THE EVENING NEWS.

Thursday, December 23, 1875.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Schools of Davis County.

SALT LAKE CITY,
Dec. 22, 1875.

Editor Deseret News:

The following report of education in Davis County was very kindly furnished me by Mr. Chester Call, the County Superintendent of Common Schools, and is submitted to you for publication—

"BOUNTIFUL, Davis Co.,
"Dec. 18, 1875.

"Mr. O. H. Riggs, Territorial Superintendent of Common Schools.

"Dear Sir—Having just returned from visiting the schools in this county, I sit down to give you a synopsis of our school interest.

"On Monday, the 13th, in company with Bishop Anton Call, I visited five schools in Bountiful, and found all doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances. The houses and furniture are generally in a dilapidated condition, and some of the teachers in the same fix. The last remark will apply to other places in the county beside Bountiful, but all seem to be doing their best, although we have not such a corps of teachers as I could wish.

"In Bountiful there are new seven schools in session, numbering 327 pupils, out of a school population of 644, being taught by nine teachers.

"On the 14th I visited Centerville, and there found two passable schools in session, with good houses and fair furniture; school population 148, enrolled 83.

"On the 15th visited Farmington, where the Bishop, John W. Hess, and trustees accompanied me. There are four schools in session, and one more that will open on the 20th of the present month.

"They have two good rock houses, two adobie, one good, the other good for nothing, and one log house, which is comfortable. The furniture in three of the houses does very well, but in the other two there are no conveniences whatever for the children. School population 393; enrolled 195.

"On the 16th visited Kaysville, where I found three very good brick houses, but two of them are just completed and will not be opened for schools until after holidays. The houses are really a credit to the people of Kaysville, and speak well for the enterprising trustees. The largest of the three houses was finished last year, and is 33 x 55 ft. inside. In company with Bishop Christopher Layton, the trustees, and several prominent citizens of the ward, we visited this house and found 115 pupils, two teachers, and the best choir in Davis County, going through their lessons in their usual manner, and in good style. The people here are making rapid strides in educational matters.

"On the 18th went to South Weber, found no school in session, but found one of the trustees, and got the following information—There are 38 scholars in the district, and all have been attending school at least six months during the past school year. In the afternoon went to Hooperville. This district has no school house, but has levied a tax of 1 per cent., and expects to build next Spring. The division line of Davis and Weber counties runs through the town of Hooperville. In the early days of the town they built a house on the Weber side, and thirty of the children on the Davis county side are attending school in that house. Their school population is 103, and if children are anything to go by you can see that they need a school house. Every school house in the county is provided with a set of Spencerian writing charts, and primary charts for the children. As a general thing the school officers and leading men of the county are interesting themselves very much in educational matters. The people were very much disappointed in not seeing your smiling face, as they fully expected to do so; but I excused you as best I could, and told them that you would probably visit them in February. But come when you may you will be made welcome by the trustees, teachers, students and all."

I am further informed by Mr. Call that the greatest want of that county is good teachers; though partially supplied with such, still, the majority are but mediocres in the profession. Judge Smith and Bishops Call and Hess, and other leading men in the county, appear to fully appreciate this lack and have already taken steps to, at least, partially supply the county with a better class of teachers. The County Court has made an appropriation to pay the tuition of four students in the normal department of the University of Deseret. These students have been selected from the four wards, viz., Bountiful, Centreville, Farmington and Kaysville, and are now in regular attendance at that institution. If some other counties that are not represented in this Normal School would follow the example of Davis county, it would be very much to their interest.

O. H. RIGGS,
Ter. Supt. Common Schools.

Rocky Mountain Pills.

A VALUABLE MEDICINE,

From New and Rare Medicinal Plants recently discovered in the Rocky Mountains!

PURELY VEGETABLE.

FIFTEEN years of earnest botanical research among these mountains and valleys have resulted in the discovery, and only of many new varieties of plants, but of new species, some of which have wonderful medicinal curative properties. By continued experiment their virtues have become known—and thus from extracts of these newly discovered plants are these pills compounded.

If properly used, they will cure very many diseases, pains and aches, and are more especially valuable in DYSPEPSIA, LIVER COMPLAINTS, INDIGESTION, JAUNDICE, and all cases of FEVERS, COLDS, URINARY AND KIDNEY Diseases, RHEUMATISM, SOFTNESS, HEARTBURN, CLAMMINESS, MUMPS, MEASLES, for PURIFYING the BLOOD, and for many other diseases, and all cases of BILLOUSNESS and DISORDERED STOMACH.

On orders accompanied by the cash or postal order, I will send safely by mail postpaid, 1 box Pills for 25 cents; 4 dozen boxes, $2.50; 1 gross boxes, $20.00.
