Simpkins, Bangs, Whitney and Herron.

Mr. Longworth went to the city hall late this afternoon and received his marriage license. He was accompanied by a number of his personal friends, including three who are to serve as ushers at the wedding, and their visit attracted no little interest at the old court house.

Wedding presents are still arriving at the White House, and details of a number of the gifts became known today. One of the gifts that has attracted considerable interest, that of the empress of China, will not reach here until after the wedding day.

STANDARD OIL OFFICIALS
MAY BE INDICTED.

Pittsburg, Feb. 15.—The Post tomorrow will say:

Indictments of Standard Oil and railroad officers by the federal authorities after the manner in which the beef trust leaders have been dealt with and action to this end immediately following the action of the trust cases now in progress in Chicago, are the possible results of the investigation of railroad rates by the government, the final and one of the most important steps of which was finished in Pittsburg yesterday. With the completion of the probing by the department of commerce officers, authoritative confirmation was obtained last night of the information that the purpose of the investigation has been to find out the relations of the railroads and the oil trust in the matter of rebates.

NEVADA MURDERER GETS LIFE.

San Francisco, Feb. 15.—Chilton Bowen, convicted of the murder of W. W. Stephenson, the Washoe, Nev., cattleman, in this city, was today sentenced to life imprisonment.

CALIFORNIA SOCIETY.

Hold a Dinner and Tell What East
Owes to the West.

New York, Feb. 15.—The debt which New York and the east owes to California was the keynote of the annual dinner of the California society held last night at the St. Regis. One speaker after another told how literature, the stage and art, as they have flourished in this state and city, have drawn recruits from the golden west. No toast made the whole evening was more progressive than that to "California's Renown," when glasses were raised in silence to the name of Bret Harte.

Gold was struck at the dinner, as the dinner committee had predicted. The "find" was a statuette of Marshall, the discoverer of gold in California, of which more than 100 duplicates had been made, one as a souvenir for each member of the society and guests present. The toastmaster was the president of the society, Edward J. McGanney, who told how the California society of New York was organized. Wm. A. Brady, who said he was proud that he was a Native Son of the Golden West, after telling of his early struggles, referred in a complimentary way to David Belasco, the playwright and William Randolph Hearst.

BONI'S ATTITUDE
VERY CORRECT.

Those in Charge of Countess
Castellane's Interest Testify to the Fact.

NEGOTIATIONS PROCEEDING.

Case Somewhat Embarrassed Because
Of the Lady's Continued Feeling Towards Her Husband.

Paris, Feb. 15.—The financial negotiations in the Castellane case do not relate to Count Boni's allowance after separation from his wife, formerly Anna Gould of New York, as he has stipulated this branch by stating that he does not expect a large amount. The count's announcement was made to one of the lawyers of the countess. It was most emphatic, and substantially in the following terms:

"I declare to you, and I swear to the exactness of my declaration, that I not only do not demand, but that I will not accept any sum beyond the small amount which constituted my income before my marriage."

The count thus disposes of the statement to the effect that he contemptuously refused $40,000 a year on the ground that it was not sufficient for his pocket money.

The attitude of the count leaves the lawyers of the countess to consider only his outstanding indebtedness, which reaches an enormous sum.

The Castellane marriage contract gives the countess her separate income not subject to claims for the debts of her husband. This contract insures the protection of the countess' fortune against being absorbed in the present controversy, and also prevents the count's creditors from taking legal action against the countess.

At the same time she does not appear disposed to exact the strict letter of the contract, and the financial negotiations are for the purpose of making arrangements for a compromise with the count's creditors.

The amount involved has been swollen to enormous proportions by excessive charges for money advanced. The extent to which the countess will voluntarily liquidate these claims is the chief question under negotiation, and the determination of this will probably determine all the other proceedings.

Although the lawyers expect the case to proceed to an early decree, they recognize that a slight element of indecision remains on the part of the countess, due to her continued feeling toward her husband and her reluctance to involve her family in a scandal.

The foregoing facts are from those directly in charge of the countess' interests, thus showing their desire to testify to the count's correct attitude in the case.

The court has made a second ineffectual attempt to bring about a reconciliation. The next step will be the service of a writ upon the defendant, but the clerk of the court has not yet received orders to serve the document.

MUTUAL LIFE SUITS.

Choate Holds That They Can Be Brought to Compel Restitution.

New York, Feb. 14.—Joseph H. Choate is said to have rendered an informal opinion to President Charles A. Peabody of the Mutual Life insurance company in regard to the questions which were submitted to him two weeks ago in the direction of the company's board of trustees. These questions concerned recommendations made by the Mutual's self-investigating committee that suits be instituted by the company against members of the old management to compel restitution. It is understood that Mr. Choate holds that the suits can be brought. The opinion which Mr. Choate is said to have rendered was merely verbal. He will supplement it with a formal one in writing in a few days.

BIG JEWELRY ROBBERY.

Men Got $10,000 Worth by Pickpocket
Ruse of a Fight.

New York, Feb. 15.—With descriptions furnished of two of the men and jewelry worth $10,000 taken, the detective bureau is investigating the robbery of a salesman on the Brooklyn bridge last Saturday evening. It was decided yesterday to make public the facts in the hope of recovery of the gems.

It is believed that four men perpetrated the robbery, which took place during the rush hours. It was the familiar pickpocket ruse of a fight, in which the attention of the victim was distracted, and the man with the stolen property escaped.

Heathcote & Company was the firm whose clerk was the victim of the robbery. The salesman on Saturday evening left the firm's establishment with the jewelry, which was to be shown to a customer in Brooklyn. There was nothing to identify the packmen, and the jewelry was placed; it was simply a pasteboard box, wrapped with coarse paper, with no name of the firm visible. The young man reached the bridge at the rush hour, taking the shuttle train. Soon after the train started a quarrel arose between a rough-looking stranger and another similarly dressed. Their anger appeared to rise until, just before the Brooklyn end was reached a fight began. One of the men was knocked on the salesman; several others appeared to fall in. The salesman was struck repeatedly. He managed to struggle free just as the train was stopped and saw that his package was gone.

A CAMPAGNE TRUST.

New York, Feb. 15.—Inquiries were received in this city by cable yesterday by agents of well known champagne houses requesting details of a proposed distributing agency designed to control the distribution of champagne in this country. No further details were given and the trade here are much interested in the question.

Some time ago efforts were actively made to induce the American agents of all the well known champagne concerns to enter on behalf of their home companies a distributing agency agreement. This tentative plan was not put forth in definite form in a way that could commit or bind any particular firm. This was about two or three months ago. The discussion of the matter has within the last week been actively renewed as a result of the arrival in this city of representatives of some of the home houses, and it is considered probable that the matter will be taken up as a better practical proposition than has heretofore been the case.
