

THE EDMUNDS BILL.

The Edmunds bill as it passed the Houses of Congress and will be presented to the President for his approval:

A BILL.

AMEND SECTION 5352 OF THE REVISED STATUTES OF THE UNITED STATES, IN REFERENCE TO BIGAMY AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 5352 of the Revised Statutes of the United States be, and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows, to-wit:

Every person who has a husband or wife living, who, in a territory or other place over which the United States have exclusive jurisdiction, hereafter marries another, whether married or single, and any man who hereafter simultaneously, or on the same day, marries more than one woman, in a territory or other place over which the United States have exclusive jurisdiction, is guilty of bigamy, and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $500 and by imprisonment for a term of not more than five years; but this section shall not extend to any person by reason of any former marriage, whose husband or wife by such marriage shall have been absent for five successive years, and is not known to such person to be living, and is believed by such person to be dead, or to any person by reason of any former marriage which shall have been dissolved by a valid decree of a competent court, nor to any person by reason of any former marriage which shall have been pronounced void by a valid decree of a competent court, on the ground of nullity of the marriage contract.

SEC. 2.—That the foregoing provisions shall not affect the prosecution, or punishment, of any offense already committed against the section amended by the first section of this act.

SEC. 3.—That if any male person, in a territory or other place over which the United States have exclusive jurisdiction, hereafter cohabits with more than one woman, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $300, or by imprisonment for not more than six months, or by both said punishments, in the discretion of the court.

SEC. 4.—That count for any or all of the offenses named in sections one and two of this act may be joined in the same information or indictment.

SEC. 5.—That in any prosecution for bigamy, polygamy, or unlawful cohabitation, under any statute of the United States, it shall be sufficient cause of challenge to any person drawn or summoned as a juror, or as a witness, first, that he is or has been living in the practice of bigamy, polygamy or unlawful cohabitation with more than one woman, or that he is or has been guilty of an offense punishable by either of the foregoing sections, or by section 5352 of the Revised Statutes of the United States, or the act of July 1st, 1862, entitled "An act to punish and prevent the practice of polygamy in the Territories of the United States and other places, and disapproving and annulling certain acts of the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Utah; and, second, that he believes it right for a man to have more than one living and undivorced wife at the same time, or to live in the practice of cohabiting with more than one woman; and any person appearing or offered as a juror or witness, and challenged on either of the foregoing grounds, may be questioned on his oath as to the existence of any such cause of challenge, and other evidence may be introduced bearing upon the question raised by such challenge; and this question shall be tried by the court. But as to the first ground of challenge before mentioned, the person challenged shall not be bound to answer if he shall say upon his oath that he declines on the ground that his answer may tend to criminate himself; and if he shall answer as to said first ground, his answer shall not be given in evidence in any criminal prosecution against him for any offense named in sections 1 or 3 of this act; but if he declines to answer on any ground, he shall be rejected as incompetent.

SEC. 6.—That the President is hereby authorized to grant amnesty to such classes of offenders, guilty before the passage of this act, as he may deem proper.

bigamy, polygamy, or unlawful cohabitation, on such conditions and under such limitations as he shall think proper; but no such amnesty shall have effect unless the conditions thereof shall be complied with.

SEC. 7.—That the issue of bigamous or polygamous marriages, known as Mormon marriages in cases in which such marriages have been solemnized according to the ceremonies of the Mormon sect, in any Territory of the United States, and such issue shall have been born before the first day of January, A. D. 1883, are hereby legitimated.

SEC. 8.—That no polygamist, bigamist, or any person cohabiting with more than one woman, and no woman cohabiting with any of the persons described as aforesaid in this section, in any Territory or other place over which the United States have exclusive jurisdiction, shall be entitled to vote at any election held in any such Territory or other place, or be eligible for election or appointment to or be entitled to hold any office or place of public trust, honor, or emolument in, under, or for any such Territory or place or under the United States.

SEC. 9.—That all the registration and election offices of every description in the Territory of Utah are hereby declared vacant, and each and every duty relating to the registration of voters, the conduct of elections, the receiving or rejection of votes, and the canvassing and returning of the same, and the issuing of certificates or other evidence of election in said Territory, shall, until other provision be made by the Legislative Assembly of said Territory as is hereinafter by this section provided, be performed under the existing laws of the United States and of said Territory by proper persons, who shall be appointed to execute such offices and perform such duties by a board of five persons, to be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, not more than three of whom shall be members of one political party, a majority of whom shall be a quorum. The members of said board so appointed by the President shall each receive a salary at the rate of $3,000 per annum, and shall continue in office until the Legislative Assembly of said Territory shall make provision for filling said offices as hereinafter authorized. The secretary of the Territory shall be the secretary of said board, and keep a journal of its proceedings, and attest the action of said board under this section. The canvass and return of all the votes at elections in said Territory for members of the Legislative Assembly thereof shall also be returned to said board, which shall canvass all such returns and issue certificates of election to those persons who, being eligible for such election, shall appear to have been lawfully elected, which certificates shall be the only evidence of the right of such persons to sit in such Assembly, provided said board of five persons shall not exclude any persons otherwise eligible to vote from the polls, on account of any opinion such person may entertain on the subject of bigamy or polygamy; nor shall they refuse to count any such vote on account of the opinion of the person casting it on the subject of bigamy or polygamy; but each house of such Assembly, after its organization, shall have power to decide upon the elections and qualifications of its members. And a, or after the first meeting of said Legislative Assembly whose members shall have been elected and returned according to the provisions of this act, said Legislative Assembly may make such laws, conformable to the Organic Act of said Territory, and not inconsistent with other laws of the United States, as it shall deem proper concerning the filling of the offices in said Territory declared vacant by this act.

AN ACT.

FURTHER DEFINING THE DUTIES OF COUNTY CLERKS.

SECTION 1.—Be it enacted by the Governor and Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Utah, That the Clerk of each County Court is hereby required to keep an accurate account of all receipts and expenditures of his county, also of all debts payable to and by said county. At the session of the County Court annually during the June term thereof, the County Clerk shall submit to the said court a statement showing the total amount received from each source of revenue during the fiscal year ending on the thirty first day of May next preceding, the balance, if any, in the treasury, at the close of the previous fiscal year, the expenditures during the fiscal year just closed, specifying separately the total amount paid to each officer and the total amount for each and every disbursement, the balance on hand, if any, together with a statement of all the debts payable to and by said County. The said court shall thereupon audit said statement, and the County Clerk shall within ten days from the close of said auditing publish a true copy of said statement as approved by the County Court in some news paper having general circulation in the county, and by posting up the said copy in his office, and shall keep said copy posted up during the year, and shall also biennially, on or before the first day of November, send a correct copy of each year's report to the auditor of Public Accounts.

A neglect of any of these duties by the Clerk of any County Court shall render him liable to a fine in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars.

SEC. 2.—It is hereby made the duty of the Auditor of Public Accounts to receive the financial statements mentioned in section one of this act, to carefully examine and audit the same, and during the first two weeks of the session of the Legislative Assembly to present them to the Legislative Assembly.

SEC. 3.—Chapter twenty eight Laws of Utah, 1880, is hereby repealed.

FRANCIS M. LYMAN,

Speaker of the House.

JOSEPH F. SMITH,

President of the Council.

HE DID NOT MINCE MATTERS.

A representative of the Lynn (Mass.) Item, in a late ramble throughout that city, gathered among other scraps of interest and information, the following: The first place visited by the reporter was the fruit store of Mr. J. Levett No. 67 Market street, in response to a rumor that the proprietor had been cured of the rheumatism by the great remedy. Mr Levett not being in, the reporter had a talk with his son. Mr. Levett stated that his father had been cured of an exceedingly bad attack of rheumatism by the St. Jacobs Oil. He had the disease in his right arm and shoulder, which became perfectly helpless after being affected a few hours. His pain was so great that he could not rest in comfort or attend to business with any degree of satisfaction. After enduring this sort of thing for some time, he purchased a bottle of the Great German Remedy and began to apply it. He did not mince matters at all, but just used the Oil for all it was worth. After pursuing this mode of treatment for three days the pain was banished and his father was in a perfectly healthy condition. He has never since felt any rheumatic pain.
