At the same time N. C. American school souse-palace would Petersen was on his way to see Mr Graham. They met on the sidewalk not far from Mr. Graham's house. Mr. Petersen turned back and came with Graham. They had not gone far erected in the near future. The pro-ject is under contemplation by the when Mr. Graham stopped and asked a question. As they thus stopped for a moment a bullet came whizzing in their direction, barely missing Mr. Petersen's head and striking Mr. Graham a little right of the breast bone and m its downward course passed into the region of the heart, causing instant death. An inquest was held and the jurors brought in a verdict of accident al shooting. The shot was fired about two hundred and fifty yards from where Mr. Graham was standing. The night was very dark, so much so that individuals passing along the sidewalk the old folks, is trying to work up an could not be recognized. The young man who fired the shot came and acexcursion to Castilla Springs for the old people, which will come off no doubt before the 15th instant. The monthly Priesthood meeting was knowledged that he did the shooting. The shot was fired in the air with no evil intent whatever; he did not want held this morning and a large number of the officers of Nebo Stake were in to fire the revolver (which was a 38 caliber) but the other young man who was with him prevailed upon him to try as he wished to trade it to him, he finally consented with the above re-sult. The shot was not fired by a struction being given, all evidencing that the people of the newly created gang of hoodlums as reported in the Stake were active to their duties, loyal to their Stake, and determined to make papers, as there are none of that class existing in our little town. The shooting was purely accidental and the peo ple without any exceptions sympathize with the young man and also with his parents, who are deeply affected over he sad affair. The young man comes from good parentage and the best of feelings exist between the families which are caused to mourn. The family of the deceased have the deep syripathy of the entire community. Victor, Bingham Co., Idaho, Sept. 4. -We have had an unusual amount of rain during almost all of the month of August and the first few days of September, doing some damage to ripe standing grain.

Richard Lambert, the genial and hustling agent of the "News," paid us a pleasant visit a few days since. Apostle A. O. Woodruff and wife through from the Big basin, via the National Park and Jackson's Hole, last week and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Young for a day or two. Brother Woodruff held meeting with the Saints here, and preached an eloquent Gospel discourse on the evening of Aug. 28th, to a large and appreciative audience.

DEATH OF THOS E. CHENEY.

A sad gloom was cast over this community by the death of our much re-spected citizen, Thomas Edward Che-ney, which occurred on Aug. 29th, of neuralgia of the heart, from which cause he was sick less than a week. He was the son of Elem and Talitha Cumi Cheney, born March 25th, 1862, being in the fortleth year of his age. Brother Thomas was one of the most esteemed nembers of our ward, was a thorough Latter-day Saint. He leaves a devoted and almost broken-hearted wife and three little girls to mourn his death besides an aged mother and many other relatives and friends. Impressive fu-neral services were held on Aug. 31st.

COURT NOTES.

In the second district court before Judge Rolapp, the following matters were heard:

The case of J. P. Hayes, the alleged nephew of President Charles M. Hays, of the Southern Pacific, came on for trial, on the charge of forgery, but the case was non-suited because of a flaw in the information. The information charges him with defrauding the Southern Pacific railroad company when the real name of the company is the "Southern Pacific company." The court real therefore ordered a peremptory verdict for the defendant, and that he be re-manded to the custody of an officer until a new complaint could be filed. In the case of the State of Utah vs Charles Miller, charged with burglat izing Kohn's second hand store, th the jury brought in a verdict of guilty. In the cases of the State of Utah vs. Clark, Welch and Douglas, the court ordered certain witnesses subpœnaed at the expense of the state.

In the case of Dye vs. Dye, sult brought for divorce, decree was granted plaintiff as prayed for.

The following jurors were excused for the term: R. C. McEwan, C. W. Chase, Fred. W. Chambers, Wm, C. Hunter, and F. G. Woodcock.

WEBER COUNTY AFFAIRS. At the meeting of the county commis sioners yesterday a committee consist-ing of Chairman Stanford, and County Attorney Halvorsen was appointed to draft resolutions of sympathy upon the attempted assassination of Presi-dent McKinley. The matter of the application of the Followide Bower computer in a sight

Telluride Power company for a right of way through Weber county to erect a line of telephone poles was laid over until September 16th.

The report of the auditing committee was received and accepted, showing everything to be in perfect order. State Fish and Game Warden Sharp notified the board that he would ship 100,000 native trout fry for distribution in the streams in Weber county. The shipment will arrive September 10th at Sheriff Layne submitted the name of E. S. Crocker for appointment as de-puty in his office to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Deputy Peterson. The appointment was con-firmed.
