Indian Troubles.

WASHINGTON, 22.—News was received at the War Department this afternoon to the effect that the difficulty with the Cheyenne Indians is becoming very serious. Gen. Sheridan has ordered four companies of the Fifth Cavalry to go to the scene of the disturbance, in addition to the companies previously sent to Reno. He makes ten companies as above, and three additional companies are now in readiness to go at a moment's notice. An order is issued appointing a commission to ascertain the cause of the discontent. The Southern Cheyennes are located in the western portion of the Territory. The country is level and devoid of trees, except along the streams. Owing to its great extent it is very easy for the Indians to get out of the way of troops. It is believed here that the Indians are well supplied with arms and ammunition. The last trouble with the Cheyennes occurred about nine years ago, and continued for more than a year. It was caused by Indians of that tribe massacreing a portion of a family moving overland from Georgia. The massacre occurred in Kansas. The father, mother and a daughter were killed, and the four remaining children taken captive. The daughter, who was killed before she was captured, took the life of an Indian with an ax as he attempted to get into the wagon in which the children were gathered. Prior to this massacre the Cheyennes became unfriendly towards the whites. A number of men disguised as Indians had burned a bridge on the Kansas Pacific Railroad for the purpose of stopping a train that they might plunder it. After the destruction of the bridge, soldiers were sent to capture the men implicated. An officer chanced one day to see an Indian standing alone at a distance. He drew nearer, aimed and killed him. The Indian was a son of Lone Wolf, the great Cheyenne chief. When he was buried, 400 ponies were killed above his grave. Though Lone Wolf himself did not participate in the outbreak which followed his son's death, it was thought that the murder of the young Indian greatly influenced the tribe to go on the warpath. The massacre of the Germans followed, and one year's fight ensued.

Gen. Pope has transmitted to the War Department an account of the killing of a Piute Indian named Joe by two white men in Happy Valley, Oregon. In commenting upon the killing, Gen. Pope says he is in receipt of letters from the whites and Indian outrages, which are increasing in frequency in the southern part of Oregon. He says the Piutes, having no reservation, are willing to go out and inhabit that country, in accordance by humane and lasting. The state of affairs now existing is certain to grow worse and worse and must finally culminate in open hostilities, unless a reservation is assigned these Indians, and they are placed on it. The Commissioner of Indian Affairs has directed an agent to investigate the circumstances and report, and steps looking to the protection of the Indians.

Denver, Col., 22.—The Republican's Durango, Colorado, correspondent from Dolores Valley arrives this afternoon. He says the Ute Indians have commenced hostilities. The first act was the killing of a settler named Dolan, and burning his dwelling, barns, haystacks, etc. The messenger confirms the report that a cowboys had killed six of a band of Indians. One young buck, who belonged to the same family, was wounded, but got away, and came to the agency and told his story. Immediately 250 warriors came to the agency and demanded revenge. A fight followed. Steamer pacified them by promising to go with 250 of their number to Fort Lewis, the agent to report to headquarters, and then proceed to the scene of the trouble, investigate the whole matter and bring back the bodies of their dead comrades. Accordingly the agent and Indians passed through here this evening en route to Fort Lewis. Another messenger arrived this evening, bringing a report that a party of Indians met Joe Dougherty, brother of Captain Dougherty of the Twenty-second Cavalry, now stationed at Fort Lewis, while on his way to his home near Mitchell's Springs, killed him and carried his wife into captivity. Captain Perrine, who was in command at Montezuma Valley with two companies, sent Captain Dougherty with his company to the scene of the murder. It is stated that the commander at Fort Lewis hearing of the action of Captain Perrine immediately sent a company of cavalry to intercept Capt. Dougherty, fearing he might lose discretion and seek revenge for the death of his brother and captivity of his wife, who is a daughter of Mitchell of Mitchell Springs, with whom Dougherty's children were staying during the absence of their parents. There are many conflicting stories as to who commenced the trouble. The cowboys claim the Indians did so on the other hand, the Indians and their agent accused the cowboys of carrying out their threat to kill all the Indians and off the reservation. Troops are arriving, and the Indians will probably scatter and return to the reservation.

Wired from Washington.

FRAUDS.

WASHINGTON, 22.—"I find that there have been many irregularities in connection with the surveying contracts," said Commissioner Sparks, of the General Land Office, "And I have already closed out twenty-three of these contracts. The latest discovery was the expansion of a contract by the Surveyor-General of Wyoming. This was apparently an innocent little contract of only $6,000, but by an India rubber clause it had been extended so that surveys to the amount of $129,000 had been made and paid for, and there was about $80,000 more awaiting only the approval of the Commissioner. It seems that heretofore this approval has been made without sufficient scrutiny, but I intend to rigidly examine everything of that kind so that there can be no more extra expense."

A TROUBLESOME TURK.

Representative Findlay of Maryland, had an interview with the Secretary of State to-day, in regard to the action of the Turkish government towards a Turk named Chrysafondy, who became a naturalized citizen of the United States some years ago. This man left Turkey and went to Greece, where he became naturalized. Afterwards he came to the United States, settling in Baltimore, and became a naturalized citizen of the United States. A year ago he returned to Turkey. The government of that country refused to recognize his American citizenship and demanded his allegiance to his native country on the ground that once a Turk always a Turk. Three months ago he escaped from Turkey and returned to Baltimore. The question submitted to the Department of State was whether or not the Turkish government had any control over Chrysafondy on his return to his native country after becoming naturalized in this country.

PENSION CLAIMS.

During the week ended June 20, the board review of the pension office has sent to the certificate deposit for the issue of certificates of pensions 887 original and 997 increase claims. There have been rejected 965 claims, and 531 have been sent back to the adjudication division office for further evidence, making a total of 3,280 cases disposed of. The number for the week ended June 13, was 3,203, and for the week ended June 6, 2,784. About 50 per cent. of the increase claims acted on by the pension office for the week ended June 15, were rejected, and this is about the average per cent. of such claims rejected.

The Grand Army Invited.

PORTLAND, Me., 22.—The weather is perfect, and delegations of Grand Army people are beginning to arrive. The "Law and Order League" has issued a circular stating that all liquor consigned to members of the Grand Army will be promptly seized. A proposition made by the same committee, that all consignments to members of the G. A. R. be seized and taken to police headquarters, and if, after inspection by Commander-in-chief Kountze, they be found to contain any liquor, they be not forwarded to the consignee, met with instant opposition, and the fact of such a proposition having been made has caused something of a rebellious spirit to arise, and visitors openly declare their intention to resist such arbitrary action should it be attempted. It is not denied that heresare quantities of liquor en route, consigned to members of the G. A. R., who are either here or are to arrive, and prominent officers of the organization declare they intend to take and keep possession of their consignments. The constant agitation of this subject recently by temperance leaders has caused it to take a place of paramount interest to all sides. Gen. Logan is expected to arrive to-night. He will be given a grand reception, as also will Generals Slocum and Rosecrantz, who are also expected to-night. The executive committee is likely to be put to a severe test by the demands made upon it. The Iowa delegates this morning telegraphed for 500 additional quarters, and numerous other requests of a similar nature have been made.

A great deal is heard on all sides in regard to the liquor question to-night. The Associated Press is in receipt of the following telegram, which seems to have been inspired by the circulars issued by the temperance leaders:

"Newport, Ky., 22.—To the Associated Press.—Two thousand comrades of the Grand Army of the Republic have read the dispatches regarding the appointment of special police to care for intoxicated persons in Portland. We call your attention to the fact that in times of peace the police of the Nation, during recent years has not dimin[illegible] its forces for law and order [illegible] it will and [illegible] peaceful sojourn, and respectfully request [illegible] to enter our [illegible] and [illegible] Commissioners, Georgia, Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa, Missouri, Nebraska and Michigan."

The peculiar wording of the circular sent out by the advocates of temperance seems to have had the effect of creating no small degree of resentment on the part of visitors from other States, and many of them claim that to issue such circulars to a body of men so old in years, in service and in distinguished honors as that of the G. A. R. is scarcely less than an insult.

Crime and Criminals.

CHICAGO, Ill., 22.—Charles Bowie colored) wrote his wife at Paducah, Ky., to meet him here. When she came today Bowie cut her throat and also stabbed her in the side and arm. Jealousy is supposed to be the cause. The woman will die. Bowie was arrested.

Springfield, Ill., 22.—Thomas James, a democratic member of the Legislature, aged 64, was to-night charged with assault with intent to rape Nannie James, a 12-year old girl employed as nurse in the State House. Opinions differ whether it is a genuine case or one of blackmail. James is a man of considerable wealth and has an estimable wife in this city.

Cleveland, 22.—Antonio Cecilia, an Italian, was arrested here to-day on the charge of attempting to defraud an insurance company. Cecilia, it is said, recently insured his life for $10,000, and then jumped into the Hudson River at Cataract Island under the water, escaped to the shore unseen and departed. It was believed he had been drowned, and his brother claimed the insurance money. The company, however, suspected something wrong and instituted an investigation.

Dalton, Ga., 22.—Leon Johnson, a respectable citizen of Spring Place, Murray County, who has persistently refused to provide for his family, was taken from his home Saturday night and terribly flogged by twenty masked men. He was told that if he did not do better the dose would be repeated.

Dublin, 22.—A mob at Tralee yesterday wrecked the office of the Kerry Sentinel. The paper is conducted by a brother of Mr. Harrington, M. P. The attack was made because of an article in the paper copied from National newspapers.

Portsmouth, 22.—A party of submarine miners in the navy, becoming incensed at some satirical stories which appeared in a local newspaper, forced a entrance into the residence of the editor and assaulted him. The police, after a severe struggle with the assailants, arrested the editor, who succeeded in making his escape.

Pittsburg, 22.—The evidence in the Farmers' and Drovers' Bank conspiracy case was concluded this afternoon. After the jury had been instructed by Judge Schoyer, Mr. Addresses of the jury for the prosecution. He was followed by Hon. Curtis, counsel for the defense, who is speaking when the Court adjourned.

The addresses will be concluded to-morrow morning, and the case will be given to the jury in the afternoon.

Cincinnati, 22.—Thomas Knott, a steamfitter who lives at Dayton, Ky., fell from the middle of the Newport and Cincinnati railroad bridge this afternoon, suddenly jumped over and descended to deep water in the river, 105 feet below. He was unhurt, and commenced to swim for dear life. Some one in a yawl picked him up and took him ashore. He says he was not attempting suicide, but jumped from a sudden impulse. He was perfectly sober, and was returning from Cincinnati, where, he says, he sought in vain for work.

Hopes of Peace in Peru.

LIMA via Galveston, 22.—The government forces occupy Tingo, about twelve miles from Arrequipa. The papers all leave articles expressing hopes of an early pacification of the country through the labors of the commissioners, who left here Monday.

Well-to-do Colonists.

DALLAS, Texas, 22.—Frederickson [illegible] Saturday purchased 320 acres of land in Tom Green, Haskell and Menard counties, from the T. & P. railway. Frederickson [illegible] are [illegible] immigrants, who will [illegible] across the Gulf [illegible] and Pennsylvania [illegible] import and [illegible] Both countries suffered [illegible] failure. Many well-to-do [illegible] between Texas and Austria-Hungary [illegible] communications [illegible] to purchase [illegible] months. Passports will be
