LOCAL BRIEFS.

Canadian Meeting.—The Canadian association will hold its first meeting of the season next Friday evening, and all Canadians are invited to attend.

To Celebrate Festival.—The Unitarians will celebrate their harvest festival next Friday evening, in Unity hall, where theatricals, music and recitations will be given.

Wit and Humor.—Phil Perkins will lecture on "The Philosophy of Wit and Humor," next Friday evening, in the First Methodist church in the University of Utah course of lectures.

Fred Is Homesick.—Word from the orient states that Charles M. Fred, the retired merchant of this city, states that he has become homesick in Japan so that he has given up his purpose to make a trip around the world, and will return home with Mrs. Fred and their younger son.

Teacher Needed.—County Supt. of Schools Smith is in need of an experienced teacher for one of the schools of the Jordan district. There are 45 pupils in the school and six different grades are taught. The salary connected with the position is $80 per month.

Cole Under Arrest.—Charged with tampering with the United States mail, J. E. Cole was brought from Brigham Saturday evening and placed in the county jail to await a hearing. Cole is 29 years of age and is charged with taking a letter out of a mail box on a rural free delivery route near Brigham.

Amended Articles.—An amendment to the articles of incorporation of the Tribune Job Printing company has been filed with the county clerk by which the name of the company is changed to the Tribune-Reporter Job Printing company. The company is a consolidation of the Tribune and Reporter companies and its capital stock is $50,000, divided into shares of the par value of $1 each.

On How to Vote.—In his sermon yesterday morning, in St. Paul's Episcopal church, Rector C. E. Perkins said that voters should in the coming election give their votes to those who will be a benefit to the community, the men who stand for the highest and the best. Mr. Perkins referred to the present election as a dirty one because men have been personally assailed, to the disregard of principles which are likely to be lost sight of.

Remains Expected Tonight.—It is expected that the remains of W. H. Halliday, merchant of whose death has been announced in the "News," will arrive in Salt Lake this evening, from Tonopah, Nev. The funeral will be held from the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Halliday, 268 Canyon road, tomorrow afternoon, commencing at 2 o'clock. On Wednesday morning the body will be shipped to Provo, the former home of the family, for burial.

Holmes Will Appeal.—A notice of appeal to the supreme court has been filed in the case of the State of Utah against John Holmes, who was convicted of burglary in the first degree in the district court recently and sentenced to seven years in the state prison by Judge Armstrong. Holmes was implicated with Herman Roberts in the burglary of the Homestead residence on north East Temple street, the deceased, the earnestness of his faith, and the regularity of his attendance on religious exercises. Rev. Dr. Padon and a number of others testified to the man's integrity and his upright life. The nature of the remarks were affecting.

Respected Citizen Dead.—An old time and respected former citizen of this city, died recently at Eureka, Nev. Mrs. Hiram Johnson, whose husband was for so many years a junior member of the wholesale grocery house of Remington & Johnson, Mrs. Johnson was active in charitable work and president of the Orphan Home and Day Nursery on State street. Her husband, two sons and one daughter survive her. The latter being Mrs. Walter Bracken of Las Vegas, Nev.

Consul Arrives.—George Ifft, formerly a reporter on the Tribune of this city, and lately editor of the Pocahontas Tribune, has arrived safely with his family at Annaberg, Germany, where he has been sent as United States consul. Annaberg is a city of 35,000 inhabitants in the Erz mountains of Saxony. Salt Lake has had several citizens in the foreign service, as witnesses A. E. Johnson, also a reporter on the Salt Lake papers, W. G. Van Horn, Judge Botkin, John T. Axton, George Ifft and others.

Missed Their Train.—Misses Leah Morris and Lucile Lovell of Springfield, Ill., en route to Los Angeles, remained too long up town in this city yesterday, and were left with only $3.17 in their possession, while their train went on without them carrying their friends who held their tickets. However, the girls came up town and told their tale of woe to the passenger office, and the result was that they were sent on by the next train, and the American Fork agent was notified by wire to secure the tickets from the missed train and deliver them to the rightful owners.

Judge Finney a Visitor.—Judge Albert C. Finney, city prosecutor of Minneapolis, was in Salt Lake yesterday en route home from Caldwell, Idaho, where he has been visiting with relatives. Judge Finney expressed himself as being most enthusiastic over Salt Lake as an ideal residence city and predicted that it had a great future. He went as far as to say that he had a desire to come west and locate, and that if he did he would select Salt Lake. He asserted that Gov. John A. Johnson would be re-elected although Minnesota was a Republican state. The presidential favorites in his state he said were Taft and Bryan.

Orpheus Company Dividend.—In accordance with a resolution passed by the board of directors of the Orpheus Vaudeville company at their regular meeting a stock dividend has been declared of 10 per cent, payable today. In cases where it would necessitate the issuing of a fractional share a 7 per cent cash dividend was authorized. The Orpheus Vaudeville company holds a long lease on the Orpheum theater and a similar contract with the Orpheum circuit to place weekly attractions in the theater. It is incorporated for $50,000 in 5,000 shares. The dividend declared represents the profits since the opening of the house last August, for last season's profits were consumed in incidental expenses connected with the opening of the house and getting it into running shape.

Zions Savings Bank and Trust Co. Pays 4 per cent on deposits, safety deposit boxes for rent. JOSEPH E. SMITH, Pres. O. C. BEER, Cashier.

JAPS HONORED THEIR EMPEROR

The Fifty-fifth Birthday of Mutsuhito Celebrated in Harmonie Hall.

ORIENTAL REFRESHMENTS.

Speeches Were Made and National Songs Rendered by Subjects of the Mikado—Elaborate Decorations.

The fifty-fifth birthday of Emperor Mutsuhito of Japan was celebrated by the Japanese residents of Salt Lake last night in Harmonie hall at which about 150 subjects of the Mikado were present as well as a number of Americans. Speeches were made, the national song was rendered, oriental refreshments were served and music was furnished by the Utah State band. The hall was elaborately decorated with Japanese lanterns, flags and bunting, both Japanese and American, and potted plants and palms and presented a very patriotic appearance.

An address of welcome was made by Dr. S. Suzuki, who acted as chairman of the meeting. This was followed by the unveiling of the picture of the emperor, during which the national song, "Kimigayo," was sung three times. The next number on the program was the reading of the imperial edict by T. Akutagawa, which was accompanied with much ceremony.

M. Ohno, whose place of business is at 317 south East Temple street, was the orator of the evening and delivered a very eloquent patriotic address in English. He said that the remarkable progress of his country during the past 40 years and said that much of it was due to the high-minded influence of their emperor, whom they had assembled to honor. He also reviewed the Russo-Japanese war and declared that the victory of the Japs was due to their loyalty and courage. He declared that the United States was the best friend Japan had in that war and that $100,000,000 of American money was loaned to Japan during that conflict. In closing he said that the Japanese would never forget America with her noble principles of liberty, justice and peace. The other speakers of the evening were S. Kanahara, S. Shimizu, K. Ito, A. Kabayashi, S. Kobayashi and M. Iwak. At the conclusion of the formal program the emperor's picture was unveiled during the singing of the national song, after which refreshments were served and several toasts were responded to.

CROUP. A reliable medicine and one that should always be kept in the home for emergency is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will prevent the attack given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears. There is no danger in giving it to children for it contains no opium or other harmful drug. For sale by all druggists.

MEMORIAL SERVICE

In Presbyterian Church in Honor of Late John W. Sorenson.

There was a well attended memorial Christian Endeavor service last evening, in the First Presbyterian church in honor of the late John W. Sorenson, who was killed by a Rio Grande switch engine on the night of the great wind storm, at Murray. Dr. Silver presided, and the choir of the church sang, one of the numbers being a pretty duet between Mrs. Kate Bridwell Anderson and Miss Alice Wolfgang. Dr. Silver spoke particularly on the simplicity of the Christian character of the deceased, the earnestness of his faith, and the regularity of his attendance on religious exercises. Rev. Dr. Padon and a number of others testified to the man's integrity and his upright life. The nature of the remarks were affecting.

CHAMBERLAIN'S PAIN BALM. There is no danger from blood poison resulting from a cut or wound of any kind, when Chamberlain's Pain Balm is used. It is an antiseptic dressing and should be used every household. For sale by all druggists.

WALTER J. BEATTIE.

Who Has Been Selected by the Comptroller of Currency to be Federal Bank Examiner for Utah, Idaho and Wyoming.

Senator George Sutherland yesterday received a telegram from William R. Ridgely, comptroller of currency which said: "Have decided to appoint your man Beattie bank examiner. Will assign him to work in Utah, Wyoming and Idaho."

As a result Mr. Beattie was today the recipient of many warm congratulations from friends who were disappointed at his not having secured the place some weeks ago when it went to a Colorado man. It appears that the comptroller was not in possession of all of the facts at that time and securing information to that effect he summoned Mr. Beattie to St. Louis where the two met and talked matters over. That Mr. Ridgely was entirely satisfied with Mr. Beattie is evidenced by the fact of his selection at this time. The formal announcement of appointment will be made in the course of the next few days and Mr. Beattie will soon enter upon the duties for which he is so well qualified both by education and long experience. Meanwhile the Colorado man who has had Utah in his field for a brief period, will be assigned to some other section of the country.

FINE ADDRESS BY JUDGE W. H. KING

Excellent Lecture at Y. M. C. A. Auditorium on Civic Conscience.

WORLD IS BETTER TODAY.

Speaker Held That Politics Should be Held Sacred—Ought to Care More For Conduct and Deeds.

Judge W. H. King made an excellent address in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium yesterday afternoon, on "Civic Conscience," in which he held that politics should be held sacred, and that people should be beginning to realize that even in religion they are not to conform to merely fixed forms; they are to plan their faith on deeds rather than on creeds. "In the middle ages men cared more for doctrine and discussion than for conduct and deeds, and the result was strife and persecution. However, things have changed for the better, and the world is better today. Formerly the injunction was 'Live.' Later it became 'Live and Let Live.' Now it is 'Live and Help Others to Live.' Many young men, after hearing the charges of corruption made against men in office, conclude that politics is corrupt, and consequently abstain from taking part in political affairs. Yet, many of the world's greatest benefactors have been politicians. In fact, politics is merely a reflection of the morals of the people, and what we need is more conscience in politics as well as in religion and business. "Government can only progress in proportion to the conscientious devotion of the people. Truth alone builds up and perpetuates, and there is no difference between religious truths and political truths. Conscience, therefore, is necessary in the political field as well as in religious matters."

"Our nation will not be what it should be until all its citizens become politicians. What we need is men and women who approach politics on a high moral plane, who bring conscience into their study and discussion of political affairs. They should never be willing to compromise with error; they should extenuate no wrong, and should be even more exacting in regard to their own political parties than in regard to others. They should adhere to their convictions and to the truth, even if such a course result in defeat. There should be such a conscience in civil and political life that men in the service of the government will be just as sincere and energetic in accomplishing their work as if they were laboring for their own welfare as private citizens. We should all go into politics with the party we think is right and do what we can to make this government what we think it ought to be; then we would be doing our duty to ourselves and to our neighbors."

EDDY ON SALVATION.

In the Unitarian Thought It Simply Means Growth.

Rev. Frank Pay Eddy of the Unitarian church preached on salvation yesterday morning, and in the course of his discourse said: "In the Unitarian thought, salvation means simply growth. But do not think this is a simple thought because it is a simple one. Salvation by the law of the government will be just as sincere and energetic in accomplishing their work as if they were laboring for their own welfare as private citizens. We should all go into politics with the party we think is right and do what we can to make this government what we think it ought to be; then we would be doing our duty to ourselves and to our neighbors."

CHRISTMAS COMING; CHILDREN HAPPY

Heavy Preparation in Anticipation Of a Tremendous Holiday Season.

The world over, children are loved. Absorbed for eleven months in the cares of business and home, parents are satisfied merely to know that they are all right, for their prattle and boisterous laughter are continuously heard, and certain mischievous doings compel attention. It is not until the eleventh month that the children occupy our constant thoughts.

December, then, is children's month; the best in the whole year—a month of affection. In that month children reign supreme. We listen that we may learn their little wishes. The older ones tell the family talk it over, and sometimes in whispers. The final night we tread softly.

It is well. The children are our light; they are our joy. They are our better natures and make us gentle. Their little ways amuse and brighten us. It is for their concern that we anxiously peer into their pathway and seek to discern if possible some welcome beacon to direct them along right paths. We are ever hoping that we may do well by them; that others will stress in their pathway an occasional flower. All the time we are loving them, but affection is more manifest in December.

Just another month—then December. Old Santa Claus is still around the bend though the silver jingle does not carry this far. But we know that he is coming.

Therefore the uppermost question is: Where in Salt Lake will he stop this time?

At Keith-O'Brien's. Sure he will sure he will.

For weeks laden with boxes and crates have been moving slowly from the freight yards to the warehouse in street of their pathway and long into the night. Scores of men and women are sorting toys and marking prices.

At the big store the floor below shows marked activity. The range of Christmas cooking utensils and minor utilities are being changed to a new location, to make room for the toys. This year additional room is required. The year additional room is required. The year additional room is required. The year additional room is required.

Up in the big store is a myriad of tempting gifts for grownup children, for parents, sisters and brothers, uncles, aunts and grandparents—for sweethearts, for friends. To dwell on these things would be a long story. But the elegant gifts are the delight of the shopper and tempt the purse.

Yes, Christmas is coming in a little while and we will be in the midst and hurry of the holiday rush.
