

All About the Pulse.

Every intelligent person should know how to ascertain the state of the pulse in health; then by comparing it with what it was when he was ailing, he may have some idea of the case. Parents should know the healthy pulse of each child, as now and then a person is born with a remarkably slow or fast pulse, and the very case in hand may be of that peculiarity. An infant's pulse is 140; a child of seven about 80; and from 20 to 60 years it is 70 beats a minute, declining to 60 at four score. A healthful grown person's pulse beats 70 times a minute. There may be good health down to 60; but if the pulse always exceeds 70, there is a disease. The machine is working itself out; there is fever and inflammation somewhere, and the body is feeding on itself—as in consumption, when the pulse is quick, that is, over 60, gradually increasing with decreased chances of cure until it reaches 110 or 120, when death comes before many days. When the pulse is over 70 for months, and there is a slight cough, the lungs are affected.—St. Louis Republican.

What Might Have Been Heard.

Almost any day during the Centennial, a knot of physicians might have been seen gathered around the elegant glass case, standing in the Main Building in which Benson's Capcine Porous Plaster was exhibited, discussing its merits and superiority over other porous plasters, and the listener might have heard words of warm praise fall from their lips as they spoke of the revolution it would likely effect in remedies for diseases treated externally, such as rheumatism, lame and weak back, sprain and bruises, and all aches and pains of a local nature. With these opinions the Centennial jurors, who were also learned physicians, were in perfect accord, and awarded the manufacturers of Benson's Capcine Plaster the only medal given to porous plasters. To avoid fraud see that the word Capcine is cut through each plaster. Sold every where. Price 25 cents.

BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER

was invented to overcome the great objection ever found to the old style of porous plasters, that of slow action in bringing relief. Benson's Capcine Porous Plaster relieves pain at once and cures quickly. It imparts a sensation of gentle and stimulating warmth and brings rest and comfort to the sufferer.

Great Excitement in Sixth Avenue

The people of this city and vicinity seemed to truly appreciate the enterprise of our friend Crittenton of 7 Sixth Avenue, who has, at a large expense, purchased that popular article now known as HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND AND TAR, for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Difficult Breathing, and all Affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and lungs, leading to consumption. We understand that the article has performed some wonderful cures, and that its merits are heralded from one to another in this country, the same as they were in Europe when manufactured and prescribed by Dr. Hale, the originator of the same. It is now sold by all Druggists, in New York, Brooklyn, Newark, N. J., Jersey City, Hoboken, and in fact, all over the country, at 50 cents and $1 per bottle. Great saving by buying large size. Unprecedented Success.

THE Singer Manufacturing Company sold, in the year 1878, 356,432 machines, an excess over any previous year of 72,620, and nearly 1,000 machines per day, notwithstanding the great depression in business and the fact that numerous bogus and imitation machines have been thrust upon the market. The Singer has taken the first prize over all of its competitors more than 200 times, and the Company now has nearly Three Million machines in use. BEWARE of bogus and imitation machines, which are sold by irresponsible parties, and can be detected by the absence of our patented trade mark containing the words "The Singer Manufacturing Company" on the side of the arm.

WAR AND GOLD.—A hotel war based on gold prices. In order to accommodate both classes of travelers, the Grand Central Hotel on Broadway, New York, is now kept on both plans, the American at $2.50 to $3.00, and the European at $1.00 and upwards, per day. An elegant restaurant, at moderate prices, is conducted by the Hotel.

Nothing Short of Unmistakable Benefits

Conferred upon tens of thousands of sufferers could originate and maintain the reputation which AYER'S SARSAPARILLA enjoys. It is a compound of the best vegetable alteratives, with the Iodides of Potassium and Iron, and is the most effectual of all remedies for scrofulous, mercurial or blood disorders. Uniformly successful and certain in its remedial effects, it produces rapid and complete cures of Scrofula, Sores, Boils, Humors, Pimples, Eruptions, Skin Diseases, and all disorders arising from impurity of the blood. By its invigorating effects it always relieves and often cures Liver Complaints, Female Weaknesses and Irregularities, and is a potent renewer of vitality. For purifying the blood it has no equal. It tones up the system, restores and preserves the health, and imparts vigor and energy. For forty years it has been in extensive use, and is to-day the most available medicine for the suffering sick, anywhere.

THE scarcity of Diamonds, Gold and Silver, and the difficulties met with in securing them, is a sure indication of their value.

Thus it is with a valuable medicine: Dr. Aug. Kaiser's Celebrated German Pulmonic Elixir, through the jealousy of rivals, has met with the most bitter opposition, and apparently almost insurmountable obstacles have been thrown in its way; but its opponents might as well try to change the course of the sun, sweep back the ocean with a broom or put out a prairie fire with a tear.

For the cure of Throat and Lung diseases, such as Coughs, Colds, Consumption and Bronchial Affections, it is unequalled. Its cures are truly magical. Ask your Druggist for it. The genuine bears the Prussian Coat of Arms, the facsimile signature of Dr. Aug. Kaiser, and has his name blown on every 75 cent bottle. Trial bottle, 25 cents.

Somebody's Child.

Somebody's child is dying—dying with the flush of hope on his young face and an indescribable yearning to live and take an honored place in the world beside the companions of his youth. And somebody's mother is thinking of the time when that dear face will be hidden where no ray of hope can brighten it—when her heart and home will be left desolate—because there was no cure for consumption. Reader, if the child be your neighbor's, take this comforting word to the mother's heart before it is too late. Tell her that consumption is curable, that men are living to-day, aged, robust men, whom the physicians pronounced incurable at the age of 25, because one lung had been almost destroyed by the disease. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a most efficient alternative for separating the scrofulous matter from the blood and lungs, and imparting strength to the system. It has cured hundreds of consumptives. dsw
