THE SPRING RISE FOR ALABAMA.

Fishing British Columbia River—Deserter His Children—Horse Swallowed a Tin.

Farmers in Sherman county, Or., are said to be having good wheat from the spring to their farms, they having sold for more than last year, and having themselves enough for seed.

Some time ago a petition signed by the leading citizens of Fairhaven, Wash., was forwarded to the state capital, requesting that that city be made a sub-subsiding port.

It is claimed by the Mexican authorities that the Apache, the friendly neighbor from San Carlos, Arizona, have crossed the international boundary and are giving considerable trouble.

The young people of San Diego, Cal., have taken up a plan to establish a permanent temperance office in the city, and are working for it.

A pocket of fire was struck in the old Tim Payne mine, in the Fort Huachuca district, in southern Arizona, last Thursday. About ten years ago a pocket was found in the mine from which $1,000,000 was taken in one week.

While riding the path of a horse in Power, Or., the other day, George Miller lost his hold on the stirrup, and it would have been the end of him. At last he was saved by the horse's kicking, and it is probable that the spring life will be continued to a short time.

The young people of the Grand River Valley, Cal., have been given a good lesson in the history of the state, and it is probable that the spring life will be continued to a short time.
